STROLLING THE AVENUE

RICTOR'S RED FOX LOUNGE has proudly announced that its sweetheart, Ethel Ennis, will be paying another one of her visits at the intimate spot this weekend. Lovely Ethel, who has come a long way since she sang in a church choir, has been singing in smart clubs up and down the seaboard.

A very much improved young lady with the poise and polish of a real professional, Ethel always draws a fine crowd when she puts in an appearance at the RED FOX; so if you want to hear some fine singing this week then we suggest you visit the RED FOX where everything is always the finest.

The management has changed at the CLUB CAIRO, Vincent and Cairo Sts., but the faces behind the bar are still the same. Eggy, Pete, Mike and Al are the gentleman who dispense the liquid refreshments.

STEVE'S PINK PONY LOUNGE, North and Monroe St., is offering reduced prices on all the drinks served at its beautiful bar and some first rate entertainment. Done in a warm pink tone, the lounge is one of the handsomest in town and one of the easiest in which to relax.

CLUB TIJUANA comes up this week with a special attraction to go along with the Eddie "Lock Jaw" Davis organ trio. That would be Miss Mildred Anderson, the young lady who gained her musical spurs with The Bill Doggett Trio. She has been appearing as a single for several years and has played several very successful dates here where she has always been a great favorite.

Rhythm and blues really tune up her vocal pipes and a good time is usually had by all.

ON TUESDAY Councilman Sol Liss (D-4th) successfully introduced a motion which will refer the whole question of jim crow in Baltimore hotels back to the Baltimore Hotel Association which is to confer with the Mayor's Committee on Human Relations and the Maryland Commission on Interracial Problems.

A report is to be made by the organizations to the Council within 60 days.

Mr. Liss told the AFRO that an ordinance making hotel discrimination illegal in this city would be introduced in the City Council unless the hotel owners voluntarily decided to drop all racial bans.

Two more groups dodge city's hotel jim crow

"The executive board of our group voted to take the action on Nov. 21 which will carry the convention to Buffalo instead of Baltimore after being informed of the segregation which still exists in local hotels."

Gordon Manser, executive secretary of the Baltimore Council of Social Agencies, told the AFRO yesterday (Thursday) why the Mid-East Conference of United Community Funds and Councils, scheduled to meet in Baltimore next February, changed its meeting site to Buffalo, N.Y.

While Mr. Manser was explaining his decision, the Maryland Industrial Union of Council (CIO) was meeting in Washington for the third consecutive year because of the discriminatory policies of Baltimore hotels.

IN A LETTER written Wednesday, Patrick B. Zenhower, chairman of the civil rights committee of the organization, said:

"We are resolutely determined to continue to do so until we can get facilities here at home for all of our delegates under one roof.

"This week, the delegates to the MIUC Convention in Washington will spend approximately $15,000 on rooms, meals, entertainment; souvenirs, gifts for the family."

* * *

THIS WAS THE third major convention that refused to come to the city because of jim crow hotels in less than a month.

Before the community organizations group took its stand, the National Council of Geography Teachers by-passed Baltimore and moved its convention to Atlantic City over the weekend.

And 26 organizations are on record as being opposed to holding national conventions in Baltimore or any other city where discriminatory policies in the hotel prevail.

The League of Women Voters, the American Health Association Inc., the League for Industrial Democracy Inc., the Child Welfare League of America Inc., and Camp Fire Girls Inc are among the large national groups which will not hold conventions in cities where equal accomodations are not given to all members regardless of race.

Others with this policy are: the Board of Home Missions

Moments Musical

By ADAH K. JENKINS

A musician of rare artistry and a pianist of brilliant attainments was presented at a recent Wednesday Assembly at Morgan State College in the person of Mme. Aji Jambor, American Hungarian and a member of the Peabody Conservatory faculty.

Mme. Jambor's playing is clarity itself, with the rare quality of not being brittle or empty in quality.

Brilliance is always governed by good taste so that no work played becomes a mere show case.

Unfailing attention to the smallest detail of phrasing kept the melody lines flowing and intact.

When power is needed it was there, without making the piano seem purely an instrument of percussion.

This was most apparent in the Chopin monumental 'Fantasy in F minor" and, by exquisite contrast, in the two encores, Waltz in D flat and one in C-sharp minor, by the same composer.

* * *

THE PIANIST was also superb in the Bach Prelude and Fugue in A minor (from the "Well Tempered Clavichord"). Perhaps in the Debussy "L'Isle Joyeuse" one could have wished for more gayety and abandon.

