Stars, Red Sox play twin bill Monday

The Detroit Stars and Memphis Red Sox wind up the 1955 series of Negro American League games at Westport Park Monday night in a doubleheader, the first game at 6 o'clock.

The Detroiters, who for the past month have been setting a torrid pace in the second half league race, will be favored over Homer (Goose) Curry's Tennesseans.

Manager Ed Steele has done a noteworty job piloting the Stars to the leadership after the club got off to a bad start due to injuries and lack of personnel. The addition of Juan Solar, 19-year-old Cuban sensation, to the infield sparked the Stars' drive.

• • •

FOR MONDAY'S twin bill, Selmar will be at third, with Willie Ivory, shortstop; Hank Saverson, second, and 4-foot-6 Emil King, Morgan State College star at first. Herman Green, Joe Montgomery and Bob Shea will be in the outfield, with Ralph Roxad catching.

The Detroit pitching staff includes the southpaw sensation, Aaron Jones, only 19; Willie Harris, Jack Owens, Andy Carpenter and Dannie "Fireball" Wright, righthanders.

• • •

THE BIG MAN in the Memphis lineup will be William (Bill) Washington, the NAL home run king, who has 16 homers to his record this season. Washington, who hit .36 last year, will be at third, and bat in the cleanup

Other infielders are Frank Russell, shortstop; Willie Sheeler, the Kansas City, North Carolina product, second, and Eddie Reed and Raymond Hughes are outfielders, with Isaac Barnes, catcher.

Red Harris, incidentally, is the current batting leader of the Red Sox with a .349 average and 11 home runs.

Pitchingwise the Red Sox will depend on Eddie Hancock, right-hander, with a 3-1 record; Ace Robinson, who leads the loop in strikeouts, and Charlie Pride, another right-hander. Robinson is a southpaw.

BALTIMORE CHAMP—Gordon Chavis, center, Baltimore, won his second consecutive national golf championship last week when he combined rounds of 73 and 79 to win the junior division of the United Golfers' Association tournament in Detroit. With the 16-year-old Douglass High School senior are Moss H. Kendrix, Washington, D.C., and Mrs. Anna M. Robinson, Chicago, who is assistant tournament director. Kendrix heads public relations firm which represents The Coca-Cola Company, donor of the championship trophies.

Hurricane Tommy blows down 'Ezz'

Jackson tops Charles 2nd time in month

CLEVELAND — Tommy Jackson, also known professionally as Hurricane Jackson, lived up to his cognomen here Wednesday night when for the second time in a month he whipped former heavyweight champion Ezzard Charles.

The decision, like the previous one, was unanimous. And again, as before, Charles was in a bad way at the finish.

THE 34-YEAR-OLD Far Rockaway, N.Y., contender virtually danced his older rival dizzy through the first eight rounds. Then as the 34-year-old ex-champ ran out of steam in the late stanzas, Jackson punched him into near helplessness.

It was simply another case where an aging fighter found his reflexes deserting him in the face of a younger foe who probably would have had no business in the ring with him, say, eight years ago.

This was a repetition of the Aug. 3 bout at Syracuse which drew from one qualified observer the remark: "Charles looked like a bird trying to catch a butterfly; there was just that much hopelessness in his pursuit of the flitting Jackson."

A CROWD of 4,401 paid $19,136 to see Tommy, footwork at its best, dance around Ezz flecking away with light but landing punches. Charles, trying not to become befuddled, just stood in the center of the ring waiting for Jackson to slow down.

The Hurricane never did. He continued to circle his rival and pelt him with increasingly stiffer blows as the battle wore on.

Jackson, who probably will move with Jackson but within three rounds he had become noticeably tired. By the seventh, the former titleholder had begged down to a walk, arms weary and uncertain.

CHARLES got in his best blow of the fight, a dying-gasp thing in the eighth. He banged home with a right to Jackson's kidney, but after a moment to regain his composure, Tommy went to work again.

It was the Hurricane's eighth consecutive win and his 25th in 29 bouts.

The loss practically eliminated Charles from further title consideration, an aim the Cincinnatian has had since he began his comeback campaign 14 months ago.

40 hear Hurt's call for Bear grid drills

Approximately 40 men drew equipment and uniforms from Eddie Hurt as candidates for the 1955 Morgan State College football team on Thursday morning.

