Harrington-Clayton betrothal announced at buffet supper

with Lula Jones Garrett

Colyn Clayton was as cute as a button . . . in a snugly fitted black wool jersey top and swirling brown skirt embroidered in black . . . and blushing like a rose!

Speaking, of course, of Wednesday night . . . at a buffet supper given by her parents, the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Willard I. Clayton (he's pastor of Macedonia Baptist Church) to announce her engagement to Bertram Harrington.

The wedding, which will be during the Christmas holiday season, will connect two of Baptistdom's outstanding clergy families. The bridegroom-elect's parents are the Rev. S. A. Harrington, pastor of New Union Baptist Church, and Mrs. Harrington.

'Tis a quickly blossomed romance, too. They met in July, were introduced by her sister, Carlethea, a Morgan State College student. He is a recent Morgan graduate and a laboratory technician at Johns Hopkins.

Miss Clayton graduated from Coppin Teachers College and is now on the faculty of School No. 111, which she attended first when her parents came to this city.

Guests at the engagement party were:

Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Watts, Messrs. and Mesdames Wesley Smith, Charles Robinson, Clarence Evans, Charles Morris, Fred Gundy,

Messrs. and Mesdames John Satterfield, George Tunstall, William Epps, Daniel Ringgold, Albert Duncan, Leslie Duncan, Thomas Kelly, Thaddeus Green;

Mesdames Josephine Bayard, Alethia Gaines, Thelma Smith, Nellie Watts, Estelle Dawson, Lucy Imes, Nettie Young, Ida Aaron;

Misses Sylvia Tilghman, Doris Rieks, Shirley Dean and Yvonne Hicks.

THESE TOWN women do the most intriguing things!

Here I thought Alma Redden was spending her entire time futoring the younger generation, and she was having her off hours, dabbling in millinery.

So, come Sunday, she is going to show a collection of her hats, along with Christina Anderson's skill in make-up at her Brooks' Lane place.

And Loretta Watty, dashing about town, noted with excitement the hobbies her friends are engaged in, decided to have a pre-holiday exhibit of them.

So, along with her exceptional Christmas cards, she's going to have her own private bazaar on Sunday afternoon at her Carey St. place.

Along with sips of your punch you will see a batch of homemade ceramics, costume jewelry, hats, etc . . . even fruit cakes. You won't be able to buy . . . but you may be able to inveigle an order or so.

And the Morgan College Faculty and Trustee Wives have invited their husbands to share in the meeting, this Sunday.

They plan to discuss the part the club can play in life on the campus, via a panel, on which will be Drs. George Grant, dean of the college; Eugene Byrd and G. James Fleming. The meeting will be at five, in Truth Hall.

Mrs. Bruce Alleyne, president of the Maryland League of Women's Clubs, ironed out "President's brunch," which will be held on Saturday morning, when all presidents and one member from each of the club affiliates will confer and break bread together, as is the annual custom.

The League's affair will be held at Coppin State Teachers College, beginning at 10:30, and has been designed to give the club heads a keener insight into the program of the League and a more thorough understanding of their responsibilities as leaders.

The League's affair will be held at Coppin State Teachers College, beginning at 10:30, and has been designed to give the club heads a keener insight into the program of the League and a more thorough understanding of their responsibilities as leaders.

The Baltimore Council of the National Council of Women, has garnered Miss Mary Kagwa, of Uganda, East Africa, as speaker for their tea on Sunday afternoon at five at the YWCA.

Miss Kagwa, who is studying dentistry at Howard University, is South Africa and England educated. Mrs. Jennie Walburg of Washington, regional supervisor, will discuss the Council's program on the national level. Dr. Maybelle Weaver, president of the Baltimore club, will preside.

Mrs. Salome Fuller is chairman of the program . . . she is being assisted on the committee by Mrs. Ruby Rand, Mrs. Melba Green, Mrs. China Dean, Mrs. M. Russ, Mrs. Margaret Jones and Mrs. Jeanetta Wilson, general program chairman.

AND SO, for the news to come. As to the news of the past week:

past week:

The Baltimore Urban League Guild, holding its October session at the League Building, featured an Orientation Period. The League's professional staff

Dr. Furman Templeton, Fred Z. Nichols and David Glenn . . . interpreted the League's philosophy and program, and the Guild's relationship to the overall program.