Mme. Jambor is an artist without affectation or showmanship, yet her great simplicity established immediate rapport with the capacity audience at the Hurt Gymnasium.

The excellent program notes proved a valuable addition to the concert which was one of the College Assembly Series.

* * *

ONE OF the first piano student recitals of the season was heard on a recent Sunday at St. Frances Academy, Forrest and Chase Streets.

The occasion was in honor of St. Cecelia, patron of musicians and was sponsored by the St. Frances Chapter of the National Fraternity and Student Musicians and the Cecelian Choral Club.

The very attractive auditorium was filled to capacity with visitors, relatives of the students and members of the order of Oblate Sisters of Providence, who conduct the school.

The performers included three beginners as well as intermediate and advanced pupils. They were dignified, well-poised and played with assurance. Several duo-piano numbers were especially well done, with the pianos on different levels, which was quite an accomplishment.

* * *

THE CONCERT was begun and concluded with offerings by the Cecelian Choral Club, an exceptionally well trained group.

They sang "Give Ear, O Lord" by Schulz, of the early classic period, "Burleigh's arrangement of "Go - Down, Moses" and Borthiansky's "Cherubim Song." The Cecelian singers also appeared on television Sunday with a number of other groups from the diocese.

The choristers set a high standard of finesse in phrasing and expression toward which the young pianists can also attain.

The music department as well as the choral club is directed by Sister Marie Infanta. Accompaniments were well played by Ruby Randall, of the Cecelians and Vera Gances, a graduate of the Academy and a junior at Mt. St. Agnes.

The Very Rev. Leo J. McCormick, director of Catholic Education in the city, was introduced by Father Lanahan, chaplain of the Academy.

He complimented the faculty and students upon the excellence of the concert.

CALENDAR: Sunday evening Dec. 2nd at 7:30 p.m. at Madison Ave. Presbyterian Church, concert by Shirley Mae Hennigan, vocalist and Marjorie Hennigan, pianist, both students at the Peabody Conservatory of Music.

The concert is sponsored by the concert committee of the Women's Cooperative Civic League and is for the benefit of the Civic League House on McCulloh St.

Liquor folk warned by church folk

The Liquor Board Thursday granted Morris Kleinman, 4100 block Belle Ave. a transfer of a Class A beer, wine and liquor license from Louis Greenberg, 2800 block E. Federal St., for a liquor store in the 1300 block N. Chester St.

Protesting the transfer was the Israel Baptist Church, at Preston and Chester Sts., the Rev. E. D. Meade, pastor. Mrs. Juanita Jackson Mitchell served as counsel for the church.

The transfer did not involve a change in address, but rather a transfer of license from one person to another.

Mrs. Mitchell pointed out that the liquor store has been a nuisance to the church in that their customers purchase goods, go outside and dispose of their wares on church property, as well as annoy people attending church services.

"They," (the church members) Mrs. Jackson said, "want to serve notice on Mr. Kleinman, that if it continues, they will be here in April to protest the license renewal!"

'This is Goodbye Rogues'

"This gang is going to be broken up. This is "goodbye rogues."

This pronouncement was made Wednesday in Northwestern Police Court by Magistrate Lanwood C. Keyser, for two teen-agers charged with disorderly conduct.

Miss Darlene Porter, 1600 block Ashburton St. testified that following a birthday party at her home the night of November 24, a gang of boys had pulled up a fence, broken the front door, as well as threw many bottles toward the house, one of which hit a window.

Police arriving on the scene, questioned one of the boys and were told of a gang, the 'Rogues.' As a result Larry Hodge, 18, 2100 block N. Dukeland St. and Allen Thompson, 17, 1700 block Ashburton St. were arrested.

The Hodge youth denied that he was the boy whom Miss Porter sought. Referring to young Hodge, Miss Porter said: "There's no mistake in my mind. He pulled up the stakes in front of my house."

SHE SAID that she did not see the Thompson youth participate in any of the property destruction but was "with the rest of the crew."

Magistrate Koger postponed disposition in the case of the Thompson youth, but advised him to attend the Northwest Young Men's Fellowship Tuesday nights at 7:30 at 825 N. Arlington Ave. until January 8.

Defendant Hodge, who had a previous record received 60 days in jail. Over the cries of young Hodge's mother, Magistrate Koger told the teen-ager: "When you come out, go to work. That's going to solve the whole thing."

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles

Science Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called *Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug stores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.
