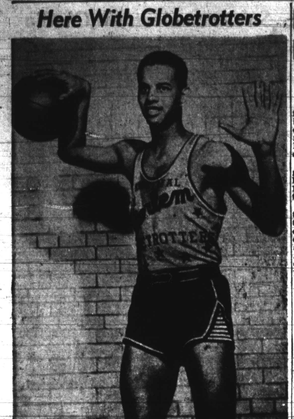
Here With Globetrotters



Bill (Rookie) Brown, ex-Washington Bears ager, who will be in the lineup when the Harlem Globetrotters meet the All Stars, August 26 at 8:30 p.m. in Griffith Stadium in a tour of baseball parks.

Barbers Reach Playoff Finals

Oust Arundels; Intercity Play Set

Scoring eight runs in the first four innings, Pinkney Howell's Barber Institute rolled to a 15-4 victory over the Arundels Sunday and reached the finals in the Bureau of Recreation's Special Consolation double elimination tournament.

The Arundels dropped an early game on the same day at Druid Hill Park to the Westside Royals, 12-5, and were thus eliminated from the tournament.

The Royals, unbeated in this tourney between the bottom five teams in the Monumental Unlimited League, advanced to the finals on the strength of Sunday's win and a previous victory over Cobra A.C. The Royals need only one win over the Barbers to take the trophy.

The Barbers, last year's consolation champs must win two from the Royals to repeat. The first game is scheduled Sunday at Druid Hill Park No. 2 at 1 p.m. A second game if necessary, will be played at 3:30 p.m., on the same diamond.

Intercity Playoff Sept. 1

The Baltimore—Washington Intercity Unlimited championship game was set this week with the Westside Eagles, Baltimore champions, journeying to Washington, D.C., on Saturday, September 1 to meet the Washington Royals, District champions for the second straight year, at Bamekee Center, 8:30 p.m.

A following is expected to accompany the Eagles by bus for the intercity match.

The Royals spanked Baltimore's champions Eastside A.A., last year in the Monumental City.

Dutch Boone, Eagle manager, feels he can bring this year's trophy back home. The Eagles have dropped only one game this year in league competition.

Mays Honored by Trenton Rooters

TRENTON — Approximately 300 Trentonians converged on Shibe Park in Philadelphia last Friday night to honor Willie Mays, sensational New York Giants rookie who got his start in big league baseball with the Trenton Giants, farm club of the parent team.

Mays was presented with a $250 purse, a plaque and an oil paintings.

The ceremonies were under the auspices of the Carver Center here.

Heading the Trenton delegation were:

Dr. Charles A. Broaddus, who spoke on behalf of the Center; Charles Williams, chairman of the Board of Governors; Cal Williams, chairman of the Willie Mays Committee; Freeholders Stewart O'Donnell and John E. Curry;

Fulton Arnold, sports announcer of radio station WTTM and chairman of the gift committee; City Commissioner Sido L. Ridolfi, Samuel Dorsey, Isabella Moody, Lloyd Harrell, Patsy Buck, Virginia Higgins, Gladys Martin, Virginia Rice, Anne Hill, Robert Vaughn Alonzo Wilson and Helen Lee;

Misses Alice Jackson, Fay Vaughn and Elizabeth Washington; Messrs. and Mesdames Ozie Robinson and son; Borden Jones, Henry Stewart, Williams Richards and son; David McClaine, George Daniels, and George Pickens.

Also Ronald Logan, Joseph Williams, Willard Davis, Sam Gass, William Whaley, Fred Holmes, John Couch, James Floyd and Walter Stearns.

37 Boys Sent by Ike

A group of 37 boys from Carver Center went along in a bus donated by the Williams, former light weight boxing champion of the world, a native of this city.

Dodgers Advance in Junior Tourney

Linwood Stevens's Dodgers A.C., moved to the finals in the winner's bracket of the Bureau of Recreation's City Junior softball championship double elimination tournament Monday, by beating Cherry Hill Lexington's champion Golden Hawks, 10-0, at Easterwood Park.

The Dodgers, idlists in the Easterwood Junior League, previously beat South Baltimore's Bluejays, 9-7.

Herman Gray, Junior Wizards A.C., Taylor League champs, bounced back after losing to the Golden Hawks to eliminate the Bluejays, 7-3, last Friday. The Wizards were slated to go against the Golden Hawks on Wednesday with the winner of this game due to face the Dodgers Friday at Easterwood, 6:15 p.m., in the tournament finals.

A victory over the Dodgers Friday would force a playoff Monday at Easterwood.

Lee Wins Decisive Bout in International Match

WASHINGTON

Norvel Lee, National AAU boxing champion, outgunned Great Britain's Peter Toch in a heavyweight match, enabling the American team to take a 6-4 triumph, Tuesday night in England's Wembley Stadium.

FIRST TAN PLAYER FOR DANVILLE CHEERED

DANVILLE, Va. — William P. Miller, 20-year-old former high school athlete here, was cheered by 2,000 enthusiastic fans when he made his debut last week for the Danville Leafs of the Carolina League by singling two base-runners home from home plate and setting up victory over the Durham Bulls.