Bernyce W. Welling presided. Ruth Lee and Gloria Fisher, chairmen of the Beaux Arts Ball, presented their plans for the affair which will be held at the Famous Ballroom in April.

At the meeting were:

Chessie Brailey, Ruth Drew, Margaret Faison, Edith Fields, Gloria Fisher, Fannie Glascoe, Marguerite Haley, Margaret Hill, Ruth Lee, Virginia Broady, Ruth Clayton, Olivia Dixon, Joan Sheppard, Louise Taylor, Catherine Torrence, Ruth Crawford, Juanita Young, Iradelle Penn, Bernice White, Olivia Boy, Mary Utley and Mrs. Welling.

THE 5-6 Jacks and Jills held their first activity, a Tramp Through the Woods out St. Georges Ave. Saturday. Helen Nash is the age-group chairman and the kids enjoyed grilling hot dogs, roasted marshmallows on a beautiful fall day in the woods.

Kids about were Kenneth Weaver, Tai Thompson, Roxanne Chisholm, Reynold and Heber Leighston, Ruth White, Douglass Walker, Franklin Jones, Alice Pinderhughes, Emerson and Roseanl Julian, William E. Spencer Jr. Jo Ann Jones, and Peter Nash.

Mothers participating were Hermione Weaver, Phyllis Thompson, Ruth Leighston, Ruth White, Alice Pinderhughes, Roseanl Julian, Gwenevere Spencer, Gladys Jones, Helen Nash and Jeannette Chisholm.

A GROUP of teachers got together last Friday night after the teachers' meeting here in Baltimore, at the J. Sidney Sheppards on Ellicott Driveway.

The Sheppards' guests were:

The Theodore Hensons from Easton; Heleh Butler; Arthur Neal, Mariottesville; Martha Henson, Salisbury; Wayman Nutter, Salisbury; William Clarke; the Eugene Parkers; James Cassells; Earl Smith; Warren Goldsborough; Katharine Peck and the Bernard Norrises.

PEREGRINATORS: Dr. and Mrs. E. F. Jones (she's the former Josephine LeCato) are here for a fortnight. They are the house guests of Lester Norris. Mrs. T. Henry Waters has been in Louisville, Ky., this week . . . because of the death of her brother.

And Mrs. Ruth Shipley left for Pittsburgh, Pa. to be with her friend, the former Edith Rayn, whose husband, Marvin Schrader died suddenly, Sunday. Mrs. Schrader is also the father of Lois Golden, technician with Dr. Salk (polio vaccine) and Marvin Schrader, Jr.

Elva Jones Dulan, who formerly was at Provident Hospital, here, was hosting Dr. and Mrs. Henry Welcome who stopped off in Denver, Col. on their jaunt from California.

Mrs. Dulan is with the Public Health Department in Denver. The Welcomes met all the medical group, including Dr. Bernard Gipson, who took his surgical training at Freedmen's, Dr. Edward Nowel, who trained at People's Hospital, St. Louis, Dr. Charles Blackwood of the University of California, all practicing in Denver.

The Welcomes had a gay, gay time in Los Angeles. Had been entertained by the Paul Williames (architect), Mrs. Williams being a Link; and by Dr. and Mrs. William Beck. Dr. Beck was formerly of Meharry . . . in fact spent 25 years there before setting up his seven-employee staff in L. A.

Dr. and Mrs. Howard Allen entertained Dr. and Mrs. Welcome at dinner, and their cousin, Rex Freeman, attorney, was host at dinner and the theatre at the Moulen Rouge in Hollywood.

But what pleased Dr. Welcome no end was that he had ar opportunity to visit a former teacher, Miss Alice Ward Smith, who is now with the Juvenile Delinquency Division of the Police Dept. in Los Angeles.

YOU CAN'T PRINT THAT: There's a gal about town more or less bowled over about a certain bachelor and who doesn't consider it any insurmountable task to take a few extra steps to keep up with what he is doing when he isn't doing what he is doing with her.

Though why she goes to 'all that trouble, as pretty as she is, is beyond me. But like the old woman who kissed the cow . . .

