In and Around Annapolis

By BOB PINKNEY

ANNAPOLIS — Anne Arundel County has joined the rest of the state in halting its Salk polio vaccine program to obey the rules of the State Board of Health.

Although County health officer, Dr. J. Howard Beard will tag along with the State Board of Health and the U.S. Surgeon General, the vaccine program in the County is still setup and ready to be placed into operation when the vaccine program continues.

Thousands of music lover on Sunday watched in delight as Al Hibbler made his Annapolis appearance at Carr's Beach.

* * *

THE HEART warming vocalist of Little Rock, Ark., along with Mambo King Eddie Bonnemere flared the beach into an uproar.

Hibbler, sporting a stylish sport shirt packed the Chesapeake Bay Pavilion and nearly tore it down as the "Bobbysox." flipped under his version of "Unchained Melody."

Hibbler along with John Malachi, who will swing North this week to Washington and then Philadelphia showed up around 4:45 p.m. when he and Hoppy Adams did a broadcast, and although he sang in a classical way the audience took him by storm.

STANLEY TAYLOR, Annapolis, was the lone colored person Saturday who participated in the Anne Arundel Radio Clibb's nation wide radio contest to see how many radio operators its members could contact in 24 hours. The local group setup forces in its Arnold, Md., clubhouse headquarters.

According to Taylor, a radio-TV repairman in this area, each "Hand" operator ran his equipment with emergency power provided by portable general.

The Annapolis Police were at their best over the weekend, after setting up its radar device at West Street Parole and the Bay Ridge areas. Speed limits were 25 miles per hour.

* * *

COMMISSIONER George W. Rawlings, said motorist who received tickets may post $10 collateral if so desired or appear before Trial Magistrate for hearing on the date the ticket designates. Commissioner Rawlings said the radar devices will continue throughout the city.

Monday (Independence Day) there will be no Northwest Street YMCA Softball games, says Y director Paul Haughton. However play will resume on Wednesday night with the league leading Beachway Bombers crossing bats with the second place Spa Road Warriors at the Parole Elementary School.

In other contests, the Golden Sportsclub takes on the fifth place Beavers at Bates High School and Finky's Termites will meet the Veterans.

The beautiful ceremony which united Miss Adrienne Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Robinson, of 2830 Spelman Road to Charles Harvey of Pennsylvania was held at St. Veronica's Catholic Church, Sunday, June 26.

The bride wore a ballerina length gown of lace and tulle while her bridesmaids were dressed in pastel shade voile.

* * *

SHE WAS attended by Miss Elaine Robinson, maid of honor, Misses Dorothy and Cornelia Harvey of Pennsylvania, Zoe Carroll Robinson, bridesmaids, and her sister, Miss Charlotte Robinson, junior bridesmaid.

Best man was Augustus Spencer of Delaware. Ushers were Messers Leonard and Melvin Vencent, John and James Robinson. Miss Catherine Neale was at the organ and Mrs. Cecelia Horton was soloist.

* * *

A PARTICULARLY touching moment was when Mrs. Horton sang "On This Day O Beautiful Mother" while the bride presented her flowers to the Blessed Mother. The Rev. Charles Coughlin, SSJ Pastor of St. Veronica's officiated. Altar boys who served were Joseph Pinkney and Melvin Truesdale.

The recention was held at the home of Mrs. Harvey's Aunt, Miss Delores Robinson, 1516 N Central Avenue, and in addition to being part of the wedding festivities, was the occasion for a family reunion. The happy couple are honeymooning in Atlantic City and will later reside in Scranton, Pa.

Appeal for safe holiday weekend issued by Mayor

Mayor D'Alesandro, in an appeal to the citizens of Baltimore to exercise extreme caution in the home, on the streets and highways during the three-day Independence Day holiday.

This figure does not include deaths by drowning, or from other causes.

Said the Mayor:

"It is a shocking fact that traffic accidents increase with each passing year. This is due to the great number of automobiles and trucks using our streets and highways, and disregard for laws enacted for the safety of our people.

