Hoxie '56 MVP, now trotter mainstay

Each April the Harlem Globetrotters oppose the greatest College All-Americans of the then current basketball series in their toughest playing test of the year, the annual World Series.

To be picked as the most valuable Globetrotter of the cage classic rates the player as a star of the first magnitude.

Charlie Hoxie, former Niagara University ace, who will be here with the Trotters when they meet the Washington generals, Sunday, at the Coliseum, turned the trick in 1956 in his first season with the club!

Already he is fast winning recognition as an all-time Globetrotter great. And just a little over a year ago, he was only one of a large group of promising recruits out of college ranks seeking a place in the Globetrotters organization; in fact, less of a college name than many of the other candidates.

* * *

BUT, from the outset, his natural ability, hustle and determination caught Owner-Coach Abe Saperstein's eye and Hoxie was singled out for special grooming.

He proceeded to make good from the start had a brilliant first year on the Globetrotters' No. 1 squad, and climaxed his season's play being chosen by poll of newspapermen from coast to coast in the cities where World Series games were staged, as the league's outstanding star in the twenty-game tilts.

There's no telling how far Hoxie will go as he develops even further. He's fast and powerful, stands six feet five inches and weighs 210.

* * *

CHARLIE was born 24 years ago in Wilmington, N.C., but his family moved to New York City in 1937. Young Hoxie played one season of prep basketball for Dr. Witt Clinton in Gotham and captured all-star rating.

He won a scholarship to Niagara University and starred for four years as a varsity cager. His sophomore, junior and senior years found him among the nation's three top collegiate field goal percentage shooters, always over .500.

He tallied 1549 points in his senior year when he co-captained Niagara to high honors. Hoxie earned all-East honors, all-American honorable mention two years and all-star rating in both the national invitational and Holiday Festival tournaments.

THEIR TEAM LOST—Douglass High School rooters who saw their football team go down to defeat, 25-0, during Friday's game with Polytechnic Institute.

Hughes scores upset in Postal Golf tournament

WASHINGTON — Walter Hughes, shooting par golf, downed Warren Cawthorne, 6-5, to win the Postal Golf Club Championship Nov. 11 at the Langston Golf Course, 25th and Benning Rd., NE.

Prior to the championship matches, Hughes had not displayed the golf form of last year, when he was a threat in a every tournament. However, he played better than average Sunday to defeat Cawthorne, a consistent winner this year.

Hughes had Cawthorne three down at the turn on the course. Then he really poured it on the first four holes of the back nine, 4-3-4-4 to close out the match at the 13th hole, 6-5.

ON SATURDAY, Hughes had shot the same deadly golf to upset the club champion, Billy Mays.

In other final matches, Clarence Garner won the first flight championship with a 2-1 victory over Marshall Moore. Nathaniel Randolph defeated Wilmer Cooper, 3-2, to become the second-flight champion.

Following the end of the tournament, the annual meeting was held at the home of Willis K. Washington, 3110 S. Dakota Ave., NE. The following officers for the coming year were elected:

GEORGE E. GRIMS—EAD, president; Mr. Washington, secretary; William Harris, treasurer; William Reed, tournament director and Samuel Lane, social director. Nathan Trent is publicity director.

Morgan takes CIAA marathon

Morgan State College, snaring four of the first five places, captured the CIAA cross-country championship here Monday in the three-and-a-half mile test at Howard University Stadium.

The Golden Bears, long the track power in the conference, finished with a score of 23 points. Lincoln University was second with 43, and Howard Third with 57.

Maryland and Virginia State colleges were entered in the competition but their teams did not show up.

* * *

FIRST TO cross the finish line was Bob Berry, of Morgan, clocked in 18 minutes, 36 seconds. His teammate, Don Johnson, was second and Saunders of Howard was third.

Fourth and fifth places went to McKinley Crews and R. Brown, of Morgan. The complete order of finish follows:

Berry, first; Johnson, second; Saunders, third; Crews, fourth; R. Brown, fifth; with the remainder of the field headed by J. Lafayette of Lincoln.

Then came M. Riley, Lincoln; W. Bellamy, Howard; Taylor, Howard; J. Anderson, Lincoln; B. McMurray, Morgan; R. Hall, Lincoln; W. Brown, Lincoln; T. Jenkins, Howard; M. Giggs, Howard; T. Gooden, Howard.

Mims winner over Beecham

MIAMI BEACH, Fla.—Scoring repeatedly with hooks to the head and body, Holly Mims, Washington, D.C., middleweight took a unanimous ten-round decision from Jimmy Beecham, of Miami, here Tuesday night.