Well, anyway, not too long ago she did a bit of high-power detecting and broke up what looked like might break up her romance. Now, she has another job on her hands. This time a very young, much discussed and not bad to look at widow.

MEMBERS OF Iota Chapter, Lambda Kappa Mu Sorority, met Saturday at the YWCA for a regular monthly meeting. The new basileus, Naomi Johnson, has made a flying start with plans for the ensuing year.

Hostesses for the October meeting, Sorors Louise Anderson, Naomi Johnson, Mamie Knox and Doris Davis, used the Halloween Theme in decorations and their delightful repast.

Finishing touches were added to final plans for the Annual musical tea, that Soror Mary Owens is chairing, to be held at the Greenmount Recreation Center, Sunday, 4 to 7 p.m. The purpose is to secure a television set for the center and to also aid in building the scholarship fund. Your ticket purchase will aid both of these worthwhile causes, give you an evening's entertainment with refreshments, and in addition give you an opportunity to chat with so very many of your friends.

By the way, Soror Lena King Lee, was appointed chairwoman of the five community agencies. The leaders included:

Mrs. Majorie Halligan, of the National office of the Red Cross, Washington, D.C.; Mrs. Mary Helen Merrill, Red Cross, assistant director of the Office of Volunteers, National Office, Washington, D.C.; Mrs. Bea Gmeska, Girl Scouts; Mrs. Ellen Fisher, volunteer worker of the administrative board, YWCA; Dr. Furman Templeton, executive director Baltimore Urban League; Mrs. Boggield Prior, Baltimore Chapter Red Cross Volunteers.

GRAND CHAPTER leaders who conducted sessions were headed by Dr. Jeanne Noble, assistant dean of women, City College of N.Y.; Mrs. Catherine Carrington, psychiatric social worker, Hampton, Va.; Mrs. Laura Fox, executive director of the YWCA, Winston-Salem, N.C.; and Mrs. Jennie D. Taylor, eastern regional director.

Mrs. Vivian Washington is president of Epsilon Sigma.

Mrs. Rebecca Carroll, was chairman of the Community Service Project for Epsilon Sigma Chapter. The hostesses, group and her committee included: Sorors Lelia Terry, Verda Welcome, Berly Williams, A. Dukeye Wood, Juliette Bragg, Pearl Brackett, Anne Calhoun, Ethel Hucles, Mary Jacobs, Virginia Love, Thelma Nelson, Mary Pitts, Florence Pulley.

ENTERTAINMENT at the luncheon session was presented by Alpha Gamma Chapter, the undergraduate chapter at Morgan, headed by, Soror Janice Green president; Assisting her were Sorors Thelma Moore, Angela Baden, Myrtle Brown, Rose Cureton, Delano Bryant, Roberta Williams, Rheta Brooks, Margaret Tann, Sandra Williams, Ellen Moultrie, and Mary Henley.

The purpose of Delta Volunteers for Community Service as outlined by Dr. Jeanne Noble is to encourage Delta Women to take a responsible part in their community life, and project the resources of 20,000 capable Delta college women into the community and nation.

Local chapters in the Eastern Region were urged to set up a plan of volunteer service that will have every Delta, gather the necessary information about community agencies.

A DESSERT Hour was held at the Morgan Christian Center at 8 p.m. in honor of the out-of-town guests to which community leaders were invited: Soror Evelyn Bass, chairman of the Epsilon Sigma Hospitality Committee, presided at the beautifully deeked coffee table.

Soror Mae Allen, past grand president, introduced the guests and Soror Jeanne Noble outlined the objectives of the program.

Guests were:

Mesdames Letitia Ashe, Urban League Board; Mrs. Parthlett Moore, Dean Grace Jacobs, of Coppin State Teachers College; Dr. Ruth Brett Quarles, Guidance Department of Morgan State College; Dr. Thelma Bando, Dean of Women Morgan; Soror Mary Spellman, assistant Dean Morgan; Mrs. Earl Turner and Mrs. Mae Allen, Area 4 co-chairmen of the Community Fund; Mrs. Mary Frazier, Howard Alumni; Mrs. Vivian Alleyne, Md. League of Women's Clubs.

