Miss Frances Richardson is bride of Marshall D. Waters

Miss Frances Richardson, daughter of Mrs. Mary Richardson of this city, and Marshall D. Waters, lyric baritone, were married in Metropolitan Methodist Church, recently.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Lois Waters and the late Joseph Waters of Fairmont, Md., and the nephew of Miss Mary A. Waters and Mrs. Florence Chase of this city, and Miss Annie E. Waters of Washington.

— o O o —

THE CEREMONY was read by the Rev. Kelly Jackson. Forrest Barrett, organist of the Govans Presbyterian Church, Mrs. Ann Hunter of the same church, Mrs. Mildred Moulton of this city and Fleming Brown of Washington provided the wedding music.

The bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle. Her veil was of illusion and she carried a Bible topped with two white orchids and showered with ribbons and stephanotis.

— o O o —

MISS LILLIAN RICHARDSON of NYC, was her sister's maid of honor. She was gowned in lavender nylon, with matching shoes and headdress, and carried an old-fashioned nosegay.

The other attendants, two of whom wore yellow and two, green, were gowned in organdie eyelet frocks, with matching accessories and also carried nosegays. They were Mesdames Thelma Green and Curlee Roundtree; and Misses Mae Etta Williams of Washington and Fay Richardson, cousin of the bride.

Denise Ferguson, her niece, was flower girl.

— o O o —

HOWARD KEENE was best man. Ushers were Junius Hanks, Clarence Ringgold, L. B. Bond, Paul King, Craig Whitlock and Arthur Spencer.

The bride and bridegroom are at home at 2413 Edmondson Ave.

Wonder Drug Formula Aids Hair Beauty
Here are the scientific facts about the one thing that creates long, naturally attractive hair...smooth, soft, growing out rich and healthy:
It all depends on the nature and condition of the scalp. In other words, you can have gorgeous hair like that only if your scalp is able to make it so.
Millions of people are learning this vital fact. They are also learning about Sulfur-8 Hair and Scalp Conditioner and how it beautifies the hair.
The Power of Sulfur-8
Only Sulfur-8 has that special formula with the wonder drug hailed by famous hair and scalp specialists—the new scientific "super-sulfur" called polysulfides. Of course, Sulfur-8 cannot give you a new scalp, nor make your hair grow or be longer than your scalp will allow, but when used in time it works wonders in building up the looks of the most abused, dry hair to fresh, radiant beauty.
Get Sulfur-8 at the drug store today!

Miss Harriet L. Randall married to Charles Dunlap

Miss Harriet L. Randall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Randall of Carson St., became the bride of Charles E. Dunlap, in Grace AME Church, Saturday.

The ceremony was read by the Rev. C. C. Brown.

— o O o —

THE BRIDE was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of nylon net over satin, a three-quarter length veil, and carried a bouquet of white roses. Her sister, Mrs. Peggy Webb was matron of honor. Mrs. Webb's gown was of irredescent taffeta and her accessories were green.

Bridesmaids, who wore gowns in pastel tints, were Miss Anna Mae Coe, Miss Anita Randall, Mrs Sylbia Dunlap, Miss Audrey Brown, Miss Jean Smith, and Mrs. Jennette Gary.

Sharon Randall was flower girl.

— o O o —

MR. RANDALL had as best man Thomas Ball. Ushers included Edward Coe, Howard Mitchell, Richard Thornton, James Moore and Dennis Foster.

A reception for 400 guests followed the wedding. The reception was held at Odd Fellows' Hall on Winters Ave. Among guests from out-of-town were Mrs. Emma Randall of Atlantic City, Mrs. Harriet Freeman of New York, Mr. and Mrs. George Rogers of Philadelphia.

— o O o —

MRS. RANDALL is a graduate of Morgan State College. The bridegroom, who is attending Morgan, is also a postal employee. After a brief honeymoon the couple will be at home at 6122 Baltimore National Pike.

Gadabouting in Baltimore...

Baltimoreans greet D. C. Chipperettes

...with Lula Jones Garrett

Members of the D.C. chapter of Chipperettes met Baltimoreans at a lovely bridge-luncheon given for town members and extra guests by Louise Gee, Saturday.

The party, with its elaborate catered luncheon and fabulous prizes (the first being a 13-piece salad set) was in the Gees' club room in their Braddish Ave. home.

