FEEN-A-MINT is different because you chew it. It's different, too, because it removes mostly waste—not good food!

You see, FEEN-A-MINT does not work in the stomach. It works in your food in the digestive tract. That's why it does not take away a lot of the good food you need for energy.

Doctors know that FEEN-A-MINT works chiefly in the lower bowel...removes mostly waste, not good food!

Go to bed like a million, do as millions do. Chew delicious FEEN-A-MINT... and feel full of life and energy! Get FEEN-A-MINT...for as little as 25¢.

Gadabouting In Baltimore

Guardsmen's board wows strong-hearted guests

with Lula Jones Garrett

Had it not been for the more-than-sleekly frocked ladies, the suavely tailored gentlemen and the sublime music, an old-timer would have thought that the Guardsmen's party on Saturday night was an - old-fashioned camp meeting.

When the hosts had finally settled on their menu for the evening, they had turkey, ham, fried chicken, padded oysters, barbecued ribs, fish fillets, steak and crab cakes, and hot dogs.

They had green beans, baked beans, shrimp salad and potato salad. They added black olives green olives, radished celery, and pickles. There were rolls and rye bread. There was coffee...topped with about every known liquor.

Joan Hayes certainly nothing bucolic about that outlay of clothes the gals disported. In fact, the extreme opposite was the case... such as the Toreador frock won by Imogene Martin... with its snugly fitted satin pants under a lighter satin silk skirt (in greens) with the bodice having an off-shoulder motif.

Joan Hayes (she's president of Alpha's City's Apex Company) in the brown lace, satin trimmed, that was eye-catching. Robbie Chissell was down from Camp Kilmer, N.J. for the affairs...pretty in a green flared-skirt affair.

Jean Cummings was chic in a breath-taking floor-length number in black, featuring a deep-V at the back, garnished with pink satin roses and pink satin sash...and Jimmy La-Forest statuesque in an antique satin sheath with vitrelle. There were a lot of sheaths on the scene...some guests so sheathed that they just sat, with tears in their eyes, not daring to take a bite...no where to put it.

'TWAS AN AYLOR clan gathering that terminated in the gala party at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Sidney Burnett, here, Saturday.

Vivien's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt Griggs had come from Detroit to spend the holiday with Dr. and Mrs. William Taylor in Washington. (Incidentally the Taylors are in their last-word new split-level home in Rock Creek Park, Washington). They had a grand party for the Griggses and Dr. Beulah Sleth, also of Detroit, also their guests, Billy Taylor of NYC and his son and daughter: Dr. Blanche Bourne Jordan and Mrs. Ruby Garrett of Washington.

On Saturday the group came here, and joined by Mrs. Charlotte Blake of Celveland, Ohio, were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Plummer, who gave a dinner party for them.

The whole clan, joined by Baltimoreans, gathered for a Saturday - night-into 8 Sunday morning party...where hi-fi music, food and drink kept the party rolling.

Joining the group from here were:

Messrs. and Mesdames Jake Avant, Goldzy Badden, John Bailey, Marvin Davis, Edward Fisher, Robert Mathews, Edward Watson, Clinton Plummer; Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Byrd, Dr. and Mrs. Orris Walkes and Lt. Col. and Mrs. Willard Stewart.

Mrs. Burnett was a cute trick in black velvet Toreador pants and a sissy blouse.

THE BIDDING wheels gathered at Nicki Randolph's for bridge, Wednesday night. Had Harriet Jones (who took second prize) and Lillian O'Daniels as guests.

The Baltimore City Alumni Chapter of the Beta Sigma Tau Fraternity was host to 500 guests at its annual cabaret party, Sig Shangri-La, which was held on Thanksgiving night.

The affair took place in the spacious, newly renovated, Famous Ballroom on North Charles Street. The proceeds from this affair are used in the Fraternity's work with delinquent boys at Boys Village.

The chapter members sponsoring the dance were:

Calvin M. Carrington, president; Archie Williams, attorney, vice president; Robert Grimes, chairmen of social committee; Arthur Murphy, executive secretary; Arthur Scriber, treasurer; Linsey Hill, corresponding secetary; William Brent, co-chairman, social committee; Raymond Puryear, advisor to the Morgan College undergraduate chapter;

LORRAINE AND Cecil Eason of 907 Warwick Ave, recently had their four months old son christened at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church. Father Von S. Byrd efficiated. Broderick Lee's godmother is Geraldine Shepbard and his godfathers are Raymond Tardine and Eugene Hough.

