Two Little Words Can Mean..... So Much.....

MISS MARGARET GAMBRILL

Remember the famous fairy tale in which the person who said the two words—"Open Sesame"—would open a magic door to riches and great treasures?

Well—it's almost like that at HENDIN'S—where thousands of girls and women like Miss Gambrill of 1033 North Carey Street—have found the "magic" way to enjoy wearing the most glamorous fashions whenever they want to—without having to pay cash—or a lot of money. All they do—is to say two little words:

"CHARGE IT!"

Today is a good day for YOU to open a HENDIN charge account. You'll be pleased when you find out how easy it is to do this—without any delays and no "red tape."

S. Baltimore Notes

By GEORGE W. E. HILL

Barbara R. Combs is the South side Personality of the week. A student at Douglass High School, she will spend her vacation in Boston, Mass. She hopes to enter Boston University eventually to study law. Barbara lives at 508 Auber St.

The Sarah Bundy's Music Studio sponsored a recital at Hemmingway Temple, Sunday, July 11. Mrs. Bundy's students range from 6 years to 15 years of age.

A large crowd attended the recital including, visitors from Washington and New York.

Held Choir Day

Mrs. Susie Pickerton, president and choir director of the Star of Bethlehem Choir, held Choir Day at Sand Church, Sunday, July 18. The Rev. W. R. Chew is pastor.

The Flower Circle of which Mrs. Nettie Gardner is president will launch their annual excursion to Washington. Mrs. Charlotte Hill is secretary.

Acting Mayor Price did a very good job while serving as mayor, we believe.

The Mesdames Minerva Goldring, Pansy Contess, and Virgie Briscoe, of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Nights of St. Johns were delegates elected to attend the convention held in Detroit.

They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Witherspoon. The affair was most spectacular, they report and for the first time they could feel and enjoy real freedom as the air was filled with Democracy.

Many friends of Mrs. Goldring will join with her on the trip to Montreal, Canada beginning Aug. 6.

Entertains Choir

The Gospel Choir of Ebenezer AME Church was the guest of their director, Charles S. Henry, 2600 Spellman Rd., Cherry Hill.

After a brief business session, the choir was entertained by its host and hostess.

Attention Mr. and Mrs. John Q. Public: The Leo Williams' Bar, located at Fremont Ave. and Burgundy St., will appear before the Liquor Board, July 28 to convert the place from white to colored.

This would make one-half of a block serving colored people.

What are we going to do about it?

CELEBRANT — Mamie Florence Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Evans, 2135 W. North Ave. celebrated her second birthday at a party given by her parents, recently.

Gadabouting in Baltimore...

Little parties spark little social season

...with Lula Jones Garrett

"Off to Arundel-On-The Bay" Sunday, went members of the Whoosits Club, to have an end-of-the-season party at the beach place of Dr. and Mrs. Orris Walker.

Co-hostesses with Llewellyn were Gertrude Quarles, Harriet Jones and Hermoine Weaver.

"Twas a beautiful day and the folks had a grand time swimming, reading, roasting hot dogs and even napping . . . until late eve, when dinner was served. In between Alma Gray and Elizabeth Hodge provided entertainment . . . with a show of their own.

And the Whoosits' other-halves went off into the rumpus house of Dr. Walker for a session, concocted plans for an August 1 party for the girls.

About for the affair were Olivia and Walter Dixon, Grace and Winston Hunt, Lou and Irving Lockerman, Hermoine and Royal Weaver, Maxine and Elton Higginbotham, Harriet and Wilbin Jones, Geraldine Quarles, Dr. Martino, Elizabeth Hodge, Alma Gray and Mercedes Douglass.

Absent were the George Pennington . . . Vivian's mother, Claudia Raiford, still being ill in Washington; Emily Jones and Dr. Upshur Pitters, who were in Boston for the nonce.

MRS. HARRISON HOSTESS

Bernadine Harris Harrison entertained the Baltimore and Washington chapters of the Chipperettes Club at the Harris' shore home overlooking the Magothy Bay, Friday.

Assisting Mrs. Harrison was her mother, Mrs. Bernard Harris and sisters, Alease Clark and Anita Harris.

In the Washington club are Sega McEwen, Jean Pratt, Mildred Vernon, Nora Tucker and Frankie Wood.

From Baltimore came Ellsworth Rhetta, Arnetta Lottier, Nikki Randolph, Louise Robinson, Wilhelmina Garner, Vonzella Murray and Pauline Blackwell.

COUNCIL CLOSES

The Baltimore Branch of the National Council of Women went down to "Glen Acres" (Dr. Mary belle Weaver's shore home) for their closing party.

