Michaux is reversed in Mayfair suit

WASHINGTON

"The judgment must be reversed and the cause remanded to the District Court, with directions to consider whether plaintiff should, in the interest of justice, be allowed to amend Count 3 of his original complaint . . ."

With these words, the U.S. Court of Appeals, Thursday, set back Elder (Lightfoot) Solomon Michaux and Associates in a suit of nearly one million dollars against them, involving Mayfair Mansions, Hayes and Kenilworth Sts., NE.

The suit was filed two years ago by Albert I. Cassell, architect and former vice president of the six-million dollar private housing project of which the "Happy Am I" minister is president.

IN CLAIMS totaling $963,075, Mr. Cassell named additional defendants: Gospel Spreading Association, Arthur M. Chaite, Elder Howard W. Poole and the Reconstruction Finance Corp.

The panel of three appellate judges ruled on Count 3 of the suit, in which instance Mr. Cassell was turned down in District Court for reinstatement to his posts as vice president and architect-engineer of Mayfair Mansion.

He further requested the return of 20 shares of stock that were allegedly taken from him and given to Elder, Michaux's Gospel Spreading Association, raising this group stock ownership to 80 shares.

MR. CASSELL contended that interest in stock and salary due him totaled $546,004; loans and credits, $109,518, $307,553 for services and contractors' fees on the project completed in 1946.

The lower court dismissed count three of the multiple claims in March, 1955, on a motion by the defendants under the statute of limitations action after three years elapsed.

THE COURTS stated that there was no "unreasonable delay and therefore ordered entry of final judgment. It dismissed Count 3, with the exception of claim for salary accruing after Nov. 2, 1951.

The court further stated the judgment that Mr. Cassell should have been allowed to amend the count in view of other claims.

He is represented by Bernard Margolius, with Warren E. Magee, Carlton R. Edward 2nd and Ralph H. Deckelbaum, Attorneys for the defendants are Robert F. Ackerly and Richard K. Lyon.

Rob school of $200

CAMDEN, N.J. — Thieves smashed a first floor window of the Central School, at 4th and Clinton Sts., last Wednesday night. They made off with $200 from office of the principal, Mrs. Lottie H. Johnson, of 1735 Park Blvd., and the desks of several teachers.

Mrs. Johnson, only colored school principal in the city, who was recently tendered a testimonial banquet, said the money was from "pupils' projects."

Washington man victim No. 531

BELTSVILLE — Maryland's 531st traffic fatality of the year came early Thursday morning when a car, police said, was driven by Charles Chandler, 27, 700 block 19th St., NE, Washington, plowed into the rear of a truck.

Pronounced dead at the Leland Memorial Hospital in Riverdale was Orlando Hill, 22, 1400 block Eastern Ave., also of Washington. Mr. Chandler was admitted to the hospital with a fractured skull.

Prince Georges County police said that the 1952 Ford, owned by Mr. Hill, rammed into a large truck which was stopped for a red light on U.S. Route 1, near Beltsville.

The Hill car was a total wreck, police said. The death marked the state's 531st fatality as compared to 488 at the same time last year.

'Graveyard love'

In Central Homicide Court Wednesday morning, Hollis Hines of the 2053 15th St., NW, Washington was charged with shooting Miss Turner, and was ordered held without bail pending a hearing to be set by the States Attorney's office.

POLICE FOUND the body of Miss Turner lying in a pool of blood outside the entrance to a basement apartment at 1424 Bruce St., around 12:45 a.m.

They stated that when Mr. Hollis arrived at the station house, he told them that he had shot Miss Turner accidentally.

Police said the accused man claimed the gun went off accidentally when he pulled it from his pocket to investigate noises behind him and Miss Turner.

Hollis allegedly said that he was accompanying Miss Turner home from work when the shooting occurred.

BITTER OVER the death of the young woman he had started dating only recently, Mr. Galloway told this story:

"That fellow had bothered her before.

"They had been going together in Washington and she left him. That's when we met.

"A WEEK ago I went with her over to her sister's house on O St., to get her things.

"He was there and threatened to shoot both of us.

"That's when he told her how much he loved her. She had him here years ago."

Looking about his room in disgust Mr. Galloway declared, "I wish that I could get my hands on him now."

Funeral services for Miss Turner have been scheduled for Monday at the Stewart Funeral Home in Washington.

