Major Bowl Tilts Feature Tan Aces

CHICAGO (ANP) — The stage again is set for the annual round of post-season collegiate football games.

Tan players will see action in four of the major clashes—The Rose Bowl, the Cotton Bowl, the Orange Bowl and the East-West Shrine game.

The spotlight will be turned on Jim Brown, the great Syracuse back who will lead the Orange against Texas Christian University at Dallas in the Cotton Bowl.

Brown will be winding up the football phase of a brilliant college athletic career. A unanimous All-American this season, he wrote his name in the record books of the National Collegiate Athletic Association when he romped over Colgate for 43 points in his last regularly-scheduled game.

He also set an individual rushing record for a single season at Syracuse, gaining 986 yards in eight games. His season average was 6.2 yards for his 158 carries. He scored 106 points.

THE ROSE BOWL encounters Pasadena between Iowa, Big Ten Conference, and Oregon State, Pacific Coast champions, will arrayed a pair of CSC sophomore halfbacks, John Hawkeyes.

Earnel Burdue, a winghack and Paul Lowe, a tailback, were two of the outstanding runners on the Pacific Coast this season. Burden was the Beavers' leading gainer, picking up 508 yards in 71 tries for an average of 7.2 yards.

Lowe gained 407 yards running and three 13 successful aerials in 26 attempts.

Oregon State's squad also lists Ted Bates, a 210-pound tackle; Joe Wade, a center, and Bernard Bruce, a wing-back, but the latter two did not figure too prominently in action this season.

ONE OF the Hawkeyes' stars is Frank Gilliam, senior end from Steubenville, Ohio, who is an excellent pass receiver and a terrific defender. Gilliam actually is playing his fourth season with Iowa. In 1955, he was hurt after his first game and was granted another year of eligibility by Big Ten officials.

His teammates include Mike Hagler, halfback, and John Burroughs, a tackle. Both are juniors and hail from Washington.

IN THE third bowl game—the Orange at Miami—the Big Seven representatives, the University of Colorado, will have two fan members on its roster. John Wooten, a 228-pound regular guard from Carlsbad, N. Mexico, probably will start for the Buffaloes. Frank Clarke, a 210-pound end from Bellevue, Wash., is sure to see plenty of action. He is one of the chief passes-catching threats on the team.

In the Shrine contest at San Francisco Saturday, the East personnel will include All-American Jim Parker and Jim Roseboro from Ohio State, and Abe Woodson, Illinois' star.

Tenn. cops pre-holiday cage meet

NASHVILLE — Tennessee State bounced the University of North Dakota and Rockhurst, 84-51 and 69-57, to take top honors in the first pre-holiday Basketball tourney held at Henderson Johnson Memorial gym here Saturday night.

FISK AND Tennessee played host to the rain-soaked fourteam, two-day hardwood tourney.

Fisk was blasted from the unbeaten ranks by both North Dakota, and Rockhurst, 59-58 and 84-68. Rockhurst and North Dakota split, winning one and losing one.

Coach Johnny McLendon's fast-breaking Tennessee five had little trouble swamping the North Dakota Sioux as the Tigers avenged their 71-69 overtime loss to Rockhurst two weeks ago.

HARD-FIGHTING Fisk five fell from the unbeaten ranks on a thrilling desperation shot in the final seconds of play against North Dakota.

The bulldogs came from four points behind at halftime 28-32 to a one-point lead with 20 seconds to play behind the fine shooting of Wedlon Drew and Jim Anderson.

With time running out, Sioux guard Dick Vinger entered the game with less than 18 seconds remaining got the ball and hit a 32-foot set shot to tip Fisk 59-58 as the final whistle sounded.

N.J. radio stations air Joe Louis' tax troubles

ATLANTIC CITY, (ANP) — Hourly appeals designed to "make people conscious" of the income tax troubles of former world heavyweight champion Joe Louis were broadcast by radio stations here last week.

Radio Station WMID directed airings of Louis' woes and announcer Vince Linder said the campaign was not to raise funds, but to stir up public sympathy for the retired boxer.

BILL COUSE, sports director of Radio Station WJLK in Asbury Park, said his network has carried two similar broadcasts devoted to Louis' tax troubles.

