Vista Yankees are trying for second victory skein

The Vista Yankees, slugging namesakes of the powerful New Yorkers, will be attempting to stretch a three game winning skein Friday and Sunday in games with their arch rivals, the Glenarden Braves.

The Yankees whipped the American Legion Nine last Saturday 12-5 and came back Sunday to take both ends of a twin bill with the Mitchelville Tigers, 5-1 and 5-4.

Larry Hawkins was the winning pitcher in the Legion contest with help from Ralph Pierce. Tommy Hawkins won both games Sunday, striking out 11 batters in first contest. He won the second in relief.

• • •

VISTA'S SLUGGERS are scheduled to meet the winners of the Mitchelville Glenarden game Friday (tonight) at Westport stadium in Baltimore. They meet the Braves Sunday in a doubleheader at Vista Park.

The Yankees have won 23 of 28 games played this season including a 17 game streak at the beginning of the year.

D.C. net stars win capital's open tourney

Tennessee and California rivals upset in tennis

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Washingtonians, led by Bob and Barbara Cage, swept the majority of completed events in the 18th annual National Capital Open tournament July 14 - 17. The interracial meet was played at Banneker Courts, Georgia Avee, and Euclid St., NW.

Several of the matches including the men's, women's and mixed doubles were postponed because of rain. Approximately 100 net stars from New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Tennessee, California and D.C. participated.

Cage defeated Harold Freeman of the District for the men's singles title, 5-7, 6-3, 6-1. He also teamed with sister, Barbara, as finalists in the mixed doubles.

• • •

TENNESSEE STATE University star, Bob Rollins, was upset early in the tournament by Elton King of Howard University, 7-5, 6-1. Bill Davis, another TSU star who reached the semi-finals of the Baltimore Sun tourney was unable to compete.

Other winners in the Capital Open were Doris Harrison of D.C. over Jean Glover, Los Angeles, 7-5, 1-6, 6-1 in the women's singles; Willis Fennell, Los Angeles over Arthur Ash Richmond, 6-0, 6-0, in the junior singles.

Frank Johnson, Lynchburg, Va., over Ashe, 6-8, 7-5, 6-4, in the boys' singles; Annie Lomax of D.C. beat Yvonne Kelly of the District six love in two sets for the girls' singles title; Walter Onque, E. Orange, N.J. won the veterans' title from George Walton, Philadelphia, 7-5, 6-3.

THE DOUBLES matches were set for later dates with and Hal and Clyde Freeman scheduled to meet Ernest Ingram and Ron Charity of Richmond in the men's division. Time and place will be announced.

Elise Thornton and Jean Glover, both of Los Angeles will face Beverly Coleman of California and Cora Oregon of Lynchburg. The cages meet Doris Harrison and Edgar Lee of the District in mixed matches.

Winners in the veterans' doubles were Walter Onque and Dr. Theodore Inge of East Orange, N.J. over Dr. W. "Whirlwind" Johnson and Eric De Freitas of Orange, 6-3, 6-0.

• • •

JOHN B. DUNCAN, Recorder of Deeds, and former ranking ATA player, was a semi-finalist in the tourney defeating Dr. Inge 6-4, 6-4, and S. Franklin Posey, 6-2, 6-2.

Mr. Posey is president of the Mall Tennis Club, sponsors of the Capital Open.

Jr. Olympics entry dates deadlines

Exchange Club officials announced this week that entry lists for the Junior Olympics are so large that there will be no acceptance of applicants who do not register before the dates of the events.

Those wishing to enter the swimming meet, July 30, at Patterson Park, may do so only if their application is received prior to the event. The same holds true for aspirants to the track meet, slated to be held August 6, at Clifton Park.

LITTLE LEAGUE LEADER—Rated one of the flashiest shortstops in the Chesapeake Little League, Rocky Armstrong and his "Indians" teammates are setting a terrific pace (13-0) in Baltimore's newest young diamond organization. Rocky, one of three brothers playing the league, is said to have no superior as a defensive shortstop.

Unbeaten Dodgers top Little League flag race

With about three quarters of the Chesapeake Little League schedule already played, it seems that the pint-sized Dodgers are keeping pace with their namesakes—the National League-leading Brooklyn Dodgers.

The little Dodgers escaped defeat thus far in the campaign.

On Monday they won their 12th consecutive game by whipping the Giants.

• • •

THE CONSISTENT hitting of Franklin James, Leroy Comegys, Donald Wainwright, and Leon Williams, along with the exceptional glove work of Rocky Armstrong, Edward Berry, Carl Armstrong, Edgar Hamlet and James Waddy have been the main factors for the Dodgers' success thus far.