Mrs. Gee, very suave in navy slacks, topped in an off-shoulder yellow blouse, added a cute touch in an organdy party apron, for table holding bridge napkins.

Vivian Pendleton took the first prize. The second prize went to Arnetta Lottier, both of this town; and third and fourth to Nora Tucker and Hattie Jones, both of Washington.

Other D.C. members about were Jean Pratt and Sega McEwen.

To meet the Capitalites were: Vashti Matthews, Ruth Jennifer, Nicki Randolph, Kay Carter, Ellsworth Eberta, Jimmy LaForest, Robbie Chiswell, Gloria Phillips, Dorothea Merchant and Frankie Wood.

PEREGRINATORS: The Thaddeus Logans went a-vacationing in New England, this week. Took his mother, Mrs. Mary Logan, and Julia Jenkins. (Mr. Logan's mamma-in-law.) Cape Cod and Maine they will stop by Camp Atwater to pick up their daughter, Patricia, who spent the season there.

Florence Dennis, who did been relaxing and having fun at Camp Unity in Wingdale, N.Y., in the beautiful Berkshires, went on to Atlanta, Ga., this week. In the same Georgia capital, this week are the Walter (Alma) Grays. The D. Arnette Murphys have gone on to Cape Cod for a vacation.

— o O o —

GRANT GREENE (he's one of the National Bridge Association's shining lights) and Mrs. Greene (Hazel) Cleveland, Ohio, schoolmarm, have been guesting with his nephew and niece-in-law, the John Halls.

Of course there was a lot of bridge playing during the visit — with Dolbert Harden, Clyde, Dillard, Al Woolridge and Micky Robinson holding a double-session on Saturday night. (They played until all hours . . . went home for a nap . . . came back and resumed the game at 2 a.m.)

Next night's game engaged Bob Matthews, Messrs. Woolridge and Robinson at the Harden. The wives merely went along to kibitz . . . as did the Halls.

From here, Mr. and Mrs. Greene went to Washington to see the Fred Daniels . . . thence to Pittsburgh, Pa., and from there to Los Angeles.

— o O o —

THE HAROLD (Flozella) CLARKS hosted her cousins from Alabama, this week. The visitors, Drs. and Mesdames Tarlee Stewart of Gadsden, and Robert Chauncey Stewart of Birmingham, were hereabouts for the medical convention in Washington. With them were Dr. and Mrs. Harold Drake of Huntsville . . . as well as the Stewart children, Chauncey, Jr., James and Lesterrie . . . who stayed here with their young cousins, the Clarks.

Mrs. Evelyn E. Harris of this town and Miss Agatha Bradshaw of NYC, spent 10 days in Los Angeles, Calif., with old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Alphonso Deaver, formerly of Baltimore.

— o O o —

DR. AND MRS. R. Garland Chiswell are ensconced in Hadden Hall, Atlantic City. Rebecca C. Woodson took a plane, Sunday for Jacksonville, Fla., to visit her maternal grandmother and her aunt.

Dr. and Mrs. Fred N. West are home after attending the pharmaceutical convention in Philadelphia and visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Henderson in Germantown.

House guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bush, this week, are Dr. and Mrs. Littlejohn McPherson and baby daughter, Yvonne, of Greenville, S.C. Mrs. McPherson is the former Frieda Hareum, niece of Mrs. Bush.

— o O o —

DR. AND MRS. EMERY RANN, of Charlotte, N.C., spent a lively five days here seeing the town from the rooftree of the Daniel N. Clarks of St. Georges Ave. Went on to Washington for the medical convention. Will go on to NYC to Canada, back to Atlantic City, are returning home.

The physician and Mrs. Rann (she's the former Marietta Chambers Haith of Winston-Salem) were guests of honor at a dinner party given by the Raymond Tilghmans, and at cocktails, hosted by the Robert Browns, while here.

Mr. and Mrs. Tilghman, whose party was at Club Tijuana, had as other guests Mr. and Mrs. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Clark.

With the Browns were Dr. and Mrs. Otis Froe, Dr. Cliff, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Daniels, Mr. and Mrs. Tilghman and Mr. and Mrs. Clark.

