ENCORES ...and... ECHOES

By E. B. REA

LOUIS JORDAN played to an audience of 22,450 at the 8th annual Cavalcade of Jazz held recently at Wrigley Field, Los Angeles . . . He drew an approximate 45,000, in addition, on a 30 one-nighters tour . . . WILLA MAE (Big Mama) Thornton, blues shouter with the Johnny Otis orchestra, tips the scales just shy of the 250-pound mark . . . LESLIE UGGAMS, nine-year-old singing star, was discovered by Ella Fitzgerald while she (Leslie) was singing on the Paul Whiteman teen-age show in Philadelphia.

AMANDA RANDOLPH, who plays the mean mother-in-law in the Amos 'n' Andy series, was a vocalist in Noble Sissle and Eubie Blake's original "Shuffle Along" and "Chocolate Dandies." Her son, Joseph O. Randolph, is a member of the U.S. Air Force, March Field, Calif. She has been dubbed with the name "Madame Show Business" . . . HATTIE McDANIEL will again be heard in the title role of "Beulah" when the show returns to the air Aug. 25.

NAT COLE's Capitol disk, "Too Young," listed among the eight top platters of the year in New Zealand . . . GEORGE BANNISTER, Trenton, N.J., disk jockey and promoter, seeking $275 from singer Dinah Washington for failing to fulfill a date under his promotion . . . MAJOR ROBINSON, ex-AFRO and Ebony, added to Sheldon Music, Gale Agency publishing firm, to edit its rhythm and blues record catalogue . . . MILT BUCKNER's piano trio, tees-off on tour in Sept.

HERB GORDY to present his 39-piece interracial orchestra in a concert, Sept. 14, in Philadelphia . . . DOROTHY DANDRIDGE played Club Alhambra, Cleveland, Ohio, two weeks at $1,500 per. Her first week's check bounced, but Dot stayed on. Now, MCA (Music Corporation of America) and AGVA (America Guild of Variety Artists) are trying to unscramble the situation. Meanwhile Alhambra has closed . . . BING CROSBY's "Riders in the Sky" leading the American record field in Italy. Others whose disks are on the preferred list are Ella Fitzgerald, Sonny Parker, Jimmy Brewer, The Spots, Louis Armstrong and Duke Ellington.

BILLY ECKSTINE-George Shearing-Count Basie concert package to play Baltimore and Washington during November . . . BEN BART's Universal Attractions move to Park Avenue next week. Bosses are Bart, Dick Boone and Jack Klotz; secretaries, Audrey Dean and Clarie Holmes; p.a., Ted Yates; Louis Parkinson, auditor, on the lan side; secretaries, Shirley Sharmin, Lee Cugat and Vivian Curkin (sec. to Parkinson); Deby Coombs, record reviewer, on the white side.

KANSAS CITY, KANS., has joined the list of cities with colored-owned-operated radio stations as KPRS prepares to bow in. Others are located at Atlanta, Ga., and Nashville, Tenn. . . MANHATTAN PAUL, N.Y. emcee, planning an all-colored show at the Newark Opera House, Newark, N.J., on Sept. 16 . . . MURIEL GAINES, songstress, due to open her own Cafe Society in Paris on Friday, the 29th on the spot of the old Boule Blanche in Montparnasse . . . DUKE ELLINGTON takes his 20 - piece orchestra into Cleveland's Towne Casino on Sept. 31.

ARTHUR DEE SIMPKINS stood 'em in the aisles for three weeks at Amato's Supper Club, Portland, Oregon . . . PHILIP GARCIA, 69, father of calypso singing, and known as Lord Executioner, died in Port of Spain, Trinidad, on Aug. 16 . . . LENA HORNE due to return from Europe on Sept. 11, and will vacation in California before hitting the entertainment boards . . . BILL KENNY reported reforming the Ink Spots. Herbert Kenny, Bill's brother; Billy Bowen, Charlie Fuquay and Teddy Williams, all left the unit within the past year.

Jack Parlance plays the leading man opposite Joan Crawford in "Sudden Fear," opening Thursday at the Met.

Kemp Pushing Efforts To Make Choir Concert Click

Charles M. Kemp, an honor student at Morgan State College, has been recently appointed as publicity director of the Young People's Community Choir.

