

Miller.

Do you know the condition of the house?

I would say pretty bad condition. It is in need of repairs.

Mr. Butcher, the will gave it to Mrs. Rigdon for life and at her death it was to revert to the children of William H. Hooper. Do you know any of those children?

William H. Hooper, the one who lived next door to where I lived.

In your judgment can this property be divided among all the children or grandchildren of William H. Hooper?

No.

Mr. Butcher, do you think it would be to the best interest and advantage of all the parties that the property be sold and the proceeds distributed?

Yes.

Do you know when Mrs. Rigdon died?

She died within the last year.

Did you know any of the children of William H. Hooper? If so, would you name those you knew?

I knew William O. Hooper, a son, who is now dead, whose wife's name was Mary, who is dead and she left some children, one of whom was Nannie Eisenhower, whose husband's name is Joseph Eisenhower; another son was Bill Hooper, whose wife's name was Mary. William Hooper also had another son Lewis C. Hooper, who is now dead, and his wife is also dead. They left one child, Margaret C. Keefer, whose husband's name is Frank J. Keefer. Another daughter was Catherine Hershberger, whose husband's name was John Hershberger, both of whom are dead. They left a number of children, among whom was John Hershberger who lives at Boonsboro. There was another daughter who married a Mr. Baumann and who resided in Washington. I think she is dead. There was another daughter, Minnie E. Miller, who married Alpha Miller, she is dead and Mr. Miller is still living. They had a boy Vernon Miller.

What do you think would be a fair market value of this property?

In my judgment I would think $1200.00 or $1300.00.

TO THE GENERAL INTERROGATORY,

Nothing further.

Charles J. Butcher
