Morgan eleven has real case of 'glooms'

By SAM LACY

What appears to be a real, genuine, legitimate case—of the glooms overtook Morgan State College coaches as they took stock of their 1954 Golden Bear prospects late this week.

Like the boy who cried wolf in the fairy tale, Coach Eddie Hurt was greeted with a look of suspicion when he told the AFRO Thursday that wholesale losses had virtually wrecked the team which finished second in CIAA standings last year with a 5-1-0 record.

But the tears of the Bear head mentor and his assistants, Marse Hill and Ken and Bon Brown, were found to be justified with the following revelations:

1. Aside from the graduation of Quarterback George Williams and Fullback Larry Harrell, classroom casualties have taken toll of three topline backs from the 1953 squad as well as a high-grade end;

2. Ruled ineligible and unable to play during the 1954 campaign are Halfbacks Jack Dennis and Al Gaines, Fullback Artie Scott and End Bob Barksdale;

3. Joining Harrell and Williams in graduation are Jim Buford, tackle and co-captain; Tim Holley, guard; Howard Hartsfield, end - back; Stanley White, halfback; William Bishop, tackle, and Jimmy Greene, who was the quarterback standin for Williams;

4. Gone into the armed forces from the 1953 outfit are Doug Ferguson, center; Leonard Radall and Bob Colbert, ends;

5. Dropped out of school for one reason or another are Edward McCrae, who though a freshman last season was one of the standout linemen in the conference; Charley Woodfolk, a youngster from Spook Smith's Charlottesville (Va.) high school eleven who showed considerable promise, and Paul Smith, another halfback in whom Morgan tutors were placing much hope.

Of the squad of 59 which tied Virginia State as runner - up in the conference race last year, only 17 are back in the fold. Forty-two men are currently working out in the two - a - day drills in the stadium. These are split down the middle, as the saying goes. Twenty - one are freshmen and the remainder are lettermen holdovers, plus four older layers who are returning in the one they can help.

Best of this quartet, perhaps, Hugh Price Hughes Jr., a center who was out of action in 1953 because of an injury that kept him idle through the latter stages of the 1952 schedule.

ACCORDING TO HURT, the greatest amount of attention is being given to the backfield candidates.

"The loss of our entire backfield," the Bear mentor explained, "makes it of tremendous importance that we concentrate on filling the holes there as best we can, and as quickly as we can.

"Marse (Hill) is a little better off in the line, so he agrees with me in this move. While we lost some key linemen, the situation up front isn't nearly as critical as it is with the backs.

—o o o—

"A LOT OF THESE kids (freshmen)," Hurt continued, "are going to have to deliver right away. They're going to be called on for heavy duty within a couple of weeks. So you can see what we, and they, are up against.

"We're playing Fort Meade a pre-season exhibition game on the 18th, and on the 25th we go to Wilberforce to meet Central State. It's obvious we don't have much time.

"Right now, I'd say our best freshman prospects are Sherwood Brown, a fullback candidate from Beckley, West Va.; Charlie Porter, a halfback from Richmond; Jimmy Morton, another halfback from Verona, N.J., and two Baltimore youngsters, Billy Lambert and Al Jackson, both of Douglass High."

BECAUSE OF THE pressing need for replacements and because of the greenness of the squad, Hurt and his aides are continuing their twice - a - day workouts until September 23.

On that day, the Bears embark for Wilberforce for the annual intersectional tiff with the Marauders, scheduled two days later.

Cancel Kid Gavilan Johnny Saxton fight

Manager's eleventh-hour action laid to champ's virus infection

PHILADELPHIA — The scheduled welterweight championship fight between Kid Gavilan and Johnny Saxton, was cancelled because of the illness of the champion.

Gavilan was stricken by what was first diagnosed as a virus infection, but later was ascertained to be a case of the mumps.

Announcement of the cancellation was made by Kid Gavilan's manager, Angel Lopez, who said the champion had become ill Tuesday morning, had a lump on one side of his face and a temperature of 101 degrees.

Lopez's statement that Gavilan had suffered an attack was verified by Dr. Milton Krouse, gold at the Essex Hotel, where Gavilan was staying. Boxing commission officials also verified the report.

THE FIGHT was cancelled after Lopez hurriedly called the three Pennsylvania Athletic Commissioners Frank Weiner (chairman), George Jones and John Holahan,* Promoter Herman Taylor and Frank Palermo, Saxton's manager, to the hotel suite Tuesday night.

