By MARJORIE J. WARD

Miss Beverly Griffin Cherton Rd. is spending her vacation in Durham, N.C. with her aunt, Mrs. Sadie Bradley and grandfather, J. R. Mearse.

On Sunday, July 24, at 5 p.m. the Cherry Hill Methodist Church will sponsor the Metropolitan Gospel Choral Group from Norfolk, Va. The Group will sing at the Cherry Hill Community Center.

Accompanying Mr. and Mrs. William Ferrell on the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Willie Moore. Mr. Moore is an employee of the Ferrell Co.

William Day Jr., John, Donald and Leslie Spencer, also attended the affair with Mr. and Mrs.

John Spencer. William Day Jr. is an employee of Spencer Brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cunningham, 3010 Ascension St., celebrated their 15th wedding anniversary, Saturday, June 25.

Along The Avenue

Summertime and the living is easy for those who follow the night club circuit around the Monumental City.

"The talk of the town," That's what folks on the Eastside are saying about the "Tuna Toppers" who are now in their seventh month at the Clover Club at Fayette and Wolfe Sts.

The group, headed by Alphonso Brown who plays the sax, piano and singe, are as much a part of the club now as owners Ben Miller and George Fayman.

* * *

DROP BY an evening from Friday on and on the bandstand you will find Donald Brown, vocalist; Charles Broon, on sax, Owen Pate at the drums, Andrew Walker on guitar, Joseph Allen at the piano and Samuel Eggeson on bass.

Look around and you might see four waitresses and three bar maids dispensing with the refreshments.

They are Sarah Tillman, Ruby Pinkston, Emily Rice, Bea Holiday, Billie Booth, Emma Jane and Margaret Neal.

As manager, Henry Pinkston keeps checks on things. He has been at his post 14 months.

* * *

CLUB SARA at 1521 E. Fayette St., is building a reputation for itself. There one can purchase the biggest and cheapest drinks in town. As to be expected the house is always full.

In spite of the landslide business, owner Benjamin Kerman is singing the blues because one of his waitresses failed to appear for work Tuesday. He's looking for a new one.

On hand to keep the customers happy is the Joe Dasher Trio featuring Joe Booker, Warren Patterson, and Joe Dasher.

The Apollo recording stars start their matinees each Sunday at 3 p.m.

* * *

THE "BIRLAND" of East Baltimore, At 715 N. Gay St., the Club Orleans has gained that reputation.

In the air conditioned comfort of the eastside nightery the Stan Moore Trio holds forth on weekends. Your heat is Ben Tayler.

Owner Adolph Holzman has staffed the club with a couple of attractive barmaids, in the person of Bea Lemmon and Rosetta Bush.

* * *

A WEEKEND on the town without visiting the Red Fox Lounge at Fulton and Pennsylvania Ave. would not be complete.

Currently featuring the Poulson Duo of Ethel and Monty, a young team that is on its way to stardom, the club also has that personality kid Billy Fox.

In between intrts of playing downtown, Fox keeps the patrons in a romantic frame of mind with his Nat Cole type of playing and singing.

ETHEL AND MONTY have been at the Red Fox since February and are still drawing crowds. Owners George Fox and his wife, Reba, are especially pleased with the youngsters rendition of "I Hear the Bells."

They claim that the one song alone will carry the duoo to stardom.

Iner Brown, Vickie Clark, and Carrie Holmes are the barmaids there. Francis Bailey checks our hat and coat at the door.

The club's motto for the summer is "Relax In Your Slax."

* * *

FEW MONTHS ago Walley Goldman, owner and manager of the club Astoria at 1309 11 Edmondson Ave., redecorated his establishment and customers are still wideyed over the modernistic designs there.

Five nights each week the Astoria features "Tan Foot Hinds and his swingsters."

Hind this week to assist Lennie Gross at the bar was Ruby Chapman.

Around to lend a helping hand is John Harrison and Herman Claibome.

These were just a few of the places "Avenue" hit this week. Of course things are always jumping at the COMEDY CLUB, CLUB TIJUANA, FULTON CAFE and the KNOTTY PINE CLUB.

Night life in Baltimore is picking up. We'll keep you informed of it weekly.

4 held as holdup attempt suspects

Four men, arrested on suspicion by an alert policeman, early Thursday, were each held under $5,000 bail at Northeastern Police Court Saturday for action of the grand jury on charges of assaulting and attempting to rob a real-estate dealer in the 1600 block Harford Ave.

Held were Donald Turner of the 300 block Old Annapolis Rd., Glen Burnie; Richard Jones of the 2100 block Barclay St., George W. Harris of the 300 block E. 22nd St. and Elmore Gee of the 2100 block Barclay St.

Turner was also held under $500 bail for the grand jury on charges of stealing articles valued at $82 from Milton Phillips of the 2000 block E. Biddle St.

* * *

THE FOUR suspects were arrested in the 300 block N. Gay St. by Patrolman David L. Hubard Sr., when he asked the driver, Turner, for his driver's license and registration card for the 1955 automobile he was driving.

The officer placed the men under arrest when Turner tried to conceal two shotgun shells in the glove compartment of the car. Following questioning at Northwestern Police Station, the men confessed to attempting a holdup.

SGT. WILLIAM Adams, who interrogated the suspects, said they admitted entering the Harford Ave. real estate office of A. M. Dunn, he resisted the attempted holdup and routed the quartet.

A search of the automobile, which belongs to a friend of Turner's, turned up 12 gauge shotgun and a small automatic pistol, police said.