Out of Town Sorors included: Hattie Young and Ruth Outlaw, Beta Sigma Chapter, Washington, D.C.; Rose Wiseman, Mary Brown and Ethel Wilson, Gamma Omicron Sigma, Annapolis, Md.; Hattie Gaines, Delta Pi Sigma, Cambridge, Md.; Mae D. Holmes, Gamma Kappa Sigma, Rocky Mount, N.C.

Local sorors present were:

Miriam Winborne, Frances P. Hill, Lillian O'Daniel, Muriel Davis, Frances Gaines, Harriett Jones, Kathleen Carter, Ida M. Smith, Inez Reed, Rubye Gill, Minnie B. Cesar, Gladys Sheppard, Martha Gover, Dorothy Barrick, Frances Stith, Grace Burkett and Ruth Lighston.

Deltas place community service on spring initiation programs

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority initiates must now voluntarily serve on one of five city agencies, this spring.

The agencies in which they may serve are the YWCA, American Red Cross, Urban League, Girl Scouts and Community Chest.

The ruling was made, Saturday, as the sorority held a workshop on community services at Morgan State College, which was attended by representatives of chapters of the Eastern Seaboard.

At the institute, core leaders analyzed the volunteer services

Elton Fax to exhibit at Sharp Street

The Sharp Street Memorial Methodist Church will sponsor an art show, featuring the internationally famous illustrator, Elton C. Fax, of New York, Friday and Saturday evenings.

Mr. Fax, a native Baltimorean, who grew up in the Sharp Street Community House, recently was the first American artist to be invited to be a guest lecturer at Buenos Aires' internationally famous Museum of Caricature. This guest appearance was such an outstanding success that he was subsequently made an honorary member of that great organization.

The State Department of the United States had chosen Mr. Fax to represent this country on a good will tour of Central and South America. The tour was designed to bring to the citizens of those countries some of the unusual and outstanding work being done by American Negro artists. Among the places he visited were Bolivia, Paraguay, Argentina, Uraguay, Martinique and Panama.

The art show is under direction of the Rev. Julius Carroll, associate pastor at the church.

South Baltimore Notes

By GEORGE W. E. HILL

The Southside witnessed one of its worst traffic accidents in years when a trailer and automobile collided at Fremont Ave. and Paca St., Monday night.

The driver of the passenger car was thrown from his vehicle and killed. The trailer truck ran into a confectionery store owned by Vincent Liberton at 523 Fremont Ave., causing considerable damage to that building and the one next door.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery
Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids
New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.
In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.
Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.
And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!
In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.
All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.
This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H.* Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug stores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Alpha Wives hear Gosnell, Dixon in political bebate

The presidential campaign was fought all over again Tuesday night as the Alpha Wives heard Republican and Democratic viewpoints explained by Councilman Walter Dixon and William L. Gosnell, attorney.

Belittling the Republican claim of Eisenhower's civil rights accomplishments, Mr. Dixon told the girls he was not the least bit impressed and planned to vote the straight Democratic ticket.

"The Democratic Party," he said, "has always been the party for disadvantaged groups and that includes colored people raised wage and enabled millions. We have opened jobs, loans to buy their homes at low interest rates.

"A VOTE for Stevenson is a vote for Eastland," declared Mr. Gosnell, who boasted that he was born a Republican in Maryland and intended to die as one.

"All that has been done in this state to better the lot of my people has been done by the Republicans," he asserted, adding that the Eisenhower administration had lowered the cost of living and had given more jobs to colored people than ever before in history.

THE NEWLY elected president, Mrs. Catherine Adams, in her acceptance speech, declared that her platform was in agreement with the Supreme Court's school decision.

"We, the Alpha Wives," she said, "heartily embrace the principle of desegregation and pledge that we will welcome and not segregate any new members who join our merry throng."

Exciting plans for the 1956-57 year were discussed by the business session. Highlighting these events will be a charity project and a weekend railroad excursion to New York City.

The next meeting was set for November 27 at 910 Edmondson Ave.