Awaiting State Softball Title

Officials of contesting teams meet with the director in the State Softball tournament, as the Crown Cork and Seal team prepares to tangle with the Mohawks for the championship. Winner of the final game, to be played Sunday afternoon at Easterwood tournament at Williamsport, Pa., Labor Day. Left to right are Charles Downs, Crown Cork manager; Harold Jennifer, of the Bureau of Recreation, tournament director; Clarence Brooks, Mohawks manager, and Alonzo Boyd, Crown Cork field manager.

SNOW TIME OR SUNSHINE:

Basketball Is Year-Round Business for the Fabulous Globetrotters

WASHINGTON

The Harlem Globetrotters will be wasting little time launching their tour of baseball parks, when they meet the All Stars, Sunday, at 8:30 p.m., in Griffith Stadium.

The celebrated cage team played its last game in Paris on Thursday, August 23, and will arrive at the New York Idlewild Airport, August 25. Next evening they will start on the first leg of the tour with the District appearance.

Play Year Around

For the past year, the pattern has been the same for the veteran cagers headed by Reece (Goose) Tatum, Louis (Babe) Pressley and Marques Hayes. Following the regular winter season, the Trotters toured the South American countries, and followed it up with a tour of Europe.

The idea of the ball park appearance resulted from a successful tour, first of South America where the Trotters performed before crowds rivaling the average major football turnout. They did encores in Europe and North Africa.

Hold All Cage Records

The Trotters have shattered all existing indoor attendance marks. They attracted 31,641 fans in the rain in Pasadena's Rose Bowl, and set a world attendance mark for basketball when they played before 50,041 in a single game in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil last May 5.

Sunday night's contest will be played on a portable floor installed near home plate. In addition, musical numbers and other entertainment will be offered prior to the contest and at intermission.

Can Be Held Monday

In the event of rain, the contest will be held on Monday night.

The All Stars, coached by George Mikan, will include such standouts as Bones McKinney, ex-Washington Caps coach now with the Boston Celtics; Ray Regalis, Northwestern University forward; Jack Burmaster and Walter Osterkorn, both of Illinois.

Carolina Stars Overhaul Baltimore in N.C. Classic

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. — The Northern All-Stars, represented by the Baltimore Bruins, in a first annual intersectional baseball game against the Southern All-Stars, made up of the top North Carolina semi-pro stars, were beaten in late inning rallies by the Dixie clan, 9-8, after once sporting an 8-0 lead.

A partisan hometown crowd saw the Baltimore sluggers score three runs in the first frame, another three in the third inning, and two more in the top half of the fifth to take a commanding, 8-0, lead.

During this spurt, Haynes (Ghost-em) Cannon, third baseman, Roy (Little Son) Williams, shortstop, Bennie (Lanky) Cunningham, 6-3 centerfielder, and John Jones, left-fielder, banched nine hits, three by cannon and two each by the other stars, to make the game seem a run-away for the Bruins.

However, the Southern All-Stars found their batting eyes in the middle of the game and batted in four runs in the fifth inning, three in the sixth frame, and two in the seventh, to take the lead, 9-8, then hold the visitors scoreless the rest of the game on the one-hit relief pitching by William (Lefty Bill) Massey.

In Memoriam 1

DEMAR — In loving memory of our dear mother and sister, LOUISE who passed away August 27, 1946.
No one knows how much we miss you.
No one knows the bitter pains we have suffered since we lost you.
Life has never been the same in our hearts your memory lingers, Sweetly tender, fond and true.
There is not a day, dear mother, That we do not think of you.
LOVING CHILDREN AND SISTERS

LOGAN—In loving memory of my dear daughter, FRANCES XAVIER LOGAN, who passed away August 25, 1946:

There is a sad but sweet remembrance, A pain that is a memory fond and true, There is a token of affection, A place in a heart-shrine for you. We have only your memory, Dear Xavier, To remember our whole life through.
But the sweetness will linger forever, As we treasure the image of you.
THE FAMILY

MASON — In loving memory of my dear mother RHODA J. MASON who passed away three years ago August 25, 1948.
We walked together, you and I, In sorrow and in joy. We shared our pains and happiness, With love without alloy. And Death shall never end our love, For through the mist I see. Our glad reunion in the sky for all eternity. Loving Daughter
MARIE MASON PHILLIPS

MERCER — In Memory of our dear Mother, FANNIE F. and Father, HARRISON MERCER, who GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN.
CHILDREN

ROSS — In memory of our beloved husband and father, WILLIAM A. ROSS, who passed away, August 25, 1948.
It is not easy to lament, It is not hard to mourn your death. You were so true, so full of your trust.
Rest your last sweet breath.
THE FAMILY.

TURNER — In loving memory of our dear mother, EMILINE PENDLETON TURNER, who passed away one year ago, August 25, 1950.
God saw the road was getting rough, The turns hard to bear, He gently closed her loving eyes, And whispered "Peace of Thine."
Her weary hours, her days of pain, Her weary nights are past. Her eyes are closed, her work done, Has found sweet rest at last.
KATHERINE, ETHEL, MABEL, and ELSIE

WHITE — In loving memory of our son and brother, EDGAR, who passed away August 21, 1947.
One day by day the future unwinds to meet the past, "Twill frame anew our memories of you until the last.
THE FAMILY.

Cards of Thanks 2

LUCAS — The family of the late ALVERTA GROSS wishes to thank the pastor, officers and members of Payne Memorial Church and all of the many friends who expressed their sympathy through floral designs, cards, telegrams and other acts of kindness.
Words can not express our gratitude.