"WE HATED to tell our mother how she died. She has heart trouble and we don't know how she is going to get over it."

This is what Mrs. Mary Sutton, 476 O St., NW, said, Wednesday, in telling how she learned about the fatal shooting of her sister, Mrs Turner in Baltimore.

Mrs. Sutton said District police came to her home Wednesday to tell about the tragedy.

"MY OTHER sister and I went to Baltimore to find out how it happened. It was terrible.

"Hines has threatened her, I don't know how many times. She was trying to get away from him," Mrs. Sutton added.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m., Saturday, in the chapel of the Stuart Funeral Home, 30 H St., NE.

The body will lie in state at the chapel after 4 p.m. Friday (today). Burial will be in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Mrs. Turner is survived by her mother, Mrs. Mary Sutton, two sisters and two brothers, all of Washington.

'Divine' follower a suicide

PHILADELPHIA

The body of a woman who plunged to her death in the Delaware River from the Pennsylvania Railroad Bridge, Nov. 24, was identified Tuesday as that of Obedience Longworth, a follower of "Father Divine."

The victim, who has lived at Divine - Lorraine Hotel, Broad St. and Fairmount Ave., for about three years, was identified by the co-manager, Sister Willingness.

Mother Harbor pole and park guards recovered the body hours after the woman disappeared in the swift current. She was found in 25 feet of water.

Apparently in a highly nervous state, the woman was first noticed in the railroad suburban station when she asked a clerk the way to Town Hall. He directed her to a gateman. After she said she wanted to get there "in a hurry."

A RAILROAD officer, Earl Diggs, started across the bridge from the 30th St. Station platform when he received word from an engineer that his engine had almost run down a woman walking along the tracks.

The woman was walking the half mile of the tracks between the two depots while the engineer took his train in from the suburban station. As Diggs approached, the woman climbed a four-foot abutment and jumped 40 feet into the water. In sight of the running policemen, the woman hit the jutting base of a bridge pier before dropping into the water.

'Too full of sin,' 4 death notes declare

PHILADELPHIA

"The world was too full of sin," according to four notes left beside the body of Nazareth Harris, 26, who was found shot to death in his first floor apartment at 813 W. Norris St.

Harris, one of the weekend's two victims of violent death, was found with the front portion of his head blown away.

The victim was a nephew of Bishop Lucille Stevenson of the Russell Tabernacle C M E church, 2100 block N. Park Ave.

The second victim, George A. Washington, 62, 3851 Brown St., was found beaten to death on a vacant lot at Wiota and Parrish Sts.

The body of Washington, a blacksmith at the U.S. Naval Base, was found by Mrs. Mary Robinson of 730 N. 40th St. It was identified by his estranged wife, Daisy, 45, of 3841 Fairmount Ave.

Police said an autopsy showed that Washington's skull was fractured, apparently with a blunt instrument.

BANQUET ORATOR

CHICAGO — Dr. T. R. M. Howard, who won the praise of civil rights supporters but incurred the wrath of southern segregationists for his campaign against oppression in Mississippi, last week was principal speaker at the annual Brotherhood banquet of the Chicago Conference of Brotherhood at the Parkway Ballroom here.

'Earn extra money for Christmas' jobs not open

The advertised 'earn extra money for Christmas jobs,' are still limited to predominantly white applicants only, T. W. Gough, director of operations for the Maryland Department of Employment Security, told the AFRO, Tuesday.

An AFRO reporter who visited the office and applied for one of the jobs was advised: "We have only two part-time jobs at present. They are for boys about 18 years old to deliver telegrams, and I don't think you'd be interested in that."

When the AFRO referred to an advertisement published in two daily newspapers this week, stating that "The department is seeking more than 300 qualified sales persons to fill permanent, year-round openings," Mr. Gough gave the answer:

"The situation has not changed—there are still several hundred jobs open," he said, "but they are predominantly for white applicants."

Mr. Gough emphasized, however, that it was not the fault of his office that certain applicants were not accepted for jobs.

"We can not refer those persons to places where they are not wanted," he said. He said that the companies desiring workers specify their race preference for most jobs.

EARLIER IN the month, Frank Gay, director of public relations for the department, sent a similar notice to the AFRO, stating that applicants to apply for 'earn extra money for Christmas' jobs.