Leading the group were Jesse Miles, an end from Orange, N.J., and Gilbert Prather, a guard from Glenarden, Md. Miles and Prather are co-captains of the incoming squad.

Taking over the boys' dormitory, were a raft of hopefuls, including several outstanding holdovers from last year's team, halfback Jerome McArthur, of Baltimore; end Arthur Dean, of Wayne, Pa.; center Bob Jacobs, of Annapolis; end Charley Porter and halfback Jack Rozier, of Richmond, Va.

In his opening remarks to the squad, Coach Hurt told them: "We expect to go all the way if we can. I expect you to do your best at all times and if your best takes us to the championship, well and good. But whether we win the title or not, we'll be doing our best."

The Golden Bears open their '55 schedule on September 24, against Central State at Hughes Stadium.

'Moore too tricky for Rock'—Olin

GROSSINGER, N.Y. (ANP)—At least one critic expert is convinced that Archie Moore will dethrone Rocky Marciano when the two meet for the heavyweight championship in Yankee Stadium Sept. 20.

Former light heavyweight champion Bob Olin feels that Moore will whip Marciano on all around ability.

After watching the champion work out here last week, Olin said:

"He (Marciano) is in against a man who not only knows all the tricks but can hit with the best of them. If Moore gets Roc in trouble he won't let him get away. And he will get in trouble, you can bet on that."

At the Ringside

By CHARLES J. LIVINGSTON

LET'S LOOK AT THE RATINGS

CHICAGO (ANP) — The September issue of Ring Magazine, official boxing publication, carries an inset picture of Archie Moore, displayed prominently with the current world ratings.

This is a special honor Ring is bestowing on Moore, who on Sept. 20 challenges Rocky Marciano, present heavyweight ruler, for the highest prize in boxing — the heavyweight championship of the world.

It is doubted if even Joe Louis, the famed "Brown Bomber" of former years, has been paid such an honor. Certainly, the magazine did not extend the courtesy to Marciano.

• • •

THIS INDICATES just one thing. After 19 cruel years of campaigning in the prize ring, hard luck Archie is receiving the credit justly due him. And well he might, for the St. Louisian has rightly earned his salt.

It could also mean that Moore is really the best fist fighter in the game today, and he might prove it when he meets Rocky in Yankee Stadium. For the time being, however, let's look at their ratings:

HEAVYWEIGHTS: World champion Rocky Marciano. Contenders: 1-Archie Moore, St. Louis; 2-Bob Baker, Pittsburgh, Pa.; 3-Tommy Jackson, Far Rockaway, N.Y.; 4-Don Cockell, England; 5-Nino Valdes, Cuba; 6-Ezzard Charles, Cincinnati, Ohio; 7-Earl Walls, Canada; 8-John Holman, Chicago, Ill.; 9-Franco Cavicchi, Italy; and 10-Rex Layne, Lewiston, Utah.

LIGHT HEAVYWEIGHTS: World champion: Archie Moore, St. Louis; 1-Floyd Patterson, Brooklyn, N.Y.; 2-Harold Johnson, Philadelphia, Pa.; 3-Yolande Pompey, Trinidad, B.W.I.; 4-Gerhard Hecht, Germany; 5-Willie Pastrano, New Orleans, La.; 6-Joey Maxim, Cleveland, Ohio; 7-Randy Turpin, England; 8-Willi Hoepner, Germany; 9-Dave Whitlock, San Francisco, Calif.; and 10-Bob Satterfield, Chicago, Ill.

Riled Rocky Ready for Moore . . By Ted Carroll

Gate for Rocky-Archie may reach a million

NEW YORK (ANP) — Fight promoters in the IBC office are happy, folks these days. The old cash registers are ringing away merrily with the Moore - Marciano fight still four weeks off.

Predictions of a $750,000 gate made by Jim Norris earlier, are giving way to predictions for an even bigger gate. This one may hit a million. Already, high priced seats, the $40 ducats, are getting mighty hard to get and Madison Square Garden is wondering what's going to happen next.

• • •

MEANWHILE, stories from Archie's camp are still thunderbolts. Everyone in the outfit is predicting a kayo. But some sports writers are taking it all with tongue in cheek. They admit Rocky is no devastating one-punch killer, but they point to the men he has ruined — old men — and Archie is not a young man.