MEMBERS PRESENT were:

Mesdames Olivia Dixon, Olyce Proe, Margaret Driver, Louise Dennis, Irene Templeton, Lucille Fitzgerald, Catherine Adams, Mae Pitts, Blanche Hughes;

300 attend Adlai luncheon

Three hundred women from 27 states attended a Ladies' Day for Adlai luncheon at the Shoreham Hotel in Washington on Saturday and heard former President Harry S. Truman tell them that it is "the woman in the precinct rather than the man in the precinct that wins elections."

Greeting the ladies from the four corners of the nation were Mrs. Estes Kefauver, Mrs. Edison Dick, co-chairman of the Volunteers for Stevenson and Mrs. G. Mennen Williams, wife of Michigan's governor. Mrs. C. R. Davis was in charge of arrangements and Mrs. Katie Loucheim, director of women's activities, presided. Congressman William L. Dawson drew a happy response from the audience when he told the gayly bedecked ladies that the luncheon might be serving as a "warm-up for the Inaugural Ball."

A unique program featured "The Democratic Story," which was told in the form of three-minute talks given by Mrs. Eugenie Anderson, former Ambassador to Denmark; Mrs. Edith Sampson, former United Nations representative; Mrs. Anna Arnold Hedgeman, Assistant to the Mayor of the City of New York; Mrs. G. Mennen Williams, wife of the Governor from Michigan.

Mrs. Venice Spraggs, Assistant to the Vice Chairman of the Democratic National Committee; Mrs. Thomasina W. Norford, president of Women United for Civic Action of New York; and Mrs. India Edwards, former Vice Chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

A salute to a "Stevenson-Kefauver Victory from the States" was made briefly by Councilwoman Mrs. Jean Carey of Cleveland, Ohio. Mrs. Lois Irish of New York City; Mrs. Betsova Ward, Democratic leader of Birmingham, Alabama; and Mrs. J. J. Simmons, Muskogee, Oklahoma; Mrs. Todd Duncan, District of Columbia; Mrs. Helen Hall, from Illinois.

Also Mrs. Mercer Mance, Indiana; Mrs. Lillian Hatcher, Michigan, Mrs. Marie Carpenter, New Jersey; Mrs. Gladys Watkins, Oklahoma; Mrs. Sadie T. M. Alexander, Pennsylvania; Mrs. Hobart Taylor, Texas; and Mrs. Oliver Hill of Virginia.

Among those attending the luncheon were:

Mrs. Earl Dickerson, Mrs. John Sengstacke, Mrs. Marva Spaulding, of Chicago;

Mrs. Victorine Adams, Mrs. Vivian Alleyne, Mrs. Olivia Dixon, Mrs. Bernard Harris, Mrs. Bernadine Harrison, Mrs. Lena K. Lee, Mrs. Margaret Mason, Mrs. Katherine Peck, Mrs. James Murphy, Mrs. Lloyal Randolph of Baltimore;

Dr. Arenia Mallory of Lexington, Miss. Mrs. Jeanetta Brown, Mrs. Anne Hedgeman, Mrs. Ercelle Harmon, Miss Pauli Murray, Mrs. Thomasina Norford, Mrs. Marie Poston, Mrs. James Watson, Mrs. Ruth Whaley, Mrs. Roy Wilkins of New York;

Mrs. Jean Capers of Cleveland, Ohio, Mrs. Sadie Alexander, Mrs. Marshall Shepard of Philadelphia, Mrs. Victor Ashe of Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. Vivian Carter Mason, also of Norfolk.

Dr. Margaret Butcher, Mrs. Oscar Shapman, Mrs. Todd Duncan, Mrs. Roy Garvin, Mrs. Bertha Lomack, Mrs. Lois Mehlinger, Mrs. Armond Scott, Mrs. Emory Smith, Mrs. Venice Spraggs of Washington.

"This make-up base checks oiliness, guards against 'shiny' face"
"Greasy, sticky make-up bases caused my make-up to cake. Now that I have changed to Black and White Vanishing Cream as a base, my make-up goes on smoother, stays on longer and keeps its freshly-applied look."
Marie C. Janise Houston, Texas
★ Yes, Black and White Vanishing Cream is the choice of beauty-wise women everywhere! Let it beautify your complexion. Greaseless (can't cause blackheads), checks skin oiliness. Make-up looks
