Miss Gloria Robinson weds Washingtonian

Miss Gloria Lucile Robinson, daughter Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sterrette, and Harold C. Smith Jr. of Washington were married here, Sunday afternoon at four.

The ceremony, which took place in the bride's home, was performed by the Rev. Marion Co-Bascom. Miss Veronica Tyler was soloist.

— o O o —

PINK AND WHITE gladioli and arrangements of fern and candles decorated the living room, and pink and white roses the dining room.

Given in marriage by Mr. Sterrette, the bride wore a gown of white faille taffeta and satin. Her net veil was finger-tip length and she carried a white Bible marked with orchids.

— o O o —

MISS BARBARA SMITH, maid of honor, also wore white, and carried a bouquet of red roses. Little Deborah White, flower girl, who wore blue faille, carried a nosegay of pink roses.

Lee Brisbane of New York City was best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Sterrette selected a gown of pink metallic cloth, and a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Smith wore blue silk. Her corsage was also of pink roses.

— o O o —

MR. SMITH, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Smith, of Washington, is a senior at Lincoln University, Oxford, Pa. The bride, who graduated from Douglass High School this year, will study nursing in Washington, where the couple are now at home.

Scores of guests remained after the ceremony for the reception which followed.

Aiding as hostesses were Misses Ida Page, Phyllis Russell, Myra Carney and Daneal Goodwin.

Junior Council entertains for Barrett girls

Members of the Junior Council of the National Council of Negro Women journeyed to the Barrett School for Girls, Saturday afternoon, to provide a program of entertainment.

Upon arrival they were greeted by Mrs. Margaret M. McCain and her staff, and proceeded on a tour of the grounds and buildings.

The group was led in singing by Mrs. Hortense Bright, who also recited "If" by Rudyard Kipling.

The Council members presented as a gift to the school, a combination radio and record player and some games for the girls.

Individual gift packages given to each girl, included soap, deodorant, tooth paste, and a toothbrush. Mrs. Elaine Young, president of the Council, made the presentations.

Refreshments of cake, punch, nuts and mints were served, after which a social period was held.

Members of the Council making the trip included:

Mesdames Esther Morris, Gloria Nick, Malcomia Phillips, Hortense Bright, Agnes Ray, Madeline Redden, Jacqueline Young, Ruth Nichols, Jean Beckett and Misses Perea McCain and Josephine Wallace.

Mrs. Blanche Pettiford accompanied the group to the school, as guest of the council.

MR. AND MRS. JONES HOST, MR. MRS. JOSEPHS

Civil defense needs more plane spotters

Maryland's Civil Defense is badly understaffed by civilian volunteers at the Air Force Filter Center in Baltimore City, according to Sherley Ewing, State Civil Defense director.

And in a letter to Mr. Ewing, Secretary of the Air Force Harold E. Talbott said that, "There is and will continue to be an urgent requirement for civilian volunteer plane spotters."

Anyone interested in aiding in the defense of his country should contact the local Civil Defense director, Mr. Ewing said.

South Baltimore Notes

By GEORGE W. E. HILL

Victoria Dixon, 11-year-old daughter of Mrs. Florence Dixon, of 913 Denver St., is vacationing in Pottstown, Pa., with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Williams.

Victoria is a sixth grade pupil at P.S. 162.

The recital presented Sunday by the Baltimore Chorale on the lawn of the Madison Ave. Presbyterian Church was a huge success. The soloist, Mrs. Bertha Wainwright Stevenson, lyric soprano, thrilled her audience with her Bach and Handel numbers.

— o O o —

MRS. BEATRICE Williams Avery, a graduate of State Teachers College in June, will leave Sunday for Snow Hill, Md., to begin her first year of teaching.

South Baltimore is taking another big step in making the Provident Hospital Guild a complete unit, that is a guild in each section of our great city.

We are having our annual fashion show, Thursday, Sept. 23, at 8 p.m. at Leadenhall Baptist Church. The Rev. Thomas B. Davis Jr. is pastor. The committee is composed of the following:

Mrs. Mamie Knox, chairman; Mrs. Elizabeth Parker, co-chairman; Mrs. Ida E. Witherspoon, recording secretary; George W. E. Hill, chairman of publicity.

— o O o —

A/2C JOSEPH W. Sewell, of 823 S. Paca St., is on furlough visiting his parents and friends. He has been in the service 23 months.

Mrs. Theresa Cooper and her mother, Mrs. Ethel Perkins, of 3023 Gwynns Falls Pkwy., spent their vacation in Atlantic City. They also visited friends in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Ada Jenkins, of the AFRO-AMERICAN, was our guest at the Pops recital Sunday at the Madison Ave. Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Jenkins said she would be pleased to help the Baltimore Singers get bigger engagements this year. She will next hear our Southside soprano, Mrs. Louberth Tunson, another member of the Baltimore Choral. Gerald Burks Wilson is conductor.

