Doby, Rosen, Avila spark AL Victory

By STAFF CORRESPONDENT

CLEVELAND—The American League broke a four-year spell Tuesday to defeat the National League, 11-9, in the annual All-Star baseball game.

It marked the first time since 1949 that the junior league had beaten their rivals.

Five colored athletes saw action in the free-hitting contest. Minnie Minoso of the Chicago White Sox and Larry Doby of the Cleveland Indians were on the winning side, and Jackie Robinson and Roy Campanella of the Brooklyn Dodgers, and Willie Mays of the New York Giants played for the losers.

It was fitting that, with this midsummer classic played here in Cleveland, the hero role should be shared by three players of the Indians.

Fans Go Wild

A bowling mob of 68,751—second largest in All-Star history—went into rhapsodies as their Al Rosen, Bobby Avila and Doby knocked in eight of the AL teams' eleven runs.

Rosen had two homers and a single to drive in five runs, thus equalling the classic record of Ted Williams in homers and RBI's.

Avila turned in a perfect three-for-three day with one run scored and two batted in.

Doby Ties Score

And then came Doby's turn. Up as a pinchhitter for the Washington Senators' pitcher, Dean Stone, in the eighth, Larry blasted a two-strike offering over the center field fence for a home run to tie the score at 9-9.

From that point the AL went on to bracket three singles and a walk to go ahead for keeps, 11-9.

Doby, by virtue of his pinch-hit homer came out with a 1.000 average for the afternoon.

Mays Gets A Hit

Robinson with one for two and two RBI's, hit .500, and Minoso picked up two for four at bat, also for a .500 mark.

Mays, playing the last six innings, connected for one safety in two tries, and so he, too, batted at a .500 pace.

Campanella obtained one single in three official trips for a .333 mark.

Only error of the game was charged to Minoso, when he dropped Cardinal Red Schoendienst's short fly to right in the eighth. Nothing came of it, however, as Red died trying to steal home for the final out.

31 Hits in All

Records went by the board in this wildest of all classics. The total of 31 hits tied the mark in that department, as did the six home runs for the two teams.

The total of 20 runs bettered the 18-run output of the two clubs which played the 1951 affair at Ebbets Field, Brooklyn.

By the same token, Campanella's string of consecutive innings as all-star catcher was broken when he was replaced by the Philadelphia Phillies' Smokey Burgess in the eighth.

It was the first time since 1949 that the NL squad had used a receiver other than Campy. He had been behind the plate for 53 successive innings.

AL Takes Lead

The American League, unexpectedly coming up with a display of early power, put together two home runs to take a 4-0 lead in the third.

However, the National quickly erased this advantage, jumping on White Sox pitcher Sandy Consuegra in the fourth frame for four straight singles and a two-bagger by Jackie Robinson. Jackie himself then proceed to send the NL in front, 5-4.

Singles by Chico Carrasquel and Minoso, and Avila's fly to left tied the count in the bottom of the fourth.

A homer by Ted Kluszewski with a man aboard again put the National League in front, thus equalling the classic record of Ted Williams in homers and RBI's.

Minoso Leads Off

The Yankees' Yogi Berra opened the bottom of the seventh with a single and two pitches later was propelled the rest of the way by Rosen's second homer.

The starting lineups of the two teams included three colored players, named to the contest by a nationwide vote of the fans.

Minoso was installed as leadoff batsman by Manager Casey Stengel, for the American Leaguers and Robinson and Campanella were placed seventh and eighth in the National League batting order by Manager Walt Alston.

For Minnie, it was his fourth appearance in the classic, though the first time he was named as a starter by virtue of the balloting. The Cuban Comet's 32 was picked as a member of the reserve squad in 1951-52 and 53.

4th For Campy

Robinson was making his sixth All-Star contest. He was the fans' choice in 1949-50-51-52. Last year, however, because he was shifted from position to position by Brooklyn Manager Charley Dressen, he did not top the votegetters for either left field or third base.

Campanella's Tuesday chore was also his sixth. He was an alternate to Andy Seminick in 1949, but thereafter was the No. 1 catcher on the team.

After relieving the Phillies' regular in the third inning of the 1949 tilt, Campy caught every inning of every game played during the succeeding years.

Coates to headline boxing club's first presentation

Carl Coates, Maryland's flight-weight boxing champion, is in accord with promoter Harry Strang's announced policy of developing and utilizing local talent to headline fight shows of the new Oriole Boxing Club.

Selected by Strang and matchmaker Joe Poodles Sr. to top the club's opening program tonight (Friday) at the Coliseum against El Conscripto, of Mexico, Coates is primed to give himself and the club a fast start.

This will be his chance to get in on the ground floor as No. 1 star of the Oriole stable.

First Local Bout Since '52

Coates hasn't fought in Baltimore since late in 1952. He recently returned from a tour of Australia. He won some good scraps last year in New York and scored impressively in Australia by kayoing Ivor Germaine British Empire welter champ.

Coates' immediate objective is a match with Don Braun for Maryland welter honors. His claim is a strong one. Although lighter, he has knocked out Braun and twice whipped Johnny Cunningham, top contender.

Naturally an initial loss is no way to get a campaign started. Therefore, Coates is expected to shoot the works with El Conscripto on the other hand he may have that decision made for him.

Advance reports from New York, where El Conscripto has been training, says he fully vision looks the part of a serious contender to the top men in his division.

BRANCH—A tribute of love to the memory of our dear daughter, DOROTHY BRANCH, who passed away 1 year ago July 18, 1953.
If we had seen you to the last, And held your dying hand, And heard the last sigh from your heart
We would not feel so bad.
We did not know the pain you had
We did see you die
We only know you went far away,
And never said goodbye.
We miss your smiling face much can say.
Would love to hold you near
I see you in each thing I do;
We miss you dear
For you are tightly woven,
In a corner of my heart.
Loving,
Mother, Husband, Sons and Brother.

HALL—In loving memory of our dear mother, ALESIA BARLOW HALL, who passed away July 18, 1953.
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed her loving eyes
Whispered "Peace be thine."
Her weary hours, her days of pain
Her weary nights are past
Her ever-patient, worn-out frame
Has found peace at last.
Loving Daughter,
LOUISE B. BARLOW

HICKS—In loving memory of our beloved one, CAMPBELL M. HICKS, who passed away July 18, 1949:

STEWART—In loving memory of our dear mother and sister, JENNIE MOORE, who passed away one year ago, July 12, 1953:
Sad and sudden was the call
Of one so dearly loved by all;
A bitter grief, a shock severe
It was to part with one so dear.
We often sit and think of you
And speak of how you died.
To think you could not say good-bye
Before you closed your eyes
For all of us you did your best
Oh, God grant you eternal rest.