Mims, as recently as a year ago the No. 2 man in his division, but now unranked, was according to the local boxe. He took the initiative from the outset, however, and was always in front.

There were no knockdowns and Mims was the only fighter with combat marks. His left eye was swollen and his nose was bleeding from Beechan's rights at the end of the fight.

The judges apparently were more impressed, however, by Mims' relentless attacks.

A crowd of 1,772 paid $3,521 to see the program.

Althea in semi-final

SYDNEY, Australia — Althea Gibson joined Shirley Fry, her fellow American and nemesis, in the semi-final round of the New South Wales women's tennis championships here Wednesday.

Miss Gibson defeated Jennifer Hoad, wife of Australia's Davis Cup star, Lew Hoad, 7-5, 4-6, 6-1, in a quarter-final match. In another match of the round, Miss Fry conquered Pat Parmenter, also of Australia.

Mrs. Hoad showed surprising strength in pressing her slender Harlem opponent to a deuce deciding set and then taking the second one. However, Miss Gibson unleashed the power of her service and overhead game to capture the deciding set with little difficulty.

Althea and Shirley teamed in the women's doubles to down the Australian pair of Jan Lehane and Mrs. Charles Dent in straight sets, on Tuesday. The score was 6-3, 6-3.

The victory carried the U.S. girls into the quarter-final round.

Arkansas coach to Prairie View post

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (ANP) —Leroy Moore, head football coach and basketball coach at Arkansas AM and N College, resigned his position here at the college effective, Nov. 18th.

Moore will become head football coach at Prairie View College, Prairie View, Texas.

The announcement was made officially by college President Lawrence A. Davis, of Arkansas AM and N.

In Memoriam 1

HAMILTON — In loving memory of my dear husband, Benjamin, who passed away November 11, 1949:

Loving and kind in all his ways
Upright and just to the end of his days;
Sincere and true, in his heart and mind,
Beautiful memories he left behind.

Loving wife, MILDRED

GIBBS — In memory of our dear brother, CHARLES H. GIBBS, who departed from this world November 16, 1953:

Loving and kind in all his ways, Upright and just to the end of his days.

Sincere and true to his family and friends.

This is a memory to our dear beloved brother.

ROBERT

BROTHER AND SISTERS, WIFE AND CHILDREN, OTHER RELATIVES AND FRIENDS.

GIBBS FAMILY.

DANIEL — A tribute of love in our dear friend, ROBERT McDANIEL, who passed away one year ago November 20, 1955:

Sad and sudden was the call
Of one so dearly loved by all.
Never a smile so sweet
Never a husband so faithful
Who brought such joy and cheer
Never a touch so gentle
Never a heart so true.
Never a husband in all the world so precious dear, so true.
No one knows how much I miss you.
No one knows the bitter pain I have suffered since I lost you, life has never been the same. In my heart your memory lingers
Sweetly, tender fond and true
There is not a day dear Buck, I do not think of you.

LOVING WIFE AND SON

PAGE — In loving memory of our father, HARRISON P., who passed away November 7, 1955:

One year has passed since that sad day.
When the one we loved was called away.
God took him home — It was His will
Within our hearts he lives still.

Loving Daughters,
HARRIET, ADDIE,
GLADYS AND DOROTHY

TAYLOR—In loving memory of our dear son and brother, ROBERT, who departed this life one year ago, November 14, 1955:

No one knows how much we miss you
No one knows the sorrow we go through
But God knew best
And took you home to rest.
We cried and cried, both night and day,
But God gave us strength to fight the pains away.

MOTHER, FATHER AND FAMILY

TIMBERLAKE — In memory of our beloved mother, EMMA J., who passed away on November 17, 1938:

We have only your memory dear mother,
To remember our whole life through.
But the sweetness will linger forever,
As we treasure the image of you.

Her Devoted Children,
REESIE JOHNSON,
COLLIS TIMBERLAKE,
WILLIE CHANDLER,
PHILLIP TIMBERLAKE.

WEAVER — In loving memory of our dear one, ALMA STEWART, who passed away November 16, 1934:

Her memory is as dear today
As in the hour she passed away.

DEVOTED FAMILY.

YOUNG — In loving memory of my dear son and our dear brother, PFC. HOWARD YOUNG, who passed away November 19, 1952:

Remembrance is a golden chain
Death tries to break, but all in vain.
To have, to love and then to part
Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.
The years wipe out many things,
But this they wipe out never.
The memory of those happy days When we were all together.
