Gadabouting in Baltimore

Heat little hindrance to Baltimore matrons with Lula Jones Garrett...

Not these industrious Baltimore gals.

The temperature soared toward the 100 mark, last week, but Odelle Payne (president) and Ruth Brown (project, chairman) were out in the midst of it plotting plans for the presentation of Mattiwilda Dobbs by the Provident Hospital Guild at Polytechnic on Nov. 18, with a reception afterwards.

Baltimore Dallas wrapped up plans for an after-dinner scholarship benefit dance at the coliseum on Thanksgiving night, having secured the Sy Oliver orchestra for the event.

Sy Oliver is one of America's greatest musical arrangers. A member from Jimmie Lunceford's orchestra, he orchestrates for Frank Sinatra and Tommy Dorsey, plays behind Sammy Davis, Jr., is arranger for Judy Garland and King Cole, composing "Opus Opus" and "For Dancers Only" and is musical director for Decca Records and Jackie Gleason.

Money from such Delta projects sustains scholarships for high school girl graduates through college periods. Two man and women (Meta Patterson and Catherine Francis) received degrees from Morgan State College in June as result of their aid. And presently Deltas are sponsoring students at Wilson College in Illinois, St. John's in Annapolis and Howard University, Washington.

And that hard-working Crownsville Women's Auxiliary cannot be now canteen, but Thursday, its chief need now is volunteer workers. If you have an extra hour or so, lend a hand. Call Mrs. Palestine Anderson, 2319 Windsor, LA. 3-9453. Mrs. Anne Richey is chairman, Miss Sulalla Mallory, manager, and Mrs. Roy Hamilton, president.

CUPIDOODLING: Miss Marilyn Elizabeth Greer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maceo Greer, and James H. Chase, 2/Lt. United States Air Force, nephew of Mrs. and Mrs. Wittfield Bolden, announced plans for their marriage, this week. The wedding will take place Saturday afternoon, August 13, in Ames Methodist Church, Baltimore. A reception, in the church, will follow the ceremony.

Miss Felishia Thornton will serve as maid of honor. The bridesmaids will be Miss Helena Sorrell, Miss Bettye P. Harris, Miss Charlotte Williams and Miss Alice Jones all of Baltimore. Linda Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Foster, will serve as flower girl, while Paul Foster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Foster will be ring bearer.

Charles Bagley will be best man and the ushers will include Robert Bagley, Gregory Bagley, Joseph Jones and Theodore Rhodes.

Miss Greer is a senior at Morgan State College and a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority. Mr. Chase is a Morgan graduate and a member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity.

SUAVEST PARTY of the week was of course, the Swaggerty party to Cleveland over the weekend.

Members and their wive reached Mt. Royal station around 9.30 . . . to be entertained by a little band while assembling . . . to board a train suite (pullman lounge-dining unit) for a couple of days dancing, dining, sipping card playing or just making talk. Took their own musicians by the way.

The wives donned their swankiest . . . including Maude Woodland in a black and white creation and the most fetching of plastic and black leather shoes; Verna Gosnell in an imported black cotton ensemble for embarking; Margaret Harmon, breakfasting next morning, in pink satin, blue embroidered house coat, intriguing wooden-sole shoes; Elizabeth Laws dashing, that day, in a black and white sheath, matching hose, with a airkiss hair-do, her dark tresses piled high on her head in these days of sharp hair cuts.

The railroad company put their experts on the project. Charlie Ross, NYC, the only non-white inspector, made the complete trip with the party . . . and John Stewart, Baltimore, was waiter-in-charge, who anticipated every wish, from drinks to cards. Everybody was having such a high time on train, that scarcely anyone wanted to even take a peep-see at Cleveland. One or two did take a short jaunt into the city . . . but they had a cocktail party on train for Cleveland friends.

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles
Science Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids
New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.
In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.
Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.
And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!
In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoidal conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.
All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.
This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H.® Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drugstores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Miss Carrie Stokes married to 2nd Lt. Matthew Marcus

Miss Carrie L. Stokes and 2nd Lieut. Matthew Marcus, Jr., were married here recently, at the Fountain Baptist Church.

The Rev. Dennis Burrow officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Stokes, and the bridegroom is the son of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Marcus, Sr.

Nuptial music was played by Mrs. Matilda Stokes, organist, and Miss Marlene Wallace, soloist.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the dining hall of the church.

THE BRIDE given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina-length gown of white imported lace . . . including Maude Woodland in a black and white creation and the most fetching of plastic and black leather shoes; Verna Gosnell in an imported black cotton ensemble for embarking; Margaret Harmon, breakfasting next morning, in pink satin, blue embroidered house coat, intriguing wooden-sole shoes; Elizabeth Laws dashing, that day, in a black and white sheath, matching hose, with a airkiss hair-do, her dark tresses piled high on her head in these days of sharp hair cuts.

She wore a ballerina-length gown of white organdy, appliqued with pink embroidery with a large pink sash and carried a cascade bouquet of pink carnations.

