Mr. Gosnell, said that an estimate of the value of the estate could not be made at this time, because the estate consists chefly of the business and equipment.

It was also learned that employees and Mrs. Waters are negotiating to continue the business, which has served the most exclusive clientele in this section and Washington.

Mrs. Waters said, Thursday, that the business would continue in operation, but that she would not be the sole head.

The first large affair to be catered since Mr. Water's death will be a dinner party for 700 Omega Phi Psi Fraternity men, on Dec. 29, during their conclave here.

a nervous condition. His wife is crippled."

A friend on Gilmor St. writes: "I am writing in behalf of a friend that I know who would be very happy to receive a basket. She lives alone and her eyesight is very poor. She can't get out very much by herself.

Mrs. B. J. of Barclay St. writes: "Recently I went to Virginia and brought my sister's two little boys back because she was out of a job. My brother and I were going to make Christmas happy for them.

"Week before last, my brother and husband were laid off. My husband found a job, but my brother didn't. The two little boys, are 4 and 5. I have three children of my own and can hardly provide for them. I wouldn't like for the boys to be disappointed."

MRS. D. J. of Truxton St. says: "I'm a mother of 12 children from 2 to 19 and it's been very hard the past 2 or 3 years. My husband and I are separated. He gives me nothing for them. I live with my mother who is sick.

"I would love for someone to make my kids happy for Christmas with food, clothing or just anything at all."

A neighbor says of a N. Bruce St. family: "I am writing for a family of six kids 4-16. They are very much in need. The mother is not too well. The father is doing the best he can to make ends meet, but his pay isn't very much.

"A girl in high school needs a warm coat. She seems to enjoy going to school. I wish someone would play Santa for this family with some clothes, toys and food."

A 13-year-old girl writes: "I would make me the happiest girl in the world, if you would be Santa Claus to my mother and step-father. My father has been dead seven years.

"I HAVE HAD a step-father three years. I love him almost as much as a real father because he is so good to mother and the rest of us. He was laid off from work two weeks ago.

"Now there won't be the Christmas dinner he had planned or toys for my little 8-year-old sister, or 4-year-old nephew."

A grandmother who lives on Sarah Ann St. writes: "I have a 7-year-old grandson, who lives with my father in Virginia. My father is unable to give him any clothes for school, because he is on the Welfare.

"I would be very glad if he could get some winter clothing. I am staying with some friends, who let me stay with them because I haven't any job."

IT WAS also revealed that the records of Powell's office pastor of Abyssinian Baptist Church have been subpoenaed by Judge Ryan.

Mr. Powell was unavailable for comment, but Harrison Jackson, his attorney, stated:

"I feel certain that my client, Congressman Powell, will absolve himself of any accusation of alleged wrongdoings." Mr. Powell is due to appear before the grand jury before Congress convenes on January 3.

park police chief.

A new trial date has not been set.

FACING A CHARGE of assault is suspended Officer George Savard. He is accused of assaulting Mrs. Nichols in Gwynns Falls Park on Aug. 29, 1955.

Sgt. Kenneth V. O'Connor, a codefendant with Capt. Gaeng, was acquitted of a misconduct in office charge by Judge Carter.

Mrs. Nichols testified that following the alleged assault her husband, Albert Nichols, made an immediate complaint to police after first consulting his attorney, W. Emerson Brown.

State's Attorney J. Harold Grady, in his final argument to the jury, charged that Capt. Gaeng attempted to whitewash the complaint by not allowing Mrs. Nichols to view the suspected officer for purposes of identifying him.

The new State's Attorney also argued that Capt. Gaeng knew that Officer Savard was the chief suspect when he ordered the "phony lineup" at the park police headquarters on Sept. 27. However, Mr. Grady said, Officer Savard was not in the lineup.

Following an investigation of the case by the State's Attorney's office in May a subsequent lineup was held at Central District and Mrs. Nichols identified Officer Savard as the man who allegedly made indecent advances toward her.

The grand jury later indicted the officers.

BEFORE THE Gaeng case ended in a hung jury it was pointed out that Mrs. Nichols' complaint was lodged nearly 16 months ago and it was almost nine months before she was permitted to view the chief suspent.

Mrs. Nichols registered complete surprise this week when asked by a reporter whether she had any intentions of abandoning the case.

"I wouldn't drop out," she said, groping for words. "Oh, no, I'm going to continue on until the case ends."

