$$ For Residents In This 'Hi Neighbor' Street

2000 Etting St. is friendly place

Residents to share in $25 worth of AFRO prizes

NEAT AND QUIET—That just about sums up the 2000 block Etting St. where most of the residents have lived for at least five years. They take pride in the appearance of their street which is one of he cleanest in the area. This is the third street to share $25 in prizes in the AFRO's new money game.

THE NICEST ONE—That's the opinion of residents in the 200 block Etting St., who regard Mrs. Ruth V. Bailey of 2003 as the "nicest" person in the street. She has been living in the same block for 21 years, and her pleasant smile and manner are fixtures in the neighborhood.

Many generations ago when some wise man said "the best things come in small packages," he gave the world an adage that fits this week's Hi-Neighbor! Street" like the proverbial glove.

Here in the 2000 block of Etting St., is a small street with all the warmth of a small community where faces very soldogs change and where smiles and friendship are the natural order of things.

This is a neat street, tucked between Preestman and Bloom Sts., with its two-story homes sitting in neat and attractive rows and their freshly scrubbed steps showing the care lavished by the residents.

* * *

AT ALMOST every other home, flowers have either been set under the window ,or on the steps, giving the street a charming and picture-like quality.

This street is the third to be honored in the AFRO's new Hi Neighbor!" feature, published in the Tuesday and Friday editions. Each article features a different street in our city, and the residents of that street share in $25 worth of prizes offered by the AFRO.

Most of the persons living in the street honored in this edition, have been living here for at least five years. It seems that when people move into this street, they find it so pleasant that they stay.

* * *

THE RESIDENTS work at a variety of occupations ranging from construction worker to policeman. Over half of them either own or are buying their homes.

There are approximately 35 children living in the street and 75 adults. Many of the homes have colorful porch furniture sitting outside on the pavement, serving as cool resting places when the sun goes down.

From early in the morning, when the first child comes outside of the house, until after dark, when the last adult heads for bed, this street is alive with movement. But the noise never rises above a whisper. The residents pride themselves on having one of the quietest streets in the area.

* * *

THE OLDEST resident is MRS. VICTORIA CLARK, 75, who has been living at 2021 for 38 years, and who smilingly says that she was named for Queen Victoria.

Families have come and gone since Mrs. Clark first moved into her home, but she proudly boasts that she can remember the name of every family who ever lived in this street.

Her home is filled with pictures and books that belong to a past era, but still play an important role in her life, by keeping the past close to her.

* * *

OF HER BLOCK, where she intends to remain, Mrs. Clark has this to say:

"The people have changed but not the block; it is like it was when I first came here. A quiet street."

Her husband, Fletcher C. Clark, also lives at the house. He is employed at Forest Park as a gardener.

* * *

THE SECOND oldest resident of the street is NORMAN HARRIS, 64, of 2032 Etting St., who has lived at his home for 36 years. He has two daughters and a son, all married.

Mr. Harris' wife died some time ago, and he lives alone. He is a retired bank employee and has served as a steward at Metropolitan Baptist Church for 41 years. He is also a member of the Elks and the Odd Fellows, as well as several other organizations.

Mr. Harris has enjoyed the years spent in this street and noted that within the last two or three years the street has shown an improved appearance.

* * *

MUCH OF the credit for this is given to AFRO Clean Block Workers, who this year have decorated the vacant lots at the Preestman end of the street.

Another veteran resident is Mrs. Cora H. Haydon of 2023, who has lived here for 36 years. She lives by herself and is employed by a private family. She is a member of Sharon Baptist Church.

The largest family in the street is to be found at 2019, where there are three adults and seven children. In this house lives cute MISS SHIRLEY JONES, 18; her mother, Mrs. Victoria Jones, and her sister, Mrs. Delores Taylor.

Mrs. Taylor has four children, Norman, 2; eJanette, 4; Paul, 5, and Glen Taylor, 7. Mrs. Jones has three other children, Vernon, 11; Ronald, 14, and Wilbur, 16.

* * *

THE POLICE DEPARTMENT is represented by Officer Wilbert Sisco of the Northeastern District who lives at 2028 with his wife, Mrs. Lois Sisco, and their two children, Karen, 4 and Wilbert Jr., 7.

The family has been living here five years and Mrs. Sisco says:

"I like living here, it's so nice and quiet."

At 2003 lives MRS. RUTH V. BAILEY, whom her neighbors describe as the "nicest person in the block" because of her ready smile, and pleasant personality which has helped many a neighbor in trying moments.

With Mrs. Bailey live her husband, Elmer, and two sons, Purnell, 10, and Betram, 5. Three other sons are in service. They are Donald, 23; Auburn, 22, and Roland, 19.

