Jeanne Scott Re-Elected By Iota Phi Lambda

9 Months Singing in the USA

By Lulu Jones Garrett

VITAL SATISTICS

Married: Dr. James Pinney, formerly of the Morgan State College faculty, now head of the department of education, graduate school, North Carolina College, and Frances M. Holland, June graduate of Morgan, in Baltimore; the Rev. Joseph F. Abrams, Denton, Md. and Mrs. Daisy Conner, Annapolis, Md., in Baltimore; J. Nelson Logan and Miss Martha Noriega, both teachers in Baltimore;

Uriel D. Gunthorpe, son of Dr. and Mrs. Uriel Gunthorpe of New Rochelle, N.Y., and Elaine Hamilton, granddaughter of nationally-known club woman Julia West Hamilton, niece of Col. West A. Hamilton, retired US[illegible] Washington; Arthur E. Chi[illegible] of Louisville, Ky. and Eles[illegible] M. Hill, in Washington; Dorothy Washington of New York and Ralph F. Collins of Washington, in Washington;

Leonard Crosby, veteran agricultural director of Lancaster, Pa. and Roberta Churchill, Baltimore teacher, at Downings, Va.; James O. Perry and Dr. Lucille Welch, instructors at Texas Southern University, in Houston, Texas; W. Tecumseh Boykin of Hartsville, S.C. and Mable V. Reese of Bennettsville, S.C. in Bennettsville; Vivian LeCount, secretary to the Mayor of Boston, Mass. and Albert E. Carrington, chief petty officer, USN, in Arlington, Va.;

Muriel Peeler of Greensboro, N.C. and Ward Winston Thompson of Cleveland, in Greensboro; Margaret Carr, teacher for the hard-of-hearing in Dayton (Ohio) public schools and Winfred Van Johnson of Norfolk, Va. boys work secretary at the Spring Street branch YMCA, in Columbus, Ohio; Yvonne Panick and Robert F. Blythe, in Philadelphia; Jennie Lawrence of Clarksburg, W. Va. and R. Maurice Moss, Jr. of Bristol.

Mrs. Matilda Brandon Hairston, widow of the late Rev. C. H. Hairston, former pastor of Clinton Chapel AME Church, Charlotte, N.C. to Arthur E. Spears, Sr., member of the board of directors of the N.C. Mutual Life Insurance Company and president of the Mecklenburg Investment Company, all of Charlotte, in Roxbury.

Blonde ex-model Marion Richardson Mallory of NYC, Oak Bluffs, Mass., and Chicago, married again, this time to Raymond Rogers, 38, real estate broker. Civil ceremony held at NYC Municipal Building. Catholic church ceremony planned. She will adopt Catholic faith, go through with church ceremony when former marriage is annulled.

Infanticipating: Col. and Mrs. James Fowler, of Washington, now in Mannheim, Germany.

Engaged: Miss Mary J. Harlee of Florence, S.C. and Golden Robinson of Kingtree; Miss Bettye DuBose of Newport, and the nursing staff of Harlem Hospital, and Reuben C. Irons of NYC.

PEREGRINATORS

Back from Korea (where he has been soldiering for twenty odd months) this week, came Capt. Leonard Underwood, much to the happiness of his wife, Agnes, of Baltimore. Consoling each other in Columbus, Ohio, last week were Mrs. Charles L. Early of Fayetteville, N.C. and her house hostess, Mrs. Margaret Clark, whose mates Captains Early and Clark are both in Korea.

And to help them forget their loneliness in a party - studded week were Kathryn Gottiff, Willa Terry, Myrtle Smith, Anna Bishop, Hazel Palmer and Irene Chancellor, all of whom entertained for the visitor.

Off to Jamaica, BWI, last week, went Frank Pinder, U.S. agricultural adviser to Liberia (Point P program). Enroute to Brazil is Miss Valda Russell, secretary to the registrar of Howard University.

In Washington, last week, Mrs. I. A. Carter, visiting her daughter, Mrs. Stephen Tolbert at the Liberian embassy, was the honor guest at a party given by Mrs. Callie Walker. Mrs. Carter is the wife of Dr. Carter of Bryan, Texas.

Having won a trip as a part of a reward for being "Teacher of the Year" (by National Teachers Research Association) world-traveled Linnie R. Smith of Washington chose the Caribbean and is now jockeying about the British West Indies, and from there will go on to South America.

The Washington Sewell Horads motored to Boston, last week, to pick up their kiddies, Sewall, Jr. and Debian, who summered with their grandmother, Dr. Jessie Garnett, Baltimore's Mrs. A. S. P. Phillips flew off to Chicago, Monday, for a respite as guest of Mrs. Mattie Armstrong.

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority's national president, Dorothy I. Height, sailed, Labor Day, for India. She is to represent the national YWCA at the third World Conference of Christian Youth in Travancore, in December. Until then, will serve as visiting professor at the school of social work in New Delhi.

Mrs. Clarence L. Simpson, wife of the Liberian Ambassador to the United States, arrived in Washington Saturday. She flew from Liberia, arriving at Idlewood airport, New York, via Pan American airlines. Due to illness which detained her at Liberia, Mrs. Simpson was unable to accompany the Ambassador when he assumed his post in May of this year. The two daughters of Ambassador and Mrs. Simpson, Clarice and Amanda, arrived in the United States on August 8th. Clarence L. Simpson, Jr. has been studying at the University of Massachusetts. Miss Clarice Simpson will enter Boston University this fall.