The bridemaids wore identical gowns of green, orchid and blue with matching headbands and short organdy mitts and carried old-fashioned bouquets. They were Misses Mattie Faulcon, Ruby Fowlkes, and Juanita Marcus.

Little Vendetta Stokes, niece of the bride was the flower girl. She wore a white nylon dress with a hoop skirt and carried a basket of gladioli and baby's breath.

2ND LIEUT. JAMES D. Delaney served as the best man. Ushers were, 2nd Lieut. William Buckley, 1st Lieut. William S. Lee, Jr., and 2nd Lieut James Walls.

Escorts for the mothers were 2nd Lieut. Edgar Colbert and Chief-Warrant Officer William Roberts, all of Fort Dix, N.J.

Mrs. Stokes chose for her daughter's wedding a gray chantilly lace dress with pink accessories. The bridegroom's mother was becomingly attired in a pure silk dress with pink accessories. Both mothers wore orchid corsages.

The bride is a typist for the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Lieut. Marcus is a 1953 graduate of Morgan State College. Before entering the service he was on the faculty at Lincoln High School Frederick, Md. He is a member of the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity and the Morning Star Lodge.

Following the reception a party was given in honor of the bridal couple by the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. Martha Underwood. Also present were their attendants, friends and members of the families. Immediately after, the couple departed on a wedding trip to Lake George, Upstate New York, where they honeymooned for a week. They extended their trip by spending a few days in NYC with the bridegroom's aunt.

MRS. DAVID REDD, whose marriage took place in Baltimore, recently, is the former Miss Dorothy Drummond.

Miss A. Anthoni Bradford is bride of William G. Brown Jr.

Ames Memorial Methodist Church was the scene of the wedding of Miss A. Anthoni Bradford, and William C. Brown, Jr., Sunday afternoon.

The Rev. J. F. Frye officiated at the five p.m. ceremony. Mrs. Anna Andre, grandmother of the bride, was soloist and Mrs. Alma Brown was at the console.

THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her father, wore an ankle-length gown of white lace and carried a bouquet of lilies.

Her sister, Miss Blanche Bradford, was maid of honor and other attendants were Misses Louise Washington, Shirley Harris and Mirjam Freeman.

The bridesmaids wore blue frocks and carried old-fashioned bouquets.

William Hill was best man for Mr. Brown, and ushers were Robert Jackson, Thomas Jones and Arthur Bradford. Alma Jackson was ringbearer.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding and reception included:

Mr. and Mrs. George Gray, Theodore Maynard, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Willis, of Washington, Miss Sofia Norris of Asbury Park, N.J., Mr. and Mrs. George Manard, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Maynard, Miss Mary Brown, Louis Stephen, of Friendship, Md., and Miss May Maynard of Annapolis, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown will be at home at 1821 Lorman St. upon their return from a wedding trip.

MRS. NAN MICHAEL of Asheville, N.C., is visiting her daughter, Miss Helen Michael, in Baltimore for 10 days. She was house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Moore of 1732 Ruxton Ave. Mrs. Michael has been supervising manager of the North Carolina Employment Security Commission for the past 18 years.

Ritual in Enon Church unites Miss Phyllis Rice, S. Harcum

Miss Phyllis Ann Rice, daughter of Mrs. Beatrice Rice, and Samuel H. Harcum Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Harcum Sr., were married recently in Enon Baptist Church with the Rev. Arthur J. Payne officiating.

The sanctuary of the church was decorated beautifully with huge baskets of white gladioli and palms.

Soloist for the ceremony was Mrs. Mary Hopkins. Nuptial music was provided by the church organist, Mrs. Catherine Boston.

GIVEN IN marriage by her uncle, Melton Rice, the bride was attired in a white ankle-length gown of Chantilly lace with a fingertip veil of tulle. She carried a nosegay centered with a white orchid.

MRS. JACQUELINE R. Savoy, the bride's sister, served as matron of honor. Her ankle length gown was of ice blue lace accentuated with a flower on either side of the skirt.

The bridesmaids gowns were fashioned identical to that of the matron of honor but in varied colors. Mrs. Bettye M. Shelton's gown was mint-green and Mrs. Sonny Johnson's gown was lavender. Their bouquets were comprised of old fashioned flowers with streamers to match their gowns.

James Tunstall served as best man, LaCurtis Johnson and John Hagan were ushers.

Mrs. Rice chose for her daughter's wedding a pink lace dress with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother was becomingly gowned in dusty rose with matching accessories. Their corsages were of white orchids.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's mother. Floral arrangements were of white gladioli and palms. The bride's table held a beautiful five tiered cake. Three hundred guests were present at the reception.

Miss Elizabeth Anthony, Douglass High School faculty, has returned from a week in Philadelphia, where she attended the sessions of the American Library Association, after which she spent a week in West Haven, Conn.

