Young-Woodson wedding termed season's prettiest

WASHINGTON

In one of the prettiest weddings of the season, Miss Letitia Jean Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Young, became the bride of William Brooks Woodson, Saturday, Sept. 30.

The wedding was at Calvary Episcopal Church with the rector, the Rev. James O. West, officiating.

The bride wore a charming gown of lace and net. Yards and yards of the dainty lace and net (gossamer-thin), went into the fashioning of a full skirt. And the bodice was long, slim and form-fitting.

The traditional veil of illusion fell almost to the floor.

AMONG THE attendants were Mrs. Carolyn Cobb Wilkinson, New York City matron of honor; Mrs. Joseph Stewart, Miss Arden Hill and Mrs. Frank Roberts, bridesmaids.

Serving as flower girls were Sharon and Karen Woodson, cute kinsmen of the groom.

Among others in the wedding party were Richard Richardson, Fred Gaines, Hideyuki No-buor Takaramure, Japan.

MRS. YOUNG, mother of the bride was attractively gowned in a rich silk moire with matching accessories.

Mrs. William O. Woodson, mother of the bridegroom, wore a turquoise dress with pink accents.

The bridegroom, a graduate of West Point Military Academy, as been doing further study at the University of Pennsylvania (Psychology).

The bride was a teacher at Virginia State, but resigned prior to her marriage. Her field is English Literature.

A large crowd attended the wedding and reception which followed at the Kappa House.

Dorothy Atkinson named head of national lawyers wives group

WASHINGTON

Tentative plans for the formation of a national organization of the barristers' wives were made last week during the annual convention of the National Bar Association.

Mrs. Richard R. Atkinson of Washington was elected national president. The lawyers' wives hope that the framework of this proposed organization will take on permanent form at the next meeting of the National Bar Association.

No decision was reached on naming the new organization, but Mrs. Atkinson hopes they will adopt the title of "National Barristers' Wives."

SOME WOMEN of the group contended, however, that this is not a new organization but a reactivation of one which was organized four years ago but became inactive after two years of operation.

The first group was referred to merely as an "National Auxiliary to the Bar Association." And, according to reports, some feel that the original name should be continued.

The proposal for organizing the lawyers' wives on a national scale was discussed at a business meeting held at the Willard hotel, Friday, immediately following their annual luncheon.

A NUMBER of prizes were awarded at the luncheon by the local Barristers' Wives hostesses of the visiting women. Two prizes went to Mrs. Wiley A. Branton of Pine Bluff, Ark. One for traveling the longest distance to attend this meeting and the second for being the mother of the most children.

The beautiful and youthful Arkansas matron boasted proudly that she is the mother of five.

A slight controversy arose over who should receive the prize for being the wife of the man who had practiced law longest. Some protest was raised when the prize was awarded to Mrs. Raymond Scott of Washington, whose husband has been in the profession for 50 years.

The objection stemmed from the fact that Judge Scott actually practiced law for only 30 years and the 20 remaining years were spent on the judge's bench.

IT WAS contended that Mrs. C.R. Richardson of Richmond, Ind., was entitled to the prize because her husband had been in actual law practice for 40 years.

Mrs. Barrington D. Parker, president of the local group and presiding officer at the luncheon meeting, settled the dispute beautifully by awarding prizes to both Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Richardson.

Mrs. Moses Dixon of Cleveland, Ohio, age 27, received the prize for being the youngest barrister's wife attending the luncheon.

THE OLDEST lady in attendance was Mrs. E.B. Muse, mother of a barrister's wife. Her Mrs. Muse, mother of Mrs. Louis R. Mehlinger, was asked how old she is. She replied, "I'm not going to tell my age." Later however, she confided in a reporter that she is 78.

Another recipient of a surprise gift was Mrs. Harold E. Bledsoe, wife of the president of the bar association. Her prize was given because she had the most lawyers in her family. In addition to her husband she has a son, William F. Bledsoe and a daughter, Mrs. Geraldine B. Ford, who are also lawyers.

The lone man attending the luncheon was George Slater of Detroit, who introduced himself as the husband of a lawyer. Pointing out that he is engaged in the "broker" business, he quipped, "When my wife puts them in jail, I get them out."

Turkey-Olive sandwich fill

Turkey sandwiches never fail to please, nor will this crunchy "Turkey-Olive Sandwich Filling."

It's made with tender pieces of cooked turkey (or chicken if that's on hand), chunks of tasty ripe olives, chopped celery and pimiento. Now that turkey isn't identified as a holiday food only and is becoming a popular year-round entree, perhaps you have some left-overs that you were wondering what to do with.

It's an ideal time to serve sandwiches for any occasion from lunch to evening gatherings, and "Lucky-Olive Sandwich Filling" will be a hit.

TURKEY-OLIVE SANDWICH. Filling is made with ½ cup ripe olives,
1 cup chopped cooked turkey or chicken,
2/4 cup finely chopped celery,
2 tablespoons chopped pimiento,
½ teaspoon salt,
and 1/4 cup mayonnaise.

