HOWARD H. MACKEY

Markey in the University of Maryland.

Discussing the housing program in British Guiana Dean Steinberg said that housing in the colony's most urgent social problem and that housing competition, especially for the lower income groups, is to be equalized to the maximum.

The local government has appropriated $5,000,000 in British West Indies currency (equivalent to about $2,000,000 in U. S. currency) for public housing, self-help housing projects, and government loans to builders and home buyers.

Houses will also be built as a part of a land settlement program.

Catonsville boy linked to assault

A 16-year-old boy is being held by Catonsville police for allegedly assaulting a filling station employee with an automobile axle early Friday morning.

Winston Talbott of the unit block of Linwood Ave. surrendered to police after Elmer Smith of the 500 Baltimore National Pike, had been struck on the head with the axle as he opened the filling station for the day.

Smith told police that his assailant was hiding behind the door and struck him when he opened it. Smith was taken to St. Ages Hospital where his injuries were listed as minor.

CONSTIPATED? Then read this letter from Audrey L. Robinson of Washington, D. C.
"I used to suffer a lot from constipation. Never seemed to get the kind of relief I wanted—every laxative I took was either too harsh or too slow.
"Then I heard about Sal Hepatica, a gentle, speedy action from a friend. And let me tell you, Sal Hepatica is really wonderful. Why, many a morning when I've felt that sluggish feeling, I've taken Sal Hepatica a half hour before dinner and had my old self again by bedtime!
"And Sal Hepatica gives gentle relief—even though it is a speedy laxative! It really does the trick!"
Yes, take sparkling Sal Hepatica before breakfast, and feel fine again usually within an hour. Or take it in the evening to relieve sluggish bowels and feel fine again by morning. Relieve your sour stomach, too! Sal Hepatica helps relieve acid upset.

COMMITTEEMAN HELD—GOP committeeman John O. Morisey, a barber of 314 N. 52nd St., stands between Homicide Detective Willard Johnston (left) and his attorney, Harvey N. Schmidt, at 50th and Lancaster Ave. station, Friday, where he was held for flaying of Herman N. Mason, Haverford Ave., near 38th. Woman at right is clerk.

Committeeman held in fatal shooting of intruder in yard

PHILADELPHIA

John O. Morisey, barber and Republican committeeman, Friday, fatally shot a suspect in the yard of his residence, 314 N. 52nd St.

Morisey, 35, of the 44th Ward, was held without bail for the grand jury in the death of Herman N Mason, 29, Haverford Ave. near 38th. Hearing was before Magistrate Benjamin Schwartz, 50th St. and Lancaster Ave. station.

THE DEFENDANT told Homicide Det. Sgts Edward Dickson, Willard Johnston and John Turner that he heard a noise in the rear of his first-floor back apartment. Going into the bathroom, he stood up on the edge of the tub.

He looked out the window at an angle where he could see the kitchen door. A man was trying to push the door open.

Returning to the bedroom, Morihey instructed his wife, Emmine, to call the police and he hand him his 32 calibre revolver. With gun in hand, he went back to the bathroom and looked out the window.

— o O o —

SEEING THE man still there,

Morisey called to him. When the intruder turned around, he fired a bullet which struck him in the left side of the head.

Police found Mason sprawled in the yard. They took him to Misericordia Hospital where he was pronounced dead on arrival. Deputy Medical Examiner John Trachitella stated.

Wearing an undershirt, the victim had on a hat and one sock. The other sock was found on 52nd St. A blue sport shirt and a lady's pink slip were found about six feet from the body.

Mason, according to police, had been visiting a friend in the 400 block of N. 52nd St. When his boy friend came unexpectedly, he mistakenly grabbed the slip as he was gathering up his own clothes.

Vets good risks, VA report says

Veterans have repaid in full 684,623 GI loans for homes, farms, and businesses totalling more than $3 million in the past decade of the GI loan program, Veterans Administration announced today.

The 684,623 loans repaid as of June 25, represents nearly 19 percent of the 3,632,518 loans made totaling $23.9 billion.

This high rate of repayment is matched by the low rate of claims VA has paid on foreclosed loans—32,574, or less than one percent, of the total number of loans made.

that the permit at 816 Druid Hill Ave. had not been in operation for nine months.

The owner declared that the establishment had been closed for "business reason." He declined to elaborate.

The location in which Mr. Goldberg wants to move is in Zone 19. The Liquor Board has declared on other occasions that no new applications can be granted for that area.

— o O o —

THE SCHOOL Board filed its protest on the grounds that the tavern is within 10 feet of Colbridge Junior School No. 122 at Preston, between Pennsylvania and Druid Hill Aves.

One of those who spoke in favor of the move said that he, among others, wanted "a nice place to go and take my wife."

Members of the police department have frequently referred to the tavern as "The Bucket of Blood." The Board agreed to take the application under consideration.