This weekend the Clarks will leave for Smithfield for a brief respite with her (the former Hilda Hendricks) parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Furlonge.

WHILE MARY SUE WELCOME entertained the very young set in the upper lounge of the Me-De-So Club, Monday afternoon, her mother, Mrs. Henry Welcome, held forth at bridge in the sun room of the club . . . later garnering both groups for buffet dinner in the dining room.

Nellie Buchanan, Marian Banfield and Senora Reckling assisted with the youngsters . . . providing games, keeping tab on scores for the prize awarding.

Verda (Mrs. W.) looking as cool as a cucumber in brilliant sprinkled black and white cotton, kept the card game going. Freida McPherson of Greenville, S.C., was the adult guest of honor, while small Gwendolyn Fuller of Oklahoma City, Okla., was Mary Sue's honoree.

The latter's guests included: June and George Lottier, Nina and Ann Adams, Connie Reckling, Douglas Walker, Leslie Gross, Jack Blake, Jacquelyn Finney, William Proctor, Jimmy Whill, Sondra Banfield, Michael and Vonda Lee.

Mrs. Welcome's guests were: Mesdames Arnetta Lottier, Dolly Walker, Margaret Blake, Theresa Waters, Cathrine Adams, Lula Patterson, Senora Reckling, Marion Banfield, Margaret Proctor.

Mesdames Delores Hunt, Dora Hutchinson, Aurelia Bush, Myrtle Lee, Dorothy Atkins, Vashti Murphy, Jimmy LaForest, and Catherine White of NYC; Misses Lunette L. Walker of Washington and Nellie Buchanan.

— o O o —

MRS. AURELIA WILLIAMS of Hampton Institute was honoree at the bridge luncheon hosted by Mrs. Catherine Adams on Thursday, when guests included Mesdames Verda Welcome, Vashti Murphy, Dora Hutchinson, Theresa Frances, Aurelia Stanley, Marian Banfield, Ethel Kredle, Annie Smith and Dollie Walker.

At the same time her daughters, Ann and Nina, were hostesses to Gwendolyn Fuller . . . with guests including Harriet Lee, Sondra Banfield, Mary Sue Welcome, Rosina Handy, and Douglas Walker.

RIVERS CHAMBERS (of music fame) and his associates played host to friends, fellow musicians and co-workers at their annual affair, a Sunday ago.

As usual, the scene of this year's activity was "Rocaeres," the Chambers' summer home at Woodbine, in Carroll County, and from the moment that the caravan of private cars, led by a chartered bus, started out, joviality and fun were the rule for the day.

Even the weather man conspired to make things pleasant, dropping the temperature a few degrees, and dimming the glare of the sun with a few scattered clouds.

The day's program included most of the regular activities that are popular with men: baseball, cards, music, song, food and drink. One of the highlights of the afternoon was the gift presentation to a person who has worked with the Chambers organization for 20 years or longer. This year's award, a handsome folding Car-Sac, went to Edward Evans, drummer and vocalist.

Earl Bean, youngest member of the group, was recipient of a silver ice bucket, in honor of his recent marriage.

The guests, who also included bers has contacts at hotels, clubs and catering companies, as well as his business and professional associates, are:

John Seals, K. O. Campbell, Lawrence Pinder, Thomas Chaney, Thornton Cooper, William Herring, Dewey Taylor, George Smith;

Charles Jones, James Glover, James Dorsey, Walter Smith and Allee Taylor, Lee Shipley, Heywood Armstead, Tom Lee, Lawrence Gray, Enoch Mason, Jerome Jones, Bernard Russ, Richard Blake, Benjamin Brown, Emanuel Myers, Francis Dorsey, Al Harris.

Have a Pepsi—
the modern, the Light refreshment
NICEST THING about the beaches these days is that the people there seem to feel as good as they look—and they look wonderful!
Full of life, trim of shape, they owe their slender waists and graceful figures mostly to their modern, wholesome diet habits.
They shun the over-rich, the over-heavy. Their taste today is for food and drink that's lighter and less filling.
That's why Pepsi-Cola is more popular today than ever. It's kept in step with modern fashion, changing tastes. Today's Pepsi is light, dry (not too sweet), reduced in calories.
How long since you've had a Pepsi-Cola? It's the modern, the light refreshment. It refreshes without filling. Have a Pepsi.
