sell, also sisters Eva Blake and Lil Watty, two aunts and nieces, also cousins, Hilda Moseley and Amy Fauntleroy, and Helen Taylor and Lillie M. Brittain.

Among husbands and wives were the Eugene Mayors, Red Smiths, Ernest Berrys, Nelson Randolphs, M. Tabbs, John Freelands, Sammy Harcums and Charles H. Browns and many others.

Highspots of the trip were the calypso band on the steamer, "Queen of Nassau," highlighted by the torso-twisting and torch singing "Marie," buying in the straw market and sightseeing in Nassau. OES members aboard were feted by fellow members in Nassau. The tourists used the ship as their hotel and enjoyed the marvelous cuisine of the steamer.

In Miami there was attendance at beautiful Gesu Church, more sightseeing and special entertainment features put on for the visitors by the management of the Lord Calvert Hotel. About a dozen of the tour members took off Friday morning by air for a quick look-see of Cuba or Haiti and returned Friday evening.

The fourth annual banquet of the group was held in the banquet hall of the Club Calvert Saturday evening with an impromptu program with Alice Morrell as chairman and Mary West Jones as M.C.

Participants were tour directors Christian C. Kolonn and W. Harry Newson, Lillie Mae Brittain, pianist, Virginia Tabbs, Ada Butler, Hattie Tayler, and Elmer Addison. Alice Morrell spoke on behalf of the old members and Marian Johnson responded for the new ones. "Buster" Brown led the singing of "Little Nassau," theme song of the trip to Nassau.

The banquet was followed by a weiner roast and dancing on the beautiful patio of the Lord Calvert with music by Bill Lewis and his combo.

The Travelers liked this first traincruise tour so well that they are requesting an extended cruise in the Caribbean area for next summer.

ONE OF Mount Winans' oldest residents, Mrs. Rosa Welch died on Friday, August 19 at her home, 2509 Huron St. Mrs. Welch and her husband spent the best part of their lives in Mount Winans.

During her life, she contributed much of her services to her community. The couple had been married for 52 years. They were members of Mount Winans Methodist Church.

Her closest relatives were her husband, Nicholas Welch; brother, Jerry Blackburn; Malschedie Hopkins; niece, Marie Mounton, and Mrs. Daisy Howard.

Funeral services were held at Mount Winans Methodist Church on Tuesday at 12 p.m. She was buried at National Cemetery.

WHEN THE judges of the Clean Block Campaign arrived in South Baltimore late Sunday afternoon; men, women, and children, full of anxiety, were waiting to see the reaction of the judges and Mrs. Frances McKay as they viewed the clean blocks and the lots.

Pictures were taken of the beautiful streets which were handsomely decorated and admired by thousands of people who pass by on the highway.

The citizens of South Baltimore have not only decorated the streets, but used picks, shovels, scissors, hachets, saws and bought chairs, swings, and see-saws to beautify the lots owned by the city.

These workers have saved the city a great deal of money by cleaning those lots, which were once called a disgrace to the city. Now they are some of Baltimore's most beautiful parks.

AFTER VIEWING the many activities carried on Sunday, your columnist dined with Mrs. Maggie Thomas, 624 W. Barre St.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dixon, 647 W. Barre St.; Mr. and Mrs. George Dennis, 645 W. Barre St., and Mrs. Gertrude Jackson at 609 Lee St.

CATONSVILLE IN THE PAST

The old days of Catonsville are well remembered by its residents and the times of 1922 are as vivid to them as if they had just happened yesterday.

In that year, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith watched and waited as Jeremiah Johnson completed the building of his new home.

everyone remembers the day little Miss Edith Mae Brown, a member of Mrs. Emma John's Sunday School class, raised enough to buy 100 lbs. of cornmeal, 2 lbs of pepper and 2 lbs. of salt for the old folks' home.

THEY REMINISCE with dollar signs in their eyes as they reminisce the 15 cent hair cuts they could get at Luther Owen's Tonsorialist Corner, the oysters at Mrs. Ella Loudon's restaurant, the vegetables at Marshall Johnson's and the hairdos at Mrs. Clare Hall's beauty parlor.

Mrs. Frances Harriday remembers her dinner guest, Mrs. Josephine Bacon, and Miss Mary Jackson and Edward Pye remembers his business, the funeral parlor in those "good ole days."

Then, as now, the residents of Catonsville were spending their summers out of town and Livious Coe, Harvey Richardson and Marshall Brown were just returning from their summers away.

In that year, Catonsville's two fraternal orders were soon to welcome a third, the Crescent Lodge Elks.

Denmark family moved by ex-Douglass student

Mrs. Thelma DeShields of 814 Whitmore Ave. always knew her son, Bradley, was gentle, polite and kind — but now she has an affirmation of what she always knew—from as far away as Denmark.

