Rising prices of brides cause African juvenile problems

KAMPALA, Uganda (ANP)—The fact that brides are now sold only to the highest bidder, preventing young people from marrying in the normal way, was blamed last week as an important factor in the upsurge of juvenile delinquency in certain African territories here.

The French delegation at an international conference on juvenile delinquency said the "bride price" custom had lost its meaning as a proof and seal of marriage.

The delegation said the "scandalous rise" in the price of brides encourages licentiousness.

Strictly Jazz

By Merlan M. Cole

I recall a few months back I gave my opinion of Patti Page's possibilities of being acclaimed 'a new jazz singer.' My opinion was based specifically on her new release called "Patti Page in the Land of Hi-Fi."

Now I find in a recent review of that album one critic who whole-heartedly shares my feelings. He states: ". . . It is absurd, however, to make extravagant claims for her as a jazz singer, as does the annotator when he says that 'the thin, almost nonexistent line between popular singing and jazz singing disappears entirely with the release of this album.'

"Nonsense. There is still a thick, existent line between Patti on the one hand, and Billie, Ella, and Anita on the other. . ."

• • •

RUDY VAN GEIDER, a familiar name in jazzland, was asked to listen to a recording by Howard Rumsey, entitled "Mood for Lighthouse" and to give his impression of it.

After hearing it through he said ". . . The trombonist was very good. All in all it was a very nice sound and I enjoyed the record."

THERE HAS been such a flood of new releases during the past week or so, I have picked but a few at random to pass on to you.

They are: Count Basie plays and Joe Williams sings on a new one called "The Greatest." Some of the tunes are: "Thou Swell," "There Will Never Be Another You," "It's Wonderful," "Our Love is Here to Stay," "My Baby Just Cares For Me," and "Nevertheless."

"The Hawk in Paris" is the title of one by Coleman Hawkins and Manny Albam. "La Vergne Smith Sings" is one fresh out by the girl named.

Singer Joe Carroll received top ratings for his new album release. Tunes include: "Between the Devil and the Deep Blue Sea," "It Don't Mean A Thing If It Ain't Got That Swing," "Route 66," "School Days," and "Oo-shoo-bee-doo-bee."

VOLUME TWO of "Shelly Manne and His Friends" found much favor among the critics. This series consist of Manne, Andre Previn, and Leroy Vinegar playing modern jazz performances of the tunes from "My Fair Lady."

In an interview recently, June Christy disclosed many interesting facts about her singing career thus far. One thing in particular that drew my attention was her opinion of her best release so far.

She said: "My personal feeling on 'The Misty Miss Christy' is that it's the best I've done to date."

She also confides that she and Stan Kenton both were equally disappointed in the album "Duet." Her main criticism of the release was that not enough time was allowed for its preparation.

Also she feels that using solo accompaniment, as was used in this case, more often results in a monotonous sound.

• • •

ALTHOUGH JUNE did not give much mention to her album "Something Cool," evidently she was pleased since it sold over 93,000 copies.

I was among that number of patrons, and in my estimation she has not put out a better one before or since.

THE SINGER with the sensitive whispers and many other vocal charms, Miss Jeri Southern was in town last week. Jeri did a week's run at a fashionable showplace of jazz.

Miss Southern is a genious at creating many moods. Her vocal talent entends from a misty sophisticated mood to a fast tempo ditty.

One of the selections she chose for the evening was "Someone to Watch Over Me." Here, she tenderly breathes out the song with soft accompaniment. Then she sang the ballad "The Story of You" unaccompanied. Both of them clearly depicted Jeri at her best.

THIS WAS one of Miss Southern's infrequent appearances around these parts, and no doubt her appearance was a welcoming treat for all her many fans.

In New York City Prof. Marshall W. Stearns began conducting a 15-week course in jazz, complete with field trips and guest lectures, at the New School for Social Research.

Part of the studies will include field trips to night clubs, listening to rare recordings, and lectures by various musicians.

The course will take in many things culminating with the jazz era.

FRANK SINATRA has many future dates lined up. He is booked to play the Christmas-New Year's Eve holiday season at the Sands Hotel in Las Vegas, then play two weeks at the Copacabana.

