pital for examination on Monday following the death of young Rickey.

The father, William Brown, a stevedore, said Darrell became ill first on Friday and was taken to the hospital treated and released on Sunday.

The following morning Mr. Brown continued, "Rickey got sick—and Darrell became had off, then the rest of the children began to feel bad.

"An ambulance took Rickey and Darrell back to the hospital but Rickey was dead before they got there," Mr. Brown said.

AMONG THOSE summoned to the hospital for an examination following the boy's death were:

April, 6 months; Valerie, 5; Charlotte, 6; Arron, 7; Armen, 9; William Jr., 10; Andrea, 11; Helen, 13;, and Yvonne, 16.

Another son, Leon, 19, is in the Army and is stationed at Fort Lewis, Washington.

The condition of the children at the time was described by hospital authorities as ranging from mild to moderate.

Following emergency treatment, five doctors began conducting a series of tests on the family.

Following preliminary tests, the children were permitted to go home but were told to report to the hospital each day for further examinations.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown were not affected by the illness.

ACCOMPANIED BY her mother Mrs. Ruth Whitney of St., Mrs. Brown remained at the bedside of Darrell for more than 20 hours.

A representative of the Health Department has visited the Brown home each day since the family became ill.

Asked if his children had eaten any type of food that could have made them sick Mr. Brown replied, "No."

"Some folks said that they ate crackers and cheese but they didn't. . . .

"DARRELL didn't have to tell me he was sick, you could tell it. To tell you the truth I wish I knew what it is.

"I know they haven't got ptomaine poisoning. The doctor told me that," Mr. Brown declared.

Funeral services for Rickey have been scheduled for 1 p.m. Saturday at Wayman Methodist Church, Bayard and Carroll St., with the Rev. Noah Melton officiating.

A notation on the death certificate of the deceased reports, "Cause of death pending."

A study of the pastor

REV. EDWARD G. CARROLL

You see his face; you hear his voice; he identifies himself as the Reverend Edward G. Carroll, pastor of Sharp Street Memorial Methodist Church.

Then a telephone rings and someone says something to him and he then answers a question. You don't actually hear the questions on the "Pastor's Study," every Sunday evening at 11:30 over WMAR-TV.

"Actually," says the Rev. Mr. Carroll, "they sometimes don't ask me questions. Instead, they present some problem or another and ask for a solution."

"Then, of course there are those questions about the Bible, that people always ask.

"ONLY ONCE in a while, will you get a crank call. Usually, they are made to the studio in an effort to 'fluster' you. But there are only a few of those."

"The show, as you know, is sponsored by the Council of Churches of Maryland and Delaware; my church is a member of this organization; said the Rev.

"My predecessor, the Rev. Joshua O. Williams, had been on the Program for about six weeks during March and April of last year, so this year, I was invited."

Mrs. M. Atkinson of the Council of Churches said:

"The people chosen for this work, must be clear thinkers and they must be able to answer any question on a variety of subjects."

"Rev. Carroll was chosen for his ability to do these things. That and the fact that he has a wonderful background."

"Of course, we always hope that the person chosen represents what the Council believes in."

Rev. Carroll, lives with his wife and daughter Nansy, 10 at 501 Lanvale St. His son Eddy Jr., is a pre-law student at Ohio Wesleyan University.

Born in Wheeling West Virginia, the Rev. Mr. Carroll came to Baltimore at an early age and lived a good deal of his life here, although his high school diploma is from Washington's Dunbar High.

In connection with various phases of his work, the third-generation pastor and former professor of philosophy at Morgan College, has had to do some extensive traveling.

His wife, the former Miss Phenola Valentine, of Baltimore, says that she had hoped that this program would make it possible for her husband to be home more often. "But now this seems to be worse," she says.

"Now, I can never be sure when he'll be home.

"Before, at least you could expect to see him at some definite time, but this business of a television program and the responsibilities of the church, which my husband took over in April of 1955 make it difficult.

But to tell the truth, I love every minute of it. My father was a minister too, you know."

This is the program of which Bishop Edgar Love said: "It's wonderful because it gives people an opportunity to ask questions about personal problems, the answers to which they can't get elsewhere.

"And at the same time this sort of thing gives others who might have the same question or problem, a chance to have it answered.

"And you need not be identified, this is a help, too."

PROPHET J. F. JONES
Bess for 'protection'

FATHER DIVINE
In midnight conference

PHILADELPHIA

There is no church rivalry between the fabulous Prophet Jones and Father Divine. And, Prophet Jones recognizes Father Divine as God.

Just before he quit Philadelphia for Chicago, Prophet Jones had an audience with Father Divine, begging and receiving Father Divine's assurance that no harm would befall him.

