HOLLY FOURSOME STAR IN HARLEM MUSICAL

The Damone, Wendell Corey, Danielle Darrieux, Fernando Lamas comprise the happy foursome on the Harlem screen in MGM's jubilant new Technicolor musical, "Rich, Young and Pretty."

Song-filled story of an American girl who lets both Paris and love go to her head, the picture marks Vic's introduction to the screen in a romantic role opposite Miss Powell.

Louis Calhern and Ann Harding, who scored as man and wife in "Two Weeks With Love," once again enact a devoted married couple in "The Magnificent Yankee," the supporting feature, a story of the life of Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes.

The story is more than the portrait of one of the nation's most celebrated jurists. It tells of the love and devotion of a couple through 57 years of marriage.

'DAVID AND BATHSHEBA' NOW AT THE REGENT

The greatest love story in the world from the greatest book of all time—the Bible— is showing at the Regent Theatre.

It is "David and Bathsheba," co-starring Gregory Peck and Susan Hayward, with thousands in the supporting cast.

The story vividly depicts passionate natures, struggling against the burden of convention, as it tells of how David, King of all Israel, is secretly disturbed by his low upbringing and antecedents.

Mocked by his first wife, David is torn by domestic difficulties and the struggles against the nations besetting his country.

SPORTS EPIC ON SCREEN AT ROYAL

"Jim Thorpe — All American," starring Burt Lancaster and Phyllis Thaxter, is currently showing at the Royal.

The picture in which Thorpe, himself, served as technical advisor, describes his career from 1907 to 1932.

Highlighting the production are his brilliant years as a Carlisle star and his great victories at the 1912 Olympic Games in Stockholm, Sweden.

Burt Lancaster and Phyllis Thaxter are co-starred in the film, with Charles Bickford and Steve Cochran heading the big supporting cast.

NBC to Dramatize Story of Public Aid

The story of public assistance, describing how the Federal and State governments join in maintaining family security by giving direct money payments to the needy aged, the blind, the disabled, and children deprived of parental support, will be dramatized in the eighth program in the special weekly radio series, "For You and Yours."

The program will be broadcast by NBC with the cooperation of the Federal Security Agency, on Saturday, September 15, from 7:30 to 8:00 p.m., EDT.

Fetchit to Return in 'Straight' Role

Stepin Fetchit's heralded movie comeback will not find him portraying a "typed" role, an official of United-International Film Company assured a District theater official recently.

Clark-Davis chief booking agent for District Theaters upon learning that Fetchit had been engaged for U-I's coming film "Big Bend" inquired whether the veteran star would be cast in his old-time comedy role.

Television Integrated

The District official pointed out to the film company that television, movies' big competitor had integrated colored persons into all phases of the television industry.

Hence he added it would be detrimental to the best interest of movies to take a backward step since so many fine films had been released portraying colored persons in straight roles.

The United-International public relations office answered Mr. Davis that Mr. Fetchit had a "very important role" in "Big Bend" which stars James Stewart, that would find him playing a straight character part.

Robinson-Turpin Fight Film Showing at Met

An over-flow house, with many turned away greeted Thursday night's initial showing of the Ray Robinson-Randy Turpin middle-weight championship fight film.

The exciting film vclearly gives all of the highlights of the fight held on Wednesday night at the Polo Grounds, New York City.

A Colorful Crowd

Also shown are parts of the colorful crowd of 61,370 fans of all nations; the heated exchange of punches, and the dramatic finish of Turpin in the 10th round, as Robinson regained his title which he lost to Turpin just 64 days ago on Wednesday.

All of the color of the fight is brought to the screen from the opening bell until the referee halted the bout, even showing the pandemonium in and out of the ring.

Rep. Clayton Powell, Wife Seen in London

LONDON — (ANP) — Rep. A. Clayton Powell Jr. (Dem., N.Y.) was seen here this week at the American Embassy, talking with James A. Hamlett Jr., editor of the Philadelphia and assistant safety director in Kansas City, Kan.

The legislator is here on official business for the U.S. Government. Mrs. Powell, known in entertainment and musical circles as Hazel Scott, and their son, accompanied the Congressman to London. She is appearing in a series of recitals.

Coliseum Jazz Concert to Star All Top 'Names'

Wednesday evening, Sept. 19 brings Norman Granz's 11th annual Jazz at the Philharmonic tour to Baltimore's Coliseum.

Spotlighted in the concert group will be 30 celebrated jazz artists headed by Ella Fitzgerald, called by critics and fans alike, "The First Lady of Song."

Grans will also spotlight the world's greatest drummer, and one of the best known jazz figures in the last decade, Gene Krupa, Canadian keyboard wizard Oscar Peterson, who makes his second appearance with the JATP unit here.

ELLA FITZGERALD

Other stars who will appear on the program will include tenor saxophonists Lester Young, Illinois Jacquet and Flip Phillips; trumpeter Roy Eldridge, trombone king Bill Harris, ace-bassist Ray Brown and pianist Hank Jones.

Grans's Jazz at the Philharmonic has established a reputation for presenting the best talent in the land in its nationwide tours, and this year's personnel surpasses all others.

It is the only jazz concert group that has been able to survive the economic conditions that constantly confront jazz attractions on the road.
