COLORFUL STORY OF DAVY CROCKETT ON MET. SCREEN

Few men have lived more adventurous lives than Davy Crockett, whose colorful career is depicted by Walt Disney in "Davy Crockett, King of the Wild Frontier," now playing at the Met Theatre, starring Fess Parker and Buddy Ebsen.

As seen in the feature length, wide screen production, in color by Technicolor, Davy grew bored with simply fighting bears to death and began trying to "grin" them down. When his "death grin" failed, Davy was forced to wrestle the bear into submission.

The same valor that distinguished Crockett as a bear slayer won him further fame as an Indian hunter. He joined General Andrew Jackson's regulars to fight depredating Creeks. But Crockett was also a fair man who lived by the motto, "Be sure you're right, then go ahead."

'LOOTERS' AT HARLEM ACTION PACKED DRAMA

Spine - tingling action, backgrounded by the ragged spectacular beauty of the Pike's Peak area in Colorado, definitely marks Universal-International's "The Looters" as one of the season's most suspenseful outdoor dramas.

The new film, starring Rory Calhoun, Julie Adams and Ray Danton, is now playing at the Harlem Theatre.

Rory Calhoun portrays a former GI who is now working as a mountain guide in the Rockies and is suddenly reunited with an old army buddy, played by Ray Danton. Calhoun does not welcome the unheralded appearance of Danton because of the latter's unsavory background.

When the two discover that a commercial airplane has crashed in the area they scale the rugged mountainside to learn that only four persons have survived the crash. One survivor has uncovered a strong box carrying $250,000 in cash in the plane wreckage and then action begins.

R. SCOTT, 'TALL MAN RIDING' AT THE ROYAL

Randolph Scott stars in "Tall Man Riding," Warner-color action feature now playing thru next Thurs. on the Royal's giant screen. The roaring, turbulent days of the West is the background for this adventure which also stars Dorothy Malone and Peggy Castle.

The story is packed with amazing thrills including a tense gun duel between Scott and a land baron.

Sheer suspense highlights the thrill-packed "Silent Raiders," second attraction on this bill, and a taut drama enacted by a French girl and seven G.I.'s on a dangerous mission.

Jeanette Bourdeaux portrays the buxom French lass and actual veterans of World War II French invasions portrays the male roles.

BATTLE OF THE TITANS— Redstick engages Davy Crockett (Fess Parker) in a tomahawk duel in this scene from Walt Disney's Davy Crockett, King of the Wild Frontier, starring Fess Parker and Buddy Ebsen. In color by Technicolor, now playing at the Met Theatre.

JULIE ADAMS and Rory Calhoun, find romance following the crash of a commercial airline in the Colorado Rockies in this scene from Universal-International's "The Looters," now playing at the Harlem Theatre.

ADA Theatre Party at Hilltop Sunday

The Baltimore Chapter Americans For Democratic Action is sponsoring a Theatre Party on Sunday, June 26 at the Hilltop Theatre when it presents Graham Green's "The Living Room."

The entire theatre of 365 seats has been taken over by the Chapter for this closing performance of the play.

Moments Musical

By ADAM K. JENKINS

Among the summer musical events of interest will be the annual convention of the National Association of Negro Musicians, which will be held in Chicago August 14-20.

The local chapters, Baltimore Guild and Lovey Husketh Guild, are making preparations to attend the convocation which attracts musicians from many sections of the country.

* * *

REPRESENTING the Baltimore Guild will be Mrs. Margaret Rusk Franklin, president; Mesdames Carrie Cargill, Marjorie Butler, Geraldine B. Powell, Bessie Poindexter, Hazel Elderbie, Miss Eleanor Dimmy and Wm. Hassell.

Mrs. Emma Poulson, president of the Lovey Husketh Guild and a national officer, will accompany delegates from the Junior and Youth groups of her organization.

The official youth representative will be Miss Peggy Cyrus, while Audrey Cyrus, pianist and Joan Distance, vocal soloist, will appear on the convention program.

* * *

MRS. VEOLA G. COLEMAN presented her piano students in their annual recital Saturday evening in the hall of Union Baptist Church. The performers, who ranged from 6 to 14 years of age, gave a good account of themselves, in solo and ensemble numbers. There were selections from Standard teaching material, as well as works by Brahms, Schubert, Tshaikowsky and Paderewski.

* * *

GUEST performers were Miss Catherine Neale, a former pupil of Mrs. Coleman's and a piano major at Morgan State College and William Sessoms. The audience enjoyed throughly their presentation of Von Suppe's, "Poet and Peasant Overture" in duet form.

At the conclusion of the program Mr. Sessoms presented the student awards to the class.