Cut olives in small pieces. Combine with remaining ingredients.

Makes about 2 1/4 cups filling.

South Baltimore Notes

By GEORGE W. E. HILL and MARIE LITTLES

Vacation is over and back to hard work are the principal, faculty and students of School No. 168. The same can be said of the PTA. On Thursday, Nov. 10, we shall have Mrs. E. Romaine Jones, area director, as guest speaker.

Mrs. Vivian Bundy is principal; Charles Mason, vice principal; George W. E. Hill president of PTA and Mrs. Elizabeth Mason, secretary.

The Baltimore Singers, after a three-week vacation from music, will resume their rehearsals on lawn of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hill on Sunday, Sept. 11.

Quite a few music lovers and friends have been invited to attend the first Hedgerow rehearsal.

THE CONDUCTOR, Gerald Burks Wilson, will arrive in Baltimore on Saturday after spending his vacation in Salem, Va. visiting his mother and other relatives and friends.

During his stay in Virginia, he wrote several numbers for the Baltimore Singers and the Chorale. One of the numbers will be used by the Chorale when they return for their third successive year at Morgan State College.

The Rev. Mr. Cornish, faculty, and students seem to be very much pleased with the music rendered by the conductor and his group.

For your fall, winter and spring engagements, call G. Bernard Young, LA. 3-4341; Gerald Burks Wilson, MA. 3-2792; George Hill, SA. 7-9546.

MR. AND MRS. Bruce Spence spent a week vacationing in Toronto, Canada. Accompanying them was Mrs. Gail McNair. Mrs. Spence is one of South Baltimore's most noted beauticians.

Miss Beatrice Blake and her two cousins, Freddie McClain and Joann, are visiting Miss Nellie Boggans, friends and relatives in New York City.

The Presiding Elder of the Hagerstown District, Dr. Freedman, will be the guest speaker for the Family and Friends Day at the Star of Bethlehem AME Church on Sunday, Sept. 11 at 3 p.m.

The affair is under the auspices of the Trustees, Stewards and the Stewards. The chairmen are Mrs. Nettie Gardner, Paul Thomas, and George Hill. The Rev. W. R. Chew is the minister.

Mrs. Frances McKay, Clean Block Supervisor, is paying quite a bit attention to the article written in the Southside Clean Block Supervisor that all the blocks that entered in the Summer block contest will keep their blocks clean and pretty all the year round.

There are hundreds of people who pass by to give credit to the many who participated in making this section of the city beautiful. In this, we have provided a lot of more blocks to enter.

School day schedules are a wonderful excuse for getting your family back in the breakfast habit—especially if they've slipped away during the summer. School children, and adults too, need a good breakfast to start the day right and keep them feeling chipper till morning long.

Plain tasty and wholesome breakfasts around enriched or whole grain breads, include fruit or juice and milk. Vary breakfast menus with eggs or breakfast meats as often as possible.

Individual hot breads are fun and quick and easy to make, too. These Honey Raisin Muffins are sure to be a hit.

HONEY RAISIN muffins are made with 2 cups sifted enriched flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon sugar, and ½ cup raisins. 1 egg, beaten, 2 cup milk, ¼ cup honey, 3 tablespoons melted shortening.

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Add raisins. Combine Egg, milk, honey and shortening; Add liquid to flour mixture, stirring until flour is moistened. Fill greased muffin pans 2/3 full. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees Fahrenheit) 40 minutes.

Makes about 1¼ dozen 2-inch muffins.

Pancakes, flannelcakes, griddlecakes, flapjacks, wheatcakes—call them what you will. If your family likes them, they'll surely take to these Scandivavian Apple Pancakes.

TO MAKE scandinavian apple pancakes, use 1 apple 1/4 cup sugar, 1 ½ cups sifted enriched flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon sugar 1 egg, beaten, 1 cup milk, 1 tablespoon melted shortening.

Core and peel apple and cut into thin rings. Sprinkle with 1/4 cup sugar and let stand while mixing batter. Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Combine Egg, milk and melted shortening. Mix well. Add liquid to flour mixture and mix lightly roughly.

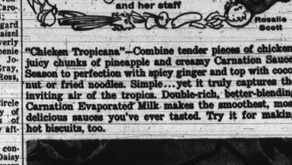
Pour 1 tablespoon batter or hot griddle or skillet. Put apple ring in center and top with another tablespoon batter: When bubbly, turn and brown. Serve hot with melted butter or margarine.

Makes about 12 4-inch pancakes.

Marmalade Glaze Coffee Cake is so good you might think it would be lots of trouble to make. Actually it's a quick coffee cake that requires less than an hour of baking.

MARMALADE GLAZE coffee cake requires 2 cups sifted enriched flour, 3 teaspoons baking powder, ¼ teaspoon salt, ¼ cup shortening, 3/4 cup sugar, 1 egg, 3/4 cup milk, and ½ cup orange marmalade.

