

and took the deed to the Farmers and Mechanics-Citizens National Bank so the buyers could get a loan, and the examiner cancelled it because of the cloud on title.

Q. Has there ever been a claim against that land since you and your husband purchased it?

A. No sir, there hasn't.

Q. During your ownership, have you paid taxes on that property?

A. We have.

Q. You have held this land since you purchased it, and there has been no other claims against it? Is that right?

A. That is right.

Q. And you are asking in your petition that the Court declare the property to be free of any cloud of title, other than the Main's mortgage, and declare you the legal owners?

A. That is correct.