"It's too bad," said Palermo, "because Saxton would have been the new champion. I got information that Gavilan boxed eight rounds today in heavy clothes."

While Palermo said he didn't know if a new date for the fight had been set, Lopez said Gavilan would have to take at least a month's vacation from the ring.

Sensing that some persons were skeptical about the reason for calling off the 15-round schedule for a coast-to-coast telecast Wednesday night, Lopez defended his fighter's record, saying:

"WE WENT to Syracuse and the Kid went through with his title fight with Carmen Basilio even though he was in bad shape with the flu. In Chicago he went through the Olsen fight even though he had a bad hand."

This was the second postponement of Champion Gavilan's fight with Saxton. It was originally set for July 14, but the Kid asked for a 28-day delay because of an injury to his right hand before the fight with Olsen.

Saxton had previously expressed doubt that he would get a chance to fight Gavilan, saying "I'll believe it when I see him sign."

Colts Kickoff Banquet set for Tuesday

Held in Emerson after '53 rhubarb at Lord Baltimore

at the Hotel Emerson, it was announced early this week by Colts Association.

Switching of the affair from the Lord Baltimore Hotel of the Emerson was in keeping with a 1953 pronouncement by the Colts

The second annual "kickoff banquet" for the Baltimore Colts will be held Tuesday evening to have nothing more to do with the latter hostelry.

CARROLL D. ROSENBLOOM, chairman of the board of directors of the club, broke with the Lord Baltimore management last fall because of its antiracial policy.

A party of friends of Buddy Young and other Colts players was refused service at the cocktail bar prior to last year's banquet. Young, George Taliaferro and Mel Embree left the place in protest—and a short time later their white teammates joined them in a gesture of sympathy.

Rosenbloom, General Manager Don Kellett and Charles Grabel, an official of Colts Associates, made a tour of Northwest Baltimore in search of their scolored players. They found Buddy at a Madison Ave., restaurant and persuaded him to return to the Lord Baltimore.

TALIAFERRO AND EMBREE could not be located at the time.

But the following day, when all three were present, Rosenbloom assured—then that the Colts nor the Associates, an organization of prominent businessmen and citizens, had anything to do with the insult to which they and their friends had been subjected.

HE PLEDGED WITHDRAWAL of all Colt business from the Lord Baltimore, as well as that of "every organization and convention with which I have a connection."

Rosenbloom is president of a manufacturers association and owns a shirt and garment making concern.

The banquet is scheduled for 7:30 p.m., with cocktails being served at 6:30.

been the best of friends all the time.

"I've seen him on good days and I've seen him on days when he wasn't so good. But on his best days, he didn't appear to be the Buddy he is today."

GUARD DICK Barwegen and Tackle Art Donovan chimed in with, "You can say that again."

All three veterans of the pro circuit joined hands in praising Young and his halfback running mate, George Taliaferro.

And when they had finished, Head Coach Weeb Ewbank took up the discussion, adding strong words lauding Charley Robinson, the big former Morgan State College lineman.

"I like this fellow's spirit," Ewbank said of Robinson. "I'm told he has tried every year since he finished college to make it; tried with three different clubs, but won't take no for an answer."

—o o o—

THE COLT MENTOR obviously referred to earlier tryouts Robinson had with the Green Bay Packers and Philadelphia Eagles before entering training with the Baltimore team last year.

"That shows me he loves the game, and that's the kind of player I like, the fellow who refuses to quit and wants to play, more often than not makes up, twice over, what he may lack in some other quality.

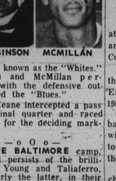
"But in Charley's case, he has shown not only that he has the right spirit, but that he can play. He has done a terrific job as a linebacker during this training period and you can safely say he'll be around his league home before we give up on him."

—o o o—

THE COLTS' five tan players—Young, Taliaferro, Robinson, Mel Embree and Chuck McMillan—then proceeded to play the intrasquad game as though determined to bear out what had been said in their favor.

Young scored one of the "White" team's touchdowns as he and his mates downed the "Blues" by 13-7. His tally was on the receiving end of a 26-yard pass from Cotton Davidson, rookie quarterback draftee from Baylor University.

Buddy, Taliaferro and Embree, the latter a holdover end from last year, played on the offensive unit known as the "Whites." Robinson and McMillan performed with the defensive outfit, called the "Blues."