Prophet Jones, fresh out of the hospital, according to 'New Day,' official Divine organ, was granted a midnight interview with Father Divine at his S. Broad St., home on October 8.

Father Divine's personal secretary said Tuesday that Prophet Jones requested the visit with Father Divine and "was welcomed to come as is everyone who comes respectably."

The midnight interview following a 10:30 p.m. Holy Communion banquet at the Circle Mission Church Home which featured both Father Divine and Prophet Jones as speakers.

At the banquet Prophet Jones dedicated a song to Father Divine and led in its singing.

The secretary said that the two men had not met since Sept. 19, 1953 'when the mink clad Prophet Jones and a rich entourage came from Detroit to dedication ceremony of Father Divine's lavish Woodmont Country estate in Montgomery County, Pa.

Prophet Jones was met at the station by a large reception committee headed by Father Mother Divine.

During his visit at that time, Phophet Jones stayed in a suite at the Bellevue-Stratford hotel.

The Father Divine secretary said that to her knowledge Father Divine has never attended services conducted by Prophet Jones.

During the interview, he addressed Father Divine as "Great God," "Yes sir," thanked him profusely for his blessings and answered "yes mam" to the secretary.

Prophet Jones is billed as His Holiness, the Rt. Rev. James Francis Jones, the Universal Dominion Ruler of Universal Triumph, the Dominion of God, Inc.

Early in the session, Prophet Jones conceded that Father Divine is God:

Prophet Jones — "Father, I would like to thank you in the sincerest, humblest and truthfullest manner that I know how, for what I know that you are. You are God; the personification of the same, wrapped in flesh, yet God is universal.

Father Divine — "That's right."

THEN HE gave Father Divine credit for bringing him out of his illness.

Prophet Jones: "I recognized the presence of God in my room, lying flat on my back, having just been brought from the hospital 40 minutes prior to having the honor, pleasure and privilege to speak with you telephonically.

"Thank you for speaking with me on the phone."

Father Divine: "So glad!"

Prophet Jones: "But above everything, thank you for speaking to the forces of darkness and commanding that I be set free!"

Father Divine: "So glad!"

Then Prophet Jones pledged to go out preaching that Father Divine is God.

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles

Science Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly, and, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H.* Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drugstores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Mrs. Hilda McClure slated for trial in operation case

Mrs. Hilda McClure, 38, 3213 Pressiman St., is scheduled to go on trial Monday in connection with two abortion cases, one of them allegedly performed on a high school girl.

Mrs. McClure, a housewife, was indicted early in September for the alleged illegal operation performed on the teenager. The other case involved an indictment handed down against her last July.

Police said there is no indication that Mr. McClure is associated with an alleged East Baltimore abortion ring which allegedly includes a prominent physician.

ON NOVEMBER 5 Mrs. Audrey Dean Moore, 2138 E. Federal St., one of five others indicted by the May term grand jury for abortions and conspiracy, received a sentence of not more than 15 months in the women's reformatory when convicted of performing an illegal operation.

Still to face trial are Dr. James Blake, 50, 1603 N. Caroline St.; Mrs. Iona Dean Watson, 37, 1520 N. Bond St.; Melvin Parrish, 27, 1421 N. Bond, and William Spicer, city fireman, 2020 Kennedy Ave.

Dr. W. F. Burghardt speaks to N.C.

Dr. William F. Burghardt, professor and head of the department of health and physical education at Morgan State College, addressed the North Carolina Recreation Society's Twelfth Annual Recreation Conference, Nov. 14.

The conference was held in Raleigh, N.C.

Addressing the banquet session, Dr. Burghardt talked on "Leadership—the Key Factor."

Dr. Burghardt is vice president and a member of the executive committee of the Maryland Recreation Society, a member of the Committee on Public Education of the Maryland Society for Medical Research, and from 1950 to 1955 was a member of the Governor's Committee on Recreation.

Family jewels traced to 'Rat'

"They call him 'Rat.'

"His mother says he got out through the bathroom window with two diamond rings, a couple of wrist watches and $400 in cash."

"We recovered almost everything in Washington."

That was Detective Sergeant Miriam Butler talking about James A. Lipscomb Jr., 38, of the 600 block Sarah Ann St., Tuesday in Southwestern Police Court.

The sergeant and Detective John Caligny testified that Lipscomb, jimmied open a window in his parents' home last Friday to gain access to the family jewels.

ORDERED HELD in bail of $2,500 the short, brown-skinned, shoe-repairman interrupted the court proceedings to tell Magistrate Howard L. Aaron:

"I told them (the police) that I went through the house, not the window."

Total value of the diamonds recovered in a garage in the 1700 block New Hampshire Ave., NW.D.C., was set at $1,532.