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Cream together shortening and sugar. Add egg. Mix well. Add flour mixture and milk alternately to creamed mixture. Spread orange marmalade in a lined, greased 8-by-8-inch pan. Cover with batter. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees fereenheight) 40 to 45 minutes. Makes one 8 by 8-inch coffee cake.



COOKING HINTS by Mary Blake Carnation Home Service Director and her staff — Rosalie Scott

"Chicken Tropicana"—Combine tender pieces of chicken, juicy chunks of pineapple and creamy Carnation. Season to perfection with spicy ginger and top with coconut or fried noodles. Simple...yet it truly captures the inviting air of the tropics. Double-rich, better-blending Carnation Evaporated Milk makes the smoothest, most delicious sauces you've ever tasted. Try it for making hot biscuits, too.

CHICKEN TROPICANA
(Makes 6 to 8 servings)

2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon salt
1½ cups (large can) undiluted CARNATION EVAPORATED MILK
1 cup pineapple chunks, drained
2 cups cooked chicken, cut into large pieces
1 teaspoon ginger or rosemary
½ cup chopped almonds
½ cup fried noodles or coconut

Blend butter, flour and salt together over low heat. Gradually add Carnation. Cook until thickened and smooth. Stir constantly. Remove from heat. Add pineapple chunks, chicken, ginger and almonds. Mix well. Place in buttered 1½-qt. casserole. Top with fried noodles or coconut. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 30 min.

HOT BISCUITS: Combine 2 cups packaged biscuit mix with a mixture of ¼ cup undiluted Carnation Evaporated Milk and ¼ cup water; mix to a soft dough. Turn dough onto lightly floured board. Knead gently 15 to 20 times. Roll or pat to ½-inch thickness. Cut with floured biscuit cutter. Bake on ungreased baking sheet in very hot oven (450° F.) about 10 to 12 minutes. Makes about twelve 2-inch biscuits.

In and Around Annapolis

Association, with Mrs. Thomas Jones as its president, is planning to build a health center in that area.

The surrounding portions of South Shore, with a large population of colored residents, are Crownsville, Herald Harbor and the area near the Carver school.

The Anne Arundel General Hospital is to launch a course in practical nursing. Mrs. Edna Coyle announced that the hospital, which opened its doors to colored nurses last year, will receive applications until Friday, and those who fill to meet the deadline must then wait until the mid-term March classes.

In addition the hospital has just completed its 12-month course among third classers. Agnes Howard and Abbie Howard were among the seven graduating.

BOTH CARR'S and Sparrow's beaches held their final beach shows last weekend.

Carr's had that new singing sensation from Detriot, Della Reese, while Lou Donaldson entertained at the rival beach.

The worse tragedy of the holidays happened at Forrest Drive when 15-year-old Alice McDaniel of Washington was pronounced dead at the Anne Arundel Hospital from the result of an automobile accident.

A local patrolman said the auto which was carrying two other passengers, Lawrence Campbell, 21, and William Shorter, 22, who are at the hospital, was going west on Forrest Drive when it hit a telephone pole.

Campbell received injuries of the right leg and pelvis while Shorter suffered multiple lacerations of the face and scalp.

BATES, WITH its 70-member teaching staff and enrollments near 2,000 held a two-day teacher institution just before the opening of school.

The program featured Dr. Ira R. Kraybill of the University of Pennsylvania speaking on the "Problems of Teacher Self Evaluation."

Dr. Aris T. Allen, member of the Board of Education and Dr. David S. Jenkins gave brief talks.

Francis L. Noel, Stanton Elementary School's new principal, succeeding Purnell Duncan, announced the school's part time schedule for this year.

He asked grades 1, 2 and 6 to report to the school at 8 a.m. when they will be assigned to their classroom teachers and given the time to report to the school for the rest of the term.

Grades 3, 4, 5 reported at 12:15 Thursday to receive assignments.

Spanish rice

Old favorite, "Baked Spanish Rice," has been a stand-by of church suppers and school lunches for a long time, but nobody ever seems to tire of it. It's just plain good eating.

But once in awhile even an old favorite can be improved upon, and browning the rice in hot oil before adding the tomato and onion, and stirring in some ripe olives for meaty flavor, really does lift this recipe into the stand-out class.

You'll want to keep it on tap now that nippy fall days are here — for family meals and for fund-raising affairs.

Baked Spanish Rice uses ¼ cup cooking oil, 1 cup rice, 2 cups canned or cooked tomatoes, ½ cup chopped onion, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon chili powder, 2 cups water, 1 cup ripe olives, and 1 cup grated American cheese.

Heat oil in large skillet, add rice and cook and stir until rice is golden brown. Blend in tomatoes, onion, salt, chili powder, water, olives and ½ cup cheese. Pour into casserole or baking dish.

Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 50 to 55 minutes. Sprinkle remaining cheese over top 10 minutes before removing from oven.

Serves 4 to 6.