One writer, quoting an unnamed referee, says the latter expects the fight to go about nine, with Rocky wearing down Archie. The main trouble, this expert says, is that Archie can no longer take a punch. But he covered up quickly by saying Archie can still toss 'em.

So that's the way the boys see the biggest heavyweight battle in recent years. Both fighters have backing and both are determined to put on a show. This may be the best heavyweight fight in the books, and it could easily turn out to be the worst.

NCC ORIENTATION

DURHAM, N.C. — R. D. Russell, N.C. counselor, will open North Carolina College's Orientation Week program with a brief message (Thursday) Sept. 8 at 8:30 a.m. Emphasis upon year-round individual counseling will be stressed during the week of activities.

IBC chief would let government run boxing

NEW YORK (ANP) — Stating that he was fed up with frequent investigation, James Norris, president of the International Boxing Club said last week that he wouldn't care if the government chose to control boxing.

"If the commissions can't run boxing," he said, "let the federal government run it."

Norris made the statement after reports from Detroit where the National Boxing Assn. was holding its annual convention, stated the IBC was being investigated.

Besides passing a resolution by the body calling for a congressional investigation of boxing an NBA spokesman, George Barton, former president of the association, said that the FBI has been investigating boxing since June. Harry Markson, IBC chief in New York, said that the investigators were not FBI agents, but merely Justice department men.

Tuskegee opens Thurs., under new grid tutor

TUSKEGEE, Ala. — The Golden Tigers of Tuskegee Institute will start on the road back when football practice for the 1955 season opens here Thursday with Whitney L. Van Cleve as head coach.

The youthful Van Cleve assumed his duties June 1. He took over the head football coaching job, filled since 1923 by Cleve L. Abbott, nationally known shorts figure who died in April after a long illness.

Mrs. Charles A. Lewis, physician's wife, dies

PHILADELPHIA

Mrs. Virgie Vassar Lewis, wife of Dr. Charles A. Lewis, died Aug. 21 at the Washington-Hill Convalescen Home. She was 71 years of age and had been ailing for several months.

Active, politically, for many years, Mrs. Lewis was the first woman to run for the State Legislature. She was an office holder of the West Philadelphia Civic League of Women, and of other organizations in the State Federation of Women's Clubs.

• • •

FUNERAL services were held at noon Friday at the Irvin Funeral Home with Dr. Frank Mitchell pastor of Pinn Memorial Baptist Church officiating.

Mrs. Lewis was a staunch member of the church, being affiliated with the Progressive Club there. Interment was in Mt. Lawn Cemetery.

Mrs. Lewis was born in Lynchburg, Va., April 7, 1884, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. David N. Vassar.

• • •

HER FATHER, a graduate of Colgate University, was a well known Baptist minister and taught at Union University for more than 25 years. Her mother, a graduate of Howard University, taught in the Lynchburg school system for 40 years.

Mrs. Lewis was educated in Lynchburg and at Howard University. She was one of the first colored graduates of Drexel Institute where she pursued a course in dressmaking and design. She was also an accomplished musician.

• • •

SHE WAS married to Dr. Lewis on June 13, 1907. Two children were born to this union, Vida Vassar and Charles A. Jr.

Mrs. Lewis was well known in the Women's Auxiliary of the National Medical Association and the Lincoln Dames.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Lewis is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Vida E. Johnson; 2 grandson, Joseph T. Bryan Jr. and a niece, Mrs. Leonora R. Freeman.

Big Labor Day dance and Show set for Coliseum

A big Labor Day show and dance featuring Alfonso Brown and his Tune Topper Orchestra has been scheduled at the Coliseum Monday.

As an extra added attraction, Gloria Lockerman Baltimore's 12-year-old spelling champion is scheduled to appear on the program.

Other program participants will include Tom Hawkins of the Fourth Man program; Elizabeth Figueroa, vocalist; and the Whispers, a recording group.

Vista Yanks to play twinbill Labor Day

The Vista Yankees will meet the Galesville Hot Sox and the Glenarden Braves in two sets of holiday doubleheaders over the Labor Day weekend.