ROBINSON MCMILLAN

Tom Keane intercepted a pass in the final quarter and raced 94 yards for the deciding marker.

—o o o—

IN THE BALTIMORE camp, talk still persists of the brilliance of Young and Taliaferro, particularly the latter, in their August 22, victory over the Steelers at Pittsburgh.

It was in that contest that Taliaferro climaxed an uphill battle by running 59 yards for the game-winning touchdown in the closing minutes.

On that afternoon, with the Steelers ahead by 21-20 midway the final period, Buddy and George teamed up to turn the tables.

—o o o—

YOUNG SNATCHED the Pittsburgh kickoff and returned it 41 yards with an exciting dash up the middle. On the next play, Quarterback Gary Kerkorian hit Taliaferro with a screen pass and George Picked his way through a broken field to the Steeler 30.

Stumbling at that point, when brushed by the Steelers' Art Rotello, Taliaferro regained his feet quickly and went the rest of the distance untouched. Young was up in time to throw a key block for his backfield twin at the 19-yard stripe.

—o o o—

IN THE INTRA-SQUAD affair here, McMillan, checked in with some clever defensive work against the Whites' aerial attack. A 6-foot, 3-inch, 175-pounder, the young John Carroll product shows considerable promise. Whether he will suffer from lack of experience remains to be seen.

However, both Young and Taliaferro hold out a fair degree of hope for him.

"He has a lot of range," Buddy told the AFRO, "and looks like he can take it pretty good. A good combination halfback-end can be a valuable asset to a team like ours."

"I've been impressed by his hands and his speed," declared Taliaferro. "He seems to be able to hold anything he can reach and the way he gets over the ground indicates he will reach a lot of balls. Another thing, he tackles well and has adapted himself to the pro style of tackling."

—o o o—

ASKED TO EXPLAIN their on improvement, if that it can be called, here is the way Buddy, George and Robinson put it:

YOUNG: "Most of the time in the past, I've had a lot of trouble getting down to weight; I put on flesh pretty fast and it hasn't always come off so readily.

"When I realized I had to watch my diet in order to get a fast start, and that's what I wanted to do for the Colts—they were so darned good to us last year—I made up my mind I would. I'd diet. I came in at 179 pounds and have been feeling good ever since."

—o o o—

TALIAFERRO: "These people (the Colt front Office) make you want to play for them. After I got over that trouble I had last year with my knee, I was sound again. It is the first time I've felt sound since I was in college.

"That makes it fairly simple. I'm sound, I'm feeling good physically, and I'm happy. If I can play ball, that should take care of everything."

ROBINSON: "I never felt that I got a real chance to make this league. The Packers were indifferent, or so I thought. The Eagles weren't particular, or so it appeared.

"The Colts are the only team to give me a real shot. I guess I didn't make it last year because I lacked something. You can just say I'm back again, trying again. And if I don't stick this time, it won't be because I didn't give it all I've got."

Gene Smith listed for TV ring bout

BROOKLYN — Gene Smith of Washington, D.C., is among eight young boxers named to compete in weekly televised bouts from Eastern Parkway for the month of September.

Week's roundup big league games

Digest by SAM LACY

Wednesday

NEW YORK — The Yankees put to better use the six hits they obtained than did the Indians with their nine, so the Tribe dropped a 4-1 decision.

Dave Philley, with three, and Al Rosen, with two, led Cleveland at the plate. Thus with five of their blows divided between two men, the Tribe had to miss out in the clutches.

Al Smith had one hit, a single, and committed an error. Larry Doby was blanked in four tries against the lefty throwing Ed Lopat.

CINCINNATI — The New York Giants and Redlegs put together a total of 29 base hits as the National League leaders dropped a wild, 9-7, battle to the home club.

Willie Mays, who during the week lost the home-run lead to the Redlegs' Ted Kluszewski, had three straight singles to up his batting average. But Willie struck out in a crucial 9th inning bid.

Hank Thompson also collected three safeties in the 16-hit Giant effort. Monte Irvin struck out when called upon as an 8th inning pinch hitter.

CHICAGO — The Cubs took advantage of four Brooklyn Dodger errors—one by Jackie Robinson— and ran their string of victories to eight in a row, 9-5.

Both Gene Baker and Ernie Banks were quieted, each going 0 for 4. But Baker scored one run for the homelings.

Junior Gilliam got one hit in five at bats. Sandy Amoros picked up one safely in a double and scored one run. Robinson was 0 for 4.

