ESTA stages annual championship shoot

By ANNIS CRUMP

The Eastern Skeet and Trap-shooting Association held its annual Championship Shoot, Sunday, July 15, 1956 on the grounds of the Cornelius Six Point Gun Club, at Coatesville, Pa.

Nearly 300 spectators watched with excitement as the nearly one hundred shooters vied with each other for the very beautiful trophies offered by the association. The event that created the most interest was the 16 yard 25 target event, in the Junior class.

Althea scores in Chi tourney

CHICAGO — Althea Gibson, co-champion of women's doubles at Wimbledon, entered the third round of the National clay courts championships here Wednesday afternoon.

The power-hitting Harlem girl defeated Virginia Carpenter, of Oak Park, Ill., with little difficulty, 6-1, 6-1. It was a second round match.

Althea was given a bye in the first heat.

Seeded No. 2 in the tourney behind Shirley Fry, of St. Petersburg, Fla., Miss Gibson figures to emerge to the finals for another payoff match with Miss Fry.

At Wimbledon, the St. Petersburg veteran topped Miss Gibson in the quarter-final round, then went on to capture the singles title.