* * *

ONE OF THE outstanding events of the month was the first formal recital on the new pipe organ at Morning Star Baptist Church with Herman Schwarz, organist and composer, assisted by Fannie S. Newton, soprano.

The instrument, which is a two-manual organ with chimes, will be used for the five choirs and two choruses of the church.

Professor Schwarz presented a program of historical interest, from numbers by Pachelbel, one of the first Italian organists and the great J. S. Bach, to a group by Theodore Debois, a leading figure in the French School of early 20th century musicians.

Johann Pachelbel, whose "Ciaconna" was played at the concert, was one of the organist who freed his instrument from the restrictions of merely accompanying vocal music and began development of music especially written for the instrument.

He was also a teacher of the great Johann Sebastian Bach's elder brother.

* * *

PROFESSOR SCHWARZ included on the program a "Musette" by Dandrieu. "Sortie" by Verne and two selections from Thomas Arne. One of the highlights of the afternoon was a group of nine compositions by the organist.

Mrs. Newton, who was accompanied by Professor Schwarz, rendered a "Magnificat" by Carl Philip Bach, an aria by Handel, Gounod's "O Divine Redeemer" and the well known Bisset "Agnus Dei" (Lamb of God). Both the singer and the organist were enthusiastically received by a good-sized audience.

The recital was sponsored by the Senior Choir No. 1 of Morning Star Baptist Church, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Louise Robinson and Mrs. Iva Branch, organist and choir leader.

CALENDAR

Tuesday, June 28, 8 p.m. Student Recitals at Sears Auditorium, North Ave. near Harford, pupils of Mrs. Emma Poulson.

Tuesday, June 28 at 8 p.m., Sears Auditorium, students from Mrs. Cecelia McCloud.

Saturday, July 16 at 3:30 p.m., Providence Baptist Church, Edmondson and Fremont Avenues, pupils of Mrs. Gladys W. Davis in organ and piano program.

George M. Crawford to study at Columbia

George M. Crawford, supervisor of curriculum in the State Department of Education, was granted permission at the board meeting Wednesday to attend summer school at Columbia University in New York.

Mr. Crawford is one of two colored members in the department of education.

Graveyard crash fatal to couple

CAMBRIDGE, Md.—Two persons were killed here early Thursday when a car carrying six passengers hurtled off Route 343 and overturned in a graveyard.

Charles P. Ward, 24, of Cambridge, was killed instantly when his head struck a footstone. His body was found lying across a grave.

Mrs. Marie Dixon, also 26, died later in Cambridge Hospital. Police said doctors operated on her in an effort to save her child. She was eight months pregnant. It was reported. The infant was alive at birth but died shortly afterwards.

Also injured in the accident was oel Camper, 22, who suffered a broken leg. The other three occupants of the car were uninjured.

H.U. artists in concert Sunday

Thomas Kerr Jr. concert pianist and professor of piano at Howard University will be assisted by Henry Blackmon, baritone and professor of voice at Shaw University, when he plans an evening of concert music at the McDowell Memorial Presbyterian Church on Sunday at 6:30 p.m.

Kerr is recognized as one of the most outstanding composers of the day. He was the first colored scholarship student at Eastman School, first to perform a full concert at the National Gallery of Art, Wash., D.C.; first to perform with the National Symphony Orchestra Series in a concert.

Kerr recently performed at the famed New York Ave. Presbyterian Church, Washington, D.C. This was an organ recital and consisted of all of his own compositions.

Blackmon has been a member of the cast of the play "Faith of Our Fathers" thus having wide experience in this country and abroad.

RANDOLPH SCOTT and Dorothy Malone are teamed in action and in love in the Royal's western thriller, "Tall Man Riding." Second attraction is "Silent Raiders."

Theatrically YOURS...

NEW YORK, (GLOBAL)—New York disk jockeys who are much on the ball and doing a terrific job: Hal Jackson over at radio station WLIB has become one of the nation's finest disk spinners.

Hal's record buying potential is great among teenagers. Jack Walker, who carries his powerful program nightly over radio station WOV, Leigh Kammen of Radio station WOV is also a mainstay among the diskmen.

Sara Lou and Buddy Bowser (husband and wife team) have a terrific mid-noontime program with chatter and platter over WLIB. The pretty Hilda Sims' early morning program over WOB is very enterta ing. Max Cole of "Wake Up New York" fame is another outstanding dee jay over WOV. Then, of couse, there is Dr. Jive (Tommy Small) on WRL who has quite a following and rightly so. Georgia Carr, the recording thrush, is very entertaining with her nightly program "Car Fare" over WOV.

