Satchmo, Allen in benefit show

Louis Armstrong and Steve Allen will head up an outstanding array of celebrities who will appear on a televised "Salute To Hungarians," at Constitution Hall, Sunday, Dec. 30, at 7:45 p.m.

All proceeds will go to First Aid For Hungary, Inc.

This group, which has Herbert Hoover as honorary chairman, seeks to provide assistance to Hungarian refugees who have fled their homeland.

There's going to be a lovely Christmas this year with the streets beautifully decorated, the holiday spirit in the air and the clubs offering top entertainment and pleasure for everyone.

A really wonderful show is at beautiful RICTOR'S RED FOX LOUNGE, Pennsylvania and Fulton Aves., where the bright star is sweet Ethel Ennis with a voice so very good that it has to be heard to be fully appreciated.

Earlier this week Ethel was in New York City where she cut four sides for Atlantic Records. The sides all contain new numbers and Ethel is backed by a full orchestra and chorus.

Her own voice has been dubbed several times on the records and the resulting products are reported to be nothing short of fabulous.

The sides will be released at an early date.

All through the holiday season, Ethel will be at the RED FOX singing the songs you want to hear.

A YOUNG FELLOW with a pleasant manner, Benny Kearse, passed on the information to the column this week that on Saturday afternoon the Interracial Jazz Society will present the winning group in a poll conducted among the patrons at the C L U B TIJUANA.

"Jazz Company, Inc." is the name of the outfit that will be featured in the Saturday session at the CLUB TIJUANA and the head man is Micky Fields.

His technique on the tenor sax marks him as an outstanding attraction and assures the club of fine sounds on Saturday.

In second place in the poll was the Mousey Johnson quartet and third place was taken care of by the Sinbads.

The regular attraction at the club is the excellent group of Eddie "Lockjaw" Davis with Shirley Scott on the organ and Charley Rice on drums. Rounding out the top notch show is the personable and very very talented Miss Mildred Anderson, the lady with a song.

Lush and friendly is the CLUB TIJUANA and you'll enjoy your visit there.

SPARKLING RHYTHM and blues are in store for you on your holiday visit to the smart COMEDY CLUB where the band stand houses the Tune-Makers, a group that makes you glad you are alive.

The service is always the best at the COMEDY CLUB and so are the refreshments. Featured now are new low prices and on Sunday afternoon there is a matinee that runs from 5 to 8 p.m. and offers a world of entertainment.

One of our favorite singers, Tommy Moseley is at the CLUB CASINO and he's a wonderful guy to listen to. His voice is rich and full and he's a youngster with a bright future ahead of him.

The CASINO is also featuring Cornell Muldrow who stirs up a lot of excitement with his calypso numbers. With him is his brother, George Muldrow, and Willie Woodley, two other gentlemen with talent. You'll be a happier fellow or lady after a visit to the CLUB CASINO.

FLINK JOHNSON, the man of many songs, is the traction at CHICK'S LOUNGE, Baltimore and Greene Sts.; the Night Hawks are at the CARNIVAL LOUNGE, 1345 Poplar Grove St.; JONE'S has Jerry Nelson on the piano-organo.

The GARRISN LOUNGE, 3403 Clifton Ave., has the Two Jacks and a Jill, and the CLUB HENRY, 401 S. Fremont Ave., is offering the Grade A music of Wilbur Phillips and the Four Links.

STEVE'S PINK PONY, Monroe and North, has the Esquires, and the Tune Toppers are being welcomed back at the CLOVER CLUB. The FULTON CAFE, Fulton and Baker Sts., is offering service at its five separate bars, and the CROSS ROADS, Pennsylvania and Fulton Ave., is a perfect spot to spend an evening.

That's it . . Have fun . . . Spend a Merry Christmas.

Barbara back on television for Christmas night show

It will be cute Barbara Prestwide back on television on Christmas night at 7:30 p.m. over Channel 2.

The youngster has been invited back to New York, along with other famous alumni of the "Name That Tune" program, to join in the singing of a Christmas carol.

Several months ago the 11-year-old miss won herself $12,500 by correctly identifying a series of songs.

WINS $572 CHECK

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. — Mrs. Mary Fields, a mount assembler in RCA's tube plant here since 1951, won a $572 check for proposing an improved method to assemble one of the miniature tube types.

