Equal Employment Commission to seek interim director

The Equal Employment Opportunities Commission held its third meeting Thursday at City Hall. George Schermer, director of the Philadelphia Human Relations Commission, was the guest speaker.

The meeting was primarily concerned with the appointment of a staff and a director. On the suggestion of Richard W. Emory, commission chairman, the commission will meet Monday with the City Service Commission to seek the appointment of an interim director.

cent of their votes.

IN ADDITION to showing a swing toward Mr. Eisenhower, the AFRO poll also disclosed that the most important issue that concerned the voters was that of civil rights.

There was only scattered mention of foreign affairs and the respondents, regardless of the candidate they selected, usually gave a party's record on civil rights as the factor that influenced their decision.

Listed below are the answers gained in the latest AFRO poll:

MISS GLORIA ROBINSON, teacher, 1816 Chase St.:

"I am voting for Eisenhower because I think he has done a good job.

"Things are better under the present administration and their views on civil rights are better.

JOHN DORSEY, tailor, 1838 Ashland Ave.:

"Ike for me. I think he has been fair to people. We have done well under his administration."

MRS. ELSIE FRENCH, housewife, 1202 Myrtle Ave.:

"Eisenhower is my choice. He will make a better president than Stevenson.

"I think we are better off under the GOP because they are better qualified to run the government."

MRS. OSSIE CARTER, housewife, 1721 Pulaski St.:

"Stevenson for me. I like him much better than I do the Republicans.

"Under the Democrats we were better off because they did more for the colored citizen."

GEORGE WADDELL, custodial, 619 Sterling St.:

"I am going to vote for Eisenhower because I am in favor of him. He said he was going to bring my boy home from Korea and he did.

"I am better off under the Republicans. They gave me work and the Democrats give you a handout."

MRS. ANNA STRAUGHN, public health nurse, 3209 Burleigh Ave.:

"Stevenson. I feel that his political views are more beneficial to our people than are those of Eisenhower. I've listened to both candidates and I feel that Eisenhower intends to do nothing about the Southern states and their integration actions.

"I am better off, but not because of any political party."

SYBIL COWLES, beautician, 1500 block Fulton Ave.:

"Stevenson. I like him because of the intelligent manner in which he presents his proposals. I think he will make a good president.

"No, I'm no better off now than I was before."

VICTOR McQUIRE, mechanic, 800 block Mosher St.:

"Eisenhower. Because we might be in war any moment and we need a man who can perform under those circumstances.

"Sure I'm better off. I've gotten two raises since '52 that I don't think I would have gotten otherwise."

NATHANIEL RANTIN, longshoreman, 125 W. Cross St.:

"Stevenson is the man for the job. In my opinion he's the best. Besides, I've been a Democrat all my life."

JAMES HUDSON, unemployed, 130 Winter St.:

"Eisenhower has done all right so far. I'm for giving him another try.

"I'm going to vote for him because he's good for the country."

ROBERT BEUCHANAN, stevedore, 1123 Madison Ave.:

"I'm going to vote for the best man for the job. That's Eisenhower.

"I hear talk that the country is in bad shape when the Republicans are in. I don't believe that."

MRS. PEARL STEWART, 112 W. Cross St.:

"I'm for the Democrats and Stevenson. He's got great plans for this country.

"I've been voting for 20 years and always for the Democrats."

MRS. ROSE BROOKS, 301 Key Ave., Patapsco Park:

"The Democrats are what I want and the Democrats are who I'm going to vote for.

"What have the Republicans ever done good?" *

MRS. BETTYE JONES, 1015 Creek St.:

"I'm going to vote for Eisenhower. He knows what he's doing. I don't know what this other man intends to do or what he can do."

MRS. RUDY SNEAD, housewife, 1600 N. Payson St.:

"I haven't decided yet, but I think it's going to be Stevenson. I think he has done a lot for colored people. I don't think I am better off now. I think when Roosevelt was in, everybody was better off."

W. P. WATSON, retired chef, 2354 McCulloh St.:

"Eisenhower and Nixon. They have tried to break down school segregation. Yes, I am better off. I receive a nice pension. I am a registered Democrat but I am going to vote Republican. I think it has been a fine administration. Don't you?"

MRS. EVELYN LINDSAY, barmaid, 2353 Druid Hill Ave.:

"I'm for Stevenson. If he does what he says, he will do more for colored people than Eisenhower has done. I don't think I am better off. It's just about the same so far as I am concerned. Better homes were in effect before Eisenhower went in.

* * *

MRS. INEZ CARTER, housewife, 2349 Druid Hill Ave.:

"Yes, I think I am better off, but I am voting for Stevenson."

MELVIN RANDOLPH, engineer, 2347 Druid Hill Ave.:

"I'm going to vote for President Eisenhower. I think his administration hasn't been bad. I don't have anything against Stevenson, but in times like these, I think we need an experienced man.

"I feel that I am better off. I make more money, now. I have more money to bring home."

MRS. HOWARD BARRIER, housewife, 2345 Druid Hill Ave.:

"We are for Eisenhower. We like Eisenhower. I think conditions are much better."

MRS. ANNIE OWINGS, housewife, 2343 Druid Hill Ave.:

"I'm a Republican. No special reason. I just follow the Republican ticket. My parents were Republicans. I can't say I am better off."
