Battle of 6-footers to spark cage games

A 10 - man squad averaging better than six feet, three inches to be man will represent the original Harlem Globetrotters when they oppose Coach George Mikan's United States Stars in the nightcap of a professional basketball doubleheader at Baltimore Memorial Stadium, Thursday, Aug. 5.

An opening attraction set for 8 o'clock matches the Boston Whirlwinds, featuring 6-9 Clarence (Bevo) Francis from Rio Grande, Ohio, College, against the bearded House of David basketers from Benton Harbor, Mich.

A musical floor show that will spotlight several new European vaudeville specialties and the picturesque shots and formations of the Trotters will precede the games and continue at intervals.

PAT KENNEDY, former referee-in-chief of the National Basketball Association and long celebrated for his spectacular calling of plays in big time collegiate basketball doubleheaders, will help call the plays.

The Globetrotters, fresh from their fifth annual tour of Europe, will feature a line-up that includes four men who stand six feet, seven inches and better:

WALTER DUKES, 19-0 time former All-American and seven foot scoring marvel from Seton Hall, Nat Hawetwater) Clifton, 6-8 combination forward - and center of the New York Knickerbockers, J. C. Gipson, 6-7 inch former Thomas Jefferson High School center from Los Angeles, and Willie Gardner, 6-7 guard from Crispus Attucks High School, Indianapolis, are the skyscrapers.

Reece (Goose) Tatum, 6-3, 190-pound Clown Prince and superhost from El Dorado, Ark., who boasts a fantastic arm-spread and tremendous rebounding ability, is one of the squad's hottest shots.

Charles Hilton, 6-2, and Sam Wheeler, and Josh Grider, both 6-1 are the remaining six footers.

Johnson at peak now for Moore

PLEASANTVILLE, N.J.—Harold Johnson, hard-hitting light-heavyweight from Philadelphia, is rapidly rounding into condition for his championship match with Archie Moore at Madison Square Garden, August 11.

Johnson is training at Laoma Byrd's camp here.

A hard worker, the youngster has boxed a total of 65 rounds up to the present time and is starting from seven to eight rounds every day. He works out with Tommy Merrill, a light heavyweight from Philadelphia and winds up boxing with Alex Brown, a heavyweight, who also hails from Quaker Town.

Johnson's trainers, Joe Roland and Skinny Davidson, say he weighs 175 pounds at the moment and will have no trouble making the limit of 175 pounds.

Both are inclined to think that Moore will have to do a lot of hard work to get down at 175 pounds.

Singapore delegate

NEW YORK — William H. Oliver, co-director of the UAW-CIO Fair Practices and Anti-Discrimination Department, left Friday, July 23, for a trip to Singapore, where he will be a delegate to the conference of the World Assembly of Youth. The conference meets at the Anglo-Chinese University on August 1.

Following is the full text of the letter from the Secretary of the Navy Charles S. Thomas to Lester B. Granger, executive director, National Urban League in New York City, mailed last July 27 to Mr. Granger:

"Dear Mr. Granger:

"I am sorry to receive your request to be relieved of your commitment to my predecessor, Secretary Robert B. Anderson, to serve as a special consultant to the Secretary of the Navy.

"However, I particularly regret that in respect to the Navy's program of eliminating any remaining racial differentials in opportunities for its uniformed or civilian personnel, that you feel required to say that 'There within the Navy and the Marine Corps.

"Even more recently, I made a further study of recommendations on the situation at the Norfolk and Charleston Naval Shipyards and this resulted in the elimination of segregation in the yards.

"I CANNOT, therefore, let go unchallenged any inference that the Navy has not been outstanding in its approach and full cooperation in this respect. Rather, it has been the leader in this field.

"As for myself, I believe that there is only one type of citizen and my administration of the Navy reflect not this philosophy.

"FURTHER, if you take into consideration the complete integration of all races, creeds and colors in the Navy and Marine Corps, the discontinuance of segregation in Naval activities since Norfolk and Charleston, the elimination of segregation in schools and housing on Navy and Marine Corps installations, the elimination of steward enrouting and the many other forward looking and constructive steps the Navy has taken in this regard, I am surprised and disappointed it is not fully appreciated, commended and encouraged rather than either indirectly or interpretatively criticized.

"I AM SORRY that you have not had an opportunity to work together, but as you know I have only recently assumed this office and have spent most of my time since my induction becoming familiar with its operation and problems. If, therefore, I have not called upon your talent and service during this period it has been only because I thought this particular problem had reached a stage where a form of solution that I was not aware of, a matter of urgency.

"YOUR RESIGNATION as special consultant to the Secretary of the Navy on matters of policy and programs concerning racial matters is accepted with regret. I hope, however, that we may feel free to call on you and through you upon the Urban League, in the future."

McCarthy says Moss case 'Smells to high heaven'

WASHINGTON (By NNPA)

Senator Joseph R. McCarthy (Rep. Wis.) charged Tuesday that the Army-McCarthy case smells to high heaven" and vehemently denounced Sen. Wayne Morse (Ind. Ore.) who said the Senate Permanent Investigating sub-committee which he is chairman, is not yet through with it.

Morse appeared before the Senate Rules sub-committee which is considering a code of fairplay for Senate inquiries.

The case of Mrs. Moss was brought into the hearing when Senator William E. Jenner (Rep., Ind.), committee member said it was used by Sen. Herbert H. Lehman (Dem., N.Y.) as an example of "unfair treatment of witnesses".

He asked McCarthy for comment.

MRS. MOSS is a Defense Department employee at the Pentagon, who testified before the Army-McCarthy subcommittee that money of Mrs. Mary Stanton Markward, a housewife of Chevy Chase, Md., who joined the Communist party in Washington as an undercover informant for the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Mr. McCarthy said, hitting at Mrs. Moss' name was the result of the local Communist party—but she was unable to identify Mrs. Moss personally.

Mrs. Moss, after being suspended from her job, went back to work at the Pentagon.

"McCARTHY'S STATEMENT concerning Mrs. Moss follows:

"Anne Lee Moss was a colored lady identified by an undercover FBI agent by name and by her job description as a Communist. The witness could not identify her by face. She denied the charge.

"I am still curious why this woman who had her education, was promoted from a job in the cafeteria to handling coded documents.

"SOMETHING SMELLS to high heaven, and we are not silenced when we extend the Army and the Navy the same courtesy we have given the Moss case."
