Jackie is praised by Happy Chandler, ex-czar

LOUISVILLE, KY.— In a recent communication to Jackie Robinson the star who received credit for the sixth game defeat of the New York Yankees by the Brooklyn Dodgers during the recent World Series, Albert Benjamin Chandler, Governor of Kentucky and ex-commissioner of baseball had this to say:

"Dear Jackie, I just want to add my congratulations to the many I know you received for your splendid play in the Series. I was especially proud of you," continued Gov. Chandler, "and of my small contribution to your career when you got that clutch hit in the bottom of the nith in the sixth game.

"PERFORMING UNDER pressure, the ex-czar of baseball continued, "is the mark of a real 'pro' and a real fighter, and you certainly proved yourself just that."

The Governor's communique ended with the following statements:

"I am, of course, sorry that you didn't wind up with world championship, but neither team has anything to be ashamed of after that Series.

"Please give all the Dodgers my best wishes, especially my friend, Pee Wee Reese, who will always be 'The Shortstop' to me. Good luck on your trip to Japan and be assured of my warm, good wishes always—Cordially, A. B. Chandler."

'MR. INSIDE' — James (Mr. Inside) Wilburn, 20-year-old Memphis-born halfback of the Tennessee State Tigers, is one of a trio of backs Maryland State College must stop when the two unbeaten elevens meet in the Capital Classic here Saturday night, Oct. 27.

Top basketball players to vie at Maryland U.

WASHINGTON

Five of the top amateur basket ball players in the country led by Bill Russell of San Francisco University, a member of the Olympic team, will play Oct. 24 at Maryland Student Activity Building for the benefit of the U.S. Olympic Fund.

In addition to Russell, members of the Olympic team are K. C. Jones, also of San Francisco University and Carl Hurley Cain of the University of Iowa.

On the All-Star team assembled to opposed the Olympians will be Guy Rodgers, sparkplug of the Temple University and Harold (Slim) Eaton of Howard.

Russell, who is 6 foot 10 inches tall, averaged 20.5 points per game during a series of 102 games over a period of two years which saw San Francisco run up a string of 27 straight victories.

Jones, while not a tremendous scorer, was invaluable for his floor work in which he could set up plays for Russell. He also was excellent on rebounds and passed very well. Most of his score was by one-handers after a drive toward the basket.

Cain, averaging 16 points in his senior year, ran up the second highest total in his conference for re-bounds. In his hiqrest game, he scored 36 points against the University of Kentucky.

Rovers of the All-Stars was named by every team which played Temple on each team's all-opponents team.

He was named the most valuable player in the Philadelphia area and made the second All-East team. Rodgers, only handicap is his small size, standing only an even six feet.

Eaton, a graduate of Dunbar, is 6 feet 7½ inches tall. In his sophomore year, he averaged 16 points and had an average of 11.3 in re-bounds. He may have the tough job of trying to stop Russell. Helping him will be Lloyd Sharrar of West Virginia, 6' 8" and John Hafer of North Carolina State, also 6' 8".

Preceding the big game will be an All-High vs All Prep game with players from Phelps, Spingarn, McKinley, Anacostia and Chamberlain, including two who tower at 6' 7" and 6' 6".

Bigelow sets record, Jackson cops top ride

WASHINGTON

Sul Jackson, Baltimore, won the feature motorcycle race last Sunday at the New Vista Park Speedway before a crowd of over 1,500 spectators.

Jackson came from the No. 6 spot to overtake Harvey Bigelow of Bailey's Cross Roads, Va. Bigelow was leading the race for 13 laps before going down in the last lap.

Also taking a flip in the same lap were Jimmy Brent and Newt Swift. Bill Corum of Silver Spring, Md., went on to take the No. 2 spot with Billy Tyler of Stafford, Va., in third position. Bobby Kerr of Washington finished fourth.

Bigelow set the fastest time in the trials when he toured the half mile dirt oval track in 28.8 seconds.

Owens to spell Ike at Olympics

WASHINGTON, D.C. (NNPA) —President Eisenhower Monday appointed Jesse Owens, '36 Olympic star, as one of four personal representatives at the 1956 Olympic Games in Melbourne, Australia, Nov. 22 to Dec. 8.

Tony DeMarco edges Gavilan

By CONRAD CLARK

BOSTON (ANP) — Tony DeMarco had to go into his bag of tricks to gain an unanimous 10-round decision over Kid Gavilan Saturday night at the Garden.

The two former welterweight champs fought savagely from the first round until the end in Paris, London and now here, and while there were no knockdowns, there were, many exchanges between the men that landed solidly.

Referee Tom Rawson voted 98-94, Joe Judge Santero, 97-94 and Judge Jim Carrig, 99-97.

Gavilan said he hurt his right hand in the fifth round. "I lose home town decisions I'd like to fight him again," he said.

DeMarco wrenched his shoulder about a week before the fight, but did not reveal the injury, fearful it might hurt him in the fight.

Grambling power crushes Wiley, 51-20

DALLAS, Texas (ANP) — Grambling College crumbled the proud record and fond hopes of Wiley here last Saturday night, 51-20, with a driving running attack that was completely devastating.

The performance was one that the crowd of 10,000 won't soon forget.

Obviously smarting from a 33-0 beating by Tennessee, the Louisiana took command after the opening kickoff and immediately dispelled all Wildcat victory hopes by marshalling three touchdown drives in the first 11 minutes.

Seven 'Huddle' upsets registered on collegiate gridironsthe past weekend

By THE ANP

WASHINGTON

A total of seven upsets were registered on the nation's gridirons the past weekend, as schools rated in The Pittsburgh Huddle's "Baker's Dozen" battled for supremacy in their respective conferences.

In the game of the week, the Maryland State Hawks showed that they retained much of their past power by smashing the A. and T. Aggies, 24 to 6, on the Maryland State gridiron. A. and T. had been rated a favorite in this contest.

* * *

IN OTHER contests, West Virginia State upset mighty Bluefield, 13 to 6; Delaware State smashed favored Johnson C. Smith, 32 to 0; Florence State topped Livingston, 21 to 18; Voorhees eaged Norfolk 14 to 6, and Savannah State swamped Morris, 46 to 0.

Another favorite, Winston, Salem, battled to a 7 to 7 tie with Hampton institute. Fort Valley and Allen U also battled to a 6 to 6 standoff.

HOWEVER, 13 other teams ran true to prediction, Grambling saddened a home crowd of 10,000 in scoring a 51 to 20 victory over Wiley at Dallas, Tex.

Obviously smarting from a recent 33 to 0 drubbing at the hands of the mighty Tennessee, Grambling put on a dazzling display of power to rack up three touchdown in the first 11 minutes. They were never headed in the contest.

* * *

TEXAS SOUTHERN overpowered Texas college, 44 to 20 to hold on to its high rating in the Huddle; Paul Quinn had easy pickings with Leland, winning 40 to 6; Langston tipped Lincoln of Missouri, 14 to 7; St. Augustine scored over St. Paul Polytechnic, 19 to 6; Morgan rode over Howard U. 41 to 0; and Virginia Union stopped Lincoln of Pennsylvania, 31 to 7.

In the SIAC, South Carolina State rolled over Clark, 28 to 0; Tuskegee topped Knoxville, 43 to 18, and Xavier of Louisiana ran over Alabama A and M., 33 to 0.