She also had this to say:

"I've gone this far and if they have the trial over five times I'll still go there and tell my story. If nothing comes of it I've at least tried."

In a less serious mood, Mrs. Nichols said, "If I back out now they ought to put me in jail." However, she immediately added:

"After all there are other women out on the street who need to be protected from things like that. If the police can't protect us, who can?"

MRS. NICHOLS said that within a 20-minute period early Friday morning she received two telephone calls from an unknown person stating that Daniel H. Jones, 3000 block Harlin Ave., another key witness against the park policemen, would be "bumped off."

(Mr. Jones, a barber, was driving Mrs. Nichols to a club meeting when they were questioned by an officer in the park. Mr. Jones said he and his wife have been friends of the Nichols for several years.)

Mrs. Nichols said after her husband informed Mr. Jones of the call he contacted police.

Mrs. Nichols' attorney, Mr. Brown, said shortly after learning about Friday's threatening phone call he contacted James O. Gentry, one of the assistant State's attorneys handling the park police case.

According to Mr. Brown, Mr. Gentry assured him that police would keep a sharp eye on Mrs. Nichols while she attended the trial.

The prosecutor said Wednesday, however, that no formal complaint regarding the threatening telephone calls has been made to his office.

Mrs. Nichols said she received two such calls early this week. All of the callers, she said, were men but "one of them tried to disguise his voice so he would sound like a woman."

She said so far she has not received any threatening letters.

EVANGELISTS ELDRIDGE AND RUTH

PLUNKETT

Evangelist Eldridge Plunkett

Evangelist Ruth Plunkett

"All things are possible to him that believeth."

I believe that Jesus, who made the sun, the moon, the stars, and the earth on which we dwell, is able to answer prayer requests sent to us, for which we pray.

I believe that Jesus, who quieted the raging sea can quiet the storms of life of those for whom we pray.

I believe that Jesus who fed multitudes of people with a few little loaves and fishes, can supply the needs of those for whom we pray.

I believe that Jesus who healed multitudes of people of all manner of sickness and disease, can heal people who request our prayers.

I believe that Jesus who brought the children of Israel out without one sick or feeble person in their tribes, can give good health to those for until they were breaking, can improve the financial condition of people who send their prayer requests to us.

Mark 16:17-18: Jesus said: "And these signs shall follow them that believe: In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues . . . they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover."

I believe that Jesus who breathed into Adam's nostrils the breath of life and later breathed on the Apostles and said unto them, "Receive ye the Holy Ghost," can also baptize Christians with the Holy Ghost and with fire, for whom we pray.

I believe that Jesus who wrought special miracles, healed the sick and cast out devils by the hands of Paul and through handkerchiefs sent from him, can do the same by our hands, and prayer handkerchiefs we send to whose who request prayer.

Hebrews 13:8: "Jesus Christ the same yesterday and today and forever." What He did for people when He was on earth, He can do for people in this present time for whom we pray.

I believe that Jesus who healed people on whom the Apostles laid their hands can restore health to people on whom we lay our hands.

I believe that Jesus who blessed people thru preaching

RUTH PLUNKETT

We are going to have special prayer for the next 10 days for the needs or all those who request prayer. We have found in time past that Jesus has answered so many requests when we have had 10 days of special prayer.

So you may send your requests right away in order that you can be included in this time of prayer.

"Pray ye one for another that ye may be healed." "Bear ye one another's burdens."

Today is the day of salvation, tomorrow may be too late. To accept Jesus as your Saviour is the most important and greatest decision to be made in your whole life, for your eternal destiny depends upon it. Jesus said: "Ye must be born again," and that means to accept Him as your Saviour so you can become a child of God. Be sure your sins are washed in the blood of Jesus and you are on your way to Heaven.

If you are not sure you are saved, we would like to help you, and pray for you. You will find Instructions on How To Be Saved included in the short Sermons we send without obligation to all who send in this coupon.

We will also send some marvelous Testimonies of healings, amazing miracles, and wonderful answers to prayer. These are to strengthen your faith in the prayer-these last days, and many are requesting our prayers and being blessed and healed.

So why don't you cut out the Coupon, mail it now, and take advantage of this offer today?

Sending this Prayer Request Coupon to us may be a turning point in your life for ever better. The Lord knows what your requests are, and we know how to pray for them as in Acts 19:11-12.