In his new post, he is attempting to draw a capacity audience to the choir's final concert on September 16, at Bethel AME Church, Druid Hill ave. and Lanvale st. of which the Rev. Harrison J. Bryant is minister.

Kemp's initial efforts involves the mailing of circulars, letters, cards and other materials in an attempt to obtain the support of many churches and civic organizations.

High Scholastic Average

A writer, poet, musician and founder - director of Kemp's Concert Band, Charles, as a scholarship student to Morgan has a scholastic average of about ninety-five (2.6).

"Chuck" Richards, popular disc jockey, will serve as narrator at this the final concert by Shellman Johnson's youthful group and the final appearance for its founder-director, Shellman Johnson, and pianist, Sophie Williams, both of whom are leaving for Central State (Wilberforce), in September on full scholarships.

John M. Dungee, baritone, will be guest artist. Mr. Dungee, a widely known artist, has sung as guest soloist with the Baltimore City Orchestra.

Singer Spencer Touring Europe

HAMBURG, Germany (ANP)—Kennnethe Spencer, baritone, sang here last week. Later he went to Stockholm. He returns here soon for two concerts.

Spencer will do a recital of modern German music for the Berlin Festival, Sept. 8. He states he will be traveling in northern Europe until November when he hopes to get back to Paris where his wife and little boy are living.

Spin Label Opens In Record Field

HOLLYWOOD — Newest to enter the recording field is Spin label operated by songwriter-composer Otis Rene and band leader Preston Love, who formerly appeared with the Lionel Hampton and Johnny Otis orchestras.

Rene, who co-authored the spiritual, "Sleepy Time Down South," has written countless, popular song hits and was, a decade ago, the first of his race to head a recording company in Hollywood.

O'Neal And Bozan In 'Miss Mabel'

NEW YORK — Fred O'Neal and Alonzo Bozan will play top roles in Abraham Hill's all-tan version of the stage play, "Miss Mabel."

Nine States, 1,500 Miles Covered By Tourist Group

A group of Baltimoreans, joined by a few out-of-towners, completed their fifth annual vacation tour this month—this one having taken them 1,500 miles and through nine states outside Maryland.

The bus tour covered parts of Pennsylvania, New York, Vermont, New Hampshire, Maine, Massachusetts, Connecticut, New Jersey and Delaware.

High spots of the groups trip included stops in Syracuse, N.Y., Alexandria Bay for a guided tour of the Thousand Islands and the St. Lawrence river, the mountains of Vermont, New England villages, Portland, Me., and a visit of the islands in the Casco bay, and sight-seeing in New York City.

Other main stops included Albany N.Y., Boston, Mass., and Bridgeport, Conn.

The group, headed by Christian Kolam, who was assisted by Harry Newton, left Baltimore on Aug. 2 and returned on Aug. 11. The tourist included:

Mr. and Mrs. Frast Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Harcum, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tibbs, Mr. and Mrs. Levy Jefferson, Mr. and Mrs. William Addison, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith, Mr. and Mrs. John Freeland, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. William B. Dorsey.

Mesdames Harry Newton, Christian Kolam, Gladys Dowery, Victoria Stearns, Carrie Taylor, Pauline Thompson, Octavia Branch, Frances Bealey, Anna Evangelista, Susie Washington, Molly Stewart, Anna Dorsey (Ruxton, Md.), La Bethel Ways (Philadelphia, Pa.), Lillie M. Thompson, Katie Sheppard, Mary Wells, Alice Morell, and Fannie Hall (Long Island, N.Y.).

Mesdames Alice Coleman, Marie Gibson, Louisa Hall, Catherine Jasmin, Cora Pinkett, Grace Crump, Julia Conway and Anna Edmonds.

Others in Party

Misses Betty Hall (Bronx, N.Y.) Marian P. Clay, Lillian Clark, Victoria Murray, Alice Flowers, Lilly Peeker, Bernadette Rogers, Mary Dorsey and Geraldine Thomas:

Charles Brown, Ellsworth Bedforth, William Carroll, Richard Robinson, Howard Turner, William Arthur and Marshall Bright.

Youngsters on the trip included Grayson Williams, Lawrence Newton, Christian Kolam and Charles Rogers.
