Korea Veteran's Services Thursday

A military funeral will be held Thursday noon at Union Temple Baptist church for Cpl. Ronnie Smith, 21-year-old soldier who was killed in action in Korea in April.

Cpl. Smith, a former Sunday School teacher at Union Baptist, will be buried in Baltimore National cemetery.

A graduate of Douglass High school and Booker T. Washington Junior school, Cpl. Smith lived at 2025 W. Lexington with his wife, Mrs. Regina Smith. The couple have a son, Mark Andrew, who is 20 months old.

Parents Survive

Other survivors include Cpl. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roney Smith, of 2306 Whittier ave., four uncles and three aunts.

Cpl. Smith entered the army on March 14, 1953 and embarked for Korea in September, 1952. His last visit to Baltimore was on July 18, 1952.

Funeral arrangements were handled by the Arlington S. Phillips, funeral director, 1808 N. Monroe.

Jack And Jill Of America Holds Eighth Annual National Meeting In Memphis

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — Jack and Jill of America, Inc. held its eighth annual national convention here June 26-28, the theme being "Abundant Living in Our Community."

The social activities opened the conference with a Round Robin which took guests to Lemoyne College campus, then to the homes of Jack and Jill members, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Gilliam and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hayes Jr., both of South pkwy. East.

Registration was held at Vance Avenue YWCA, Friday, and Abe Scharff branch YMCA Saturday, where the children's program was held under the direction of Mrs. Ann Reba Twigg.

Children of Memphis chapter had an exhibition of their work and displays were also sent by some of the visiting chapters.

Refreshments were furnished for all guests by Pepsi Cola Bolling co., and the caps and souvenirs distributed from an educational booth set up by Pet Milk co. Mrs. Louise Proto of Atlanta was the visiting Pet Milk consultant.

Saturday morning business sessions opened officially with a welcome speech by local chapter president, Nellie Roulhac. The Rev. Mr. McDaniels conducted devotions. A song session was directed by Mrs. Dorothy Westbrook of the Memphis chapter.

Other Memphis chapter officers are Estelle Dumas, vice-president; Dorothy Westbrook, recording secretary; Sally Bartholemew, corresponding secretary; Ida Jamison, treasurer; Harriet Walker, journalist; Melba Briscoe, program director, and Myrtle White, teen-age director.

During a luncheon, at which the Very Rev. William E. Sanders, presented by Mrs. Ann L. Hall, convention chairman, was speaker: Mrs. Roulhac introduced the national officers and presented each with a corsage, and Mrs. H. H. Johnson presented Mrs. Louise Weeks, who spoke.

National officers are:
National Officers

Dr. Alberta Turner, Columbus, Ohio, president; Mesdames Margaret Smith, Pittsburgh, vice president; Hortense Fitzgerald, Washington, secretary; Antoinette Robinson, St. Louis, Mo., treasurer; Ellen Perry, Norfolk, Va., journalist, and Natalie Johnson, South Orange, N.J., program director.

All officers were re-elected.

Charles Bynum of the Infantile Paralysis Foundation addressed the convention and presented a certificate to the group for its contributions to the foundation.

Speakers during the six workshops included A. Maceo Walker, president of Universal Life Insurance co. He was presented by Mrs. Leola Gilliam. National President Turner also spoke, following introduction by Mrs. Sally Bartholmew.

Rev. Blair Hunt Speaks

Speaker at Sunday worship services was the Rev. Blair Hunt of Christian church. Gilliam presided. Leaders of the convention also appeared on a forum over Radio Station WEAL on "Should Corporal Punishment Be Used In The Home And School."

Discussion leaders were:

Sally Bartholmew, Juanita Arnold and Nellie Roulhac. Discussants included Hilda Radford, Springfield, Mass.; Doris Haynes and Louise Kent, Cleveland; Inez Simpkins, Columbia, S.C.; Lessie Miller and Ophelia Andrews, Albany, Ga., and Eloise Taft, Kansas City.

The drummer was Bernard Williams, trumpet player, Richard Jackson and bass drum by Allen Pettaway.

Boy, 15, Stabbed Girl, 16, Held

A 15-year-old boy was reported in good condition Friday at hospital Monday after being stabbed in the throat with a pair of six-inch scissors.

The youth, Thomas Jones of the 1500 block Partridge ct. in Holabird, was wounded during a fight Friday night at Redbreast and Bob-o-links cts., Eastern district police said.