Mrs. Jeanne G. Worrell, formerly of this city and now teaching in NYC, is spending a couple of weeks here with her mother, Mrs. Cora V. Gosnell, and aunt, Miss Rebecca Shell. She was accompanied here by her husband, Lloyd, who returned to New York, but will come back to accompany her home at the end of her stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Johnson have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Fletcher in Buffalo, N.Y., for two weeks. Mrs. Johnson is the sister of Mr. Fletcher. The visitors saw Niagara Falls, Canada, Crystal Beach, Ontario, Hamburg, Lancaster and Angola, N.Y., while in the vicinity of Buffalo. Dr. C. M. Lawrence left Sunday for Jamaica to vacation with his sisters, Mrs. Advira Jones and Mrs. Amy Henry; also the Rev. Edwin H. Aloe in Brownstown, Dr. Ann and the Rev. Sydney H. Heling in Montego Bay. Miss Florence Dennis saw New York last week . . . went on to Wingdole Lodge up in the Berkshires for rest.

Mrs. Lillian F. Simmonds was in New York last weekend to visit her godchild, Gwendolyn P. Noel, whom she entered in the seven week summer course at the Ballet Theatre School there.

Her husband, O. C. F. Simmonds, scout commissioner, drove her to the Big Apple, for the weekend there also. Gwendolyn is residing in St. Joseph's Home, operated by Polish Catholic sisters for students, working girls and retired women. She expects to return late in August, and, in September, enter her second year at St. Frances Academy to which her godmother (an alumnus) has been sending her for the past two years.

The members of the Twelve Club spent the weekend at the summer home of Dr. and Mrs. Saul Purdue in Gloucester County, Va.

Situated on the York River, it is an ideal vacation spot.

The time was spent in fishing, crabbing and a limited amount of hiking.

Making the trip were Dr. Houston Jackson, Dr. Edward N. Brown, Dr. George Cross, S. Leroy Taylor, John W. Woodhouse, Grafton L. Moore, Reuben Jones, Talmadge Hill, Calvin Roache, Frank J. Sorrell and Dr. Purdue.

Mrs. Margaret Gassaway Cooper, visited Atlantic City, N.J., the past weekend. They stayed at the summer home of their in-laws, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Jones, Mrs. Jones (Louise), a local schoolmarm, Mr. ones, a postal employee, are now fishing in Ontario, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Taylor entertained their relatives from Cleveland, Ohio, at a party Monday night in their club cellar.

FIFTEEN HOSTESSES, smart enough, both to come and as to their endeavors, held forth in Club Tijuana Sunday, packing the place to the hilt at a benefit cocktail party for Fellowship House.

Each of the gals fetched their own . . . wares (?hors d'oeuvres) made with their own hands (a hundred each) and rivaling the art of any town caterer.

They garnered Eddie Heywood for entertainment.

Serving as hostesses were Sue Vallenstein, Miriam Brown, Mabel Grant, Mary Maiden, Ellsworth Rheta, Nicki Randolph, Robbie Chissell, Ivy Harris, Virginia Piper, Anethis Williams, Verda Welcome, Shirley Polivoy, Jimmy LaForest, Kay Carter, Helen Glover and Mae Gelman, director of Fellowship House.

Mrs. J. Logan Jenkins and Mrs. Willie Wynn have returned home after a short vacation in New York.

THAT QUICKIE planned garden party of the Sixth Ward Women's Civic League turned out to be a feast for gourmets, what with various members (making it Dutch) fetching choice viands.

The party was at the home of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Wilkerson, Mrs. Wilkerson being president of the unit. The beautiful parsonage is only recently occupied by the clergyman and his wife.

The idea was that spread on a beautifully decorated table, under a colorful umbrella, and including a range from the hors de'oeuvres and barbecued potato chips, to decorative ices and fine cakes and cookies, candies and nuts.

It was gratifying to see Mrs. Dorothy Ross, one of the long-term members and past president, relax for the dance. Instead of her usual hard-working, keeping-things humming, she relied on a lounge chair and smilingly took it easy for nence.

The group had really closed sessions for the summer, but felt that there was need for a bit of "fellowship" to bridge the gap between now and the September opening.

Inevitably there was discussion of the need of a neighborhood playground and Mrs. Josephine Maxwell appointed to explore the section bounded by Biddle, Caroline, Broadway and Preston streets, and report prospects for such a project.

Attending the party were:

Mesdames Arnetta M. Moore, Bessie Henry, Eloise Jones, Corrine Jennings, Eva Taylor, Willie Nowden, Imogene Douglass, Arizona Redmond, Wilkerson, Ross, Josephine Maxwell and Mrs. Mary A. Peck, who was chairman.

MEMBERS AND friends of the Ta-Wa-Si Club spent an enjoyable time at their annual picnic held recently at the Glen Burnie home of Mr. and Mrs. William Finney.

They were the guests of her sister, Miss Erma Holland.

Around and about, languishing in the fine country breezes were: Mr. and Mrs. George Ford, Roy Futch, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoi Chester, Miss Lillie Mae Britain, Larry Wardlaw of Philly, Mrs. Henrietta Scott, Levi Chase, Francis Johnson, Hugo Dotson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Walker;
