TESTIMONY

taken before the Court, Hon. Hammond Urner, July 28, 1936.

LUCY E. WACHTER, plaintiff, produced in her own behalf, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

By Mr. Harp:

Q You are the widow of Charles N. Wachter?

A Yes. They had "W" in the paper the other day. It is "N".

Q Your husband died December -- A. December 10, 1931.

Q And left two children, Mary Caroline, over 21 years old, and Ralph F. Wachter, who was born March 6, 1918? A. Yes.

Q At the time of his death did he own a house and lot on East Second Street, No. 108? A. Yes, sir.

Q Before his death did he convert that into apartments?

A Yes.

Q How many apartments did he make? A. Three.

Q Were they large or small?

A I don't know. I don't think you would call them small. The bedrooms are small, but the other rooms are right good sized. I wouldn't call them so small. They run back right far. I don't know what you would put down for that.

Q Is it your desire to sell this real estate? A. Yes.

Q And did you get a purchaser? A. Yes.

Q What is the name? A. Fisher.

Q Archie Fisher and wife? A. Yes.

Q How much did he offer for this real estate?

A $5700.