The family has lived here for 21 years, and in all that time, Mrs. Bailey can recall no unpleasant moments. She is a member of Calvary Baptist Church.

* * *

FOR NINE YEARS, BURNETT BALTZEGAR, and his wife, Mrs. Annie Baltzegar, and her daughter, Mary Lyles, have lived at 2005. Mr. Baltzegar, a cook, says:

"This is one of the quietest streets I have ever seen in Baltimore."

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ferrell live at 2009 with their daughter, Virginia, 11, and son, Arthur Jr. They have lived here for four years and like the street. Mr. Ferrell is employed by a downtown department store.

An employee of a local dairy, Perry Daniels, lives at 2026, with his wife, MRS. HENRIETTA DANIELS, a niece, Gladys Martin, and two children, Douglass, 3, and Perta, 15 months.

* * *

MR. AND MRS. Grady Meachem occupy the house at 2022, with their children, Joseph ELIZABETH, Shelby and Wilbur. Joseph was recently discharged from the Army and is employed at Pratt Library.

Mr. and Mrs. ROPER PARHAM have lived at 2012 for 18 years and say of their block: "We like it fine." Both are members of St. Peter Claver's Catholic Church. Also living in the house is Mrs. Stella Coates, Mrs. Parham's mother.

Two sisters Mrs. Viola Franklin and Mrs. DAISY FRANKLIN, occupy the house at 2016. They have lived here for four years.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Livers live at 2014 with their children, Delores, 3, David, 4, and Barbara, 1. They have lived here since last September and have "no complaints" about their block.

* * *

MR. AND MRS. Joseph Readdy live at 2030 with their two children, Mary, 15, and Joseph, 7.

They have lived here 16 years and Mr. Readdy is a construction worker.

At 2020, live Mrs. Lilla Winslow, her mother, Mrs. Laura Norris, her brother, Charles Harris, and grandson, Wallace Hargrove. They have lived here 22 years.

There you have some of the people who help make up the population of this street with its 36 homes. A street that is much like a small town, where everyone knows everyone else, and everyone is a friend.

HI, NEIGHBOR! YOU, TOO, MAY WIN DOLLARS . . .

Here is the AFRO's brand 'new feature, "Hi Neighbor!" which means cash to the people featured here. Each issue, the AFRO will pay out $25 to the residents of a particular street. Here' how:

1. $5 goes to the person whose head appears in the oval;

2. $5 goes to the person whose name appears in HEAVY TYPE ike this in the story.

3. $10 worth of ice cream from the Jumbo Ice Cream Co. goes to the entire block.

There is nothing to buy—nothing to sell. All you have to do to collect your money is be in the oval, or have your name underscored in the story.

You can pick up your money or designated someone to pick up your money by calling at City Desk Monday through Saturday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Residents of the street selected can qualify for their $10 worth of ice cream by designating some resident to call at the AFRO City Desk and pick up a certificate for same. Only 5 signatures are required.

Your street might soon be featured in this brand new "Hi, Neighbor!"'feature. Keep watching each issue of the AFRO for the block which will share the $25 in prizes. If you think there is a special reason why your street should be featured next, write Hi Neighbor, Editor, City Desk, Baltimore AFRO, 1, Md.

WATER FOR FLOWERS—Mrs. Marie Timpson, of 2008 Etting St., shows one of the reasons that her flowers are among the prettiest in this 'Hi Neighbor!' street. She has lived here with her mother for 15 years.

C and P adds more facilities

The Windsor 4 dial central office, which now serves former Woodlawn and Gwynn telephones is the latest addition of modern telephone facilities for Baltimore's rapidly expanding suburban area: Located at 6601 Windsor Mill Road, the new Windsor 4 dial office was place in operation July 10th, according to G. C. Hicks, C. and P. division manager.

The new building houses equipment which replaces the Gwynn and Woodlawn switchboards and includes the latest electronic devices for completing and recording customer dialed long distance calls.

* * *

IN ADDITION to local dialing, all one and two party telephones are equipped for direct distance dialing of station-to-station calls to 10 communities in Maryland as well as Boston, Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit, Newark, New York Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Washington, D.C.

A complete billing record of each long distance call is made by an electronic brain which punches holes in a paper tape.

This tape is later fed through other electrical machines that interpret the information from which customers' monthly long distance service statements will be prepared. This new process is known as automatic message accounting.

Hygiene group needs workers

Housewives, students asked to help

Senior high-school students and teachers on vacation, retired office workers, housewives and others with two or more free hours a week, are urged to contribute time at headquarters of the Greater Baltimore Mental Hygiene Society, 317 E. 25th St., for the clerical clean-up of the 1955 Mental Health Fund.

Dr. James S. Whedbee, Jr., president of the society, reports that current campaign costs for the mental health drive are now held to an all-time low because of the efforts of the more than 125 volunteer typists and clerical workers who reported to headquarters, and an additional 50 who worked from home or school.