Of course, the controlled pitching of Henry Jones, James Gaskins and Horace Knight cannot be ignored.

• • •

ALTHOUGH THE high-flying Dodgers have first place all to themselves, the battle for second place is still a fast and furious one.

The Yankees are trying to hold on to the second spot and they are relying on such mainstays as William Diggs, Lawrence Robinson, Samuel Carroll, Ronald Marshall, Anthony Williams, and Buddy Nixon to keep them there.

• • •

THE INDIANS are staging a remarkable comeback after a stormy beginning.

Under the new management of Messrs. Manning and Hamlet, the revived Indians are being sparked by Rainer Parker, Leon Green, Edward Wilkens, Lewis Hudnell, David Johnson, Jales Biddle, Teddy Davis, and William Armstrong.

Although the Giants are right in the midst of the battle for second place, the Blue and White seem to have pitching trouble.

They are not discounted however as the steady field work of Anthony Hawkins, Rodney Watts, Donald Murray, Henry Templeton, Wayne Parker and Lonnie Spruill along with the batting of Jeremiah Burroughs shall keep the Giants in the running until the Umpire calls the last manager, boy—out!!

Team standings as of July 19, are as follows:

TEAM	W	L	Pct.
Dodgers	12	0	1.000
Yankees	6	6	.500
Indians	4	8	.333
Giants	3	9	.250

Dirty baseball

(AN EDITORIAL)

Last week the AFRO printed a panel of pictures showing four different baseball players—Roy Campanella, Willie Mays, Gene Baker and Minnie Minoso—in various stages of prostration on the ground because an opposing pitcher had thrown a ball at his head.

All four of these players are now back in action, but whether or not they are physically sound after this harrowing experience is another matter.

Some pitchers will throw a ball at an opposing player's head when that player gets hits off him regularly, and other hurlers will try "beam balls" when the previous hitter has banged a home run.

Baseball philosophy is that this will loosen the batter up, throw fear into him, and prevent him from "digging in" so that he will have a solid stance to put all of his power into the next swing.

There is a baseball law against this sort of thing, but the enforcement of it is spotty.

"Bean balling" must be stopped, however.

Not only is it unsportsmanlike but it could lead to "Murder on the diamond" and most certainly is physically damaging to the players who get hit.

Minoso, back in the game after recovering from a skull fracture, may be permanently injured. Jerry Coleman, the New York Yankee infielder, is the latest victim of this sort of unsportsmanlike conduct.

How long are the league bosses going to permit this dirty play on the part of some pitchers to continue?

Baseball is the national sport. It should teach sportsmanship and enforcement of the rules.

It should not be permitted to sink to the gutter level of professional wrestling.

Let's go fishing

By RALPH WALTON

CAPE MAY, N.J. — Porgies are hitting hard and fast here and many parties are catching their limit creels.

A party of five Baltimoreans — G. Williams, Frank McCready, George Alexander, Bob Dixon and Lester Dawson — caught over 300 porgies on a recent trip. These were the best I have seen in years, most weighing between one-and-a-half and five pounds.

Best time for beginning is around 6 a.m., daily, as that is the usual time for the departure of the boats.

• • •

A PARTY of Washingtonians reportedly had the best fishing trip of their lives last Friday, going to the Chincoteague. Their bag included 100 blues weighing between four and ten pounds.

According to one of them, James Mason, he had to persuade his companions to remain for the windfall, because most of the group wanted to give up after several hours of poor results.

Suddenly they came into a run of bluefish and the results were fantastic. All agree they couldn't seem to bait their hooks fast enough after the action started.

All of which helps prove the point made here last week, that fishing requires patience and persistence.

• • •

AT MOST of the Eastern shore ponds around Maryland from Cambridge down to Salisbury, the fishing is very good in all the small ponds and lakes.

So if you like bluegills, sun perch, crappies, suckers, you may be surprised if you fish these ponds in early morning or late evenings.

• • •

ALTHOUGH fish are being taken in the Chesapeake Bay at present, the fishing is the worst we have experienced in years. There are practically no Norfolk Spots and but a few white perch, in and around Annapolis. The Severn River is just about the same.

Many theories are discussed, but the most recent one is that the spring rains have flooded the tributaries and dumped an unwelcome volume of fresh water into the bay.

Pennsylvania open tennis championships coming

PHILADELPHIA — California has entered five women in the Pennsylvania Open Tennis Championships this weekend at Clark Field, Wissahickon Ave., and Coulter St. and will be a major threat for the women's singles title.

Heading the list is Jean Glover who is currently ranked fourth nationally and recently won the Baltimore tournament defeating her teammate Beverly Coleman in the final round.

