Handicapped Youngsters Thrilled

Youngsters under the care of the Philadelphia Society for Crippled Children and Adults met Del Ennis and Richie Ashburn, Phillies' aces. Shown are Jimmy Lee, Rodney Lazer, Billy Jorgenson and Anthony Pauline. The boys, part of a large group in witness the Phillies-Cincinnati doubleheaders, were guests of the Craft Club, a Masonic social and service organization. The baseball party was arranged by George Levin (rear left) and William Gold, rear right, chairman of the committee and president of the club, respectively.

SCHOOL FRONT BUZZING

Wilkinson's Successor May Be Named Friday

WASHINGTON

The Personnel Committee of the Board of Education may name a successor to Dr. Garnett C. Wilkinson on Friday, Sept. 8.

While the Board does not meet until Sept. 19, the Personnel Committee has a closed meeting scheduled for Friday. Everybody is mum on what the meeting is for. The press is not invited.

There are numerous things that the Personnel Committee might have on its agenda pertaining to the opening of school on Sept. 10, but among the most important and most pressing subjects is that of a successor to Dr. Wilkinson as first assistant superintendent of schools.

What will happen on Friday if the Committee takes up the assistant superintendency is a $64 question. Three candidates, Francis Gregory, Dr. Harold Haynes, and Dr. Ellis O. Knox, lead the parade of applicants for the post.

Mr. Gregory, so far, has the nod of Superintendent Hobard Corning, whose recommendation must be approved, or disapproved, by the Committee and subsequently by the Board of Education.

Committee Split

The committee members, before their vacations, were far from an agreement on the candidates. It is expected that a compromise might be effected, in which case a "dark horse" candidate may be considered.

On other school fronts, some 50,000 students will trek back to their classrooms on Monday.

School Opens Monday

Teachers for Langley who will work under Miss Valerie Chase, principal, have finally been decided upon but up to Thursday their names were not available.

Neither was information available as to just how much money has been secured from Divisions 1-3 to hire teachers to help make up the shortage for Divisions 10-13.

The AFRO learned that up to Tuesday the white school officials had agreed to give up only enough money for 10 teachers. Negotiations were still going on.

What the score is on the overall teacher problem and the overall crowding and teacher load situation is also a matter that nobody would discuss.

Dr. Corning's office said he still has come to no decision as to what he will do with Miss Dorothy Gardner, exchange teacher from England.

Miss Gardner is exchanging with Miss Maxine E. Daly of Gardenia High School.