The Internal Revenue Service claims that Louis owes the government more than one million dollars in back taxes. It is currently in the process of seizing the $65,000 trust fund set up for Louis' two children.

Lindner accompanied his broadcast with a telegram to Senator Case (R-N.J.), asking for legislation to "erase" or "ease" Louis' tax burden.

Tan stars lead 2 foes in pro club

NEW YORK (ANP) — When the Chicago Bear and the New York Giants clash here for the National Football championship, sentiment among tan partisans will be divided.

The Bears will have Co-Caroline and Bobby Watkins in action. On the Giants' roster—and seeing plenty of work—are Roosevelt Brown and Roosevelt Grier, tackles; Em Tunnell, defensive back, and Mel Triplett, hard-charging fullback.

THE LAST TIME these teams battled for the title there were no tan players in the NFL.

The Bears are counting on Caroline and Watkins to keep the Giants' defense honest. In the deciding playoff game in the Western Division between the Chicago and the Detroit Lions, both Caroline and Watkins registered touchdowns as the Bears routed the visitor, 38 to 21.

CAROLINE played both ways. It wasn't until three weeks ago that he was used offensively. With Watkins hobbled by a leg injury and Perry Wolfe's ankle bad, out for the season, Coach Paddy Driscoll, in desperation, pressed Caroline into service as a ball carrier against the Chicago Cardinals.

It was Caroline's running that paved the way for the Bears' 10 points and his last-second tackle saved the game for the Bears.

Watkins showed his old form against the Lions and is set to display explosive running talents against the Giants.

In Brown, the Giants have one of the outstanding offensive tackles in the league. In Grier, they have one of the best defensive linemen in the league.

Both are big and tremendously fast.

TUNNELL, a veteran of the Giants, is considered one of the best pass defenders and safety men in the game.

Triplett started the season by scoring three touchdowns in each of the Giants' first two games. He finished it against a six-pointer since, but has been a reliable ground gainer throughout the year.

Division of OrangeBlossom funds causes rift in Fla. official circles

MIAMI (ANP) The division of funds for publicity purposes of the Orange Blossom Classic, which this year pitted Florida A. and M. against Tennessee State, has stirred up a controversy which theatens to affect future handling of the game.

The controversy centered on the way state funds are meted out for promotion of the game. The Rattlers as the host team have reportedly paid out large sums for promotion of the game, and this has drawn stern criticism from the state capitol.

* * *

LAST WEEK Gov. LeRoy Collins personally intervened. He said he is determined not to have state agencies doing business with companies in which government officials have a "personal financial interest."

His blast was taken as an indirect slap at the organizing committee of the Orange Blossoms classic.

The committee is headed by Hollis Rinehart, Miami attorney and member of the State Board of Control. Rhinehart is said to be board chairman of the publicity firm of Bishopric, Green and Fieldon, which this year was paid $24,000 for athletic publicity by Florida A. and M. University.

Karl Bishopric, head of the firm, is also a member of the classic committee.

* * *

EIGHTEEN thousand dollars of the amount was used to promote this year's game between the Rattlers and Tennessee.

Gov. Collins criticized the tieup of committee members with the financial promotion of the game. Said he: "Regardless of the good faith, it is not proper for any governmental board to have private contractual relations with any company in which a member of the board has a personal financial interest."

* * *

BOTH Rinehart and Bishopric have replied to critism of the arrangement. Rinehart denied he has any present affiliation with the firm. In a letter sent to the governor and the Board of Control, Rinehart stated that since 1948, when he served as legal counsel for the firm, he has received $1,505 in fees.

Bishopric also filed a report in which he said agency fees of $18,725 of $102,853.90 budgeted by Florida and Bright Promotion of two annual football games and $6,470 said that another $6,470 was spent for "publicity personnel," whom he described as publicists other than those in his firm.

ALTHOUGH the Orange Blossom is said to be "boosted to tremendous proportions" since the firm took over its publicity, the implications are that the classic has become a juicy melon financially, with the publicists other than those in his firm.

The classic this year netted a gross of $86,000. On this $15,000 —a pre-game guarantee—was paid to the visiting team.

The classic this year was won by Tennessee State. Grambling college surprised the Rattlers in 1955, to win mythical honors.