WITH THE LADIES

Catherine Coleman Ramos, of Philadelphia, Downingtown and University of Pennsylvania grad, former Quaker Town school marm, Germantown Y secretary and Hampton Institute faculty member, has been appointed professor of education at Arkansas College, Little Rock. There she will join her husband, who is in the college's business office.

In the presidency of Palmer Memorial Institute, Oct. 2, will go Miss Wilhelmena Crosson, protege of Dr. Charlotte Hawkins Brown, founder and for 50 years president of the institution. Dr. Brown will stay on as advisor-in-chief.

Miss Carole Fickling, of Washington, who recently took a master of arts degree in social work at Atlanta University, has begun work as psychiatric social worker with the Downey Veterans Administration Hospital, in Illinois.

Modeled To Aid New York, Jersey Charities

When Mesdames Millicent Taylor and Milo Gough, seated at front, sponsored a charity fashion show at Atlantic City's Club Harlem, Sunday; models included, left to right, Ruth King, Kandy Clark, Luana Robinson, Matiye Bowrine, Alice Ray Mar, Matilda Rhea and Little Adrian Upshur. Proceeds aided the Harlem Hospital (N.Y.) St. Charles Community Center and the resort's Home For The Aged.

Mrs. Edith Sampson Becomes Honorary Member Of Sorority

DURHAM, N.C. — An address emphasizing women's opportunities to advance human rights, the awarding of more than $2,000 in scholarships and the re-election of Mrs. Jeanne S. Scott, Pittsburgh, employment expert, as president highlighted the 23rd annual convention of the Iota Phi Lambda Sorority, here last week.

Sessions were held in North Carolina College, Aug. 23-27.

Mrs. Edith Sampson, Chicago lawyer and special representative of the U.S. State Department, in the convention's main address, urged a "fuller participation of women at all levels of political life if we are to achieve full, first class citizenship and advancing human rights all over the world."

Mrs. Sampson was inducted into an honorary membership into Iota Phi Lambda at impressive rites Monday evening.

Scholarship To New Yorker

Mrs. Mahala Evans, Chicago YWCA worker, chairman of the national education committee, announced the award of duplicate thousand dollar scholarships to Mary A. Green, Buffalo, NY and Emma J. Swinney, Louisville, Ky. Ky.

Winners of the 2100 scholarships were Laura V. East, Lockland, Ohio; Iris Wilkerson, Oakland, Calif. and Larraine Davis, Jacksonville, Fla.

Others received wr: Mrs. Martha H. Jackson, Washington, D. C., first vice president; Mrs. B. A. J. Whitted, Durham, second vice president; and Mrs. Waddelle C. Farmer, Atlanta, Ga., treasurer.

Mrs. Henrienne Vincent, St. Louis, was elected secretary. She succeeded Mrs. Louise Bell of Chicago.

Among the additional national officers who were reelected were Mrs. Anna J. Steen, dean of pledges; Mrs. Fannie M. Downey, journalist, and Mrs. Mahala E. Evans, director of education.

Directors Named

The following national directors were reelected:

Mrs. Ruby G. Embry, Cincinnati, O.; Mrs. Nona B. Diggs, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. Mary P. Bassett, Knoxville, Tenn.; Mrs. Helen J. Bluford, Chicago; Mrs. Alma L. Mackey, Dallas, Texas; and Mrs. Sarah B. Sims, Denver, Colorado.

A round of social activities including a dance and banquet, tours of the Chesterfield plant, and numerous private parties were part of the events. Durham's Rho chapter was hostess to the group.

Plans were under the general direction of Mrs. Ethel S. Berry, president of the Durham chapter. Mrs. R. O. Everett, Durham councilwoman, welcomed the convention.

Panel Held

In its business sessions, the sorority members discussed the general theme, "Iota Women Pace New Opportunity in Current World Chaos." Panel discussion covering three areas were devoted to: new opportunity in the commercial field, opportunity for women in industry, and opportunity to build a world peace.

The participants were Miss Katie Beverly, Pittsburgh; Miss Evelyn D. Wilkey, Baltimore, Mrs. Bessie Coston, Akron, Ohio; and Mrs. Edith C. Byrd, Jacksonville, Fla.

At the end of an executive board meeting on Thursday, it was announced that the 1953 meeting would be held in Philadelphia.

TSU Teachers In Ceremony

HOUSTON, Texas—Mr. James O. Perry and Dr. Lucille Welch, instructors at Texas Southern University were married in TSU Auditorium, here, Wednesday, by the Rev. John D. Moore, before 1500 guests.

Curtis Mayo, organist, and Mrs. Estelle H. Mayo, soloist provided the music.

Mr. Banks Best Man

Robert Banks was best man and Mrs. Fannie C. Brooks, matron of honor.

Mrs. Brooks wore a peach gown with peach head dress, gold shoes and carried a bouquet of pink gladioli.

The bride was given in marriage by the Rev. C. N. Reed. She wore a gown of white nylon lace over pink satin, a hat of white nylon, gold sandals and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

A reception followed in the home economics lounge, in the Fairchild building.

Feminine Front

Idlewild Drew Country-Wide Vacationists

Among socialites from all sections of the country who ended the summer season at Idlewild, Mich. were the above, top row, left to right: Mrs. Florence Fairfax of Cleveland, Ohio, James H. Murphy of Baltimore, Mrs. Phyllis Colden of Detroit, Arthur Taylor of Cleveland; center row: Mrs. Evelyn Jones of Cincinnati, Mrs. James Murphy of Baltimore, Miss June Carey of Detroit, Mrs. Evelyn Glore of St. Louis, Miss Jacqueline West of Washington; front row: Mrs.