Mrs. Bertha Johnson of 2023 Laurezia Ave., is much improved after a two-week stay at St. Joseph Hospital.

MRS. JAMES DUPREE HOME FROM VIRGINIA

Mrs. James H. Dupree has returned to her home in Wilson Park after attending the wedding of Miss Naomi Simpson and Floyd Sayage in Esmont, Va. She also visited her former home in Prince Edward County, Virginia.

Miss Adams bride of Dr. Ulysses Bourne

.... with Lula Jones Garrett

Miss Barbara Adams of Washington and Dr. Ulysses Bourne Jr. of Frederick, Md. were married here, Sunday morning at 10.

The ceremony, performed by the Rev. Robert R. Newbold of Grace Presbyterian Church, took place in the home of her father, Dr. Fred Adams, in Morgan Park.

Given in marriage by Dr. Adams, the bride wore a gown of white lace over yellow taffeta, enhanced with a canary velvet sash. Her shoes and small velvet hat matched the sash, and she carried a Bible topped with yellow roses.

MRS. ROSE PATTON of Washington was attendant. She was gowned in yellow lace and wore a matching halo of yellow rosebuds. Her bouquet was of blue carnations and baby's breath. Donald Wyatt of New York was best man.

The ceremony, which was attended by the immediate members of the families, was followed by a wedding breakfast, following which the newlyweds left for New York. They are now at home in Frederick.

At the wedding were:

Mrs. Audrey Adams of Washington; mother of the bride; Dr. Blanche Bourne of Washington, Mrs. Gladys Thornton, Bourne Thornton and Mrs. Jennie Richardson of this city; Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey Patton and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Glascoe of Washington, Kit Adams, Mrs. Fred Adams and Mrs. Wyatt.

VIVACIOUS ALMA GROOMS she's the daughter of Mr. Harry W. Grooms; became Mrs. W. Hebron Weems, Sunday.

The bridegroom, a postal worker, is the son of Mrs. Edith Weems of this city and Annapolis.

Having exchanged vows in the parsonage of Trinity AME Church before the Rev. A. R. Powell, and in the presence of the immediate members of the family only, the couple dashed off to Niagara Falls and Canada for a honeymoon.

The new Mrs. Weems is on the clerical staff at Fort Meade, Md.

ADD TO OTHER wedding items that of Laura Hamilton, daughter of Mr. Henry Hamilton, who was married to Jordan R. Haynes of Baton Rouge, La., in January — but whose wedding reception took place, here, Sunday.

The bride is the owner of a beauty shop on Druid Hill Avenue, and he is a public school teacher in Baton Rouge.

Some 200 guests attended the reception which was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Warren Clark.

The couple was married by the Rev. J. E. Brown of Wesley Methodist Church.

MISS DORIS COATES, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Coates of Freetown, Md., and John Terry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonso Terry of Clarksville, Va., were married in the home of the bride, Sunday.

The bride was lovely in a pale blue nylon with a tiny white print, worn with a stole. She carried a bouquet of roses.

She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Bertie Carter, and Harvey Carter was best man.

The Rev. Sammel Anderson officiated.

The wedding and reception was attended by a large number of Baltimoreans, including Archibald Lewis, Mrs. Perina Lewis, Herman Jennings, Freddie Coates, Miss Madelyn Roy, Miss Madeline Leroine, Miss Pearl Rhodes, Shedrow Ellis and Sylvester Wright; also

Mrs. Clara Johnson, Mrs. Nettie Bessick, Mrs. Georgianna Boddy, Mrs. Gertrude Spencer, Mrs. Effie Bland, Miss Anna Bessick, Lawrence Morgan, Mrs. Amos Coates, all of Freetown, Md.;

Mrs. Isabel Mahoney, Mrs. Loretta Davis, Mrs. Annette Maloney, Mrs. Isabel Spears, Mrs. Rosa Coates, James Mahoney and James Spencer, all of Marley Neck, Md.;

Donald Coates and M. Lemont of Anne Arundel County; Md. and Hobsten Covington of Midway, Md.

BUT DR. EVANS GILKES says that I am far wrong in saying that there is a romantic attachment between him and Mrs. Blanche Hunt of this city . . . and he should know!

THE CALVIN (LETITIA) ASHES were in Genoa, Italy, this week, on the last lap of that trip which has taken them all over Europe this summer. Will be home next week.

They had come from Milan, where they had been entertained by the Olef Sheldierups (Anne Wiggins brown) and shortly enchanted by the Sheldierups daughters.

Paula, the older of the two, (says Letitia) now 14, brims over with personality, speaks five languages; and really vies with her American elders in her knowledge of world affairs and social problems. The younger daughter, Vaar, says Mrs. Ashes, looks like a doll . . . is quite agile . . . following in the steps of her famous ski-jumping father and her mountain climbing grandparents. Anne, who has been in two operas this season is readying for another appearance soon.

