Softball Season Ending

Cherry Hill is now winding up a successful softball season. The unlimited teams have begun to turn in their uniforms as they start playing volley ball, basketball and horseshoes.

The Midget softball teams are completing their softball games; so kites are beginning to fill the air around the community center. Dale Young and "Jitter" Fisher had the highest flying kites of the day. Russell Berger, Archie Saey and Bradford Young were also seen displaying their kite flying skills.

Fred Kyle, Leroy Jackson and Carroll Alexander, managers of their respective teams, the Rockets, Braves and Bisons attended a meeting at the Bureau of Recreation office where they drew up plans for the Cherry Hill Junior League play-offs, league championship and cross-city championship games.

Mt. Winan Braves drew a bye and will play the winner of the Bison Blue Jay game for the first round title. Cherry Hill's Rockets, winners in the second round, will play the first round winner for the league title with the ultimate winner representing Cherry Hill, in the city tourney.

Title At Stake

The Intermediate Rockets are now engaging the Dodgers of Northwest Baltimore in a best of three games series for the city intermediate championship.

Cherry Hill's 22 softball clubs are so well knitted that plans are to keep the groups working together and thereby initiating tough football teams and then later in the season basketball teams.

Basketball teams are being sought for participation of all age groups in the recreation centers of area.

Parents and children of the Cherry Hill Community Center are making plans to enjoy the last of the summer picnics under the old oak tree in the Cherry Hill picnic grove Thursday at 4 p.m. Each family will pack its own basket.

A special program of games will be arranged for the picnic, one of the activities of the summer playground closing week.

Campy Passes 100 RBI mark

CINCINNATI, O. (ANP) — It was a big Saturday night for catcher Roy Campanella of the Brooklyn Dodgers over the past weekend as he smashed out two home runs and drove in six tallies to lead his team to a 7-4 victory over the Cincinnati Redlegs.

Campy's big day raised his runs-batted-in total to 104, tops in the major leagues, and his home run total to 29. This big day made Campanella the first catcher in National League history to drive in more than 100 runs in two different seasons. He smashed home 108 in 1951.

He slammed out his first round-tripper in the first inning with Peewee Reese and Jackie Robinson on base. In the seventh he walloped one out of the park with WON IN OLYMPICS — In 49.1 seconds the Fleming Flamingo's track team cered the 440-relay event in the Baltimore Junior Olympics at McDonogh school Saturday. Bannekee School of Catonsville won the meet with 60 points.

Successful season ends at Banneker playground

The Banneker playground in Catonsville closed last Friday after having enjoyed one of its best seasons.

The playground, which boasts of having registered 331 pupils, won the Junior Olympics for the second straight year to snare the Dr. Minegan trophy.

An enviable softball record was also acquired by the playgrounders, the girls' team and the boys' 9 - 12 team winning Western area championships.

The boys' 13 - 15 age group team lost a championship tilt to Woodlawn by a score of 8 to 5.

Helpers Thanked

Playground directors Paul F. Scott and Dorothy B. Jones have extended their thanks to the following persons and organizations for having made the season a success:

Borden Ice Cream company; Hauswald and Koeslers bread companies, Nehi Bottling company, Gortner's meats, Doughnut corporation, Carter Transportation company, the American Legion, the AFRO and Herald Argus newspapers, Mr. Washington, the Catonsville Fire department; Beatrice Williams and Betty and Filmore Matthews.

GOOD NEWS FOR GIANTS:

Irvin may play against Dodgers; has slight sprain

ST. LOUIS— (ANP) — Good news and bad news came to Monte Irvin of the New York Giants over the week end. The good was that Monte has become the major leagues' leading hitter with an average of .338. The bad was that he has re-injured his ankle.

Irvin hurt his ankle—the one that kept him out of baseball nearly all of 1952-Sunday in the third inning a game between the Giants and the St., Louis Cardinals. He was taken out of the game.

Facing his chief rival for major league and league batting honors, Red Schoendist of the Cardinals, for three games here, Monte passed him, raising his average to .339 while his rival's mark dropped to .335.

For the season Monte also has pounded out 20 home runs and drive in 81 runs. He is close to the National League leaders in both of these departments.