Charged with assaulting and cutting Thomas with intent to kill is a 16-year-old girl identified as Naomi Carr of the 1500 block of Redbreast ct.

She is being held at Pine st. police station.

Seeks Refuge, Gets 2 Years

A 37-year-old man who claimed he sought refuge in a filling station on Annapolis road after walking 13 miles, was sentenced to two years in the House of Correction, Monday, on an attempted burglary charge.

Levi Jones, of the 700 block W. Saratoga st., denied in criminal court that he was trying to take anything when police arrested him on the night of June 22.

Police, however, charged that Jones had tampered with an automobile parked in the station, broke the windows in a garage door and ransacked the garage which was stacked with tires.

In his defense, Jones told Judge E. Paul Mason that he drank two fifths of whiskey, wine and beer before starting on his hike back to Baltimore.

"After walking 13 miles, I got sleepy so I climbed into the garage to get some shut-eye and the police came up," he said.

Mate Knifed After Sherry Sway

A young woman staggered painfully into Pine St. station Friday morning and stood speechless before Judge Charlotte Main.

Her left arm was swathed in bandages from the collar bone to the elbow.

The woman, Mrs. L. Spencer, of the 500 block Burgundy st., had been a victim of a stabbing the night before.

Sister-In-Law

Her sister-in-law, Miss Stella Garvin, 1300 block Peach alley was being held at the station on a charge of assault with attempt to murder.

Police say Miss Garvin stabbed Mrs. Spencer with a paring knife.

However, when the judge sought information regarding the incident, Mrs. Spencer refused to prosecute. "It was nothing but a house party," she stammered in a whisper while gazing at the tearful Miss Garvin.

After several minutes of questions which were ignored, Judge Main ordered Miss Garvin held on $1,000 bail awaiting action of the grand jury.

"This case is too serious to dismiss here, even though the witness refuses to prosecute," Miss Main explained.

Cafe Owner Sued For $35,000

Long Man Chu, a 47-year-old Chinese restaurant owner who is in jail awaiting trial for a shooting last April, is being sued for $35,000 damages by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lawson of the 1900 block E. Madison st.

Mrs. Lawson, a former waitress in Chu's restaurant, suffered gun shot wounds in the stomach and is now seeking $25,000 damages. Her husband has sued for an additional $10,000.

The shooting occurred during an argument between Chu and his colored wife, Mrs. Myrtle Chu. Mrs. Chu was shot in the stomach by her husband when she refused to play a Chinese record for him.

Chu's trial has been postponed, pending a medical report.

'Dollar' Killer Gets 30 Years

DETROIT—Nicholas Register, 39, of the 2000 block Hastings, was sentenced to 15 to 30 years in Jackson prison Tuesday by Recorder's Judge Gerald W. Groat in the fatal shooting of Granger Martin, of 2036 Hastings on April 4.

Register was found guilty of murder in the second degree by a jury. Police said Register and Martin argued over a dollar. Register said Martin owed him

Wife's Body In Casts, Hubby Denies His Fault

While his wife sat motionlessly in a chair, her tiny body supported by casts from her chest to her feet, W. Hardwick, 38, 1500 block Fremont ave. calmly took the witness stand, Friday, and denied that he was the cause of her leaping from a second story window, April 11.

Because there were no witnesses to confirm Mrs Katherine Hardwick's testimony that her husband had threatened her with an eight-inch blade butcher knife before the almost fatal leap, Judge Joseph R. Byrnes could only give Hardwick a 6-month jail sentence.

According to Hardwick, an argument ensued in the parlor over financial matters. Mrs. Hardwick grabbed him by the hand, biting him on the finger, he said.

'Pushed Her On Bed'

"I pushed her on the bed and then left," he continued. "As I started down the stairs, I heard her scream and when I looked out the bedroom window, I saw her lying on the ground."

Contradicting his statement, Mrs. Hardwick claimed that he approached her with the knife. "I had to jump to keep from being cut," she told the judge.

Medical reports showed the Mrs. Hardwick suffered broken legs and back. It has been reported that she may never be able to walk again.

Mrs. Hardwick said that she has been having family difficulties with Willie since she married him July 1952. She is the mother of two small children by a former marriage and now lives in the 1600 block McCulloh st.

When asked by the judge if she were permanently separated from her husband, she, answered flatly, "Yes. I'm never going back to him."