Art Mooney, who has the current hit on MGM of Honey Babe, now has another on the way in his recording of Alabama Jubilee, backed with Paddlin' Madelin Home. Another good one is The Kentuckian's Song by James Brown (Lt. Rip Masters of the Rin Tin Tin TV Show.) The record is backed with The Man from Laramie. Johnny Hodges is a regular on the Ted Steele daily show over WOR-TV.

Tall tale amusing to police officers

A tale to end all tales was the description given by Eastern District police, Thursday, following the arrest of Frank Wiggins of the 400 block S. Caroline St. Arrested on a deadly weapons charge after an officer chased him into an apartment house in the 100 block Spring St., Wiggins' excuse was: "My girl lives here and I was going inside to kiss her good night."

Patrolman Charles Sims reported that he stopped to question Wiggins and a companion, John Dowdell, also of the 400 block N. Caroline St., when he saw them acting suspicious in a doorway at Lombard and Spring Sts.

When he approached the two men the officer said he managed to grab Dowdell but Wiggins ran away toward the apartment where he was found trying to dispose of a revolver under a stairease.

Wiggins was sentenced to 60 days in jail while Dowdell paid a $25-fine for disorderly conduct.

Four Guys on CBS video show

NRW YORK — The interracial 4 Guys quartet recently chosen by Robert Q. Lewis to substitute for the vacationing Chordettes singers on his CBS-TV show.

One of the top television programs on the air, Lewis' hour long musical variety is considered a lucky plum for up-and-coming performers as it's a sure fire path to fame and stardom.

Their next appearance with Lewis will be Saturday (June 25th) morning.

Tatum to pass up

LONDON — Norman Granz, who handles the booking for jazz pianist Art Tatum, announced here last week that the talented blind musician is planning a tour of Eurpoe.

Granz stated, however, that Tatum will probably pass up this country on account of union difficulties. He said the first engagement for Tatum will be October 15, in Paris.

An English Musicians Union spokesman said the organization is unlikely to approve Tatum's visit to Britain unless a British artist can be assured a similar booking in the U.S.

Band concerts Friday, Sunday

The Number 2 Municipal Concert Band conducted by Harrison M. Dodd will present two concerts, one this evening, (Friday) in front of 1500 Argyle Ave. Musical Union Building at 8 p.m. and on Sunday, June 26, at Grove A. Druid Hill Park at 3 p. m.

For these two concerts an excellent program has been arranged and because of the many requests from audiences at other concerts this season, Mr. Dodd will again present Margaret Bass and John S. Dyson in a flute and horn duet.

These two excellent musicians have won the applause of the large audiences hearing them at previous concerts, and those attending this evenings concert as well as the one on Sunday, will again have the pleasure of hearing these musicians.

Cab Calloway to Cuba and Europe

MEIXCO CITY — Completing a highly-successful five week engagement here this week end, Cab Calloway immediately wings to Havana, Cuba for two weeks at the Warner Theatre.

The Cab will also make a series of radio and television appearances on the island's station ZIR-ZUITO C.M.Q.

This will be a return engagement spanning a six year period for Calloway who played the Warner Theatre in 1949.

Following Havana, Cab will fly to Europe to fulfill a number of engagements on the continent.

During his Mexico City stay, Calloway doubled between the Margo Theatre and the Salon Versalles of the Hotel Del Prado.

Berlin press acclaims singer Lawrence Winters

NEW YORK — Baritone Lawrence Winters, recently selected as a Lord Calvert "Man of Distinction," was again hailed in Berlin by the press for his rich sonorous voice and masterful stage presence.

This is the second time Mr. Winters has sung in this famous European capital. Before leaving for a concert tour of South America, the star will travel throughout the Scandinavian countries—singing first in Stockholm.

During the last operatic season of the New York City Centre Company, Mr. Winters received warm praise from critics of both the New York Tribune and the New York Times for his work in Traviata and Faust.

When the Lord Calvert cameraman visited Winters backstage, he caught the baritone made up for the role of Celio the Magician in Prokoffeff's "Love of Three Oranges." That's how Lord Calbert's ad featuring Mr. Winters was produced.

Mr. Winters studied music at Howard University. A short time after graduation, he became the first colored singer to appear with the NBC Symphony Orchestra.

Since then, Mr. Winters has recorded for Columbia Masterwork been featured on TV, given command performances before President Aleman and Camancho in Mexico City, and toured Italy, France, Belgium, Holland, and Germany.

Roy Hamilton to be honored in Newark

NEWARK, N.J. — Saturday (June 25th) will be a big day in the life of singer Roy Hamilton who headlines the Rhythm and Blues show at the Mosque theatre, for it was here that he worked only three years ago as a handy man around the vaudeville house.