MILWAUKEE — The Braves picked up a full game on both the league-leading New York Giants and second place Brooklyn Dodgers, by beating Pittsburgh while their two rivals were losing. Score was 3-1.

Bill Bruton got one hit and scored one run in four at bats. For the Pirates, Curt Roberts was 1 for 3.

ST. LOUIS — Pitcher Brooks Lawrence gave up only five hits in seven innings, but one of the five was a bases-loaded homer by Del Ennis in the first, so the Cardinals were downed, 5-2, by the Philadelphia Phillies.

BOSTON — Milt Bolling Minoso, in the throes of a slump, got only one hit in eight at bats as the Chicago White Sox split with the Red Sox. That was a triple in the opener, which the visitors dropped, 7-3. Minoso had one RBI in the nightcap win, 6-2.

Tuesday

NEW YORK — The Cleveland Indians lengthened their lead over the Yankees by drubbing the world champions, 6-1.

Big blow of the Tribe victory was a 3-run homer by Dave Philley in the 8th after he had replaced Dave Pope in right field. Early Wynn's 2-hit pitching also was a major factor.

Al Smith had one hit, and scored one run for the visitors. Larry Doby was hitless in two official at bats, but walked twice and tallied once.

Pope was 1 for 3 during his stay in the game.

ST. LOUIS — Willie Mays drove in two runs with a single, triple and sacrifice fly as the league-leading New York Giants subdued the Cardinals, 5-3.

Dusty Rhodes, with double and single, also knocked in a pair. Rhodes was in the lefthand slot formerly held by Monte Irvin.

Hank Thompson got one hit in two trips, walked once, was hit by pitch and scored a run.

It was Hank, incidentally, who raced home with the "insurance" run on Mays' sacrifice fly.

MILWAUKEE — Gene Conley outpitched Don Newcombe to give the Braves a 2-0 win over the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Hawk, pitching his best game of an otherwise mediocre season, allowed only five hits. But Conley limited the Bums to three, one by Don himself.

Bill Bruton failed to connect safely for the home club, but he drew a walk and turned an important steal of second in the first. It was Bruton's 28th steal of the year and put him in position to move on Bobby Thomson's single to center.

Junior Gilliam got one of the Dodger hits, a double in the 9th. Sandy Amoros was 0 for 3.

PHILADELPHIA—Rookie Joe Taylor delivered four hits to the cause as the Athletics twice dumped the Baltimore Orioles, 8-6 and 6-3.

Taylor collected two in four at bats in the game's first half of the twin bill being a 2-run triple. After knocking home Lou Limmer and Elmo Valo to break a 3-3 tie in the 8th, Taylor scored on a wild pitch for the final marker.

Vic Power was 0 for 5 in the opener and 1 for 4 in the afterpiece.

CINCINNATI — Charley Harmon and Nino Escalera were both used as pinch hitters, and both failed as the Redlegs dropped a 9-3 decision to the Philadelphia Phillies.

CHICAGO — The Cubs took both ends of a double-header from both Pittsburgh, 14-2 and 7-3.

Gene Baker collected two hits in four at bats in the 1st game, was 0 for 2 in the 2nd. Ernie Banks rapped out a pair in the opener and added one more in the finale.

For the Bucs, Curt Roberts had one hit, a single, in the 2nd tilt after being held in check in the 1st. He stole a base, committed an error in the nightcap bid.

Monday

BOSTON — A 5-run 7th inning enabled the Cleveland Indians to overhaul the Red Sox, 5-4.

Hank Majeski promoted to highlight the frame. Al Smith was blanked in four at bats. Larry Doby connected once in four. Dave Pope filed out as a pinch hitter.

Dave Hoskins pitched two-thirds of an inning in relief, for his first win.

ST. LOUIS — Johnny Antonelli pitched his 20th game of the season and the New York Giants defeated the Cardinals, 4-1.

Willie Mays and Hank Thompson contributed doubles—in the Giants' 10-hit attack. Hank also had a pair of singles. Mays scored one run.

MILWAUKEE — Bill Bruton was held to one hit in five, but his mates took care of the situation and the Braves beat the Brooklyn Dodgers, 7-5.

For the Brooks, Junior Gilliam had two hits in five tries, Sandy Amoros none in three.

Jackie Robinson doubled as a pinch hitter for Amoros in the 9th. Hank Aaron, also a pinch swinger for the Braves, struck out.

