WASHINGTON

Loose-limbed Clifford (Connie) Johnson, o mbasis of his smooth performance in the clutches against the Washington Senators, hurling a neat 4-0 shoutout triumph, could well be on the way to becoming a sensational pitching star.

The 30-year-old right hander, who will observe his 31st birthday on Dec. 27, has in his favor, poise, a blazing fast ball and unusual coolness when the bases are stacked. However, one of his shortcomings is that of leading the bases at the opportune time.

Against the Senators, the string-bean right hander was not short of sensation. Alternating between a jerky and fast motion delivery, Johnson twice retired the side when the Senators had two and three men on the bases in the second and fourth innings, respectively. In trouble, Johnson merely tugged on his cap, sized his batters up, and whipped his ripping curve across the outside corner of the plate.

Johnson's Technique

From observation, Johnson was most effective when he completed his windup, came to a brief hesitation; then fired th ball past the batter. The Sox rookie seldom resorted to his hesitating delivery until he got men on the base.

Evidently, it was Johnson's sudden changeup which baffled the Senators. With the changeup, the batters could not time his pitches. Johnson, it was observed, has an ordinary windup, but when he brings his arms down slowly for the delivery it is something else. The batters do not know whether he will fire the ball right away, or hesitate on the slow bring down of his arms.

Despite his brilliant performance, it was evident that Manager Paul Richards wasn't taking chances with Johnson. Each time Johnson got into difficulties after a stint with York, Pa. in the Pedmont League are Edward Isley and Lacy Ellerbe. The conditions reportedly given for their release are not too couraging, and should have weight for all to learn a lesson.

From the St. Louis Browns' front own office official is a report that Reggie Lee, the highly touted Armstrong hurling star, was offered a bonus in five figures, but Skrip Lee did not think it was big enough. As a result the Brown have lost interest in Lee altogether.

A return tennis match between Edgar Le and John Kost, 18-year-old racquet star from Duke University was no contest ist week end.

Lee, 41-year-old District fireman, who fought Kopf for five sets before losing at Rock Creek Park, bowed in straight sets, 6-1, 6-1, 6-1, in the District public parks net championships, Saturday on the Hains Point courts.

Praises smith

Taking stock of his 1953 team, Coach Sal Hall of Virginia State, entering his fifth year as a college mentor, is expecting a lot of Nathan Smith, a speed merchant in the Trojans' backfield. Smith is a 6-foot, 7-inch, 165-pound back from Rahway, N.J., and will be a sophomore this fall.

Big Tom Jones, husky University of Miami (Ohio) gridder, tossed the shot put 53 feet, 7½ inches to win the event, recently, in Glasgow, Scotland.

Shaw University Bears, who got a slight tap on the hand by being let off with a fine after dropping CIAA football in 1952, resume grid activitiy this year. The Bears have dropped flowed as an opponent, having met the Bisons every year, excluding 1952, since 1945, when Coach Eddie Jackson was at the helm.

Jackson To Delaware

The resigning of Coach Edward (Eddie) L. Jackson at North Carolina College seven before his term began this fall, to take a permanent job at Delaware State, will bear watching.

It is remembered that Brud Holland recently was named president, and knowing the student as a star and lover of athletics, the Dover, Del. school likely will not go wanting for a strong athletic program.

Jackson made a wise move, this corner believes. He only had a one-year contract which will expire when Leroy T. Walker, physical education professor and track coach returns in 1954.

In returning to Delaware State, Coach Jackson will be in a friendly atmosphere. A native of Springfield, Mass., he made his debut in the collegiate circles as director of physical education and coach of football, basketball, and track at Delaware.

Had Perfect Season

His 1954 grid team went through a perfect season, undefeated, untied, and unscored on. At Delaware from 1932 to 1935, he ran up a 22-9 record. His Hornet squads tallied 563 points to 140 for the opposition for a .709 percentage. Howard may hear from Coach Jackson this fall, and most certainly, he will be in a revengeful mood.

Little Joe (Coffee) Wilkins, 124½, who has given local fans some lively scraps, especially with Red Gaddis, found a tough opponent in Argentina's top beaten Jose Bruno, 125. Wilkins was kayoed in the sixth round of a scheduled 10-round fight inBuenos Aires on Aug.

Bill Spiller, one of the leading tan golfers, has set an unofficial course record at Langston. Competing with Art Lewis, Vance Watts, and Ben Thomas, he shot a 62, 10 strokes under the par for the course.

New Langston Manager

Bruce Crump, 28, has been named the new manager of Langton's golf course. He replaces Lazarus Pollard, who died, recently, of a heart attack.

A graduate of Phelps vocational school, Crump has won letters in all sports at the school. He is married and the father of three children one of whim is named Marcel, after Marcel Cerdan, as a GI during World War II, while in North Africa. He used to spar with the Frenchman.

Charles pilot gets N. Y. bite

Mintz rapped for race-bias charge

NEW YORK—Jake Mintz, who served as co-manager of recent of former world heavyweight champion Ezzard Charles, sustained a scorching denunciation at the hands of the New York State boxing commission on Wednesday.

Appearing to protest what he termed the side-stepping of his man by champion Rocky Marciano, in the latter's acceptance of Roland LaStarza as a title foe, Mintz accused the powers that be of permitting racial discrimination to enter into the transaction.

The commission, notably Dr. C. B. Powell, immediately let loose with a heated blast at the Pittsburgh pilot.

Baseless Charge

"That has never happened in the eight years I have been a member of this commission," shouted Dr. Powell. "It is a baseless charge with not an iota of truth in it."

Chairman Bob Christenberry and the other member, Leon Swears, then took up the torch. Each in turn blasted Mintz for his allegation, and Christenberry quoted a newspaper article which said Mintz was threatening to take Charles's case before Congress.

Jake, taking low, retracted the charge then expressed the belief he had been "misquoted."

Bright Abroad

NEW YORK — Harry Bright, former Seton Hall University hurdler-quarterminler, was on an hurdler-quarterminler, was on an American track and field squad which left by air Tuesday for a tour of England and Scotland.

Truck roadeo Ready to open

Preparations for Saturday's Sixth annual Truck Safety Roadeo swung into high gear Wednesday, as drivers with championship aspirations wheeled their vehicles through a practice spin around the 5th Regiment Armory Plaza.

Through the use of the practice course, all competitors were given a chance to practice the individual problems they will face in the state championship event at Memorial Stadium on Saturday.

The annual "roadeo," under the sponsorship of the Maryland Motor Truck Association, is designed to promote awareness of the trucking industry's efforts to select and train drivers who know and practice safe driving habits.