"I have been requested by the Automobile Club of America to stress the following safety suggestions:

"1. Don't speed — unless you are in a hurry to commit suicide, and perhaps homicide as well.

"2. Don't attempt to make a long trip one - day. A stop every couple of hours for coffee will revive your reflexes and take the tension off both you and your passengers.

"3. Don't cut in and out. This is a prolific source of accidents.

"4. Observe common courtesy and obey all traffic laws.

"By following these few simple rules of the road, many needless accidents can be averted. Be a good citizen — not a holiday casualty."

LATIN STUDENTS—These pupils attending the opening sessions of summer school classes at Frederick Douglass High School are not on a Roman holiday. They are beginning a six-week review of their Latin studies with Miss Nellie A. Buchanon, teacher. Some 1,700 pupils enrolled at Douglass and two other high schools when the first integrated summer school classes in the city opened Monday.

Rent hike embitters Ernest Lyons tenants

TURNER STATION, Md. — Tenants in the Ernest Lyons Housing Project in this community are in an uproar about the rent raise which is being inflicted upon them on Aug. 1, 1955.

"They call it a low-cost housing project," one tenant cried to the AFRO; "why our rent is being boosted higher than that which people pay downtown," she went on.

The letter from Lyons Home management, dated June 24, 1955, went out to all the tenants who are not buying homes on what was once a Federal Baltimore Housing Authority facility but which has now reverted to private ownership of a corporation.

When the project was federally managed rent was assessed at $46.80 per month for a one-bedroom apartment, up to $54 per month for a unit with three bedrooms.

IN APRIL, however, electric meters were installed for each unit and the tenants were to be billed for individual use of electricity.

However, to counteract that added expense, the government slashed rents so that persons living in one-bedroom units had to pay only rentals of $42 per month and others were reduced commensurately.

The private owners have demanded that all tenants now sign contracts to pay rents ranging from $48.50 to $58.50—and also to pay for their own electricity and provide their own heat.

This, the tenants say, is unfair, and an attempt by the housing authority to deny the private owners the rent boost on the grounds that nothing has been done to improve the property or to merit the rent raise.

The letter from Lyon Properties, Inc. also informed the tenants that Howard Neale would be the new director of the project.

Gets suspended sentence in fatal beating of boy

A 38-year-old man who was accused of beating a four-year-old boy to death, was given a two-year suspended sentence in the House of Correction, Thursday in Criminal Court.

He is Eugene J. Smith Jr., 2800 block W. Lafayette Ave., who was charged in the death of Milton Price, who had been placed in his home by the Department of Public Welfare.

Smith was convicted at a trial before Judge Joseph R. Byrnes on May 26. The jurist withheld sentence pending a probation report.

THE AFRO told police that on March 4, at about 1:15 p. m., he scolded the child for being untidy and sent the boy upstairs to take a bath.

Angered by the boy's untidiness, Smith told police, he slapped the child while he was in the tub. The boy fell. His eye and nose streamed blood.

Police reported that when Smith was unable to get a doctor, he gathered the youngster in his arms and ran to Lutheran Hospital where the boy died.

Smith and his wife had provided a good home for the boy, police reported. It was neat and toys were everywhere.

James W. Murphy, Assistant States Attorney, prosecuted the Case.

Liquor Board acts on 5 applications

The Liquor Board suspended the permits of three taverns Thursday, and agreed to consider the applications of two W. Mulberry St. bar owners.

For selling liquor to minors, the liquor permits of the "Trapani Italian Restaurant" at 802 W. Baltimore St. and the "Travelers Restaurant and Cocktail Lounge at 6500-02 Holabird Ave., was suspended for three days.

Owners of "Carolyn's Bar" at 4111 E. Lombard St., also lost their permit for three days and were given a warning.

The Board agreed to consider applications filed by Daniel Tabor to transfer a Class "B" permit from 797 W. Saratoga St. to 820 W. Mulberry St.; and the request for a "B" permit for 534 W. Mulberry St.
