Gadabouting

for many years, been living in New York City, has refurned here to reside permanently. She is the sister of Magistrate E. Everette Lane of this city and Dr. Russell Lane of Indianapolis, Ind. Miss Lane is residing with Mrs. Fannie Garrett.

Shirley Diggs tells me that the Savants' New Year's Eve Frolic is set to top 'em all. New Albert Auditorium is the spot and they are going to crown a "Miss New Year 1957." The Savants include the town's A-1 businessmen and sportsmen.

The Rinky Dinks have cooked up a cute one. They are having a "Krazy Pants" party on the 27th in the Famous Ballroom. (Pants are optional). Hosting you will be:

Minerva Welling, Charlee Bethea, Laura Shelton, Ruth Fortune, Miriam Tate and Ada Smith, all officers of the Baltimore chapter;

Also Bea Blackwell, Mae Griffin, Ruby Jenkins, Carol Weldon, Doretha Foster, Althea Harrison, Agnes Walker and Kitty Wheeler.

YOU CAN'T PRINT THAT: Talk about cats on a hot tin roof...there are none so jittery these days, as members of boards of two town organizations (do-gooders, too) whose principals (as shouldn't, 'cause both are married) are romancing high, wide and openly. It has gotten so that if I accidentally or incidentally call either's name in groups these evenings, everything gets as quiet as a mouse-watching kitten. Don't worry, Friends, I'm not going to ask that question...at least until somebody gets bashed in!

THE FEMININE CONTINGENT of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity (which has really been the clearing house for the 43rd conclave preparations) has left none of its techniques with loose edges when it comes to preparing for Omega ladies who will be here during the holidays.

Since this, too, marks the tenth anniversary of the Baltimore chapter of National Quettes, the Omega wives are planning an extensive program...including a luncheon in Morgan College Memorial Refectory on the 28th at 1:30 p.m. and an afternoon social in Tubman House lounge, Morgan, on the 29th at 1:30 p.m. The Quettes are also serving in the capacity of an auxiliary in planning the "Meet-Your-Date" and the Talent Hunt, and in housing the delegates.

House-Moore wedding held

Miss Blanch Moore, daughter of Mrs. Hattie Shivers, became the bride of James House, at the home of her mother, 404 E. 23rd St., Wednesday evening.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Austin Barnes, pastor of St. Joseph Freewill Baptist Church. and a reception for 35 guests followed the ritual.

THE BRIDE wore a blue lace, waltz-length gown, with a matching blue veil held by a tiny crown of seed pearls. Blue lace gloves and blue satin slippers completed her ensemble and she carried a bouquet of carnations.

She was attended by Miss Carolyn Fallon, who also wore an ensemble of blue and carried pink carnations.

Henry Westray was best man for Mr. House, who is the son of Mrs. Lena Brown of Greenville, N. C.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Shivers wore pale green lace and a corsage of pink carnations.

Vivian Brooks marks birthday
