WASHINGTON

Cpl. Clifton W. Harrington, a long - hall hitter representing the 82nd Airborne, of Ft. Bragg, N.C., finished third in the All-Army golf tournament held at Woodmont Country Club last week.

CORPORAL HARRINGTON is a native of Pinehurst, N.C. He led the first round of tournament with a sizzling two under par 70, but faded in the second and third rounds with a pair of 73's. In the final round he shot a par 72.

In firing the final par round on the tricky, exclusive Chevy Chase course the corporal was one under with a 35 going out and came in with a one over 37

–Here's how I beat

D'Amato interposed. "Lavelle (Frank Lavelle, the trainer) and I warn him every now and then to keep him on his toes, but it isn't necessary. Floyd doesn't spoil easily"

"Anyway," Patterson went on after his manager had finished, "I thought I could take care of Harrison without too much trouble.

—oOo—

"HE DOESN'T HIT hard enough, and he doesn't take a punch too well.

"I saw several of his fights—Jimmy Bivins, Jimmy Slade, Charley Norkus—and every time I saw one, I was sure I could lick him.

"One thing I set straight in my mind was, that he can't beat anybody he can't confuse.

—oOo—

"HE CONFUSED NORKUS and beat him He couldn't confuse Earl Walls. Walls just let him throw his light punches, waited for his shots and wham!

"It wasn't hard for me to see I could do the same thing. It just happened that my shots came earlier than Walls'. Either that or I got lucky and saw the openings earlier.

"Did he bother you at all, did he hurt you?" the AFRO wanted to know.

—oOo—

"NOT AT ALL," was Patterson's reply. "For one thing, I didn't expect him to, and for another it (the fight) didn't last that long"

The AFRO then asked if Floyd thought he is punching better, if that could account for the speed with which he had gotten rid of Harrison

The answer came from D'Amato

—oOo—

"SURE HE'S PUNCHING better," Gus asserted "He's bigger and stronger. It's natural he's hitting harder

"We figure that in another year we'll be shooting for the (light-heavyweight) title So we're going to let him grow.

"That is," he added as an afterthought, "as long as it doesn't affect his speed"

—oOo—

NEXT QUESTION was whether D'Amato planned to wait a year before challenging for the title. There have been rumors he was reminded, that Patterson is being groomed for a title fight this winter.

"No," said the manager, "that's not true. We can wait. This boy's just been fighting four years all together—amateur and professional.

—oOo—

"HE HAD HIS first pro fight less than two years ago, and he's still only 19. Why should we rush him?

"If there were any reason to be scared he will go wrong, maybe we'd figure to get what we can out of him, quick.

"But Floyd is a clean-cut kid, a good liver, easy to handle, and smart enough to know how to take care of himself without somebody always watching over him.

—oOo—

"WITH THAT KIND you can wait. That's what we're doing."

"Floyd is far and away the best boy I've ever handled," said the trainer. "And I've been around gyms and prizefight rings for over 20 years.

"He listens, and he learns — fast. I saw him drop his right hand before throwing it in his fight with Lalu Sabotin (Dec. 29, 1952) and I told him about it betweenrounds.

—oOo—

"FLOYD STOPPED right away. The next time I saw him make that mistake was when he beat Wes Bascom almost a year later (it was Oct 19, 1953).

"When he came back to his corner the first thing he said was 'I dropped that right again, I'll watch it from now on.'

"That's the way he is, always asking questions, always learning That's why you find him hanging around the gym, even when we're letting him off from work

—oOo—

"HE WATCHES THOSE KIDS constantly, and it surprises me how he comes up now and then with a new little move And when I ask him where he got it, he grins and says he saw so and so do it, and it looked good to him."

"Do you think you've got a coming champ?" the AFRO asked.

"What do you think?" was the answer from D'Amato and Lavelle in unison.

"I think so," the reporter ventured

"I hope you're right," smiled Patterson

Week's roundup big league games

Wednesday

CLEVELAND — Beaten on Tuesday, the Indians bounced back on the strength of Bobby Avila's 3-run homer, to re-establish their two - and - a - half game lead over the New York Yankees via a 5-2 victory.

Larry Doby checked in with two hits in four at bat and Al Smith had 1 for 1, after relieving Dave Pope, in Manager Al Lopez's new leftfield platooning.

With a righthander, Allie Reynolds, on the mound, Pope started the game. Smith replaced him when Eddie Lopat took over in the fourth.