Other threats from the far western state are Myrona White, Bertha Hancock and Eleese Thornton who is responsible for the group.

MANY JUNIORS have entered this year's tourney numbering eighteen from this city alone.

The list includes Francis Pettus, Clifton Hubbard, Bobby Haggans, Therone Chappelle, James Guy, Charles Dixon, Charles Greene, David Jones;

William Wilson, Pamella Jones, Earlina Dales, Berverly Hopkins, Patsy Harris, Joee Hall, Brenda Haggans, Marlene Greene, Janet Haggans and Joan Dales.

BUSINESS FIRMS and friends of the association have added interest in each event through their generous donations.

Four beautiful trophies ranging in size from twenty to twenty-four inches have been donated by the Schaefer Brewing Company through Fritz Saitch, former national singles champion and now public relations man for Schaefer.

Topliners in AAU meet at Morgan Sunday

Many of the leading track and field athletes of the East will be on hand at Hughes Stadium, Morgan College, Sunday to complete in the sixth annual Eastern AAU championships.

Although the familiar figures of Josh Culbreath and Art Bragg will be missing, a star-studded array of cinder performers will compete, beginning at 2 p.m.

Culbreath is touring Europe with an American squad and Bragg is not sufficiently satisfied with his condition to toe the mark in this usualy rugged affair.

• • •

THE CROSS CITY Club has entered its formidable squad, headed by dash stars Ed Waters and Lin Morton. Both are expected to dispute the issue with Lindy Remigino in the 100 and 220 yard races. Remington, ex-Manhattan College ace, is the 1952 Olympic champion in the 100.

Among other nationally known figures slated to take part are Wes Santee, America's premier miler, now runing in the colors of the Quantico Marines; Bill Taylor, former University of Southern California halfmiler, and Reggie Pearman, three times national 880-yard king.

YALE UNIVERSITY, is sending its all-around weight star Stewart Thompson who has done 54 ft. in the 16 lb. shot, 170 ft. in the discuss, 180 ft. in 16 lb. hammer and 36 ft. in the 56 lb. weight throw.

The New York Pioneer Club is also entering a strong team headed by Gordon McKenzie, who is American record holder in the six-mile run.

Defending his pole-vault title will be Ed Harrington of Notre Dame who won this event last year with a vault of 14 feet.

Robins'n-Castellani in TV bout Friday

SAN FRANCISCO — With a shot at Bobo Olson's middleweight title at stake, former champion Sugar Ray Robinson and ranking contender Rocky Castellani will match skills at the Cow Palace Friday night (July 22.)

The bout will be seen over NBC-TV and broadcast over the same network starting at 10 p.m. (EDT). Jimmy Powers will comment for televiewers and Don Dunphy and Win Elliott will describe the bout for radio audiences.

Robinson has won four of five bouts since coming out of retirement. The former Welter and middleweight titlist has won three straight following a defeat by Tiger Jones last winter.

• • •

CASTELLANI decisioned Chico Varonz in his last outing. He's itching to get another shot at Olson's crown after having lost a 15-round decision to the champ last year.

The 28-year-old Clevelander has beaten such opponents as Tiger Jones, Ernie Durando, Johnny Bratton and Gil Turner. He has won 59 in 67 starts—six losses and two draws.

Sugar Ray has won 135 of 142 while losing four and getting two draws. One contest ended in no decision.

Stewart top seeded in Jersey tennis

LEONIA, N.J. — Newark's George Stewart, men's singles champ last year and seven times national colored singles champion, has been seeded number one in the Bergen County open men's singles tournament this year.

Stewart began his quest of the Bergen County championship with an easy 6-3, 6-1 victory over Walter Gooper of River Edge at the Leonia Courts.

Charles to box the Hurricane

Ezz-Jackson signed for Aug. 3

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (ANP) — Former heavyweight champion Ezzard Charles will meet Kangaroo - punching "Hurricane" Jackson in a televised 10-round-er in the War Memorial Auditorium here Aug. 3, Promoter Norm Rotcherchild announced last week.

Charles, who won a close decision over light heavyweight Paul Andrews in Chicago recently, will be seeking his fifth victory in six bouts since losing his second fight to heavyweight champ Rocky Marciano.

However, Jackson does not figure to pose a serious threat. The colorful heavyweight has lost some of his lustre since he was reduced to a milk breeze by spoiler Jimmy Slade in a fight in which Jimmy outfoxed him. More recently, however, Jackson defeated Slade in a return match.

The Charles - Jackson fight will be co-sponsored by the International Boxing club.
