AT HARLEM—The most hilarious scratching, biting and kicking free-for-all ever staged by a flock of ferocious females is a highlight of M-G-M's "The Opposite Sex," now playing at the Harlem Theatre, sophisticated comedy-drama showing up the ladies as men-seldom see them. Scrambled up in this no-holds-barred scene are Ann Miller, June Allyson and Agnes Moorehead, with Dolores Gray at the bottom of the pile.

WORK FOR NOTHING — This hole represents a plan that went astray. Burglars chopped a hole through the basement wall of 1412 Pennsylvania Ave., with the intention of entering the basement of 1414 and then proceeding through the floor into the Comedy Club at that address. The hole was discovered by William Clinton, shown above, when he entered the basement at 1414. The would-be burglars left in such haste that they left their flashlight and a screwdriver. They failed to enter the club.

Moments Musical

The Symphonic Band of Morgan State College, which is directed by Dr. R. Hayes Mirder, has been invited to give a concert at Westtown School a preparatory Quaker boarding school located near Philadelphia.

This marks the beginning of an eastern tour for the band which will perform at the Homecoming of A. and T. College in Greensboro Oct. 27.

The third issue of Morgan's "News Letter" for the college bands has been attracting considerable attention in the Music Department of the college and on the campus in general.

Mail-Box: The Melo-Notes, directed by William (Bill) Myers in Capitieux France with the Army, took part in the base finals at Merignac recently.

The group won first place and will go to Paris to compete in the Northwestern finals Oct. 30. Myers, who entered as a vocalist, also won in the competition. The band personnel is: William Thomas, bass; Wallace Evans, drums; Eddie Marinare, saxophone; Bill Myers, leader and pianist.

STROLLING the AVENUE

That must have been one terrific show that the soldiers at Aberdeen saw last Sunday thanks to the work of Doc Weingast who lined up the artists, arranged for the transportation, supervised the production, and then if that wasn't enough, turned around and acted as master of ceremonies.

On the bill were such redoubtable talents as Buddy Pittman, Chano Kimbalana with the bongos, Calvin Wilson, Ned Beverly, Shanghi Lil Hall, William "Fats" Elliott, Bill Robinson, Charles Stevens, the Four Quartz, Rudolph Pittman, the Honky Tonks, Lottie Mae Johnson and Doris Jefferies.

To welcome the group there was the charming Miss Edwina L. Young, director at Aberdeen, and Miss Natalie B. Harris, program director.

WONDER WHY it is that a number of clubs schedule their openings for Tuesday night. We don't know the reason but we do know that you'll have yourself a good time on Tuesday, Oct. 30, when the Warwick Bar and Lounge, 1660 Warwick ave., has its grand opening.

The club is located at the corner of Presbury St. and the management is advertising the best in drinks and cocktails and package goods to go.

Grapevine has it that Sally Blair, the Baltimore miss, is skedded to take a role in a show with Cab Calloway. The singer also reported turned down a hefty piece of sugar, in the neighborhood of $1,500 per week, for a gig in Nevada.

Currently at a Long Island nitery, Miss Blair is attracting a lot of attention from the big town scribes and cafe society set.

EVER HEARD "Will You Be Mine" or "Dearest" on the King label. If you have then without a doubt you'll want to see the Swallows, the outfit that cut the records.

They are at the CLUB UBANGI up on Pennsylvania Ave., and the outfit features Earl Hurley on the guitar and Eddie Rich as vocalist.

The CLUB 511, whose address is 511 Fremont Ave., is offering the music talents of Dottie Sterns and her organ trio. The group gives forth every night and on Sunday there is a matinee from 4 to 7 p.m.

CLUB TIJUANA is featuring this week at its Saturday afternoon jazz session the Contemporary Jazz Quintet. The outfit includes Vernon Welsh on the guitar, Bill James on piano, Ben Cerquetto on drums, Jim Ryder on tenor sax and James Jefferson on the bass.

The regular feature at the club is Eddie "Lockjaw Davis. Of note is the fact that on Sunday, Oct. 28, the Glamourettes will hold a cocktail party from 4 to 7 p.m.

"SUSIE Q" that's not the name of an almost forgotten dance but the handle applied to a new drink being served up at MEL's TAVERN, 2259 Reisterstown Rd.

MEL's is the only place in town with the Susie Q and that they tell us that its a humdinger. There's also some delicious food prepared by Mrs. Helen Jones.

Frank Minon, Billy Fox, Dot and Dash are making the evenings exciting at RICTOR's RED FOX LOUNGE. Ditto for the job that the Pace Setters, Lawson Vessells and Jerome Berry are doing at CHICK'S.