AFRO readers who answered the ads were advised at that time that the employers were mainly downtown department stores who solicited white help only.

Although this week's advertisements specify the need for persons to off-set the "acute" Christmas work load, the "white only" order still stands.

Mr. Gough stated that "very excellent strides" have been made in the hiring of workers without regard to race in the last 12 years.

"MUCH OF that credit," he said, "is due to J. Alvin Jones, our representative for the department."

Mr. Jones, who joined the department in 1945, said that "very definite strides have been made over a period of time. Most employers who did not accept colored workers last year are accepting them this year," he said.

He had high praise for the local unit, which he said had passed two and a half months ago. "It will be a big help in erasing racial barriers," he said.

As a result of the bill, the Baltimore Equal Employment Opportunity Commission has been formed and has appointed representation which Mr. Jones calls "highly qualified."

Keep your Christmas merry

The Home Accident Prevention Unit of the Maryland State Department of Health offers suggestions for safety at Caristmas:

Because of their resin and pitch Christmas trees ignite easily and burn furiously. Select a small tree.

Until Christmas keep the tree moist and out of doors; then cut the butt slantwise and keep it in water to retard its drying out. When the needles start falling the tree should be discarded.

Locate the tree away from such heat producers as fireplace, radiator, stove, electric bulbs and television set; away from stairway; out of the line of traffic and where it will not block exit or doorway.

Use electric lighting only. Examine sockets and cords to make sure they are in good condition. Discard sets with frayed wiring.

WHEN PURCHASING electrical equipment look for the UL mark as an indication of having been tested for safety. Reflectors are available for use behind each bulb which add to the beauty of the tree, and provide insulation from the heat of the bulb.

It is unsafe to place the light switch near the tree or to run electric trains around its base. Turn the lights off before retiring or leaving the house.

Keep curtains and all flammable material at least six inches from any electric light.

Use non-flammable decorations of glass or metal and "fireproof" snow. It is preferable to keep other decorations near ceiling height; never near places where people may smoke.

Keep plenty of large ash trays about the house.

When presents have been opened remove and dispose of all the wrapping and packing materials.

EVEN SANTA'S whiskers can cause tragedy. Make sure they are "flame-proofed" or Santa smokes he should take special precautions.

Never use untreated paper, cotton or gauze for decoration. Use of any cotton or gauze for decorating, flammable costumes and dresses of net or gauze-like fabric should be discouraged.

If such materials are used they should first be well saturated in a solution made of 9 The fabric will retain flexibility and softness and may be acid and 1 gallon of water, ironed. This treatment must be wrung out by hand and hung to repeated after each washing of the garment dry.

NO. 1 MAN—Top graduate in a class of 115 men who became police officers last week was Officer Herbert Franklin Armstrong of 1015 Brantley Ave. He was graduated from the Police Academy with a final grade of 93.5. The former Navy man has been assigned to the Rackets Division.

Cornelius Johnson gets year; nabbed as Pimlico gambler

"He is a gambler and for the past few years that has been his vocation."

Alan Murrall, attorney, was characterizing Cornelius F. Johnson, 43, 2100 block Whittier Tab, who pleaded guilty in Criminal Court Wednesday to illegally taking bets at the Pimlico Race Track on Nov. 27.

Judge Joseph L. Carter sentenced the jail, brown skinned man to a year in the House of Correction and fined him $1,000 and costs.

LT. HYMAN GOLDSTEIN, of the Rackets Division, testified that Mr. Johnson was arrested after he was observed taking bets from customers inside the race track. The officer said according to his informa tion Mr. Johnson "would take any type action that the bookmaker not take."

Mr. Murrall contended that the only distinction between Mr. Johnson's activity and that of the operators of the race track was the fact that his client didn't have a license to take bets.

"The Maryland Jockey Association (operators of Pimlico) is actually engaged in syndicated gambling," argued Mr. Murrall.

The lawyer said a regulation of the Racing Commission calls for "exclusive control" of unauthorized persons' making book inside the race track.

"No bookmaker has ever been convicted for making book in the co-called boxes for gamblers," said Mr. Murrall in asking for leniency for his client.

Judge Joseph L. Carter sentenced Mr. Johnson to a year in the House of Correction and fined him $1,000 and costs.

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles
Science Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids
New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.
In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.
Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.
And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!
In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.
All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in popular use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.
This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H.* Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug stores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.
