

A No, sir, I knew nothing.

Q Knew nothing about it?

A No, sir.

Q In other words, your knowledge of this property would go back to the time your father acquired the property from Alice Michael?

A That's right.

Q And would not go before that?

A That's right.

Q The people who would have a knowledge of this property would be Alice Michael and Marion - you say they are dead?

A That's right.

Q Do you have knowledge of anyone else who would have individual knowledge of this real estate you are arranging to sell?

A I know of no one, no.

Q Have you ever heard the name Alexander McKenna before?

A No, sir.

Q Have you ever heard this name mentioned by anyone?

A No, sir, only by seeing it in the paper I mean, is all I know about it, when it was advertised in the paper.

Q It would be your statement then that the people who would have the history of these events which took place in the late 1800's would be dead today?

A Yes.

Q And not be available for testimony?

A That's right.

Q Have you since this case was initiated on May 26th of this year been contacted by anyone by the name of McKenna?

A No, sir.

Q Relative to their having an interest in this property?

A No, sir.

Q I would like to offer Exhibit No. 6 into the record of