NEW YORK — Hank Thompson's 11th inning single with two out gave the Giants a 4-3 edge over the Chicago Cubs and thus protected their 5-game lead over Brooklyn in the National League pennant race.

Thompson's blow, his third of the game, talled Wes Westrum from second with the winning marker.

Willie Mays had a RBI double and Monte Irvin singled once in four at bats.

Ernie Banks was held to one hit in five tries for the Cubs but it was good for a RBI.

BROOKLYN — Jackie Robinson clouted a homer with Junior Gilliam aboard in the bottom of the ninth, to whip the St. Louis Cardinals, 5-7, and enable the Dodgers to keep pace with the league - leading New York Giants

Robinson's smash into leftfield seats with one out, climaxed a rally that was necessary to overcome a 7-6 lead which the Cards had hung up in the top of the ninth. Jackie had two hits for the night and scored two runs.

In the third inning, Robbie had thrilled the spectators with a snatch of his old form on the baselines. Caught in a rundown between first and second, Jackie jockeyed back and forth until Red Schoendienst dropped a throw and he regained first. A moment later, he scored ahead of Carl Furillo on the latter's homer into the centerfield stands.

Gilliam was 1 for 4 for the night, and Roy Campanella banged out a double, for one hit in four tries.

PHILADELPHIA — Bill Bruton had one hit in three at bats and Hank Aaron one in five as the Milwaukee Braves bowed to the Phillies, 2-1.

PITTSBURGH — A 9th inning homer by Gerry Lynch accounted for a 4- 3 victory for the Pirates over the Cincinnati Redlegs

Curt Roberts, leading off for the hosts, had one single in five at bats

On the Redleg side, Charley Harmon delivered a double that was good for a RBI. He was up four times

CHICAGO — A bases-loaded single in the tenth inning by Matt Batts gave the White Sox a 6-5 decision over the Boston Red Sox.

The game was marked by homers by Ted Williams for the Red Sox, and Phil Cavarretta for the home club Minnie Minoso failed to hit safely in two at bats

Tuesday

CLEVELAND — Larry Doby's first - inning homer went for naught as the Indians failed to score thereafter and lost a 2-1 verdict to the New York Yankees.

It was Doby's only hit of the night, but it put the Tribe out in front until the Yankees, with Yogi Berra singling home both runs, scored twice in the third.

Al Smith, up four times in the contest, walked twice, filed out and grounded out, to be 0 for 2, officially.

NEW YORK — The Giants had an easy time disposing of the Chicago Cubs after Hank Thompson had sparked a 4-run first inning with a homer with two men on. The final score was 7-3.

The victory went to Ruben Gomez, his 10th of the year against seven losses. The slender righthander limited the enemy to five hits, all singles.

Willie Mays collected one hit in three tries, scored a run. Thompson was charged with an error afield.

Monte Irvin played only on defense in the closing stages.

Two of the five hits allowed by Gomez went to Ernie Banks, the Chicago shortstop.

BROOKLYN — Junior Gilliam and Jackie Robinson each had one hit as the Dodgers edged the St. Louis Cardinals, 2-1.

Carl Erskine, aside from hurling the victory, helped in the winning run with a fifth inning single.

Sandy Amoros was hitless in two attempts. Roy Campanella was hitless in five at bats.

CHICAGO — Minnie Minoso was held to only one hit in four at bats, but that blow was a two-run double that figured prominently in the 6-2 White Sox victory over Boston.

The two - bagger enabled Minoso to hike his league - leading RBI total to 85.

PHILADELPHIA — The big bat of Hank Aaron accounted for the 3-1 win which the Milwaukee Braves chalked up over the Phillies.

Aaron rapped a double to left with two outs in the fifth to score Eddie Mathews and put the Braves ahead, 2-1. Hank then tallied himself on a single by Joe Adcock.

Aaron wound up the contest with three hits in four times up. His teammate, Bill Bruton was 1 for 5.

PITTSBURGH — Charley Harmon had a double and two singles, scored two runs, batted in another and was credited with a stolen base as Cincinnati downed the Pirates, 7-2.

The home club got three hits off of rookie Curt Roberts, but his output was not as effective as Harmon's because there were no mates aboard when he delivered his three one - bagers.

MONDAY — 12pt insert hed

BROOKLYN — The Dodgers put across one run in the 13th inning — via a sacrifice fly by Billy Cox — to beat the Milwaukee Braves, 2-1.

The Brooks went in front in the second inning on singles by Sandy Amoros, Jackie Robinson and Billy Loes — Amoros scoring.

