As Little League Baseball Opened in Baltimore

Many records to fall Saturday

Md., Va., D.C. teams to meet in mile relay

Some of the nation's top track and field records are expected to fall Saturday at the D.C. Recreation Department's fifth annual track and field meet at Banneker, Druid, Georgia and Howard Pl., NW.

The meet will begin at 4 p.m. and will feature some of the country's top athletes from major colleges, athletic clubs and high schools.

Twelve major track squads will be expected to be represented at the classic. They include Maryland University, Morgan State College, Georgetown University, New York Pioneer Club, Penn Athletic Club, Philadelphia Athletic Track and Field Club;

Shannon Catholic A.C. of Philadelphia, Ammons Centag of Pittsburgh, Kearney A.C. of New Jersey, D.C. Athletic Club and the Baltimore Olympic Club.

Highlight of the meet for local fans will be a scheduled match race between mile relay teams from Washington-Lee, Montgomery Blair and Cardozo High Schools.

Each school has won the track championship in its respective area and the D.C. competition will be the first joint meeting of all three teams. Washington-Lee are Virginia champs, Montgomery Blair are Maryland champs.

Fishing rodeo open to children

A Fishing Rodeo sponsored by the League of Maryland Sportsmen and the Junior Chamber of Commerce will be held from 9-12 noon Saturday for children 14 years and under.

The three locations, which are open to all children are the Druid Hill Park Casting Pond, the Patterson Park Boat Lake and the Rowe Estate on Johnny Cake Rd.

Prizes of fishing kits will be awarded to the boy or girl catching the largest fish, the largest assortment of fish and the greatest number of fish.

Fishing equipment will be furnished and registration is free. There will also be free refreshments.

The three ponds have been stocked by the Game and Inland Fish Commission with legal size fish including bass, bluegills, crappers, perch and cat fish.

Clowns return to D.C. for night game July 11

The Indianapolis Clowns have been booked for a return engagement at Griffith Stadium on Monday, July 11, this time in an arclight contest against the New York Black Yankees.

The Clowns, of course, will be supported by the celebrated fun show in which free comedian take-part in the frolicking before the games and between innings.

* * *

ALTHOUGH KING Tut, Spec Bebop and Clown Ed Hamman headline the show, the wackiest stunts have been initiated right under the noses of opposing teams by Prince Jo Henry, a fun - loving third baseman who hails from Wiltenshire, England, and sassy "Saturbeep" Williams, the Ozark mountaineer first baseman, who prefers batting and jumping bases without benefit of shoes.

These baseball buffoons do everything from making hot dogs come out of a machine into which a live pedigreed mascot pup has been placed to shooting ducks out of the skies with a rifle, their peppermint and baseball exhibitions are just about the funniest of their numerous routines.

In Memoriam

CARROLL—In loving memory of our dear mother, ESTELLA, who departed this life, eighteen years ago June 22, 1937

At twilight when twilight hour draws near,
And sunset flames the sky,
We think of you dear mother,
And the happy days gone by.
Thoughts of you come drifting back
Within our dreams to stay.
To know that you are resting
When twilight ends the day.

Devoted Son and Daughter,
GEORG