Following that, London, Rome, Karachi, Australia, and maybe Manila are among his enragements.

Jimmy Giuffre has formed an experimental jazz trio which consist of Ralph Pena, bass; Jim Hall, guitar, and himself on sax and clarinet.

Carmen McRae made the statement recently that "The smaller the club the better. There's a chance for coldness in big palces."

CHARLES ROUSE and Julius Watkins Jazz Modes Quintet played at the Marina during the past week. So I understand, everyone did a wonderful job of keeping the people happy.

In NYC plans are being made for a jazz school at the Music Inn in Lenox for three intensive weeks next summer. Leading instrumentalists will make up the faculty, including John Lewis and Milt Jackson.

Dizzy Gillespie's big band is due at Birdland on Nov. 22.

The Gerry Mulligan quartet will be part of an exchange package to tour Britain in February for some 15 days. The new jazz club in Greenwich Village is called The Pad. The first bill combined Art Blakley and Tony Scott combos.

WASHINGTON

PEARL BAILY'S greatest revue now plays the Howard stage and is classed as possibly the best variety show ever seen in the history of the Tea Street showshop. Featured are Louis Bellson's 24-piece band, under Don Redman's direction; Condos and Brandow, Thelma Carpenter, Bill Bailey, Howell and Radcliff, the Phillip Borte dancers and a line of lovelies labeled "The Twenties."

Urges Iowans take up slack in NAACP line

DES MOINES, Ia.—"Take up the slack for the South," where the NAACP has been enjoined from operation in three states, with perhaps more to come.

That request was made Sunday by Dr. John A. Morsell, assistant NAACP executive secretary, as he addressed the closing session of the Iowa State Conference of NAACP Branches here.

DR. MORSELL described the series of punitive and restrictive actions against the NAACP as an effort to blunt its effectiveness by dissipating its resources in lengthy court proceedings.

He voiced confidence that the storm would "be weathered," but that the fight would require "the utmost in our devotion, in our energies and in our substance."

ART INSPIRATION AT BENNETT — Miss Joan Didier of Jamaica, B.W.I., freshman art student, admires painting of college's Annie M. Her work has won high praise from critics.

IN THE NATION'S CAPITAL:

Lautier sees Asia and Africa backing U.S. stand in Suez

By LOUIS LAUTIER (For NNPA)

WASHINGTON

Asian and African nations will back the position of the United States branding Britian, France and Israel as aggressors in attacking Egypt and occupying Egyptian territory.

These nations view Britain and France as the last exponents of the colonial system and as being leagued together to defeat the aspirations of the peoples of North Africa for independence and self-government.

The Asian and African countries are determined to root out colonialism wherever it may exist.

Since 1945, independence has been achieved by Lebanon, Syria, Jordan, Israel, Libya, India, Pakistan, Nepal, Ceylon, and recently the Sudan.

Other millions in the Middle East, South Asia and Africa are striving for independence under the principle of self-determination.

• • •

THE MIDDLE EAST, South Asia and Africa are important to the political and strategic security of the United States.

More than 60 percent of the world's proven oil resources, providing 75 percent of western Europe's requirments and 20 percent of the entire world's requirements, are found in the Middle East and Africa.

Palestine is the biggest problem in the Middle East. Israel occupies the major portion of Palestine. Arabs and Jews are Semitic people, but the Arabs are mixed with natives of northern, eastern and central Africa.

• • •

THE ARAB WORLD was hostile to the Zionist movement for a national home for the Jewish people in Palestine.

But the British Government favored the plan, and the United Nations General Assembly voted Nov. 29, 1947, to partition Palestine into two states — the Arab State and the Republic of Israel.

A million Arabs were driven from their homes, deprived of their property, and became refugees. And there has been no peace in the Middle East since.

Armed attacks were begun by Syria, Egypt, Iraq, Lebanon, Saud-Arabia and Jordan. Border clashes have continued, particularly with Egypt, a strip given Egypt by an armistice commission as a refuge for displaced Arabs.

• • •

SECRETARY OF State John Foster Dulles proposed Aug. 27, 1955, a program to end hostilities, calling for an international guarantee of Israeli-Arab borders. Israel and Egypt accepted an UN truce proposal Sept. 4, 1955.