Rock, roll contest set at Branford

NEWARK

The Branford Theatre in Newark will hold a state-wide Rock 'N' Roll dance championship on their stage Wednesday, 8:30 p.m. Dec. 19, opening night of their new feature film, "Shake, Rattle and Rock."

Besides more than a dozen of the best dance teams in the state competing for big cash prizes, Miss Dakota Staton, will appear in person as a special attraction, along with the Five Blues Flames.

The master of ceremonies will be Newark's popular disc jockey, "Pat The Cat" Connell.

"Runaway Daughters," with Maria English, is an added screen attraction.

Club holds benefit for Miss Shields

ATLANTA—Members of the Afro Savings Club (no connection with the AFRO-AMERICAN Newspapers) sponsored a concert for the benefit of Miss Mercidine Shields at Ariel Bowl Methodist Church last Friday night.

Proceeds from the concert will be used to help defray the cost of an electric wheelchair for Miss Shields who lost her legs from diabetes. The vehicle is expected to cost about $600.

Officers and members of the club are Mesdames Mary Martin, president; Eva Broadnax, treasurer; Mamie Baugh, Josephine Leeks, Annie O'Neal, Misses Margaret Johnson and Pearl Brooks and Allen Murphy.

Miss Hinderas sets concert at Howard

WASHINGTON

Natalie Hinderas will be presented in concert at Howard University, Jan. 10.

Miss Hinderas, born in Oberlin, Ohio, has been performing since age three. At eight, she gave her first full length recital in Cleveland. Shortly afterwards, she was enrolled in the Oberlin Conservatory of Music.

Among her awards have been an Olga Samaroff Grant-in Aid, two fellowships from the Rosenwald Foundation and a John Hay Whitney Opportunity Fellowship which enabled her to study abroad.

THERE'S A LUCKY picture in this and every edition of the AFRO. Look for it. If your head is circled, you can collect $5 cash by calling at AFRO City Desk before the next edition is out.

Hamp 'breaks up' house in Berlin

BERLIN—Lionel Hampton's fourth Berlin date last week was another stout commercial click, with two performances at the 7,000-seat Sportpalast.

When Hampton appears here, the Sportpalast management always has its trouble with youngsters hopping on chairs, dancing in the aisles and even climbing up on the stage.

Despite well meaning words ("Please, behave like civilized people!") on the part of organizers before the concert began, there was no exception this time.

THE FIRST show at 6:30 p.m. saw about 70 chairs wrecked, while the second show (9:45 p.m.) had to be finished before even intended by Hampton.

He was advised by the management to knock off in order to prevent the worst. Since there were attempts to wreck more furniture, police were rushed to the scene.

The concert, last of which Hampton will play in Berlin for two years, was brought here by C. Ebner (Frankfurt-am-Main). Next on latter's roster are Rex Stewart's band and Louis Armstrong and His All-Stars.

TV show to tell story of Clinton

NEW YORK (ANP) — The problems of segregation in the schools of one small community, resulting from the Supreme Court decision of May, 1954, will be examined by the "See It Now" cameras in "Clinton and the Law; A Study in Segregation" on Sunday, Jan. 6, over the CBS Television Network (5:00-6:00 P.M. EST).

The hour-long program is an attempt by the editors of "See It Now" and the citizens of Clinton to explore the chain of events which brought violence to this small Tennessee community.

Virtually the only people to be seen or heard on the program will be the men, women and school children of Clinton who actively participated in the Militia to their town—with the assault on a Baptist minister who escorted six colored students to Clinton High School.

"See It Now," currently in its sixth season on CBS Television, is edited and produced by Ed. Murrow and Fred W. Friendly. Reporter for the Jan. 6 broadcast is Arthur Morse.

THERE'S A LUCKY picture in this and every edition of the AFRO. Look for it. If your head is circled, you can collect $5 cash by calling at AFRO City Desk before the next edition is out.

