15 GRAND—That's the sum Rackets Division police estimated was seized when they raided a home in the 2100 block of Fulton Ave. Ironically, bail for two men and a woman arrested there was set at $15,000, Saturday in Northwestern Police Court.

'She died in my arms,' says niece of Mrs. Pryor

She died in my arms M-S

"She died in my arms. She was sitting in the chairs after she had her breakfast.

"She said she was short of breath and tired. I bathed her face and did everything I could for her. She never said anything else, she just passed away."

Mrs. Agnes Underwood was talking on Thursday of the death of her aunt, Mrs. Maggie E. Pryor, 76, 537 Bloom St.

MRS. PRYOR died on Wednesday morning at her home. Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. at Shiloh Baptist Church, Lanvale and Fremont Ave. The Rev. J. Timothy Boddie will officiate.

Prior to her death, Mrs. Pryor had been a patient at Johns Hopkins Hospital as the result of an accident at the Shiloh Baptist Church.

"She was coming out of the church in July when she slipped and fell," said Mrs. Underwood. "Later on they found out that she had a fractured hip. She was in Hopkins until two weeks ago when she came home."

At the time of the accident Mrs. Underwood was in Europe with her husband, Major J. Lenard Underwood. Upon learning that her aunt was to be discharged from Hopkins she made arrangements to return in order to be with Mrs. Pryor who reared her.

Mrs. Underwood and her family reached the states on Oct. 2.

MRS. PRYOR was the widow of Ralph J. Pryor, a retired Pennsylvania Railroad employee, who died several years ago.

She was one of the first members of the Shiloh Church and spent almost 50 years with the institution. She was a former member of the Household of Ruth and church organizations.

She was a native of Virginia. In addition to Mrs. Underwood, Mrs. Pryor is survived by other relatives.

In commenting on the death of her aunt, Mrs. Underwood expressed gratitude to the friends who had helped Mrs. Pryor during her illness.

HOW? By Voting to Re-elect
Senator JOHN MARSHALL BUTLER
If the Democrats have a majority in the Senate, the REACTIONARY SENATORS OF THE SOUTH will control every committee. If the Republicans have a majority, the REACTIONARY SENATORS OF THE SOUTH lose their power to "roadblock" Civil Rights.
Vote for your Republican Senator—
JOHN MARSHALL BUTLER

Here Is What
Governor McKELDIN
Chairman of the Nationalities Division of the Republican National Committee Says about
SENATOR BUTLER:
"John Marshall Butler has been consistently attentive to his duties as a Senator of the United States, and constantly aware of his obligations to the State of Maryland and its citizens.
"While well versed in the broad fields of national and international affairs, he has never lost sight of the opportunities to advance the proper interests of Maryland.
"In the interest of our great harbor facilities . . . the future of Friendship International Airport . . . our overland commerce by rail and highway . . . the general economy of this rapidly growing State . . . and the prosperity of ALL its citizens, the people of Maryland will serve themselves best by re-electing Senator JOHN MARSHALL BUTLER."

GOVERNOR MCKELDIN

"I Will Sincerely Appreciate Your Vote"

In Memoriam 1

BUSH—In memory of our beloved husband, father, grandfather, WILLIE BUSH, who passed away October 20, 1955.
How could our hearts forget you
Willie, when everything we do
Is something that reminds us
Of hours spent with you?
A tribute of everlasting love
Dear Dad, for all that you have done,
We love God has given you,
The rest that you have won.
Beloved Wife,
FANNIE
Devoted Daughter,
EULAH

JOHNSON—In loving memory of my beloved husband, CHARLES, who departed this life October 18, 1955.
Gone but not forgotten.
Devoted Wife,
ESTHER JOHNSON

JOHNSON—In loving memory of my dear husband, CHARLES, who passed away October 18, 1954.
Remembrance is a golden chain
Death tries to break but all in vain
To have, to love, and then to part,
Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.
Loving Wife,
CELIA.

JOHNSON—In loving memory of our dear father, CARROLL W., who passed away October 18, 1949.
Oh, Father dear,
When you were here
We had your tender care,
We never can ever take your place,
Or fill that vacant chair.
You were the sunlight of our homes
Till God took you away.
But we never will forget you
And we'll meet in Heaven we pray.
Loving Children,
ELSIE WILLIAMS,
EMMA WILLIS AND
ROSA JOHNSON.

TAYLOR—In loving memory of our loved one
CAESAR A. TAYLOR, who passed away October 15, 1949.
We have lost a soul companion.
No one knows
our loss and pain
Life has never been the same.
Wife,
ANNA W. TAYLOR
Daughter and Granddaughter,
MILLISENT and LEONA KEENE.

TAYLOR—In loving memory of my dear friend, DANIEL TAYLOR, who departed this life, October 19, 1945.
Time can never take away fond memories.
PINKEY D. BROWN
New York City.

THORNTON—A tribute of love to the memory of our beloved wife, mother and grandmother, MINNIE L., or her birthday, October 20th.
Dearest one, on your birthday
What words can we impart
That would tell the true devotion
We have within our hearts
No words can tell love's message,
But this we know is true.
We miss you as a loving mother—
No mother quite like you.
THE THORNTON FAMILY.

WARD—In loving memory of our mother, HATTIE L. WARD, who passed away October 22, 1953:
From this world of pain and sorrow
To the land of peace and joy
God has taken our dear loved one.
Where you have found eternal rest,
We miss you and love you.
LOVING CHILDREN,
SISTERS AND BROTHERS.

WARD—In memory of my beloved husband, WILLIS W. WARD, who passed away October 22, 1952:
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered: "Peace be thine."
His weary hours, his days of pain,
His even-patient, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Devoted Wife,
GEORGIA WARD.

WATKINS—In loving memory of PINKIE C. WATKINS, who passed away thirteen years ago, October 22, 1943:
Deep in our hearts lies a picture
Of a loved one still dear,
In memory's frameowe shall keep her
Because she was one of the best.
Her Loving Children,
JOHN AND MARY

WEBSTER — In memory of my dear husband and our beloved father, JOSEPH A., who passed away October 18, 1955:
Remembrance is the sunset,
Where the loveliness never dies;
We live in a land of glory,
With the blue and the gold of the sky.
He had a smile for everyone,
A heart as pure as gold.
To those who knew and loved him,
His memory will never grow old.
MABEL G. WEBSTER,
MARGUERITE W. TROY,
DOROTHY W. JONES.