— o O o —

THE COMMISSIONERS also agreed to consider applications filed by three East Baltimore businessmen who are seeking to add liquor to their class, "C" beer and wine license.

The applications were filed by Martin Stafford, Frank P. Giles and William Fewchee for the East Moulding Republican Club, Inc., at 116-02 Rutland Ave.

The club is located within 125 feet of School No. 135 on Rutland Ave. and Chase St., and will be within one block of the new Elmer A. Henderson School on Wolfe St., when it is completed.

The Eastside Community Committee has filed 216 signatures with the liquor board protesting this application.

Vice raid nets woman, man, 2 boys

A 27-year-old woman and a male companion charged with operating a disorderly house in the 1100 block Pennsylvania Ave., were ordered held in $2,500 bail at Northwestern Sunday.

Charges against two teen-age boys, one 15, the other 16, who were found in the apartment were dismissed. Both appeared in court as state's witnesses.

In addition to the disorderly house charge, Delores Hill of the 1000 block Pennsylvania Ave., was charged with soliciting and procuring the two young men on July 31.

— o O o —

ROBERT DAVIS of the same address was AFRO charged with pandering and receiving money without consideration from the earnings of Miss Hill. The four were arrested on the third floor of the apartment house in a raid conducted by Sgt. Joseph Hagerty of the principalities squad.

Officers Stanley Jastrzemski, Leroy Moody, Frank Trucks and Gordon Elsey were also in on the raid.

that they will send police to return to Cole to that state.

Meanwhile, Cole is reposing in a cell at the jail where Warden Joseph Buck said the prisoner has refused to say anything about anything, not even the name of his parents or his address in Los Angeles.

The warden said his prisoner is "highly intelligent" and that most of his time in jail appears to be spent in sleeping and talking with the other prisoners.

— o O o —

THE TALL BEDIUM brown kinned and handsome Cole received on Thursday to say anything to an AFRO reporter who visited him at the jail except a terse:

"No comment!"

After a succession of questions that were all answered with the same two words, all delivered in a highly cultured voice, Cole flashed a smile and added:

"When I say no comment, I mean no comment."

With that he turned and walked back to his cell.

— o O o —

ADDITIONAL DETAILS on Cole's stay at Morgan College were provided by Willie Garrett, a junior student in education from Amelia, O., who told the AFRO that Cole shared his room the first two days on the campus. Garrett occupies Room 202 in Banneker Dormitory.

He said he met Cole when he arrived on the campus and was impressed by his story that he was a student at the University of California and ask ed need of a night's lodging.

"Since my roommate was away, I let him share my room. Yes, I was impressed. He had a Cadillac and there was never anyone around to give him a room. I would have put up a dog for the night.

— o O o —

MR. GARRETT SAID he was among the students who accompanied Cole to Pennsylvania Ave. night clubs and other entertainment places. He could not estimate how much money Cole spent but added, "he spent quite freely."

After staying with Garrett for two days, Cole then moved to another room in the dormitory which can accommodate 96 persons. Besides summer school students, delegates to a Methodist Church seminar on family counseling are also housed there.

— o O o —

PRESIDENT MARTIN Jenkins told the AFRO:

would be able to stay in a dormitory for a week without officials knowing about it." He referred queries to Leonard C. Anderson, dean of men.

Repeated efforts to reach Dean Anderson were made up to press time to no avail.

Cole attended one of the campus dances given for summer School students in the lounge of the gymnasium and generally entered into campus life during his stay.

— o O o —

FELLOW STUDENTS were glad to ride in his colorblue and were impressed by his stories of travel throughout the country and by the easy manner in which he spent money.

One student said Cole appeared to be a "spoiled child." With that he added: "I think he was a "rich man's son. He sure gave the impression he had money, andplenty of it."

No one has yet established whether Cole is the man that students said he represented himself to be—but one thing is certain. If California authorities fail to make a move in the next few days to pick up Cole he will be released.

Maryland only holds persons on fugitive warrants from other states for 30 days, unless the state requests an extension of time. California has said that it will send for Cole but 21 days have passed and he is still in Maryland, a guest of Baltimore County.

What makes a Lucky taste better?
"IT'S TOASTED" to taste better!
"I smoke Luckies for one very simple reason," says Junior Gilliam. "They taste better to me. Not just a little better, either." Luckies taste better because Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that tobacco is toasted to taste better. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—brings Luckies' fine tobacco to its peak of flavor . . . tones up this light, mild, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better—cleaner, fresher, smoother. That's our story, pure and simple. A Lucky tastes better because it's the cigarette of fine tobacco . . . and "It's Toasted" to taste better. So, for more smoking enjoyment, Be Happy—Go Lucky.
JAMES (JUNIOR) GILLIAM, the Brooklyn Dodgers' brilliant second-baseman, was voted National League Rookie of the Year in 1953. Always dangerous when the chips are down, Junior hit two home runs in the 1953 World Series—his first.