Theatrical Whirl

Baltimoreans (and perhaps some Washington habitues) may get a thrill out of this appraisal of a vivacious little newcomer to big time . . . The Los Angeles Mirror-News' Paul Coates wrote last week:

"The jaded eye I reserve for night-club openings (the one on the left that droops a little) got the shock of its life (and that's a metaphor that droops a little) the other night . . . It was present with the rest of me for the Sunset Strip debut of a lady who electrified an audience like nothing I've seen since the dawn of EARTHA KITT . . . Her name is SALLIE BLAIR . . . And her opening night was a spectacle of the crazy, wonderful things that happen once in a while in show business . . . She came here unknown to Mocambo's ringside regulars. But before she had returned for a final encore, even Herman Hoover had heard about her . . . MISS BLAIR is going to be star . . . And while I'm not a gambling man, I'd take a friendly bet on it . . . She looks like Abbe Lane . . . And when she sings, she sighs . . . A combination like that, I can tell you from personal experience, does more for us folks over 35 than Serutan . . . If I sound a little giddy about the lady, I am . . . This young lady could sing 'Old Gray Bonnet' and make it sound suggestive."

So maybe it's time now to mention Eartha Kitt . . . Eartha's to go into the Fairmont Cafe, San Francisco, on April 25 . . . It will be La Kitt's first West Coast appearance in five years . . . First artist booked into Chi Chi's (Palm Springs, Cal.) after it was enlarged to seat 500; Ella Fitzgerald . . . Ella followed Lillian Roth at the spot. Earl Boatle reportedly ready to return to work in Los Angeles after recovering from his second heart-attack.

Although she's been a top liner for more than a decade, PEARL BAILEY makes her first Copacabana (N.Y.) showing on January 24 . . . LYNN HOPE (remember him?) back in the States after two years in Egypt and Arabia . . . just finished a run at Philadelphia's Showboat Lounge . . . MILLS BROTHERS still contagious at the Riverside, Reno, Nevada . . . His stand at the Cocoanut Grove ended, BILLY ECKSTINE remained in Hollywood so as to fill a long list of recording dates that had backed up on him . . . All singles, the discs offer. . . MR. B with Hugo Winterhalter as background . . . BILLY WILLIAMS to the Embers Club, Fort Wayne, Ind., for the four weeks from December 28 to January 25 . . . BILLIE HOLIDAY inked for two weeks at Mr. Kelly's in Chi.

Harry Belafonte is slated to make up time he owes the Brooklyn Town and Country Club with a 3-week stand in April . . . Belafonte was let out of his T and C contract so that he could make a film . . . . Harry, incidentally, could have another hit disc in his "Venezuela" . . . "Mary's Boy Child" is the other side . . . . Strong appeal boasted by the newest Platters' platter, "One In a Million" . . . . The Platters just wrapped up a run as topliners of a rock 'n' roll show at the Paramount Theatre, Los Angeles . . . Ink Spots into the Colony Club, Dallas, Texas, January 25.

DUKE ELLINGTON and COUNT BASIE bands set for dates in San Francisco early next year . . . . THE COUNT, by the way, makes his first tour of England (a 3-week stint) beginning April 7. . . . That's the exchange deal that sends Ted Heath over from Britain for an American junket, you know . . . . While discussing overseas dates, it might be appropriate to mention that Parisians are said to be anxiously awaiting LOUIS ARMSTRONG, due in their city in January . . . . and singer WILLIAM WARFIELD was a hit as he opened his German concert tour last week with an evening of lieder tunes at Tuebingen.

When Ethel Waters followed Don Newcomba on the recent "Steve Allen TV SHOW," it marked the ninth time the singer has appeared on the program within a year . . . . they must like her there . . . Nat King Cole off to the West Coast (Hollywood) following his Monday night TV show from New York . . . . He's due back in Gotham on January 23, to open a stand at the Paramount Theatre . . . . Lorraine Hunter a click during her intimate offering at the Ottawa House, Ottawa, Canada.

Lincoln University given $1,000 grant

LINCOLN UNIVERSITY, Pa.—Lincoln University has received an unrestricted gift of $1,000 from the International Nickel Company, as a "recognition of the essential contribution which it is making to the rounded development of well-educated engineers."

The Chester County institution cooperates with Lafayette College in a "3-2 combined study program." Students pursue a liberal arts program for three years at Lincoln, then transfer to Lafayette for two additional years of special study in engineering. On completing the combined program, they receive an A.B. degree from Lincoln and an engineering degree from Lafayette.

This year one of the first students to transfer, Sing Hwa Tsai, a citizen of Nationalist China, was granted an International Nickel Company scholarship at Lafayette. The grant to Tsai carried with it an unrestricted grant of $1,000 to Lincoln.