Sandy had two hits and Robinson one in four tries. Campanella was hitless in five at bats.

Bill Bruton rapped out two singles in six at bats for the Braves. Hank Aaron had only one, but that was a triple in the top of the 11th. Aaron was left stranded and the Dodgers went on to win in the bottom of the frame.

Jim Pendleton saw service as a pinch runner for the visitors and Charley White, up as a pinch hitter in the 11th, popped out.

Black Sox defeat Virginia Stars, 6-3

WASHINGTON

The Washington Black Sox defeated the Virginia-All-Stars from Hopewell, 6-3, at Griffith Stadium Sunday.

The victory marked the Black Sox's first appearance before the home fans since joining the Eastern Negro League and lured hard followers of the Sox enthusiastic about the club's future.

DAN BYRD and Art Kay shared the pitching duties for the Sox. Kay taking over in the sixth when Byrd appeared to weaken. All of the Virginians' runs were tallied off Byrd, who gave up two homers in the second and a single tally in the fifth.

Byrd kept the Virginians well at bay in other frames, then Kay silenced them after the sixth.

Gene Baker, re-injured, out of Chicubs' lineup

PITTSBURGH (ANP)— Gene Baker, second basemin for the Chicago Cubs, was injured for the second time this season when he collided with Hal Rice as the latter was rounding a fly ball off the bat of Preston Ward of the Pirates.

Baker was taken off the field on a stretcher and taken to Presbyterian Hospital where stitcres were taken in an ugly gash over his right eye.

Gene, who was struck across the eye by Rice's elbow, said that due to the noisy cheering of a group of kids in the right field pavilion, he could not hear instruction to yield to Rice.

"The kids were making so much noise I didn't hear the boys in our bullpen yelling to me to let Rice take Ward's fly," Baker explained.

It is not known how long he will be out of the lineup.

Brown, who also saw action with the St. Louis Browns in 1947, was purchased from the Dallas Eagles for $7,500.
Houston's general manager, Art Routzong, who closed the deal on Brown, had high praise for the slugging rightfielder. He said:

Floyd Patterson in a nutshell

BROOKLYN—Hailed as one of the most promising young fighters of recent years, Floyd Patterson was born here February 16, 1934.

He is an only child of a factory worker, Floyd, senior.

Patterson also was fighting as an amateur at the age of 16, and climaxed his non-pay career with an Olympic Games 165-pound championship at Helsinki in 1952.

Three months after his return to the U.S., the youngster was in his first profight, a 4-round kayo of Eddie Godbold. Since then he has won 15 of 16 matches,ten by knockout.

Baltimore Colts set for Boys' Club benefit

The lid comes off at Memorial Stadium next Tuesday night when the Baltimore Colts come to town for their annual Intersquad game.

This year the affair, known as Colts Nite, is sponsored by the Colts associates for the benefit of the Baltimore Police Boys Clubs.

Several key battles will take place that night as some 45 men fight for 33 positions. Coach Weeb Ewbank has told his squad that all positions are still wide open and that their showing before the hometown folks will have a definite bearing on his final roster.

Particularly interesting is the battle at offensive end. The veteran Dan Edwards and his running mate of last year, Mel Hill, here are up to their collective ears in competition.

Maryland's Lloyd Colteryahn and Notre Dame's Jim Mutscheler have been impressive thus far. End Coach Charley Winner believes both have a chance to make it in the pro ranks.

But Winner reserves his highest praise for colorful Jack Bighead, the Illini Indian from Pepperdine College. Bighead has the size, speed, moves and determination to have a great pro career. He is almost a certainty to win a berth on the club, barring the unforeseen.

At quarterback there is a ding-dong tussle going on also. Fred Enke, vastly underrated last season, and Gary Kerkorian, lately acquired from Los Angeles, have flashed alternate signs of brilliance during the past three weeks as they have built up a friendly rivalry for the number one pass-slinging job. "Cotton" Davidson is yet to return from the All-Star training camp but when he does, a three-way fight should ensue.

Ann Gregory wins interracial golf

FLINT, Mich. (ANP) — Ann Gregory, Gary housewife, recently won the Veffiele Cup Women's Amateur golf tournament, shooting 78-83-161, to defeat runner up Thera-a Howell of Detroit, who shot 80-89-169.

Mrs. Gregory, the national women's defending champion, was a member of a record field of 301 men and women who took part in the interracial meet.