Aside from a final meeting, there was dinner on the lawn, for:

Mesdames Mattie Coasey, Sarah Diggs, Amanda Finch, Margaret Jones, Elsie Wesley, Ann Badenkol, Melia Green and Elizabeth Burrell, all members and guests including:

Mrs. and Mrs. Reid Stanley, Mrs. Jeannetta P. Wilson, William Burrell, Mrs. Myrtle Sax, Mrs. Florence Roy, Miss Mabel Braxton, Mrs. M. Gaines and Mr. and Mrs. M. Neal.

Mrs. Coasey was chairman of the affair.

LETS IN REUNION

Dr. Maurice Lee had a miniature family runion here last week end, when his sister, Mrs. Betty Norwood and her daughter, Betty Simms of Florida A. and M. College, guested with him and Mrs. Lee (Gwendolyn). Betty is a psychiatric social worker at Meharry Medical College, Nashville, Tenn.

The Lees had other members of the family and a few friends in for breakfast ere the visitors' departure. They included:

Dr. and Mrs. George Lee, Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Howard, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Thomas Sr., Mrs. Joseph Thomas Jr. and Mrs. William Kindle.

HOUSE WARMINGS

Douglass and Mabel Roberts "warmed" their new ranch house in Glenburnie with a gay party on Sunday, that provided all the fun in the world and about everything from champagne to rum colas . . . turkey to crab on the menu.

And when toasts to the domicile had been completed, guests piled into cars and continued the party at Columbia Beach, with Mary Jones, county supervisor, in the role of hostess.

Guests included the John Lanes, Griselda Addison, Rosena Ridgeley, Dr. and Mrs. Reazueau, Dr. and Mrs. Flagerty Gaibor, Weaver Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gaskins, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Kilbrew of North Carolina, Raleigh Carroll, Maurice Dorsey.

And the Harold H. Bevans entertained some hundred friends in the club cellar and on the lawn of their recently acquired Windsor Avenue home, Saturday night. This, too, was a housewarming fete, and neighbors and friends fetched eddies of gifts for the new homeowners.

POT-POURRI

The newlywed Lester Norrises (Roberta Henderson) moved into their new Longwood Street mansion, this week.

Having acquired the consent of her mother (Mrs. Aura Adams of Washington) and her dad (Dr. Fred Adams of Baltimore) Dr. Upsyses Bourne Jr. of Frederick, Md. and cute Barbara Adams of the Capital, are talking about an August merger.

Mrs. Fannie B. Poulson, former secretary at Frederick Douglass High School, has recently been appointed to teach commercial subjects at Druid Junior High School. She is a recent graduate of Morgan State College, having majored in business education.

PEREGRINATORS

Esther LaForest has taken her small son and daughter and gone of to Cape May for a respite. The John J. Olivers are there . . . that is the family with the exception of Mr. Oliver, who will join them this week end, Ditto the Furman-Templetons.

Dr. and Mrs. Louis E. Harmon are back from Silver Bay, the upstate New York YMCA, where they are regular summer visitors.

Physicians, last week, handed Mrs. John H. Murphy, Jr., and ultimatum on too much golf playing . . . so she has gone off to New York for a spot of rest and less strenuous exercises, such as seeing shows and shopping.

VITAL STATISTICS

The William Britts have a son He (William Matthew Jr.) arrived at Provident Hospital on the 16th . . . weighed in at 7 lbs. 11 oz. . . . and had he arrived two weeks earlier could have made it a family celebration by hitting the parents' tenth month wedding anniversary. Mom is the former Eugenia Bourne.

And the Edward R. Featherstones, of Chester, Pa. have a daughter. Mrs. Featherstone is the former Ines Smith of Baltimore. Baby, who arrived at Sacred Heart Hospital in Chester on July 6, has been named Rita Vesta. Dad is a Chesertown mortician.

Was I Flattered when they asked me to model

...says young matron

"I took a tip from an ad showing a professional model who uses Black and White Vanishing Cream to hold make-up on longer, fresher and camera perfect. It did the same for me!"

Mrs. Pauline Davis Newark, New Jersey

Yes, you can beautify your complexion the same way... professional models do with Black and White Vanishing Cream. It's greaseless (can't cause blackheads), actually checks skin oiliness. Your make-up looks fresher, your skin feels softer.

For face powder that clings like mist, flatter that stays on and on, look for the same Black and White.

Remove make-up with Black and White Cleansing Cream. Soften skin with Black and White Cold Cream, 25¢ each.
