Local Sandlot Elevens Begin Heavy Training

Of early practice is any indication the Division of Amateur Sports of the Bureau of Recreation is in for one of its biggest football seasons.

Easterwood, Carroll and Druid Hill Parks and P.S. 122, have been buzzing with training activities during the past several weeks. Enthusiasm is particularly keen at Easterwood Park where the Bureau expects to operate several leagues.

The Royal Mustangs, defending city unlimited champions, have been out under Coach Preston Harris's direction, priming for what they expect to be a much tougher grind than last season. Last year's runner-up Imperial Sportsmen have been working out in Carroll Park.

Spartans, Bears Busy

Spartans A.C. and the Harlem Bears, who hope to regain past Monumental Unlimited League glory after a year of independent football also have been going through training paces according to reports.

The Hurricanes can be seen drilling almost daily at Easterwood. With them have been the Jr. Hilicks and the Zodiacs.

The Bureau of Recreation has indicated plans to operate leagues for unlimited (no age limit), senior (21 years and under and not over 185 lbs.), intermediate (18 years and under and not over 180 lbs.), and junior (16 years and under and not over 150 lbs.) Ages are determined as of September 15th.

Organization Meeting

Each league must have four teams to operate. Any four may form their own league. Leagues will be organized at Cherry Hill, Druid Hill Park, Carroll and Easterwood Parks.

The Bureau will operate a training school at its weekly meetings for managers and other team representatives.

The first organization meeting is scheduled for Monday, August 27th at the Bureau of Recreation, 1120 N. Calvert Street. All teams who are interested in playing in leagues this season should be represented at this meeting.

Bobby Lee Returns Monday, Will Box 'Frisco Slugger

Taking a drop back toward normal after the Joe Louis-Jimmy Bivins show, the Supreme A.C., wishing together Baltimore's Bobby Lee and Charley Early of San Francisco, at the Coliseum Monday night.

For the past several years, Bobby has been almost alone in holding up Baltimore's boxing prestige in other centers. He has been in the spotlight battling champions and challengers from Chicago to Cuba. That's a pretty good cut above the normal level.

Lee fought Sugar Ray Robinson and made such a good showing he earned a second battle with the brilliant Sugar. He tangled with Kid Gavilan, welterweight kingpin, in a brilliant brawl in Havana. He turned in a sizzling outing with Freddie Dayson, a top contender, in Chicago.

A few weeks ago, Bobby made one of his best showings when he clashed with Gene Burton at Richmond and scored an upset victory over the highly-rated Gene. That one points up the fact that Lee is now at the top of his form.

There seems to be a good chance that Lee will be forced along to his best pace in the attempt to get by Early. The San Franciscan, a stranger to these parts, is no newcomer. Charley has fought 89 battles since he started boxing pro in 1941. Of these he won 45, scoring 16 knockouts. He battled to 10 draws and has lost only 14 in the long stretch. His best win was over Art Jagon, top rated Westerner.

Turpin, Middleweight King, Arrives in N.Y.

NEW YORK — Middleweight champion Randy Turpin debarked early Monday morning from the Queen Mary, here to begin preparation for the Sept. 12 title defense against Sugar Ray Robinson.

Flanked by a party of 22 persons, including two brothers, manager, trainer, sparmates and British journalists; the 23-year-old 160 pound titleholder wore a plain, businesslike suit; a faded beret and an accent which American newspapermen are expected to find puzzling to say the least.

Randy was in gay spirits and full of confidence that he can again whip the Harlem Sugarboy, whom he divested of his title in London last month. His only evidence of dejection seemed to be in the disappointment of not aving seen the Statue of Liberty as his ship entered New York harbor.

It was explained that young Turpin had been cornered on the far side of the ship for an interview during the time the vessel was passing the statue.

Asked whether the Robinson fight was his toughest, Turpin shocked newsmen with his, "No." He said he thought his hardest bout was the one with Cyril Delhanoit.

"Robinson is very good though," he declared. "He mixes the European defense with an American offense and that makes him a good fighter."

Twin-Feature For Stock Car Fans

A double-feature stock car racing show, offering two 25-lap feature races, will be staged at the Ritchie Raceway tonight starting at 8:30.

The initial test is being presented as a carry-over from last Friday's inaugural program in which the scheduled feature was called off due to a power failure in the portable lighting system.

Following the opening 25-lapper, the regular card will be staged, which includes three qualifying heats of ten laps each, a 15-lap consolation for those cars which failed to place in the qualifying events, and the closing 25-lap feature.

TRENTON — Eighteen-year-old Walt Brown, a right - handed pitcher who has also played the outfield, was given a tryout as a pitcher by the New York Yankees at their stadium in New York City on Monday.

Brown, now playing with the Trenton Warriors in the Central Jersey League, formerly played on the Trenton High School and Schroths teams. He lives at 24 Seward Ave.

Thomas 1-Hitter Blanks Athletes

With E. Thomas tossing a one-hitter, the Northwest Stars captured the playoff game of the second half in P. S. 122's unlimited softball league, defeating the Athletes, 10-0.

Thomas pitched perfect ball for four innings, until Tubby Pinkey rammed a triple to deep right for the only blow of the afternoon off Stars' ace flinger. Thomas issued three bases on balls.

While the Northwest hurler was solding the opposing batsmen in check, his teammates were shelling the Athletes' Johnny Sheppard from the hill with a nine-hit attack that netted all their runs.

Gibby Brooks took over in the fourth and allowed no runs and but one hit.

N. Thomas, playing captain of the Stars, was the batting standout of the day. He garnered three hits in four trips, including a single, double and triple.