CINCINNATI — The Redlegs bumbled Philadelphia's Phillies, 5-1, but Charley Harmon did little to help the rookie third baseman was 0 for 5.

Sunday

BOSTON — Cleveland swept a pair from the Red Sox, 6-2 and 8-1.

Al Smith had a double and Larry Doby a homer, in the opener. Smith was 2 for 3 and Doby 1 for 4.

In the nightcap, Al had one hit. Doby was 0 for 3.

Bob Lemon won his 20th in the opener, a game.

ST. LOUIS — Willie Mays got his 39th homer of the year in the first game and collected five hits in all for the afternoon, but the best the New York Giants could do was split with the Cardinals, 4-5 and 7-4.

Mays was 0 for 3 in the opener, didn't play the nightcap.

Hank Thompson was 0 for 2, then 1 for 2. The one blow he got being a homer.

Brooks Lawrence pitched two-thirds of an inning in relief for the Cards, was nicked for three hits.

NEW YORK — The Yankees downed Chicago White Sox, 4-1. Minnie Minoso failed to hit in three at bats.

MILWAUKEE — Brooklyn rapped the Braves by scores of 12-4 and 11-4.

Junior Gilliam had four hits in ten at bats for the afternoon, tallied three runs. Sandy Amoros with a double and triple included, also collected four in ten.

Jackie Robinson was 0 for 4, and Roy Campanella 0 for 2 in the opener. Neither played the nightcap.

CINCINNATI — Charley Harmon, after sitting out the first game, got 3 for 4 in the nightcap to help the Redlegs take two from Philadelphia, 3-2 and 8-4.

Two of Harmon's blows were doubles, good for three RBI. He stole a base.

CHICAGO — Gene Baker got only one hit in eight at bats in the two games, and Ernie Banks got two in eight, but the Cubs twice downed Pittsburgh, 7-4 and 4-1.

Curt Roberts was 1 for 8 for the Bucs on the day.

Pearley named coach

SAVANNAH, Ga. — President W. K. Payne has announced the appointment of Ross F. Pearley of Cleveland, Ohio, as head football coach.

Red Top Davis opposes tough rival in Savoie

NEW YORK — Teddy (Red Top) Davis, of Hartford, Conn., 4th ranking featherweight, will oppose Armand Savoie, formerly Canadian lightweight and welterweight champion in the feature bout at St. Nick's Arena, Monday night, Sept. 6.

The scheduled 10-rounder will be televised over the DuMont Television Network, WABD-TV, Channel 5, at approximately 10 p.m. (EDT).

This will be sort of a handicap match for Davis who finds it easy to make the featherweight limit of 126 pounds but rather difficult to enlice any of the top-ranking featherweights to mingle with him in the ring.

Davis, who started his fistic career under the name of Murray (Sugar) Cain, has triumphed 56 times as a pro, scored 20 knockouts and drew twice. He has had over 100 bouts as an amateur, 105 in the professional ranks and has met nearly every ranking boxer in both the featherweight and lightweight divisions.

HIS OUTSTANDING victories were over Paddy DeMarco, Percy Bassett, Charlie Riley, Corky Gonzales, Dennis Pat Brady and Fabela Chavez.

Savoie, a real crowd-pleaser, won the lightweight championship of Canada from Solly Cantor and Johnny Greco. Of a total of 67 pro fights he has racked up 45 wins, his most noteworthy was over Sandy Saddler.

Army claims Bullets rookie, John Barber

John Barber, sharpshooting rookie from Los Angeles State College, will not be available for the 1954-55 pro basketball campaign with the Baltimore Bullets.

Barber notified Bullets Coach Clair Bee that he has been ordered to report for military duty and that he will do so within the next month.

When you order Rye—are you getting Rye?
Before you answer "Yes" please read this!
The United States Government's official definition of straight rye whiskey is—"Straight Rye Whiskey is straight whiskey distilled from a fermented mash of grain of which not less than 51 per cent is rye grain." So if you've been drinking 51% rye you've been drinking straight rye whiskey.
But if you want something you thought was rye, read the small print on the label. If you discover it isn't rye, get a bottle of RYEBRIDGE, "The Flavor of Maryland Rye," distilled under the personal supervision of Frank L. Wight. (84.5% & 51% plus local taxes.)
51% rye grain is the Government's minimum requirement.
Ryebrook is Straight Maryland Rye Whiskey. 3 years old. 86 Proof. Distilled and bottled by The Cockeysville Distilling Co., Inc., Cockeysville, Maryland.