The Yankees will meet the Gallsville Hot Sox Sunday in a doubleheader at Vista, Md. and on Monday will play the Glenarden Braves two games. A picnic will follow the games.

Last Saturday the Yankees and the Braves emerged on the victorious end of a split doubleheader behind two stellar one hit performances by pitchers Sonny Clayton and Albert Weems.

THE VISTA team defeated the Mitchellville Tigers 5-0 in the first tilt behind the hurling of Clayton who won his first game of the season. Glenarden upset the Washington Black Sox with handcuffing the losers.

The last game was called after six innings. The doubleheaders was played for the benefit of the St. Joseph Catholic Church at its annual picnic.

On Sunday, the Yankees were defeated by the Laurel Stars, 5-4, in the first half of a doubleheader at Vista Park.

The Vista team came back to take the second tilt 4-0 for a 25-0 record for the weekend.

The Stars scored five runs in the first half of the sixth inning but the game was discontinued because of darkness, nullifying the runs.

Goose to lay 'em elsewhere, ex-boss Saperstein learns

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (ANP)—Abe Saperstein, fresh from a summer tour of Europe, North Africa and the Near East with the famed Harlem Globetrotters, returned last week that he will have to get along without the services of "Goose" Tatum, his top box office attraction.

Tatum announced here that he would "never play with the Globetrotters again."

Instead, he and Marques Haynes, another Trotter alumnus, have formed a ball team called the Harlem Magicians. The team has already booked 160 games for the current season.

The loss of Tatum, who has been listed as missing in action for the past two months, and Haynes who quit the team in 1953, represented the two biggest losses to the Trotters to date.

Beside combining clowning with basketball wizardry, Tatum has set single-game individual scoring records in Chicago Stadium (35 points) and in San Francisco's Cow Palace (64 points).

Haynes was considered the top dribbler in basketball.

Tatum was the last of the original Harlem Globetrotters. Only Babe Pressly, also of the initial team, now remains with the team. He is serving as a coach.

Death eluded in river plunge

WASHINGTON

A heroic man, John E. Smith, 31, 1010 20th St., NW, late Tuesday night leaped into the Anacostia River from the South Capitol Street Bridge and rescued a 19-year-old housewife who either jumped or fell into the river.

Mrs. Juanita Carter, 1100 block Second St., SE, was pulled from the river by Mr. Smith, who swam out over 100 feet from shore on the downstream side of the bridge to rescue Mrs. Carter.

Mrs. Carter was taken to D.C. General Hospital and admitted for mental observation.

PVTS. T. F. Allan and R. F. Hoare in a Fourth Precinct scout car answered a call at 11:37 Tuesday night. The alarm stated that a person was threatening to jump off the South Capitol St. Bridge.

When they arrived they found Mr. Smith bringing Mrs. Carter to shore. Dr. H. Legaspi of Casualty Hospital treated the woman on the scene for exposure and then had her removed to D.C. General Hospital.

Homicide Det. Sgt. Patrick A. Donnihan investigated the case.

On Thursday, a Mrs. Orsie Smith of the Second St. address reported Mrs. Carter was home and improving.

Boy, 14, shot at party as Gangs' clash

WASHINGTON

Fourteen-year-old John Wilson of Clarion St. near Oxford is being held by police on charges of shooting a 16-year-old boy during a block party clash between two rival gangs.

The victim is George Singleton of 3539 N. 17th St. who suffered two bullet wounds of the chest. He is a patient at Temple University.

LT. MILLARD Mears of the Juvenile Aid Bureau emphasized that young Singleton is not a member of the gangs, but was struck down as an innocent bystander.

The shooting occurred at a block party, Saturday, in the 2200 block Woodstock St.

Five other boys, said to be members of the gangs, were sent to Youth Center. They are:

John Fleming, 13, of Myrtle Pl. near 10th St.; Alfredo Dephy, 15, of Brown St. near 10th; Charles Brown, 13, of Marshall St. near Poplar; Reginald Freeman, 15, of Bouvier St. near 16th; and Benjamin Dewitt, 13, of Creighton St. near Jefferson.

Knocked through door, injures right ankle

WASHINGTON

George Cadell, 27, 1900 block Ballidet St., NE, was in fair condition at D.C. General Hospital Saturday after telling police he was knocked through the doorway of a restaurant Friday night.