After the services many of their friends dropped in their home to chat and partake of hors d'oeuvres, cake and punch.

NEW CITIZENS: List among the arrivals for Christmas a daughter for Dr. and Mrs. John W. King of Mondawmin Ave. Mother is the former Susan Taylor. Daughter (weighing six pounds, six ounces) made her advent at Provident Hospital on the 23rd. Has been named Jonelle Yvette.

And a son for Mr. and Mrs. John (Ida) Swanson, Jr., also born at Provident, on the 13th... and who arrived just nine days before the parents' 11th wedding anniversary. He's their first. Need I say whose bursting his buttons? Mrs. Swanson has a daughter, Jacqueline, 15, by a former marriage.

PARTY PRATTLE: Unique is the word for that birthday party, an evening ago, which James Addison gave for his wife, Thelma, at their Lexington St. home.

An elephant motif was carried in the last detail...invitations, guest book, name cards being surrounded by elephants, napkins with elephant candle holders.

And the birthday gifts—you guessed it—, Elephants! About 50 of 'em.

Thelma has been an avid collector of elephants since her high school days, when her father brought her one from Atlantic City. Now she has about 250 elephants, plus 90 received for gifts—340 pieces of good luck!

That doesn't include the decorations—elephants, painted on walls, awnings floors, walks, flower pots—everywhere.

Guests at the natal day party were:

Messrs. and Mesdames Otho Pinkett, Edward Nottingham, Vernon Johnson, Francis Richardson, Leslie Bell, William Addison;

Messrs. and Mesdames William Turks, Julius McRae, George Pollard, Joseph Duvall, D. C. Brewington, Milburn Woodson;

Messrs. and Mesdames Randolph Nelson, Edgar, Manns, Stanley Frazze, Phillip Mason;

Messrs. and Mesdames Clifton Overton, Rudolph Levy, Miller Bates, Lawerence White, Jarves Stanley, Lawrence White; Charles Austin;

Misses Winnie Overton, Anne Woods, Estelle Taylor, Albert Jacobs, William Patterson, Pat Matthews, Oscar Pritchett, Horace Derricks, Royal White; Mesdames Deborah Smith, Susie Myles, Elizabeth Clement, Margaret Johnson and LeVerne Wylie.

DATE DATA: The Auxiliary to the Monumental Medical Society will be guests of Mrs. Emerson Walden on Thursday evening. Instead of exchanging gifts, this year, the members will have a shower of toilet articles for Provident Hospital.

Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority will hold its annual formal dance in the Morgan State College Refectory on Friday evening, the 7th.

And Zeta Sigma chapter of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity will have its annual prom on Thursday, Dec. 6, at Unity Hall, Dundalk.

Moods of Alpha Wives undergo some quick changes Tuesday

The moods of Alpha Wives underwent a series of quick changes during their November meeting Tuesday at their Edmondson Ave. clubrooms.

The play on emotions from tragedy to comedy, from pathos to joy, from mystery to laughter was the skilled work of the Arena Players, under the direction of Sam Williams.

The thespian group which is presenting "Tea and Sympathy" at the Arena Playhouse, 1908 Warwick Ave., on Dec. 14 featured George Barrick, Jim Campbell, June Thorne, Joe Wilson, Christine Moore, Verna Day and Sam Wilson in six excerpts from well-known Broadway dramas.

DR. A. J. Walker, chairman of local Alpha's human relations committee, asked and obtained the active support of the Wives in several community projects in which the Alphas are engaged.

Excitement was high as plans for a weekend in New York were announced. Arrangements have been made with the B. and O. Railroad for a special car, rooms at the Hotel New Yorker and tickets for Broadway and television shows.

The deadline for those who want to make reservations for the trip has been fixed by the committee as Saturday, Jan. 12.

THE BUSINESS session was kept brief by the president, Mrs. Catherine Adams, to give the girls additional time to enjoy the evening's program and socialize.

Hostesses were May Adams, Catherine Adams, Cynthia Bagley, Elnora Bracey and Marguerite Brown.

Enjoying seafood salad, stuffed eggs and other refreshments were:

Lucille Fitzgerald, Alma Gray, Pearl Pennington, Rubye Walker, Mary Pitts, Louise Dennis, Shirley Pinkett, Mae Campbell;