Many persons at the height of the campaign, worked weekends, holidays and evenings to assure the continuance of the society's child guidance clinic and the expansion of its programs for the education of patients in Maryland's state mental hospitals.

Dr. Whedbee urges volunteers who can type, file, stuff envelopes or do other office routine to phone BE. 5-9786, or visit headquarters at 317 E. 25th St. 9 a.m., Mondays through Fridays.

More help for Mack triplets

The Grand Court of Calanthians of the Knights of Pythias joined with other citizens this week in helping the Mack Triplets born June 13 to Mr. and Mrs. George Mack of 540 N. Fulton Ave.

Mrs. Elizabeth K. McLaren and Mrs. Anna W. Taylor took the triplets, Alfred, Albert and Benjamin, two dozen diapers, 15 baby shirts, 3 bibs, 4 wash cloths, a large rubber sheet and rattles. President of the group is Richard Richardson.

The Prosperity Charity Club also gave the parents $10

The Macks, who have three other children, are living in one room at the Fulton Ave. address. When the babies were born, Mr. Mack was job hunting. Since then he has found a part-time waiters job. The older children are living with their grandparents.

Judges chose these TEN...

My mother, who was talking about the Scriptures, asked my son if he wanted to go to Heaven, and he said:

"I don't know, grandmother, it hasn't been so very long since I came from there."

William L. Lewis, age 5½
Son of Mrs. Mildred Lewis
1549 E. Pratt Street
Baltimore 31, Md.

One Sunday, while our son Dennis was quite young, I took him to church where he sat very quietly during most of the service, but he seemed to become quite enthused as the pastor delivered a stirring sermon in which he praised God as our sole source of support, health, etc. He emphasized his statement by asking "Who else can give us food; who else can give us shelter; who else can provide us with the necessities of life?

As if in direct answer the baby, whose vocabulary was limited to "Mama" and "Daddy," promptly yelled "DADDY."

Dennis Waddell
Son of Mrs. Mildred J. Waddell

Baltimore 2, Md.

I was telling a friend that during an illness I had become delirious and was "talking out of my head." My young son, six, said, "Mother, why didn't you talk out of your mouth?"

Lowell B. Tutman, age 6
Son of Mrs. Theresa Tutman
457 Walton Court
Baltimore 1, Md.

My twin boys were talking over the wonders of nature. Said Marc, "Aren't ants funny things? They just work and work all the time and never play."

"Oh," said the other, "I don't know. Every time you go on a picnic, there they are."

Marc and Michael Bloom, age 5
Sons of Mrs. Sarah Bloom
2812 Oakford Avenue
Baltimore 15, Md.

One day during last summer my son and I were relaxing on the porch in the cool shade when we both saw a sea gull flying slowly across the sky when suddenly my son shouted, "Mama, I just saw an angel!"

Samuel S. Scott, age 4½
Son of Mrs. Margaret Scott
2476 Spelman Road
Baltimore 26, Md.

On Thursday, May 23rd, my two young girls, Karen, age 5, and Teri, age 3, were sitting at the kitchen door on the floor watching the rain and lightning and listening to the thunder, while I was busy washing dishes. The little one said, "Karen, what's that noise?" "Thunder," replied Karen, "and Mommy says when it is thundering, God is changing His furniture around." "Umm," says Teri, "He sure is making a lot of noise." After a few moments of silence, a big clap of thunder came and Karen said, "Oh, oh! He must have dropped something that time."

Karen Langley, age 5
Teri Langley, age 3
Daughters of Mrs. Janie C. Langley
1149 N. Bentalou Street
Baltimore 16, Md.

One day Kenneth came in muddy and wet. He told me he fell in a mud puddle. To punish him I made him stay in. As I was reading from the Bible, he said, "Mother, didn't you tell me the world goes round and round?" I said, "Yes, it does." He said, "That's what tripped me and made me dirty."

James Spenser, age 10
Son of Mrs. Pauline Spenser
1402 N. Warwick Street
Baltimore 8, Md.

We were going to North Carolina June 12. All was quiet. My son, James, saw where a house had been burned down and nothing left but the chimney. He said, "When the people moved from there, they took everything they had."

Mrs. Earl Lee
2935 Walbrook Avenue
Baltimore 16, Md.

We were putting the children to bed one night and there was a half moon in the sky. Junior, age 5, at the time, went over to the window. It was the first time he had seen a half moon, so he said: "Mama, come here and look! Look up there, this is going too far. Somebody has gone and cut that moon in half . . . uh-uh-uh!" Junior is now 7 years old.

When my daughter was 3 years old, she came running out of the kitchen shouting, "Mommy, mommy, Hickory, dickory, dock is in that kitchen."
