

Q. Did she die without a will?

A. She did not leave a will.

Q. Will you state the names of the persons she left surviving her as her heirs-at-law.

A. She left a son, Wilbur Alton Hill, who is unmarried; a son, Henry Hill, Jr., whose wife's name is Arbutus N. Hill; and a son, Charles K. Hill, who lives with me and who is unmarried. We were married at the time of Mrs. Hill's death.

Q. Will you describe the real estate which Mrs. Brashears owned at the time of her death.

A. It is a lot containing about 1 acre of land, improved with an old log, weatherboarded house which has 6 rooms and a kitchen.

Q. In your opinion, would it be possible to divide or partition this real estate among the several parties entitled thereto?

A. No, sir, it could not be divided.

Q. In your opinion, then, it would be for the best interests of the parties in this case that the real estate be sold under a decree of Court and the proceeds of sale be divided among the parties entitled?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What do you believe is the present fair value of this property?

A. About $400 to $500.

To the General Interrogatory: Nothing further.