Hallow'en should be plenty of fun if you attend the party at DOTSON'S TAVERN on Wednesday, Oct. 31, from 10 until 2 with music by the Big Toppers. The tavern is located on Furnace Branch Rd. just this side of Glen Burnie.

The CASINO is offering the music of Pete Martin and his outfit. JONES COCKTAIL LOUNGE has Jerry Nelson, and its Irvin Bean at the ASTORIA. That's it. Have fun.

Unbeaten foes battle in stadium Saturday

Tenn. favored over Maryland in Capital Classic

WASHINGTON

Tennessee State University rated a slight favorite over Maryland State College as the two unbeaten elevens prime for the big test and angling for national recognition, awaited Saturday nights contest at Griffith Stadium.

The undefeated intersectional foes will get their toughest tussle of the current campaign in the 15th annual Capital Classic, with upward of 20,000 fans expected to see the gridiron action.

Tennessee's powerhouse, with a 4-0-0 record, has rolled up 157 points to opponents' 13, while Maryland, its 13 straight streak marred by a 7-7 tie with N.C. College last Saturday faces the Mid-Eastern Colts with a 4-0-1 record for the year.

* * *

THE EASTERN Shore Hawks have amassed 103 points to foes' 20, and move into the classic as undefeated CIAA champions. Although twice tied, the charges of Vernon (Skip) McCain have never lost a CIAA contest.

The Hawks boast of the most impressive record in recent football history, with 73 wins, 5 losses and 2 ties since 1947 winning streak from 1948 to with a 25-game consecutive winning streak from 1948 to 1951 as the high spot.

Last season, they were unbeaten and untied with a 9-0-0 record, and to date have scored over Virginia State, Hofstra, Hampton and A. and T. and tied N.C. College.

* * *

TENNESSEE, under a new coach, Howard Gentry, has victories over Langston, Grambling, Prairie View and Central State this year after a 7-2-0 mark in 1955, with the losses to Langston and Grambling both of whom were smothered this season.

Both teams play hard, smart football and there is little to choose between them along weight lines. Maryland averages 192 pounds per man, while Tennessee has a 191.4 average.

The slight edge for Maryland is in the backfield where the Hawks average 175 against the Tigers' 171, but on the line both have four players over 200 and the weight average is 203 to 202 with Tennessee holding the edge.

* * *

INDIVIDUAL Stars are a dime a dozen, with the Tiger backfield including the touchdown twins, Percy (Mr. Outside) Hines, Jesse (Mr. Inside) Wilburn, Fay Mitchell and the slick passing Bob Crawford.

Maryland matches this quartet with John Sample, two-time All-American; Stanley Jones, Andy Dement and Don Burns.

The Tiger ends are Leon Jamison and Napoleon Holmes, tackles, Willie Cooley and Charlie Gaskins, guards, Tom Maple and Jim Buford, with Floyd Johnson at center. Cooley, Maple and Johnson are all 200-plus pounders.

* * *

THE HAWKES HAVE Vernon Vaughn and Bill Jordan at ends; Roosevelt Turner and Harold Cooper, tackles; Charles Johnson and Raleigh Evans, guards and Alfred Jiles, center. Turner is 230, with Evans and Cooper also 200-pounders.

Both teams have sharpened their aerial attacks during pregame, drills and everything points to a hard fought, hustling contest. It is the beginning of athletic relations between the two institutions.

* * *

CLASSIC activities begin at 1 p.m., with a street parade on 9th St., NW, and continue with a preliminary game between the Blessed Martin Church and Cardozo High School junior varsity at the stadium, at 7:30.

The illuminated Booker T. Washington High School Band of Norfolk, Va. and the crowning of "Miss Capital Classic" will highlight the half-time ceremony.

DURHAM, N.C. — Dr. Albert W. Tucker, chairman of the department of mathematics at Princeton University, is slated to deliver four lectures at North Carolina College on Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 22 and 23.

CHARLIE'S TESTIMONIAL TO THE PEOPLE

Charles P. Tilghman, civic leader and owner of the Sphinx Club, Tuesday night received a citation for outstanding community service at a dinner party attended by more than fifty prominent citizens.

Mr. Tilghman, known as "Charlie" to his friends, told reporters that and contributions he has made to the community have been made possible by his friends and members of the Sphinx.

"Charlie then announced that on Monday, Oct. 29 and Tuesday, Oct. 30, he will hold a testimonial at the club, 2107 Pennsylvania Ave., for the persons responsible for the tribute paid him.

"Charlie's Testimonial To Members, Potential Members and Friends" is his way of saying "Thanks" to those who have enriched his life.