The New Yorkers, however, have faltered in the pennant race.

For Monte's teammate, Henry Thompson, St. Louis has been a downfall. His mark in three days dropped .336 to .326. Hank is fourth in batting in the National League.

In New York City Tuesday, Giant officials said Monte's injury was only a slight sprain. Club officials indicated that Irvin "may play before the end of the week, maybe in the last game of the three-game series with the Brooklyn Dodgers."

This statement was made after doctors reported to club officials on the X-ray pictures which revealed that there was no fracture as originally believed. Irvin was injured when he crashed with Del Rice, Cardinals catcher, while scoring in Sunday game.

Whitfield wins 800-meter run

OLSO, Norway—(ANP)— Mal Whitfield last week continued along victory path as he edged out Wes Santee to cop the 800-meter run in an international track and field meet at Olympic Bislet Stadium.

Whitfield ran the distance in 1:48.3 as compared to Santee's 1:48.4.

The former Ohio State University speedster now represents the Grand Street Boys Club. His victory here helped Americans collect another batch of first places in the main stadium for the 1953 Winter Olympic games.

Lucky Strikes . . . by JOE BLACK

Charlie Dressen, our manager, likes to shake up his starting line-up every so often. He believes a rest now and then can be a tremendous tonic for a ball player. So far, his theory has been working like magic.

Early this season, Gil Hodges was in that awful slump, and Dressen decided a few days on the bench would help relax Gil and maybe ease some of the pressure. Everyone knows what happened. Hodges is hitting the ball now like the Hodges of old.

Dressen used the same "rest idea" on Junior Gilliam a few weeks ago. Junior was a real standout during the first part of the year. He was alert, crisp, and was hitting the ball solidly. Suddenly, he lost his spark and became sluggish. He made errors I've never seen him make before. Junior was really tired. He has been playing baseball for three solid years now—every day, summer and winter. After he would get done playing minor-league ball he would go to Puerto Rico and play winter ball there. He was stale. Junior rested for about ten days, and when he got back into the line-up, he was a sensation again.

A seat on the bench at the right time can be a welcome change for a ball player. And if you cigarette smokers want a welcome change, switch to a better-tasting cigarette—switch to Lucky Strikes. Those Luckies taste cleaner and fresher and smoother. Try a carton and see for yourself. You won, Lucky Strikes are made by The American Tobacco Company, America's leading manufacturer of cigarettes. So, Be Happy—Go Lucky!

WASHINGTON

"If he picks up where he left off, look out boys."

The statement referred to Joe Black, the Brooklyn Dodgers' pitching sensation of 1952, and appeared in the "Who's Who in the Big League" earlier this year.

It's hard to forget the accolades paid to Black by sports writers when considering his achievements this year. He had been hailed at the start of the season as the "best of younger pitchers in the Major League today."

Jinx Overtakes Black?

For Black, the proverbial baseball jinx has taken its toll of him. His dismal record with Brooklyn this year is a definite contrast to his brilliant performance of 1952.

The 1952 statistics for Black read something like this:

Games, 56; innings pitched, 42; hits, 102; won, 15; lost, 4; bases on balls, 41; strikeouts, 85; and earned runs per game, 2.15.

All kinds of excuses have been offered for Black's inferquent showing on the Dodgers' mound. They range from stories that Black lacks confidence in himself to tales that he no longer has anything on the ball to baffle the opposing hitters.

Other observations made are that Black needs a lot of work, while to the contrary, the opinion has been expressed that he overworked himself last year as a relief hurler.

Observations Made

It has been pointed out that Black's frequent appearances on the mound, often in sucessive days, last season took its toll.

Black, the National League rookie of the year, in my opinion, was not a victim entirely of any of the above factors. There's an old saying among Major League players that after several trips around the circuit, a newcomer's heart beat count and favorite cereal is known.

Such was the case of Black. It took a season or more to find out. Now the truth is out, and Black is no longer the feared 235-pound hulking giant whose name blazed across sports page last year.

Official Report

The official report on Black prior to the opening of the 1953 season went like this:

"His best pitch is a fast ball which he does not hesitate to throw, even on a three and two count. (Note: An opposing batter would eat this up)