Clemons-Barksdale go scheduled for Coliseum

A ten-round boxing match between Elmer Barksdale and Earl Clemons has been scheduled for Thursday, Aug. 12 at the Coliseum.

The 22-year-old Barksdale, considered one of Baltimore's most outstanding ring prospects before his two-year hitch in the army, has participated in 19 professional bouts.

He has scored 12 victories, sustained five losses, and chalked up two draws. He is a former amateur champion.

IN HIS BRIEF ring career Barksdale has defeated Colin Garcia, Jesus Compos, Leo Le Brun, Freddy Russo, and Charley Tirone.

Globetrotters set for Stadium tilt

Goose Tatum, Bevo Francis share cage bill spotlight

A big time professional basketball doubleheader that will be supported by a musical floor show on a portable floor under the big lights, is expected to attract more than 15,000 spectators to Memorial Stadium Saturday night.

The attraction originally was scheduled for Thursday, August 5, but delayed because of the steady rain.

BEVO FRANCIS, 6-9 hot shot center from Rio Grande, Ohio, College, will make his debut locally with the Boston Whirlwinds against the bewhiskered House Of David basketers of Benton, Harbor, Mich., in the opening attraction at 8 o'clock.

Abe Saperstein's Original Harlem Globetrotters, fresh from their fifth annual triumphal tour of Europe, will be tested by nonplaying Coach George Mikan's United States Stars in the 9:30 o'clock nightcap.

A MUSICAL floor show that will introduce several new European vaudeville acts will precede the games and continue at intermission.

The harlemites, who have shattered all existing records for basketball attendance locally, will feed a 10-man squad averaging approximately six feet, four inches to the man.

LATEST additions to the squad that will appear here are Ray Felix and Ermer Robinson, who are replacing Willie Gardner and Chuck Holton.

Reece (Goose) Tatum, the Trotters' celebrated Clown Prince and shooting star with the fabulous 84-inch arm spread, remains the team's top box office attraction.

Tatum, 6-3 and a 190 pounds, is inched ahead his 11th season with the Globetrotters, and is a tremendous rebounder and spectacular shot who also directs his team's floor play.

NAT (SWEETWATER) Clifton, J. C. Gipson, Sam Wheeler, Josh Grider, Capt. Clarence Wilson, Walter Dukes and Leon Hill, land round out the squad.

Hillard, a 5-10, 169 - pound forward from McKinley High School, Chicago, is the team's speed merchant and lightning fast dribbler, who advances the ball deftly with either hand.

THE U.S. STARS will headline a top scorer in Paul Arizin, 6-4 former Villanova All - American who succeeded George Mikan as the National Basketball Association's scoring-leader in 1951-52 at a time Arizin was with the Philadelphia Warriors.

Paul since has served a two year hitch in the service where he paced the Quantico Marines to several championships.

GENE SHUE, 6-2 former University Of All American forward and scoring star, Larry Beck, two-time All American and all - time scoring leader from Philadelphia Textile, will be a captain and 5.9, 155-pound mighty midget of LaSalle College's NCAA championship team, champions last season, and Jerry Dempsey, formerly of King's College and Bainbridge Naval Training Center, are other key men of the Stars.

The squad otherwise will feature Ed Mikan, 6-8 former Del Paul University and NBA center and brother of George; Bill Hoffman, a 210-pound star from the Milwaukee Hawks, and Louie (Red) Klotz, dynamic speed merchant from Villanova College and numerous pro teams.

Archie Moore promises KO Champ says he'll stop Harold Johnson

SUMMITT, N.J.—Archie Moore, world light - heavyweight champion, predicted here early this week that he will knock out Harold Johnson when they meet in Madison Square Garden for the 175-pound title next Wednesday night.

"Those other times we fought," said Archie, "I was not at my stake. We were using eighteen ounce gloves. This time, since it is a championship fight, we'll be using six-ounce gloves.

"THERE'S QUITE a difference. He hasn't been able to hurt when I hit him with the lighter mitts. I'll stop him, I'm sure of that."

The veteran champion twice knocked down his young Philadelphia opponent in three previous bouts. They have met four times all told, Moore winning three. All, however, were close battles.

ARCHIE, THOUGH refusing to discuss the subject of his weight, showed evidence of concern by working without letup through the excessive heat of the week end.

Fight experts, on the other hand, continue to speculate on his ability to get down to the divisional limit. In his most recent bout — one in New York against Baltimore's Bert Whitehurst — the champion scaled 189½ pounds.