Fayetteville bows to N.C.

FAYETTEVILLE, N.C. — Paced by the 26-point output of their Co-Captain, Sam Jones, six-foot, free-throw artist from Laurinburg, N.C., Coach Floyd Brown's North Carolina College Eagles flopped their wings to a well - earned 83-75 win here Thursday evening, when the home-boys weekened in the final frame.

Throughout what was easily the fastest and most furious game the Fayetteville fans have seen all season, the score flipped to and fro like the pendulum of a clock.

And while the win pushed the Eagles' record up to five wins against one loss in CIAA play, it dropped Captain Ted Bonner and his Bronco to a deadlock, leaving two losses against as many wins.

Morals count trips onetime cage star

NEW YORK (ANP)—Henry (Hank) DeZonie, a former basketball star of the New York Renaissance and the Fort Wayne Pistons, was remanded to Federal Prison last week after Federal Judge Sylvester Ryan sentenced him to six year on charges of transporting a woman across state lines for purposes of prostitution.

DeZonie drew the prison term after pleading guilty to two counts of an indictment involving a Mrs. Virginia Reed. He was sentenced to three years on each count, to run concurrently.

DeZonie, who began his basketball fame at Clark College in Atlanta, Ga., was indicted Oct. 17 on charges of transporting the woman to Grand Rapids, Mich., in August, 1954, and to Boston, Mass., in June, 1955, to set her up in the prostitution business, while he served as her "pimp."

Attorney scores government seizure of Louis trust fund

CHICAGO (ANP) — Government seizure of funds for the two children of former heavyweight boxing champion Joe Louis was bitterly assailed last week here by Louis' lawyer.

The U.S. Tax Court here approved the seizure on charges that Louis had set up the funds knowing he was insolvent and owed back income taxes.

Attorney Aaron Payne, however, insisted that one trust was established from Chicago Negro Louis lauded ever to his ex-wife, Marva, in 1935, "before he was champ and owed anybody a cent."

Payne said the other trust arose from funds Louis was obligated to give his former wife under the terms of their first divorce settlement.

The lawyer said both trusts, totalling about $65,000 were set up by Louis' former wife, who is now the wife of Dr. Albert L. Spaulding of Chicago.

The trusts are for the Louis children, Joe Jr., 9, and Jacqueline, 13.

Payne explained that the Tax Court decision was "shaky" and that he would take the matter to the U.S. Court of Appeals.

Payne stressed that "the monies that established the trusts belong to Marva." He added that she would be made to account for about $10,000 in gift taxes she received from Louis, and that she provided the money for the trusts.

Black admits backing digits

CHICAGO (ANP) — Julian Black, former manager of one-time heavyweight boxing champion Joe Louis, has admitted that he was a gambling operator here for 20 years.

Black and two other men, Sanders Scott and Edward Copeland, are currently charged with evading $52,000 income taxes on gambling.

Black told the judge Joseph Sam Perry that he helped finance a numbers lottery from 1931 to 1951 and took 50 per cent of the profits. He said the rest went to Scott and Copeland.

In Memoriam 1

GREEN—In loving memory of my husband, EDWARD RICHARD, who passed away December 26, 1954.
Why did he go when life seems so dear
And no dark clouds were near.
To dim the brightness of our lives
Or start the bitter tear.
We thought not at the close of day
When nights veiled earth and sky,
That one so full of life and health
Would breathe his last quietly.
LOVING MOTHER, MATILDA.
SISTERS AND BROTHER.

BERTHA, MARY AND HENRY.

HILL — In loving memory of my husband, EDWARD S. HILL, who departed this life three years ago, December 31, 1953.
And while he lies in peaceful sleep
His memory I shall always keep.
Devoted Wife,
ESTELLA C. HILL.

HOLBROOK — In loving memory of my dear husband, WALTER C. who departed this life December 30, 1954:
What would I give to clasp his hand
His happy face to see
To hear his voice and see him smile
That meant so much to me.
Devoted Wife,
BESSIE HOLBROOK.

WILSON—In memory of my beloved husband, JANIE E. WILSON, who passed away December 27, 1953:
Sister, if I shed a secret tear
And often breathe a sigh,
Forgive me, for I miss you more
As another year goes by.
Loving Sister