On Monday and Tuesday refreshments will be "On The House" from 8 to 10 P.M. "The Sphinx Club Termites" will play tunes sung by the "Sphinx Old Timers."

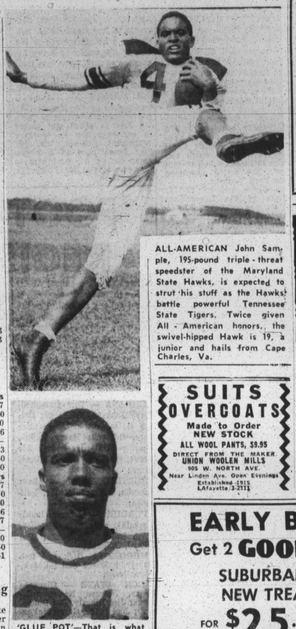
H.U. athletes compete in Lincoln homecoming

WASHINGTON

Lincoln athletes will compete with Howard athletes in soccer and cross country at Lincoln University (Pa.) homecoming.

The soccer game is scheduled for 10:30 a.m. and the cross country event will get under way about 11 a.m.

A full schedule of events will take place at the observance celebrations.



ALL-AMERICAN John Sample, 195-pound triple-threat speedster of the Maryland State Hawks, is expected to strut his stuff as the Hawks battle powerful Tennessee State Tigers. Twice given All-American honors, the swivel-hipped Hawk is 19, a junior and hails from Cape Charles, Va.

'GLUE POT'—That is, what his gridiron opponents call Bill Jordan, Maryland State end, from Sparrows Point, Md., who is the Hawks' ace pass receiver. A 23-year-old veteran, he was selected All-American in his sophomore season.

Southern trips Langston with quick aerial thrust

BATON ROUGE, La.—Southern University won its second successive game here last week when the Green Jaugar Cats wore a more experienced Langston Lion aggregation down in the first half and scored an 8-0 victory in the third period.

These ancient rivals pulled every trick out of the bag during the highly exciting first and second quarters of play which Langston definitely dominated. The tilt was bitterly but cleanly fought throughout with a very few penalties for either side.

* * *

THREE TIMES the Lions penetrated deep into the Cat's territory and were halted when their fourth-down passes failed. Langston's passing was far below par as indicated by the fact that the Lions completed but two passes out of 11 attempts and had two intercepted.

The interceptions were certainly timely ones for Southern because they stopped the Lions drives late in the final period when the winners were holding a narrow lead.

Arthur McQueen, one of the three quarterbacks employed by the Cats, punted deep into the Lions' territory, and the ball was finally downed on the five-yard stripe.

A two-yard gain rushing followed by an incompleted forward pass set the stage for a score which Southern made when the Jaguars blocked Curtis Clay's punt attempt that sailed through the end zone for an automatic safety.

* * *

THE REJUVENATED Cats increased this thin lead when McQueen took to the air from the visitors 38-yard marker. J. S. Griffin scored the sole touchdown when he took McQueen's 12-yard pass over his head and raced 26 yards to pay dirt.

Throttle Twisters at Vista Speedway

WASHINGTON

The D. C. Throttle Twisters Motorcycle Club will present an all-star eight race card featuring the "trophy race" between top point scorers Sunday at the Vista Speedway.

Among the riders who will see action are Billy Tyler, Stafford, Va.; Sut Jackson, Baltimore; Bobby King, Washington; Chapel Oaks Hawk, Chapel Oaks, Md.; Newt Swift, San Diego, Calif.; Bobby Mitchell, Baltimore, and Harvey Bigelow Bailey's Cross Roads.

Homecoming set at A. & T. College

GREENSBORO, N.C.—When A. and T. College celebrates its annual homecoming this weekend, returning alumni and former students will be treated to a full program of activity.

The Aggies will meet Morgan State College of Baltimore in the feature event. The rivalry dates back to 1930. Game time is Saturday at 2 p.m.

THERE WILL be a pre game show for early arrivals, beginning at 1 p.m. Miss Josephine Currye will be crowned "Miss A. and T." in halftime festivities.

The weekend festivities get under way Friday with a pep rally at the athletic field beginning at 7 p.m.

SATURDAY'S program includes an alumni coffee hour at 10 a.m.; business meeting of the class of '31, noon; homecoming parade, 12:30 p.m.; class reunion dinner, 6:30 p.m., and homecoming ball at 7 p.m.

Homecoming activities close on Sunday with the annual alumni worship service in Harrison Auditorium at 11 a.m. Paul R. Brown, superintendent of Morrison Training School, Hoffman, N.C., will speak.