The English, Scotch, Scandinavian and Dutch people, says Mrs. Ashe, are delightfully kind . . . but she has a suspicion that the German, Italian and French are more in love with the American dollar than with American citizens.

IN HEIDELBERG, Germany, they ran into Charles Loffon, principal of the Dunbar High School in Washington. In Munich they were guests at dinner and dancing of Major Leonard Underwood of this city.

And they had plans to see Ollie Stewart of Paris, formerly of Baltimore and New York; Charles Holland, the tenor; and the former Mamie Brown of Baltimore. They also met their McCulloh St. neighbors, Allen and Ida Collick, in Venice.

OTHERS OF MY FINE feathered friends who are seeing the world this week include Inez Mero Keet, who is finding the beautiful flowers and trees, pink and and big Bermuda moon "wonderful"; Roy E. Bond, the attorney, in New York City, and pondering whether to take the "Queen Mary" for London; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Williams, who guested with Dr. and Mrs. Bernard Christmas at Arundel-On-The-Bay, etc motoring off to Atlantic City.

SCHOOL PRINCIPAL Enna Payne and her mother, Mrs. Aldof, who have come in from a 7000-odd-mile trip across the country, seeing all of California and much of Mexico. Mrs. Elmira E. Harris and daughter, Myra, have been packed to head for Niagara Falls and Canada on Saturday; Lillie Pace returned from the same region (Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Toronto, Canada) this week. Motoring with her were Marcella Tillman, Mary Johnson and Vivian Banks. Also enjoyed the Bear Mountain route to Bridgeport, Conn. on their way back.

THE REV. J. TIMOTHY Bodie (Shiloh Baptist Church) Mrs. Boddie and their sons, William and Timothy Jr. motored to the Pacific Coast, to visit their daughter, Marcia Evans and her baby, Lee; and his sisters, Mrs. Dorcas Douglas and Mrs. Una Joyce Green in Los Angeles, Calif. He will be back in his post at Shiloh on Sept. 5.

Radio Star Chuck Richards and Mrs. Richards (Clarice) are way up in Canada . . . Halifax, to be exact . . . and finding that city much like a small edition of New York . . . surrounded by a wealth of more beautiful nature, however.

Mrs. Ada Butler and Miss Margarite Thomas are back in the States from a wonderful tour of Europe which took them to Portugal, London, France, Ireland, Italy and Switzerland. Went over on the Italian liner, the S. S. Saturnia, came back on the S.S. Vulcania, jaunted from country to country by air.

In Zurich, Switzerland, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hanson. Mrs. Hanson is the former Muriel Thomas, daughter of Mr. Maceo Thomas of New York. Mr. Hanson is in the American diplomatic service abroad.

Mrs. Butler (the dress maker that she is) naturally garnered a lot of personal adornment, including jewelry from Cannes and perfumes from Paris . and from Venice, the most exquisite table cloth! She returned to this city on Monday, but Miss Thomas remained in New York for the week.

Mary A. Carrington and Pearl Moulton will fly to the Caribbean area, Saturday, leaving from Idlewild Airport, NYC; their trip will include Puerto Rico, Jamaica, Haiti, the Virgin Islands and Cuba. Following their three-week trip they plan to visit with friends in Miami and Jacksonville, Fla., before coming back to this city.

The Logan (Adah) Jenkinses recently visited their daughter, Rebekah, who has been convalescing at Camp Daddy Allen in the Pocono Mountains, Pennsylvania, this summer.

The camp is operated by the Society for Crippled Children, and for the first time this year, had an interracial staff. En route to the camp, Mr. Jenkins spent a few days at Fellowship Farm, Philadelphia, where Mrs. Jenkins had been attending the annual house party.

HORATIO WILLIAMS and Miss Violet M. Churn were married in Union Temple Baptist Church, Baltimore, Saturday evening.

LINDA HAWTHORNE was a charming flower girl for Miss Violet M. Churn, who became the bride of Horatio Williams in Baltimore, Saturday.

Mrs. Valerie Triggs wed to Bolling Smith

In a beautiful ceremony at the home of the bride, 1915 Longwood St., Sunday afternoon at four, Mrs. Valerie Triggs became the bride of Bolling B. Smith of Catonsville.

The Rev. Marion Bascom, pastor of Douglas Memorial Church officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Alfred Triggs. She was attired in a gown of ice-blue satin and carried a bouquet of gardenias.

— o O o —

MRS. CATHERINE BROWN was matron of honor. Her gown was in ice-pink and she carried a bouquet of roses and carnations. Charles E. Jackson was best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Cornelia Triggs wore a gown in pink lace over taffeta. Both wore orchids.

— o O o —

MR. SMITH, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hawthorne Smith, is a graduate of Morgan State College and formerly was with Social Security. He will teach in the Baltimore School System as of next month. Mrs. Smith is a Social Security worker.