The United States had under consideration participation in the building of the Aswan Dam in Egypt — a major project. The United States, Great Britain and other countries considered providing further support.

• • •

LAST SUMMER, America withdrew from the project. Then, on July 26, the Egyptian Government seized the Universal Suez Canal Company which had been operating the Suez Canal, and took over its operation.

President Nasser of Egypt said the profits from the operation of the canal would be used by Egypt to build the Aswan Dam.

Britain and France, which controlled the Universal Suez Canal Company, threatened to use force. The United States dent Nasser of Egypt rejected the proposal for a "canal users" plan.

• • •

THE UNITED NATIONS Security Council adopted six principles to govern the solution of the Suez problem. But one part of the resolution calling for international control of the canal met with a veto by Soviet Russia.

On Oct. 29, Israel commenced military action against Egypt in violation of the armistice agreement between the two countries.

With Israeli troops on Egyptian soil, President Nasser rejected an ultimatum to Egypt and Israel calling on them to withdraw their military forces to a distance 10 miles from the Suez Canal.

• • •

BRITISH AND French forces then attacked Egypt for the purpose of occupying Port Said, Ismalia and Suez on the canal.

President Eisenhower still believes that it is possible through the United Nations to settle the issues in the controversy by peaceful means and restore the armistice conditions between Egypt and Israel as well as bring about a just settlement of the Suez Canal controversy.

My Luck Charm

MRS. MILDRED RUSSELL

This statement was made by Mrs. Mildred Russell of Newport News, Virginia: "I believe the promise that God made to Moses, I saw the advertising of the Manzuah and sent for one! Since receiving it, I have had nothing but LUCK. My enemies are now my friends. I have money and the bad luck cross has left me.

I believe in the Manzuah, in the Shield of Faith as millions of others do, I believe it is a Divine Omen of good luck and a protection against evil and misfortune. I feel it has made my life worth living, and a happy one, because of all the good things that have happened to me. When I went to see "Doc" Anderson later, I could well understand why so many people have so much faith in him."

The Manzuah is a beautiful piece of jewelry about one inch long, with the Divine promise inscribed inside, and it may be worn around the neck with pride and joy. The price is very small for such a wonderful luck charm: ONLY $3.00 Cash and 3c in stamps, or pay the postman $3.00 plus Charges. USE YOUR ORDER NOW TO:

India 'delights' Selassie with 'ever closer' contact

BOMBAY, India—(NNPA) — Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia, upon his arrival here last week expressed the hope that his visit would result in closer understanding and "more effective collaboration between India and Ethiopia."

In a brief speech, he said:

"We are delighted to be on Indian soil after having looked forward for so many years to visiting your great nation, and to gaining an intimate and first-hand knowledge of this great immense sub-continent and making direct contact with the leaders of your national life.

• • •

"Our two countries have long enjoyed the closest collaboration and sympathy in our common affairs, in the work of the United Nations and in matters of particular interest to the peoples of Asia and Africa.

"We are sure that this visit will increase our knowledge of and confidence in one another and our effectiveness in ever closer cooperation."

Earlier, M. C. Chagla, acting governor of Bombay, welcoming the emperor, said Selassie's visit to India would further strengthen the bonds of friendship between the two countries.

• • •

THE INDIAN PEOPLE are watching with interests the progress of the Ethiopian nation, and the visit of Selassie to this country was an event of rejoicing to the Indian people.

In his eight-mile drive to the Raj Bhawan (residence of the governor), the emperor was cheered by an estimated crowd of 50,000 which lined the entire route.

Egypt row can be settled — Bunche

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (ANP)—Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, the man who silenced the guns in the Middle East crisis of 1949 and won a Nobel Peace prize, is confident that Middle East disputes can be settled by talks rather than by guns.

Dr. Bunche last week was named head of a three-man "watchdog" committee established to report on the compliance of Britain, France and Israel with the General Assembly's call for a "cease fire" in Egypt.

On his 1949 Palestine mission, Dr. Bunche worked 18 hours a day and insisted on drafting virtually all messages involved in the settlement, although he had a large, competent staff.
