FAITH OF OUR FATHERS

Faith of our fathers! living still In spite of dungeon, fire and sword!
O how our hearts beat high with joy Whene'er we hear that glorious word!

Faith of our fathers! holy faith! We will be true to thee till death!

Our fathers, chained in prisons dark, Were still in heart and conscience free;
How oft would be their children's fate, If they, like them, could die for Thee!

Faith of our fathers! holy faith! We will be true to thee till death!

Faith of our fathers! we will love Both friend and foe in all our circle;
And preach thee, too, as love knows how, By kindly words and virtuous life:

Faith of our fathers! holy faith!; We will be true to thee till death!

Russian Adventists membership rises

GRAND LEDGE, Mich.—Religion is prospering today in Russia and its neighboring countries, according to a world official of the Seventh-day Adventist church who addressed a U.S.-Canadian congress of about 10,000 laymen here Saturday morning.

Dr. Walter R. Beach, Washington, D.C., general secretary of the denomination, said that Adventist membership in most of the Russian-influenced countries has doubled since World War II.

For 22 years a church executive in Europe, Dr. Beach emphasized that organized religion still runs into difficulty in Communist countries "because of the very foundation upon which the governments are based."

Baptists back NAACP plans

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—The report of its commission on race relations, with a preface, "Challenges of the Second Emancipation," by Dr. William H. Gray of Philadelphia, was presented to the National Baptist Convention, USA, here Wednesday.

In his preface Dr. Gray pointed out that:

"Two thirds of the world's two billion population are colored and the extent to which America practices democracy in relation to minority groups will determine her proportionate influence in world affairs.

"SINCE 1945, THE colored family income has actually dropped from 57 per cent of the white family income to 54 per cent, thus we might well conclude that the colored man is currently losing ground in his fight to attain economic equality."

Recommendations made by the commission to the president and to the convention, respectively, stated in part, that:

President Jackson, accompanied by a corps of convention representatives, seek an audience with the governors of southern states affected by the Supreme Court's desegregation order;

"PRESIDENT JACKSON send a commission and an official appeal to the Southern Baptist Convention asking its support at the community level of present efforts toward desegregation of the public schools.

"This convention vigorously support the vital and timely program of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People by:

"Encouraging members of each church to join local chapters of the NAACP;

"Including the NAACP in the annual budget of each church for a direct donation;

"Endorsing the program of purchasing life memberships for each pastor by individual churches."

ence to his supervision over the Washington District Conference."

THE BISHOP will present the grievances to the Committee of Investigation in the Washington Conference, which will sift the charges and determine a course for future action when they report back to the bishop.

On the committee are:

The Revs. C. S. Harper, superintendent, N. M. Carroll Home; E. D. Hall, superintendent, Virginia-Washington District; J. H. Peters, associate minister, Asbury, D.C.; K. P. Barnes, Alexandria, Va.; G. T. C. Bell, Cumberland; C. S. Briggs, Eastern Methodist, Baltimore; J. D. Foy, Asbury and C. A. Scott, superintendent, West Baltimore District.

The delegation from Washington was led by John M. Ellis, of Upper Marlboro, Md., who is an information specialist in the Department of Defense in Washington.

Some members of the group were Lawrence R. Shepherd, sub-chairman, Ebenezer; Helen Ables, Simpson; Helen Thornton, Linden Charge; Addison W. Chapman and Harold Eaton, Asbury; Charles Conway, Laurel; Hilda Perry and Dorothy Walker, Ebenezer; George Brooks, Lanham Charge; Clarence Haynes, Mt. Zion and George M. Hawkins, Linden Charge.

Last week, the AFRO published a copy of he deed to the property at 1710 Varnum St., which showed that it was filed at Recorder of Deeds office in the name of Rev. Robert M. Williams and his wife, Lydia.

The Rev. Mr. Williams is district superintendent.

At the time the AFRO was published there was no evidence of a deed on file that indicated that District conference had title to the property.

MR. HOWARD reports that on Tuesday, Sept. 6, a deed which conveys the property from the Rev. Mr. Williams and his wife, Lydia, to the district conference was filed at the Recorder of Deeds office.

An examination of the deed in the name of Rev. Mr. Williams showed that it was filed at the Recorder of Deeds office on Aug. 8.

Mr. Howard, a member of the board of trustees, reports that the deed which placed title to the property in the name of the district conference was not filed because of a trip that Thurman L. Dodson, a member of the board, was on in California.

"Immediately upon his return," Mr. Howard stated, "the deed from Dr. Williams and his wife was duly filed."

Mr. Dodson was seen attending several meetings of the National Bar Association, last week.

MR. HOWARD's presence on the board of trustees has been contested by a committee of Methodist laymen and ministers of the Washington District who drew up a set of grievances against Dr. Williams.

The grievances were presented to Bishop Edgar Love on Thursday.

Sale of an old parsonage in the 2200 block of First St. NW, and purchase of the Varnum St. parsonage has been attacked by the committee.

Dr. Jackson holds own in tricky quiz

Newsmen query Baptist head on Dixie opinions

By JAMES L. HICKS

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — Dr. J. H. Jackson, president of the National Baptist Convention, said here Thursday that a colored man, denied his rights in Mississippi, is still better off than the average Russian living under a Communist regime.

But he quickly added that it is not the action of the white man in Mississippi which makes the position of the colored man superior but said it is the hope that the Federal Constitution of the US holds for the mistreated colored man.

This penetrating answer given by Dr. Jackson was only one of a number of such answers he was forced to give in one of the sharpest and tricky press conferences this reporter has seen in a long time.

HERE FOR THE BAPTISTS Jubilee celebration, Dr. Jackson was asked by newsmen to hold a press conference and he agreed to talk to them about his recent trip to Russia.

The colored press was present and two white reporters also showed up.

The white reporters, in a rapid barrage of tricky questions immediately proceeded to ask Dr. Jackson questions which, if answered as they appeared to have waited there to be answered, would have placed him in the position of saying that there is really not too much wrong with the treatment of the colored man in America, and even with his treatment he is better off here than he would be in any other country.

ONE CANNOT SAY just what the daily press will report on Dr. Jackson's answers but this reporter can record now that never once did he allow himself to be trapped into condemning his own race or agreeing to a thesis that everything is perfect for the colored man in America.

When the press conference swung from international to national affairs the white reporters were even more aggressive than before. But even as they became aggressive Dr. Jackson became more wily.

For example, one of the white reporters who had covered the killing of the Chicago youth by two white men, said he said that he had noticed that law officials in Mississippi were doing all they could to clear up the murder and indict those guilty until the NAACP began to use it as propaganda material.

THEN HE ASKED Dr. Jackson if he agreed that everything is being done to bring the murderers to justice. When Dr. Jackson answered that he had been encouraged over the news that the men had been indicted and brought to trial another reporter asked him did he not agree then that the NAACP had forced the cause of justice by propaganda in the case.

Dr. Jackson said he agreed that the Chicago youth's fate had become almost a shrine but that he did not feel it had reached the point of mob incitement. He said rumors prevailing here that a large group had colored men armed with guns were leaving Chicago to go to Mississippi was also propaganda.

The white reporters who had heard the rumor also asked why he did not feel that propaganda was a bad one. He said