For Bradley, or rather Pfc. Bradley S. Byrd, U.S. Army dental technician, made such an impression on a family he visited in Denmark his host sat down and wrote the young soldier's mother a letter praising him.

Pfc. Byrd, 20, is a 1952 graduate of Douglass High School and attended Morgan State College for two years. On July 26, 1954, he volunteered for three years in the Army and after training in Georgia and at Ft. Sam Houston, Texas, shipped out for Germany on February 6, 1955.

In Baltimore he was a member of St. Pius Catholic Church. His sister, Miss Hazel DeShields, will enter Coppin State Teachers College next month. His father, William DeShields, is a stevedore in Baltimore.

IN GERMANY Pfc. Byrd worked as first assistant to a dentist who is from South Dakota. The dentist's father, however, is originally from Denmark and naturally the son decided to visit his aunt in Copenhagen.

He carried Pfc. Byrd along with him on the visit and the Baltimorean made such an impression on the Danes that he's been invited back to Denmark to spend the Christmas holidays, along, of course, with his superior officer.

The following is the complete letter Mrs. DeShields received from Denmark, dated August 16, 1955:

Dear Mrs. De Shields:

"Perhaps you will be surprised to have a letter from a person in Denmark that you don't know. But I have just had your son, Bradley, a few days here on a visit.

"My brother went to America in 1950 and married over there and lives in South Dakota. His son is a dentist and is a soldier in American army in Germany.

"Your son is his first assistant and they have both spent almost a week here in Copenhagen with us. Why I am writing to you is to tell you that you can be proud of such a nice young son as Bradley.

"He is so gentle, polite and kind; so my husband and my two young daughters and I, we was very fond of him and we were quite sad when he and my brother's son went back to Germany last night.

"We have had a very nice time together, and we have wished them both to spend the Christmas days here with us.

"You must excuse my English but is more difficult to write than to talk a foreign language.

"My youngest daughter has started to brush her teeth with Colgate's. She says, 'I have grip' because Brad such lovely white teeth as he has. He is a very handsome young man.

"Much love to you, Mrs. DeShields from Mrs. Yohanne Valbandian, Toftesry 4, Birkerson, Denmark."

What's New in Colgate Dental Cream that's MISSING-MISSING-MISSING in every other leading toothpaste?

It's GARDOL—To Give Up To 7 Times Longer Protection Against Tooth Decay ...With Just One Brushing!

COLGATE RIBBON DENTAL CREAM

Any toothpaste can destroy decay- and odor-causing bacteria. But new bacteria return in minutes, to form acids that cause decay. Colgate's, unlike any other leading toothpaste,* keeps on fighting decay 12 hours or more! So, morning brushings with Colgate Dental Cream help protect all day; evening brushings all night. Gardol, Colgate's, forms an invisible, protective shield around teeth that lasts 12 hours with just one brushing. Ask your dentist how often to brush your teeth. Encourage your children to brush after meals. And at all times, get Gardol protection in Colgate's!

*No other leading toothpaste can give the 12-hour protection against tooth decay you get with Colgate Dental Cream with Gardol.

CHARM CENTRE'S PREVIEW OF FALL FASHIONS

Distinctively fresh new styling permeates the coat and suit scene for fall of '55. Fall fashions can be described in four words."The Rich Girl Look." Everything is opulent, elegant, out-of-this-world. Anywhere designers can embroider or embellish they've done it with furs, jewels, gold braid or gold thread to hi-light and garnish.

Coats for fall are varied to please everyone, there are slim coats, unfitted reefers, fur trimmed, formal, the "A" silhouette and reversibles.

Fabrics are outstanding. Never so many tweeds in so many patterns, weights, colors and textures. Blanket plaids, brown and black yarn, sculptured wools, velours, precious fur blends (muskrat, angora, mink, beaver)—mixed with wool. Fur-like pile coats are in a category of their own. In addition to alpaca pile the synthetic piles will account for a big percentage of early selections. Favored colors are platinum, gray, black and brown. The long line look prevails.

The coordinated costume appears to be the biggest and most exciting idea to infiltrate the suit market and portends to be a big favorite with the career girl because of its adaptability. The Coordinated costume consists of a coat (short or long) plus a skirt, plus a blouse. The regular two-piece suit still enjoys importance, but the suit with a new personality is the thing.

Mrs. Wilhelmina Shipley, head buyer at Charm Centre, has shopped the coat and suit market with the idea of selecting garments that meet the exciting demands of Charm Centre's busy customers. There is a coat and suit for every age, income and vocation group. A coat or suit just for you to suit your particular figure type and personality. Stop by Charm Centre, 1811 Pennsylvania Ave. today and let one of its experienced saleladies show you the coat or suit for you for '55.