'This is the best I can do for you'

"This is the best I can do for you."

A man appealing eight traffic convictions in Criminal Court heard Judge E. Paul Mason make this statement Tuesday in cutting off half of a two-year prison sentence he was faced with.

Earnest A. Booker, 1100 block N. Bond St., was sentenced to a total of two years and fined $540 and costs for the violations by Magistrate Harry Gilbert on October 24.

IN TRAFFIC Court he received four consecutive six month sentences for these charges:

Displaying a suspended license by misrepresentation, operating on a revoked license and making a false statement to obtain a license.

Additionally, he was fined $500 and costs for making a false statement.

Mr. Booker was fined $25 and costs for failing to turn his front wheels to the curb on a grade; $10 and costs for an inadequate muffler, and $5 and costs for illegal parking.

Judge Mason ordered two of the six-month terms served concurrently, thereby cutting a year off his sentence.

Miss Faith Bissell found guilty; appeal notice promptly filed

WASHINGTON

Miss Faith Bissell, Arlington librarian, was found guilty, Thursday, on charges of violating a Virginia State law requiring segregated seating at public meetings.

She was tried in the Trial Justice Court of Judge Paul Brown. Edmund Campbell, attorney, immediately filed notice of an appeal. A hearing is set for the December term of the Arlington County Circuit Court of Judge Walter T. McCarthy.

Miss Bissell was fined $15. She has promised the case will be carried to the United States Supreme Court, if necessary.

'He's human vulture preying on other people's bodies'

"Are you going to let a man like him walk the streets of Baltimore? Why, he's a human vulture preying on other people's bodies."

This impassioned plea was made by James Murphy, assistant State's attorney, to a jury of 11 men and one woman last Tuesday in asking for the conviction of a 26-year-old man as a dope peddler.

Leon (Snake) Tillery, 700 block N. Eden St., was found guilty by the jurors and sentenced to five years in the Penitentiary by Judge Joseph L. Carter.

EARLIER TUESDAY, in court trials, Judge Carter found two men described by police as accomplices of Mr. Tillery guilty of narcotics violations.

They were Marcellious Hutchinson, 24, 700 block N. Longwood St., and Charles A. Diggs, 37, 900 block Rosedale St.

Mr. Hutchinson received a five-year prison term and Mr. Diggs, a second offender, was given ten years.

The three men were charged with selling six capsules of heroin to rookie Patrolman James Cole and a special employee of the FBI on September 19.

OFFICER COLE, assigned to the narcotics unit of the Rockets Division shortly after graduating from the Police Academy, was one of the officers who nabbed 16 alleged dope pushers and users in a round-up in mid-October.

Officer Cole said he contacted Mr. Diggs at Pennsylvania Ave. and Hoffman St. about purchasing heroin.

He said at the direction of Mr. Diggs he drove to another location and met Mr. Hutchinson.

Officer Cole testified that:

"Diggs asked Hutchinson where was the 'skag' (heroin) and he (Hutchinson) said, 'My man Shag just left. I guess I'll have to go down and see Snake'."

('Shag' was identified by Officers as Malcolm Tillman, 24, 1600 block E. Biddle St., who received five years for a narcotics violation on September 27.)

Officer Cole, related that at Central Ave. and Monument St. they met Mr. Tillery and the dope was purchased for $18.

DURING THE trial of Mr. Tillery, Mr. Murphy ask: "Are you connected with peddling narcotics?"

"I'm not connected with narcotics in any way," replied the defendant who pleaded not guilty.

When asked how he supported himself, Mr. Tillery said, "With out being harsh and ill-mannered, I gamble."

Surrenders license after fatal accident

"Since the accident Mrs. Jones has surrendered her drivers license. . ."

Sen. Harry Cole, attorney, was referring to Mrs. H. Jones, 42, 2026 N. Payson St., freed of automobile manslaughter in Homicide Court last Wednesday. Senator Cole represented her at the hearing.

The charge was placed against Mr. Jones after a car she was driving struck and killed 8 - year - old Louis Gilbert Smith at W. North Ave. Smallwood St. on September 18.

Mrs. Jones still must face a charge of reckless driving in Traffic Court.

THE SMITH BOY, who lived with his grandmother, Mrs. Mary Smith, 2202 W. North, was one of two boys who died within a two-hour period as a result of automobile accidents on September 18.

The other victim was Joseph A. Butcher, 15, 1111 Brentwood St., killed after being struck by a truck in the 3100 block Leeds Ave.

Mrs. Jones said the accident occured after she made a left turn from North Ave. to Smallwood St. She related that she saw the boy as he dashed across the street and swerved her machine to keep from hitting him.

Louis, a third grade pupil at School No. 142 was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Smith, 2019 E. North Ave.
