Rival Candidates Air Views On Civil Rights

Dr. Ralph Bunche, United Nations mediator, dines with Democratic presidential nominee, Gov. Adlai Stevenson (right) at Hotel Biltmore in New York City. They discussed foreign policy, the United Nations and civil rights.

In a special conference with NAACP administrator Roy Wilkins (left) and Theodore Spaulding (right), Gen Dwight D. Eisenhower, Republican presidential nominee, explains his views on civil rights, particularly FEPC. The meeting was held at Hotel Commodore in NYC

BRAVE RAIN TO HEAR PASTOR:

Not The Battles, But The War That Counts

WASHINGTON — Braving a driving downpour of rain, members of Shiloh Baptist Church all but filled the church, Sunday morning, to hear the Rev. Earl L. Harrison preach for the first time in three weeks.

There were few vacant seats on the main floor and in the balcony as the pastor preached for about 40 minutes on a text from Exodus.

At the conclusion of the service he blessed a three-month-old baby, and, since the rain was continuing, asked a guest soloist to give another selection.

Singer From 'Porgy' Cast

The soloist was George A. Royston, whom the Rev. Mr. Harrison described as a son of his former assistant pastor in Kansas City.

Mr. Royston, who is a member of the cast of "Porgy and Bess," sang "His Eye Is On The Sparrow" and another anthem. The congregation was asked by the pastor to pray for the safe transport of the "Porgy and Bess" cast across the Atlantic on Monday.

The baby blessed at Shiloh Sunday was little Charlotte E. Adams, daughter of Pfc. and Mrs. Charles S. Adams Jr. Her god-parents were Mr. and Mrs. James Walker.

Cites Birth Of Israel

In his sermon, the Rev. Mr. Harrison described the escape of the Israelites from Egypt, their miraculous passing through the Red Sea, and their difficulties before they entered the Promised Land.

He said, in part:

"Life always proceeds out of death. Even in a kernel of wheat there has to be the breaking up of the seed; the pain, the agony, the suffering that life may be brought forth.

"God was giving birth to a new nation, out of this old shell of 400 years of slavery. But a newly-freed slave may not be prepared for the responsibilities of his new citizenship, nor can a recently-born nation be necessarily ready to take her place in the world.

Prepare For Promised Land

"So Israel had to be prepared for the Promised Land, had to understand Moses, learn more about God, be taught fellowship, co-operation, teamwork, self-control in time of crisis.

"Divide and conquer has been the master strategy through the ages," the pastor continued. "Israel had to learn that we must have unity, for our own good we must stand together.

"Moses said, 'Stand still, don't be all excited. Stand and see the salvation of the Lord.'

'No, Never Alone'

"God's deliverance never follows man's expected course," the Rev. Mr. Harrison declared, "and seldom does He do things at the time we expect Him to do them.

"He has no need to hasten to the rescue of His children. God's child cannot lose — he may lose a battle, but this does not mean the loss of the war. It is not the battles but the war that counts."

In concluding his sermon, the pastor asserted:

"No, never alone," God has said, "I'm always with you." God moves in a mysterious way. Behind a frowning providence He holds a smiling countenance.

Can We Stand Still?

"Can we stand still? Can we wait on Him? Can we have sufficient faith. Yes, His eye is upon all His children and He knows every dark experience we pass through.

"The Rev. Fredrick G. Sampson, assistant pastor of Shiloh and son-in-law of the Rev. Mr. Harrison, aided in conducting the services which opened with "Onward, Christian Soldiers' and ended with "My Faith Looks Up To Thee."

The youth choir sang "The King of Love My Shepherd Is" and "Guide Me, O Though Great Jehovah" followed the missionary offering.

Baltimorean Among Visitors

Among the visitors at the services was the Rev Marcus G. Woods, recently called to Providence Baptist Church in Baltimore, who sat on the platform and spoke briefly.

Flowers on the altar were presented by Hope Circle, of which Mrs. Minnie Baker is leader, and Sacrifice Circle, of which Mrs. Mary Styles is leader.

Timothy H. Ward Jr. is director of the young people's choir.

Man Jailed On Charge Of Drunk Preaching

DETROIT (ANP)—Grady Garrett, 52, was arrested for drunken and disorderly conduct on Gratiot and Beaubien sts. After Garrett was booked in as a drunk at headquarters, he preached a sermon to the cops.

"I don't care what men say," said Garrett, "I am doing what God told me to do." Unable to stop Garrett from preaching, Recorder's judge John A. Ircca recommended him for a clinic report. He will be sentenced Sept. 9.

William C. Harcum, 66, Baltimore Engineer, Dies

William C. Harcum, 66, 2525 Madison ave., retired engineer, died Friday following a short illness.

A native of Northumberland County, Va., the son of the late John and Sarah Harcum, he came to Baltimore at the age of 15.

A faithful member of Metropolitan Baptist Church, Moser and McCulloh sts., he was chairman of the trustee board and had been a member of the board since the church was founded over 20 years ago.

A member of Jerusalem Temple of Shriners, blue lodge of Masons, Federal No. 9, an Odd Fellow and a Pythian, Mr. Harcum was also president of the council of the National Ideal Association and Shiloh Allen, both fraternal groups.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Annie B. Harcum, well known corsetier; a daughter, Gladys H. Taylor, local teacher; five sisters, Mesdames Lula Jones, Baltimore; Fannie Brown and Katie Walker, both of New York; Elizabeth Miller, Princeton, N.J., and Sophronia Murray, Philadelphia.

Mr. Harcum retired in 1950 after 32 years service at American Smelting and Refining Co., where he was employed as an engineer.
